TOO MUCH INFORMATION!

There is a common expression: "Too much information!" We usually use it when people tell us details about their lives that we don't want or need to know. Today, when James and John ask Jesus a simple question, making their request for places of honor in the kingdom, a simple answer might have been in order. Instead, as he often does, Jesus answers a question with a question; today it's about drinking the cup of suffering. Then, once the others are indignant over James and John's outrageous request, he proceeds to give them what may have been "too much information" for followers who were simply interested in the pursuit of glory. But this information, though it can sometimes seem "too much" for us, is essential for our lives as disciples. In Isaiah, in Hebrews, and in Mark today, we learn this information. It is in suffering, in weakness, in self-giving service to others, that we come to understand the kingdom. It is the information we need to find our place and come to be honored in the reign of God.

GROWING DISCIPLES

This column is written by fellow parishioners with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

REDEMPTION

Because Satan misled and confused us about the true identity of our Father and his goodness, we are now easily confused about our identity and relationship with our Creator.

To bring us back in right relationship with our Father,
Jesus, our Savior, was born.

Jesus shows us what we were originally created for – to live in the love of the Father forever and ever.

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

In the Gospel reading for World Mission Sunday, Jesus reminds us of His mission “to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many” (Mark 10:45). Through Renew My Church, we embrace this mission in which He calls us to serve others and give new life in Christ. In celebrating World Mission Sunday, we as members of the Church in the Archdiocese of Chicago proclaim the life-giving presence of Jesus Christ throughout our world.

The World Mission Sunday collection, celebrated worldwide on October 21, provides vital assistance to over 1,000 economically poor dioceses responding to spiritual and material needs across Africa, Asia, and remote areas of Latin America and the Pacific Islands. It also resources churches and religious congregations that accompany people facing poverty, violent conflict, and displacement in the Middle East, Northeast Africa, India and Eastern Europe.

It is my hope that every parish in the Archdiocese of Chicago embraces World Mission Sunday as an opportunity to join with the global Church in making disciples throughout our world, as we are called to do during the Renew My Church process. May our witness inspire others in our Chicago community, especially young people, to embrace the call to love and follow Christ. With every good wish, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

Dear Friends,

In our Catholic tradition, during the month of November, we pray for our loved ones who have died and journeyed into the Light. Most especially, we remember them on or near November 2nd, the Commemoration of All Souls. We invite you to attend a very special liturgy, our annual All Souls Mass, to pray for your loved one. The All Souls Mass will be Friday evening, November 2, 2018 at 7:00pm.

We would like to remember those whom we mourn in a tangible way, and make their presence a part of our liturgy, so you are invited to bring a memento to place on our memory table prior to Mass. This might be a picture of your loved one, or some other small article that meant a great deal to him or her. You will take the item with you after Mass.

We also invite you to join the Bereavement Ministers and Ministers of Care for refreshments following Mass. In this setting we are encouraged to share stories about our loved ones and talk about the memento we placed on the memory table. As mourners, each time we tell our story, we take another step in our healing.

We look forward to sharing this special time of remembering with you and your family members.

God give you peace,

Rev. David F. Ryan, Pastor
& St. Francis de Sales Bereavement Ministers

OCTOBER SUMMIT: A KEY MOMENT FOR RENEW MY CHURCH

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Chicago Catholic, July 25, 2018

During my visits to parishes around the archdiocese or as I drive on our expressways and see the grand churches that dot the landscape alongside them, I am always left with a sense of awe as I think of the generations of faithful men and women who have made this church of Chicago what it is today. These ancestors in the faith repeatedly heard the call of Jesus to renew the church in every age by making new disciples, by building up communities and by inspiring witness to Christ's presence in the world.

It is in fidelity to that heritage that we have launched Renew My Church, a multi-year effort to discern where the Lord is calling us as we take up the challenges facing us today. We do so undaunted and fully aware that, while there are so many unknowns, we embark on this path under the guidance of the Holy Spirit to revitalize our life together in the Lord as his disciples.

The Archdiocese of Chicago has had a strong national and international reputation of leadership when it comes to renewal. Over many decades, our local church has introduced groundbreaking and imaginative efforts that have enhanced Catholic education and catechesis, marriage preparation, family life ministry, liturgical reforms and the promotion of social justice and outreach to immigrants. It is important to see Renew My Church as another chapter in that proud heritage, as we call on our parishes to team up with each other as pastoral groupings to take up the challenges we face today with creativity and vigor.

