THE LAMB OF GOD

"Behold the Lamb of God!" We hear this phrase every Sunday at Mass, but there's a good chance that many Roman Catholics do not know who in the Bible originally spoke it. The phrase appears only in the Gospel of John, on the lips of John the Baptist, who utters it twice. In today's Gospel reading, John proclaims Jesus as the Lamb of God, and two of John's own disciples then follow Christ. A little bit later Andrew, who heard John and then followed Jesus, brings his brother Simon to be re-named Cephas, or Peter. A careful look at these Bible verses shows us the mission of everyone baptized into the Body of Christ: we must always proclaim our faith in Christ, so that others will follow him. We may not know how the will of God might work through those we bring to Christ; that is not the point. The point is that our ongoing mission as a church is to bring others to Christ, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.

WORDS OF WISDOM: CHAINS OF GRACE

The chains of grace are so powerful, and yet so sweet, that though they attract our heart, they do not shackle
our freedoms.

—St. Francis de Sales

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

"Ordinary Time" began for us this week. Sadly, Bethlehem is hardly a place of peace on earth these days. The ancient Christian community has been largely uprooted by political strife. The Church of the Nativity stands (barely) in disrepair and disorder in Manger Square. The roof is crumbling, the major doorways are blocked, the wiring is faulty, and the worship life is disrupted by quarrels among Eastern Christians.

The church was founded in 325, destroyed in a Samaritan revolt in 539, and rebuilt by the Emperor Justinian. When the area came under Muslim control in 638, the holiness of the church was respected, and in return Christians allowed Muslims to pray in the south aisle, a right still upheld. Earlier in that century, invading Persians were ordered to destroy all churches, but when they saw the magi carved over the doorway of the Church of the Nativity, they spared it out of respect for their ancestors who bore gold, frankincense, and myrrh to the same city. The Crusaders restored and redecored the church by the 12th century, and their plan that survives. Down a few stone steps is a stone grotto with a silver star marking the place of Christ's birth: when the star was stolen in 1847 it triggered an international crisis that exploded into the Crimean War.

Since 1852, the church has been shared by the Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox, and Armenian Churches. Catholics have the care of the Chapel of the Manger, and avoid the squabbles by a separate entrance to the Franciscan monastery church of St. Catherine. Pray for peace in Bethlehem!

THE SALVATION OF 'NAPALM GIRL'

By Kim Phuc Phan Thi, Wall Street Journal, December 21, 2017

You may not recognize me now, but you almost certainly know who I am. My name is Kim Phuc, though you likely know me by another name. It is one I never asked for, a name I have spent a lifetime trying to escape: "Napalm Girl."

You have probably seen my picture a thousand times. Yes, that picture. The image that made the world gasp. Some called it a turning point in the Vietnam War—a Pulitzer Prize-winning photograph of me in 1972, age 9, running along a puddled roadway in front of an expressionless soldier. I was photographed with arms outstretched, naked and shrieking in pain and fear, with the dark contour of a napalm cloud billowing in the distance.

My own people had dropped bombs on Route 1 in an effort to cut off the trade routes for the Viet Cong rebels. I had not been targeted. I had simply been in the wrong place at the wrong time.

Those bombs have caused me immeasurable pain over the course of my life. Forty-five years later I am still receiving treatment for the burns that cover my arms, back and neck. But even worse than the physical pain was the emotional and spiritual pain. For years I bore the crippling weight of anger, bitterness and resentment toward those who caused my suffering. Yet as I look back over a spiritual journey that has spanned more than three decades, I realize the same bombs that caused so much pain and suffering also brought me to a place of great healing. Those bombs led me to Jesus Christ.

My salvation experience occurred on Christmas Eve. It was 1982. I was attending a special worship service at a small church in Vietnam. The pastor, Ho Hieu Ha, delivered a message many Christians would find familiar: Christmas is not about the gifts we carefully wrap and place under a tree. Rather, it is about the gift of Jesus Christ, who was wrapped in human flesh and given to us by God. As the pastor spoke, I knew in my heart that something was shifting inside of me.

A decade removed from the defining tragedy of my life, I still desperately needed peace. I had so much hatred and bitterness in my heart. Yet I was ready for love and joy. I wanted to let go of my pain. I wanted to pursue life instead of holding fast to fantasies of death. When Pastor Ho finished speaking, I stood up, stepped out into the aisle, and made my way to the front of the sanctuary to say "yes" to Jesus Christ.

When I woke up that Christmas morning, I experienced by first-ever heartfelt celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ. I know what it is like to experience terror, to feel despondent, to live in fear. I know how wearying and hopeless life can be sometimes. After years in the spiritual wilderness, I felt the kind of healing that can only come from God.

I had spent so much of my life running—first from the bombs and the war, then from communist Vietnam. I had always assumed that to flee was my only choice. Looking back, I understand the path I had been racing along led me straight to God. Today I live at ease. Yes, my circumstances can still be challenging. But my heart is 100% healed.

My faith in Jesus Christ is what has enabled me to forgive those who had wronged me—no matter how severe those wrongs were. Faith also inspired me to pray for my enemies rather than curse them. It enabled me not only to tolerate those who had wronged me but to love them.

No matter what type of pain or sorrow you may be experiencing, as Christmas approaches, I encourage you not to give up. Hold fast to hope. It is hope that will see you through. This peace I have found can be yours as well. I pray that it finds you this Christmas.

