WORDS OF WISDOM

The spirit of wisdom, as we discover in today’s first reading, comes to those who pray for her. Wisdom, like the word of God, carries a message of consolation as well as of great challenge. The Letter to the Hebrews tells us that the word of God, infused with the wisdom of God, is “sharper than any two-edged sword.” We cannot shrink from the wisdom of God, or from the word that has the power to penetrate our hearts and minds. Jesus, the living word of God, the embodiment of wisdom, has strong, deeply penetrating words for the rich young man who comes to him seeking answers to his most profound questions. Just when the young man thought he had done enough to fulfill God’s commands, more was asked of him. This is no less true for us.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. (Wisdom 7:7-11).

Psalm — Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy! (Psalm 90).

Second Reading — Indeed the word of God is living and effective (Hebrews 4:12-13).

Gospel — It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God (Mark 10:17-30 [17-27]).

Commentary: Blase Cupich: The Catholic Church 'must remain vigilant' in reporting all abuse

September 26, 2018

By Cardinal Blase Cupich

It has been a season of sorrow, pain and outrage for victims of sexual abuse and all who believed that the Catholic Church had definitively addressed this terrible scandal.

Revelations about Archbishop Theodore McCarrick, whom Pope Francis removed from ministry in July amid sexual abuse allegations, along with the Pennsylvania grand jury report, which detailed hundreds of sexual abuse cases over 70 years, bring home the fact that we face a watershed moment in the history of the Catholic Church. The culture of self-protection, privilege and power that shielded abusers must be eradicated. It reflects a corrupt sense of entitlement without regard for honesty, accountability or, most important, the safety of young people and adults entrusted to our care.

To begin to heal this wound on the soul of the church, we bishops must commit to facing our own failures — by looking into the faces of the victim-survivors and seeing Christ. The decades of walking away from victim-survivors must come to an end. Walking toward them is the only option — it has always been the only option. My determination to root out this abuse and the corrupt culture that enabled it comes from the experience of sitting face-to-face with victim-survivors, listening to their heart-rending stories and trying to address their profound needs. This is not something that can be accomplished remotely. No, it must be a personal encounter with those who have suffered unimaginably at the hands of those who promised to protect them.

One of my earliest such encounters came while I was serving as bishop of a largely rural diocese. One day, a man from the area shared his horrific story with me. A priest who had been close to the man's family, he explained, began sexually abusing him when he was just 9 years old. The abuse continued for years, and during that period this cleric would drive the boy to another town and — in a truly demonic attempt to blame the child for the horrors he was made to suffer — force him to confess his "sins" to another priest.

I immediately notified local law enforcement, removed him from ministry and petitioned the Vatican to begin the process that would dismiss him from the clerical state, which would happen shortly thereafter. At the victim-survivor's request, I set up a meeting between the abuser and him. The priest did not deny the allegations. After that meeting, I visited the parish where the abuse took place. I explained to the congregation that one of their former priests had sexually abused one of the children of the parish, publicly invited other victims to come forward and removed the photo of the abuser from the church vestibule.

I have been thinking of that victim-survivor as I see the expressions of offense taken by those hurt by what I said in interviews in late August. It was a mistake for me to even mention that the church has a bigger agenda than responding to the charges in the letter by former papal nuncio Archbishop Carlo Maria Vigano. What I should have said, because it has been my conviction throughout my ministry, is that nothing is more important for the church than protecting young people. I apologize for the offense caused by my comments. It pains me deeply to think that my poor choice of words may have added to the suffering of victim-survivors. For they, like that man who trusted me enough to share his story, deserve our admiration for calling us to purge the church of this evil.

And purge it we must. For listening to the victim-survivors before us is necessary but not sufficient to our cause. Such encounters must lead to action — to a change of hearts, to an improvement of policies and to a reform of a culture that brought about this tragedy.

While the Archdiocese of Chicago began decades ago to implement policies to prevent and address sexual abuse, we must remain vigilant. To move forward as a church, we must establish a new standard of accountability and chart a fresh path for reconciliation. To those ends, I commit the archdiocese to the following steps.

- When church leaders, including bishops, fail in their sacred duty to protect those entrusted to their care, we will press for their removal from ministry.
- We will continue our long practice of reporting all abuse, past and present, to civil authorities.
- We have begun reviewing records of members of religious orders who are residing in the archdiocese. We will make necessary changes to our process of review when a religious order notifies us that one of their members has moved into the archdiocese.
- We will continue to listen to those victim-survivors, actively seeking their input as we work to build a model of authentic healing based on the Truth and Reconciliation Commission.
- As we have in the past, we will engage outside independent experts to review our history, records and policies to help us build up a culture of healing and accountability.