A key moment, designed to launch our journey together and give us focus, will take place on Oct. 1 and 2 at the Donald E. Stephens Convention Center in Rosemont. The Renew My Church Summit will gather our bishops, priests, deacons, school principals, religious education directors, and other pastoral collaborators to listen, discern and envision together our direction for renewal. I want to take this moment to thank in advance each of our pastors for making the special effort to invite their core collaborators to join us on this occasion, so that we can benefit from the contributions of all in shaping the future of this local church.

In addition to the presenters at the summit, we have invited Divine Renovation Ministries and its founder, Father James Mallon. He will share the story of his parish's spiritual and structural transformation, and provide concrete examples of how renewal can unfold for us. All of this will serve as a point of departure for our own reflection and planning for renewal in our own richly diverse archdiocese.

I want to be clear: I see our coming together in early October as a graced moment to listen to the Lord's voice, to imagine boldly how we can move into the future, to support one another in solidarity as we take up common challenges, and — finally — to be signs of hope for one another. In other words, in our two-day meeting, we will be the church of Jesus Christ, inspired by the Spirit to be ready and willing to journey into the future with faith, hope and love.

This is why I consider our October gathering to be crucial for our moving forward together and why I look forward to being an active participant, collaborating with our other leaders as we carry on the tradition of renewal that has distinguished this local church for generations.

A PRAYER FOR RENEW MY CHURCH

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today, as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us.

In every age and in our own time, you call to us and say: Renew My Church.

Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us, and so enable us to hear you clearly; to listen to each other attentively; to imagine our future boldly;

to discern your direction wisely; to persevere in your holy will courageously; to stay together in charity; to surrender our own plans readily to embrace the greater good; to hand on your gifts to future generations.

May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles, and all the saints.

May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace.

We ask this of you who live and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

November 30, 2017

Dear Father Ryan,

Our Annual Catholic Appeal is framed in the words of Jesus: Come, follow me. It is an invitation to be Christ for others and to live in a community of discipleship. As Christ's community we help to sustain Catholic schools and parishes in need, support programs of religious education, ministerial formation, and promote the protection of life and peace and justice. Through the Annual Appeal, we together support the efforts of Catholic Relief Services that cares for people across the globe who struggle and suffer because of natural disasters.

Since St. Francis de Sales elected to participate in the ACA Incentive Plan in 2017, your 2018 goal is reduced to 75% of your regular goal. Therefore, your 2018 goal is 4.5% of the previous year's offertory income.

Your offertory income for Fiscal Year 2016-2017 was $2,036,797. Therefore, your target is $91,656.

When parishioner contributions exceed the parish goal, St. Francis de Sales will receive a rebate of 100% of the funds donated over the goal.

Just as you have my gratitude, you also have my prayers. Let us pray for one another. Together, as his disciples, we can do so much to bring Jesus to a world that is deeply in need. With God's grace and help, we will fulfill our mission.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago

STATEMENT OF CARDINAL BLASE J. CUPICH, ARCHBISHOP OF CHICAGO, ON THE OPEN LETTER OF CARDINAL MARC OUELLET

October 8, 2018—In a statement released by the Vatican Press Office on Saturday, October 6, Pope Francis pledged a thorough study of the documentation present in the Archives of the Holy See regarding the former Cardinal, now Archbishop Theodore McCarrick. The Holy Father took the occasion to renew his commitment to address the scourge of abuse within the Church, and to do everything possible to prevent it. In the Vatican declaration, the pope also stated that the Church will not tolerate any cover-ups or accept a different standard for bishops who abuse or cover up, calling this behavior “a form of clericalism that is no longer acceptable.” This clear statement does not come as a surprise to me, for I am convinced that Pope Francis has no hesitation in following a path of accountability. As he remarked during his visit to the United States in 2015: “We will follow the path of truth wherever it may lead.”

The first installment of fulfilling this renewed pledge of openness came the very next day by Cardinal Marc Ouellet, who has served as the Prefect of the Congregation for Bishops since his appointment by Pope Benedict XVI in 2010. In an authoritative and compelling manner, he provided a detailed response to the central charges against Pope Francis regarding the case of Archbishop McCarrick. Cardinal Ouellet made clear that the Holy Father has given him the full freedom to speak in a way that provides information based on his personal experience and the documents of the Congregation for Bishops.

In his capacity as Prefect, Cardinal Ouellet also called to account those attacking or countenancing attacks on the Pope and the Church. In that spirit, I join my voice to those of the Prefect and of the President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in urging “all in the Church particularly the bishops to reaffirm our communion with Pope Francis who is the visible guarantor of the communion of the Catholic Church.”

EVERY LIFE: CHERISHED, CHOSEN, SENT RESPECT LIFE MONTH, OCTOBER 2018

The month of October is annually observed by the Catholic Church in the United States as Respect Life Month. We are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between.

Yet this year, as we approach Respect Life Sunday on October 7, our hearts are heavy with revelations of how those who should be most trustworthy have not only failed in this regard but have inflicted immense evil. As USCCB President Cardinal Daniel DiNardo expressed, “the Body of Christ is lacerated.”

At such a time as this, we become even more aware of the need for messengers of God’s love and instruments of His healing. We realize again, with renewed urgency, our personal call to help others encounter God’s transforming, life-giving love and to defend the sanctity of every person’s life, at every stage and in every circumstance.

This year’s Respect Life theme is “Every Life: Cherished, Chosen, Sent,” highlighting our call to build a culture of life as missionary disciples. Drawing upon the story of Our Lady of Guadalupe and St. Juan Diego, this theme is briefly unpacked in a short reflection. I humbly invite you to read and reflect on it this Respect Life Month (www.usccb.org/respect-life-reflection). (There are also many other resources at www.usccb.org/respectlife that are available for use this month and throughout the year.)

In his first letter to the Corinthians, Saint Paul tells us, “As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. ...If [one] part suffers, all the parts suffer with it” (1 Cor 12:12,26).

We are called and sent to be messengers of God’s love, treating one another as cherished and chosen by Him. In doing so, we help build a culture that respects all human life. The Body of Christ needs you. The world needs you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Timothy Cardinal Dolan, Chairman, USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities, October 2018

ST. PEREGRINE MONTHLY PRAYER SERVICE AND BENEDICTION
FOR THOSE AFFECTED BY CANCER: Saturday, October 27, 9:15 a.m.

St. Peregrine was miraculously healed of cancer after praying all night before an image of the crucified Christ. He is known throughout the world as the patron saint of cancer patients.

There is a place for you, a place of comfort, peace and hope. Healing comes in many ways. Join us as we pray to gather strength to continue the fight, to give thanks for being healed and to honor the memory of those who are now in the arms of Jesus. Place your hope in our Lord and Savior.

PARISH ALL SOULS' MASS:
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 7 P.M.

In our Catholic tradition, during the entire month of November, we pray for our loved ones who have died. Most especially, we remember them on November 2, the Commemoration of All Souls. All who grieve the loss of someone special, whether recently or years ago, are invited to attend the 7 p.m. All Souls' Mass on Friday, November 2, to pray and light a candle for loved ones who have died.

To remember those whom we mourn in a tangible way and make their presence a part of this special liturgy, you are invited to bring a memento to place on a memory table prior to Mass. The memento might be a picture of your loved one or some other small article that means a great deal to you as you remember them. Following Mass, we invite you to join Bereavement Ministers and Ministers of Care in the Gathering Space to share stories about your loved one over refreshments. As we mourn, each time we tell our story, we take another step in our healing. If you have questions, please contact Mary Manson at (847) 843-9262.

The Women's Center is a problem pregnancy help center. Because of the care and concern of our staff, volunteers, and benefactors, each year over 70% of the women who feel abortion is their only option, decide in favor of life. We provide practical help, including counseling, clothes, baby furniture, referral services, etc. as needed.

SEEKING DONATIONS: Currently accepting car seats (less than 7 years old) for 20-40 lb., infant car seats, toddler beds, baby carriers, dressers, no crib mattresses. We also need baby food and Enfamil formula, baby shampoo, baby lotion, baby wipes, and women's hygiene products. These items cannot be picked up unless accompanied by furniture. The families who receive these things are grateful for your generosity. For our address or if a pick-up is needed, please call 773-794-1313.