This is our true compass: to see the face of Christ in victim-survivors. To keep them front and center in all we do to address this scandal. This is the only way to inform our reforms, to demonstrate that all who come through our doors are safe, protected by a church that reflects, always and everywhere, God's own love for his children.

CHURCH BUS PILGRIMAGE

Our next Church Bus Pilgrimage will take place on Tuesday, October 16. We will begin the day with the 7 a.m. Mass and depart to Holy Hill National Shrine of Mary in Hubertus, Wisconsin. While there, we will enjoy an overview of the shrine grounds, basilica, St. Teresa Chapel, outdoor Stations of the Cross, and gift shop. At 11:45 a.m., a historical presentation in the Basilica will be offered and we will then enjoy lunch together in the Carmelite Café. At 2 p.m., we will depart back to Lake Zurich.

The cost will be $25/person with lunch at your own expense. Please call the Ministry Center at (847) 438-6622 to register. For more information, please visit www.holyhill.com.

PARISH ALL SOULS' MASS: FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 7 P.M.

In our Catholic tradition, during the entire month of November, we pray for our loved ones who have died. Most especially, we remember them on November 2, the Commemoration of All Souls. All who grieve the loss of someone special, whether recently or years ago, are invited to attend the 7 p.m. All Souls' Mass on Friday, November 2, to pray and light a candle for loved ones who have died.

To remember those whom we mourn in a tangible way and make their presence a part of this special liturgy, you are invited to bring a memento to place on a memory table prior to Mass. The memento might be a picture of your loved one or some other small article that means a great deal to you as you remember them. Following Mass, we invite you to join Bereavement Ministers and Ministers of Care in the Gathering Space to share stories about your loved one over refreshments. As we mourn, each time we tell our story, we take another step in our healing. If you have questions, please contact Mary Manson at (847) 843-9262.

ST. FRANCIS DE SALES PARISH SCHOOL NAMED NATIONAL BLUE RIBBON SCHOOL OF EXCELLENCE!

Seven Archdiocese of Chicago Catholic Schools have been named 2018 National Blue Ribbon recipients, including our very own St. Francis de Sales School! Congratulations to our administration, staff, students, and families under the leadership of Principal Kyle Schmitt and Father Ryan, Pastor, on a job well done! We are proud of our school! See the full news release from the Archdiocese of Chicago below:

Chicago, IL (October 1, 2018) – The Archdiocese of Chicago announced today that seven of its Catholic schools – Cardinal Joseph Bernardin Elementary School (Orland Hills), Queen of All Saints School (Chicago), Sacred Heart School (Winnetka), St. Bede School (Ingleside), St. Francis de Sales School (Lake Zurich), St. Francis Xavier School (Wilmette) and St. Therese School (Chicago) – have been recognized this year by the U.S. Department of Education with Blue Ribbon Awards. The National Blue Ribbon Award is presented to schools based on a school’s overall academic excellence or the school’s progress in closing student achievement gaps. The Archdiocese of Chicago Catholic Schools have received 102 Blue Ribbon Awards, more than any other school system – public and private – in the country.

“I am extremely proud of our Catholic schools for being recognized by the U.S. Department of Education,” said Dr. Jim Rigg, superintendent of Catholic Schools. “The honor of achieving Blue Ribbon designation status reinforces the academic excellence and quality Catholic education we provide students and their families throughout the Archdiocese of Chicago.”

All seven schools were recognized under the category of “Exemplary High Performing Schools,” meaning the schools are among the state’s highest performing schools as measured by state assessments or nationally normed tests. Five of the archdiocese’s 2018 recipients have earned this prestigious honor twice: Cardinal Joseph Bernardin Elementary School (2008), Queen of All Saints School (2008), St. Francis de Sales School (2007), St. Francis Xavier School (2012) and St. Therese School (2011).

Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos recognized 349 schools as National Blue Ribbon Schools for 2018. On November 7-8, the Secretary and the Department of Education will celebrate with 300 public and 49 private school honorees at an awards ceremony in Washington, D.C. The Blue Ribbon Award celebrates the idea that all students, regardless of background, ability or location, deserve an excellent education.

“I’m pleased to celebrate with you as your school is named a National Blue Ribbon School,” said U.S. Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos in a video message to the honorees. “We recognize and honor your important work in preparing students for successful careers and meaningful lives. Congratulations on your students’ accomplishments and for your extraordinary commitment to meeting their unique needs.”

Now in its 36th year, the National Blue Ribbon Schools Program has bestowed recognition on more than 8,800 schools affirming the hard work of educators, families and communities in creating safe and welcoming schools where students master challenging and engaging content.