PRAYER FOR OUR ABSENT BROTHERS AND SISTERS

We believe that you want a relationship with each and every one of us. We pray for those who once knew you and have wandered away from you and from our community. We pray for their return to you, to the community of believers, and to the reception of the Sacraments you gave us. Please give them the grace to come home to the Table of the Lord. Help us all to open our hearts more and more to you.

Catholics Come Home...Return to the Church!

BUILD/EQUIP FAITH FORMATION SERIES

The Ablaze parish mission is over, and our parish is surely Ablaze with the love of the Holy Spirit. These photos are from the Ablaze mission that took place September 24, 25 & 26. At the end of the evenings, we heard comments from those attending of how alive they felt. Many said they felt true joy and peace in their hearts—even after attending just one evening. The biggest thought-provoking comment we heard was: "Is this really the Catholic church I left years ago?"

The radical hospitality that all experienced began in the parking lot with rides on a golf cart to the church entrance, doors being held wide open with heartfelt greetings of welcome, and beautiful fellowship following Deacon Keith Strohm's thought-provoking presentations. This is what can be accomplished when disciples bear fruit from living a life with the Holy Spirit Ablaze in their lives.

Would you like to grow in your personal relationship with Jesus or are you ready to help others build their relationship with Jesus? It's not too late to begin your journey on this year's discipleship pathways. Our parish is offering two avenues of formation - Build or Equip.

The BUILD pathway (Building your own personal relationship with Jesus) will meet on Wednesday evenings or Thursday mornings. The EQUIP pathway (Equipping you with ways to share Jesus with others) will meet on Tuesday evenings.

Registration is not required but is most appreciated so we can better prepare for your amazing experience.

There are many ways to register:

- Email: growdisciples12@gmail.com
- Register online at stfrancislzparish.org
- Fill out registration sheet in last week's bulletin and return it to Ministry Center or to the wooden box in the Church Gathering Space marked Growing Disciples

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION EVERY WEDNESDAY!

Open to all ages! Join us from 7 to 8 p.m. for this contemporary hour of Adoration each week. Josh Goodman leads worship through music. Pray along with the songs, journal, or just be present in the moment.

*"When you awake in the night, transport yourself quickly in spirit before the Tabernacle, saying:
'Behold, my God, I come to adore You, to praise, thank, and love you, and to keep you company with all the Angels,'" - St. John Vianney*

THANK YOU, PARISHIONERS!

For the past 8 years, I have served as the Public Relations/Communications Coordinator at St. Francis de Sales. Its been a joy working with many of you to share information about your ministries through the bulletin, website, and e-newsletter, and to assist with your event plans and registrations. As my husband and I prepare to welcome our third son this month, I am stepping away from my duties at St. Francis. Your kindness (and patience!) throughout the years has made my job so enjoyable and I will miss working in collaboration with so many of you.

Thank you to Father Ryan and the Ministry Center staff for always being so accommodating and supportive of my schedule as I worked from various Chicago suburbs and even from Long Island, New York for a year.

Katie McGlauchlin, an active member of our parish, will be taking over my responsibilities. Katie is a graphic and web designer and serves on the Youth Ministry Core Team, Intentional Discipleship Leadership Team, and Women's Retreat Team. She also makes and sells handcrafted devotionals at Knotted with Love (www.knottedwithlove.com) and runs a freelance business, Citrus Leaf Designs, which specializes in custom invitations, hobby websites, and brand development for small businesses. Finally, Katie serves as brand ambassador for the Josh Goodman Music brand.

I will keep you in my heart and in my prayers and hopefully see you around the parish from time to time!

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING THE CLEAN JEAN DRIVE, PART 1!

Dear Parishioners of St. Francis de Sales,

Thank you so much for your generous donations to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul's 11th Annual "Clean Jean" Drive at St. Francis de Sales Parish in Lake Zurich, IL. Between your donations of jeans, money and the volunteers who donated their time (transporting, sorting, labeling, inventorying, bagging, taking orders, and marketing) I am honored to say it was a successful year.

We processed almost 800 pairs of jeans within the month of September, and were able to satisfy the orders we received from our clients in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry: ~360 pairs were distributed in one night to ~100 families through the Food Pantry. The remaining pairs will be shared with our sister parish (Our Lady of Tepeyac) in Chicago, Journeys in Palatine, Timothy's Ministry in Arlington Heights, District 95, Sarah's Circle in Chicago, and our own Gift of Love program at St. Francis.