Catholic high school seniors in the Archdiocese of Chicago graduate at a rate of more than 98 percent. Ninety-five percent of Archdiocesan Catholic high school graduates go on to college, earning millions of dollars in college scholarships each year. Catholic school graduates are committed to helping others through community service, a commitment that continues through adulthood. Catholic school graduates are also civically engaged and can be found in leadership positions in business, government and non-profit organizations.

BUILD/EQUIP FAITH FORMATION SERIES

The Ablaze parish mission is over, and our parish is surely Ablaze with the love of the Holy Spirit. These photos are from the Ablaze mission that took place September 24, 25 & 26. At the end of the evenings, we heard comments from those attending of how alive they felt. Many said they felt true joy and peace in their hearts—even after attending just one evening. The biggest thought-provoking comment we heard was: "Is this really the Catholic church I left years ago?"

The radical hospitality that all experienced began in the parking lot with rides on a golf cart to the church entrance, doors being held wide open with heartfelt greetings of welcome, and beautiful fellowship following Deacon Keith Strohm's thought-provoking presentations. This is what can be accomplished when disciples bear fruit from living a life with the Holy Spirit Ablaze in their lives.

Would you like to grow in your personal relationship with Jesus or are you ready to help others build their relationship with Jesus? It's not too late to begin your journey on this year's discipleship pathways. Our parish is offering two avenues of formation - Build or Equip.

The BUILD pathway (Building your own personal relationship with Jesus) will meet on Wednesday evenings or Thursday mornings. The EQUIP pathway (Equipping you with ways to share Jesus with others) will meet on Tuesday evenings.

Registration is not required but is most appreciated so we can better prepare for your amazing experience.

There are many ways to register:

WORD OF LIFE

"Heavenly Father...give us love for all people, especially the most vulnerable, and help us bear witness to the truth that every life is worth living."

-USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, "Every Life is Worth Living" Prayer Card

THANK YOU, PARISHIONERS!

For the past 8 years, I have served as the Public Relations/Communications Coordinator at St. Francis de Sales. Its been a joy working with many of you to share information about your ministries through the bulletin, website, and e-newsletter, and to assist with your event plans and registrations. As my husband and I prepare to welcome our third son this month, I am stepping away from my duties at St. Francis. Your kindness (and patience!) throughout the years has made my job so enjoyable and I will miss working in collaboration with so many of you.

Thank you to Father Ryan and the Ministry Center staff for always being so accommodating and supportive of my schedule as I worked from various Chicago suburbs and even from Long Island, New York for a year.

Katie McGlauchlin, an active member of our parish, will be taking over my responsibilities. Katie is a graphic and web designer and serves on the Youth Ministry Core Team, Intentional Discipleship Leadership Team, and Women's Retreat Team. She also makes and sells handcrafted devotionals at Knotted with Love (www.knottedwithlove.com) and runs a freelance business, Citrus Leaf Designs, which specializes in custom invitations, hobby websites, and brand development for small businesses. Finally, Katie serves as brand ambassador for the Josh Goodman Music brand.

I will keep you in my heart and in my prayers and hopefully see you around the parish from time to time!

REGISTER FOR THE 2019 WOMEN'S RETREAT!

Join us February 1-3, 2019 as we welcome...Father Britto Berchmans, who will be speaking on:
"Love Notes—How to Build Your Personal Relationship with Jesus"

Former Associate Pastor at St. Anne's in Barrington and current Pastor of St. Paul of the Cross Parish, Father Britto Berchmans envisions the ideal Catholic parish to be a community of disciples who seek to live the example of Jesus as defined in our Catholic tradition.

He holds Master's degrees in Physics, Journalism and Systematic Theology, and a Doctorate in Mass Communications. His ministerial priorities include nurturing Catholic education and the religious formation of children and young people, making faith accessible to today's Catholic and strengthening Christian marriage and family life. Born in India to deeply-committed Catholic parents, Fr Britto is one of seven children. He joined the Salesians of Don Bosco as a young man and was ordained a priest in 1981. We look forward to having Father Britto lead us in our journey of deepening our relationship with Jesus!

Join us Friday afternoon (4 p.m.), February 1 through Sunday, February 3 (until 1 p.m.), 2019 at Marytown to understand these concepts: How to read God's handwriting; The steps to building a relationship with Jesus; The need for forgiveness; Understanding prayer; Serving the Christ among us; Our call to be happy.

Registration is available at www.stfrancisilzparish.org for this wonderful event that includes meals and overnight accommodations at the beautiful Marytown. Come as an overnighter or commuter. We fill every room so make sure you register quickly. Watch for details! Questions? Contact Rose Weismann at Rose.Weismann@gmail.com or 847-975-8005.