Thanks to the people in our Community and donations like yours, in our 11 years of supporting this Drive, we have distributed just under 9,000 pairs of jeans!

This is my last year running the Jean Drive. If your or anyone you know is interested in taking over this Ministry, I would be happy to provide you with all of the information, and help with the transition.

Please contact the Parish Office if you're interested in leading this once a year event.

Thank you again for your consideration.
Blessings & Best Regards,

Susan LePlae Miller

"Love Notes—How to Build Your Personal Relationship with Jesus"

Former Associate Pastor at St. Anne's in Barrington and current Pastor of St. Paul of the Cross Parish, Father Britto Berchmans envisions the ideal Catholic parish to be a community of disciples who seek to live the example of Jesus as defined in our Catholic tradition.

His ministerial priorities include nurturing Catholic education and the religious formation of children and young people, making faith accessible to today's Catholic and strengthening Christian marriage and family life. Born in India to deeply-committed Catholic parents, Fr Britto is one of seven children. He joined the Salesians of Don Bosco as a young man and was ordained a priest in 1981. We look forward to having Father Britto lead us in our journey of deepening our relationship with Jesus!

ST. FRANCIS DE SALES PARISH SCHOOL NAMED NATIONAL BLUE RIBBON SCHOOL OF EXCELLENCE!

Seven Archdiocese of Chicago Catholic Schools have been named 2018 National Blue Ribbon recipients, including our very own St. Francis de Sales School! Congratulations to our administration, staff, students, and families under the leadership of Principal Kyle Schmitt and Father Ryan, Pastor, on a job well done! We are proud of our school! See the full news release from the Archdiocese of Chicago below:

Chicago, IL (October 1, 2018) – The Archdiocese of Chicago announced today that seven of its Catholic schools – Cardinal Joseph Bernardin Elementary School (Orland Hills), Queen of All Saints School (Chicago), Sacred Heart School (Winnetka), St. Bede School (Ingleside), St. Francis de Sales School (Lake Zurich), St. Francis Xavier School (Wilmette) and St. Therese School (Chicago) – have been recognized this year by the U.S. Department of Education with Blue Ribbon Awards. The National Blue Ribbon Award is presented to schools based on a school’s overall academic excellence or the school’s progress in closing student achievement gaps. The Archdiocese of Chicago Catholic Schools have received 102 Blue Ribbon Awards, more than any other school system – public and private – in the country.

“I am extremely proud of our Catholic schools for being recognized by the U.S. Department of Education,” said Dr. Jim Rigg, superintendent of Catholic Schools. “The honor of achieving Blue Ribbon designation status reinforces the academic excellence and quality Catholic education we provide students and their families throughout the Archdiocese of Chicago.”

All seven schools were recognized under the category of “Exemplary High Performing Schools,” meaning the schools are among the state’s highest performing schools as measured by state assessments or nationally normed tests. Five of the archdiocese’s 2018 recipients have earned this prestigious honor twice: Cardinal Joseph Bernardin Elementary School (2008), Queen of All Saints School (2008), St. Francis de Sales School (2007), St. Francis Xavier School (2012) and St. Therese School (2011).

Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos recognized 349 schools as National Blue Ribbon Schools for 2018. On November 7-8, the Secretary and the Department of Education will celebrate with 300 public and 49 private school honorees at an awards ceremony in Washington, D.C. The Blue Ribbon Award celebrates the idea that all students, regardless of background, ability or location, deserve an excellent education.

“I’m pleased to celebrate with you as your school is named a National Blue Ribbon School,” said U.S. Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos in a video message to the honorees. “We recognize and honor your important work in preparing students for successful careers and meaningful lives. Congratulations on your students’ accomplishments and for your extraordinary commitment to meeting their unique needs.”

Now in its 36th year, the National Blue Ribbon Schools Program has bestowed recognition on more than 8,800 schools affirming the hard work of educators, families and communities in creating safe and welcoming schools where students master challenging and engaging content.

Catholic high school seniors in the Archdiocese of Chicago graduate at a rate of more than 98 percent. Ninety-five percent of Archdiocesan Catholic high school graduates go on to college, earning millions of dollars in college scholarships each year. Catholic school graduates are committed to helping others through community service, a commitment that continues through adulthood. Catholic school graduates are also civically engaged and can be found in leadership positions in business, government and non-profit organizations.