DEACON'S CORNER, January 2, 2018

By Deacon John Sfire

I actually had to pause for a moment when I typed in the year...2018! As I told Bobbi this morning, I feel like I blink my eyes and another year passes by. I guess the best thing to do is "Thank God" for another year. After all, the alternative is not so pleasant to think about. And that thought was brought to mind when I listened to Fr. Ryan's homily this morning.

His homily was brief, succinct and to the point. He spoke about the year past and how many things have taken place in our lives in the past twelve months. Some have been good and some not so good, some made us happy and some made us sad. And as I look back on my own life and the things that are memorable, I would agree that some things that have taken place have been better than others. I know for myself that my spiritual growth has increased significantly. My own awareness of Jesus Christ in my life has been more awakened than I can ever remember. And I have given that concept much thought as to how and why that has happened. The answer I came up with is that I feel I have opened my heart to letting Jesus Christ have charge of my life. That I truly believe that "thy will be done" is not just a phrase in a prayer, but is the guide for all of us to follow in order to attain eternal salvation. How about you? Have you ever thought about giving your life to Jesus Christ?

Think about that for a while. In the past couple weeks we heard in the gospels that "His name will be Emmanuel" which means "God is with us". And like I said in the homily on Christmas, He is not with us some of the time, He is not a part-time God, He never says He is too busy for our needs. No, He is with us all the time...24 hours a day, 365 days a year. How many of us realize that we have the Power of the Lord dwelling within us at all times. Not just when we think we need Him, not just when we get "in a jam", He is with us at all times.

Going back over the past year, 2017, and even back further to 2016, 2015, etc., can we even count the number of changes that have taken place in our lives? I know I cannot, how about you? Maybe we remember the "good" things that took place. After all, I believe that it is human nature to try to forget the things that take place in our lives that cause us discomfort, that cause us pain. But those things that have caused us pain have still happened and somewhere deep in our "storage drive" of memory they still exist. So what do we do? How do we deal with constant change, most of which we have no control over, most of which we had nothing to do with. My answer is that we continue to ask God, our Father, for His help to deal with all things in our lives. And it's not like we have to go very far to ask Him. We don't have to go to Church, we don't have to go in the closet to be alone with Our Lord. Remember, He is with us always, all the time, every minute of every day.

His presence in our lives is the only thing in our lives that has never changed. No matter how much we have changed, no matter what we have done that might be contrary to the Laws of God, He remains with us. Think about this...God, our Father, sent His only Son to walk with us on earth only to die an excruciating death. Why? So that we can have eternal salvation through "the forgiveness of our sins". That is how much God, our Father, loves us. And His love for us is not even something we can comprehend. His love for us exceeds the limits of human understanding, yet He did it for us.

So as we move into this new year of 2018, let's say "Thank You" to God, our Father, for all the love He has shown us, and let us give this "Thanks" each and every day we are here on earth. Also let us open our hearts to the great gift that was given to us 2,000 years ago and we are reminded of with the Birth of the Son of God at Christmas. Do this and I promise you that 2018 will be the most memorable year you will ever remember. My blessings to all,

Deacon John

THANK YOU, FATHER RYAN, AND ST. FRANCIS DE SALES PARISHIONERS!

On behalf of the parishioners of Our Lady of Tepeyac and the Sharing Parish Ministry here at St. Francis, we would like to express our gratitude to the St. Francis de Sales Parishioners for all the gifts and gift cards that you gave us this past Christmas. We sent 100 large boxes with approximately 2,000 gifts and an envelope with $2,615 in gift cards. In addition, we sent:

- 2 boxes with hats, gloves, scarves, and mittens (donated by the St. Francis de Sales students)
- 31 large bags of coats (collected in the Coat Drive by Parishioner Judy Reilly)
- 36 bikes donated by the St. Francis Parishioners
- 8 boxes of books (collected in a Book Drive at St. Francis School by the Linares Family)

Everything was distributed at the Our Lady of Tepeyac Parish, Food Pantry, High School, and Elementary School.

This project began in September and October when we started tracing and cutting the mittens with gift ideas for the Sharing Tree as well as attaching the labels and ribbon to the mittens and envelopes. Thank you very much to Patty and Molly Finucane, and to Olivia Vinci for donating the material and for helping with this project!

Then, we gathered on the weekend of December 9-10 to collect and pack all the gifts that our parishioners brought to the church. Confirmation Groups under the leadership of Dana and Joe Armagno, Carrie Gruber, Paula Jokerst and Cindy McGowan, Mary Jo Kunzmann, and Adrienne Virgilio helped with this phase.

Finally, we got together again on Saturday, December 16 to load the truck to send everything to OLT. Confirmation Groups under the leadership of Dorothy Galuppo, Monique Ridosh, and Katy and Matthew Roesner helped with this phase.

Parishioner Kevin Ryan provided two of his trucks to transport the gifts. He came with his wife Sue, his daughter Kayla, his son Cody, his friends Jeff Porter and Jeff Madura, and his driver John Shannon.

Thank you to Miss Coletti for organizing the Advent Project for the St. Francis de Sales School students to collect so many hats, gloves, scarves, and mittens. They will be used a lot this winter by our Our Lady of Tepeyac friends.

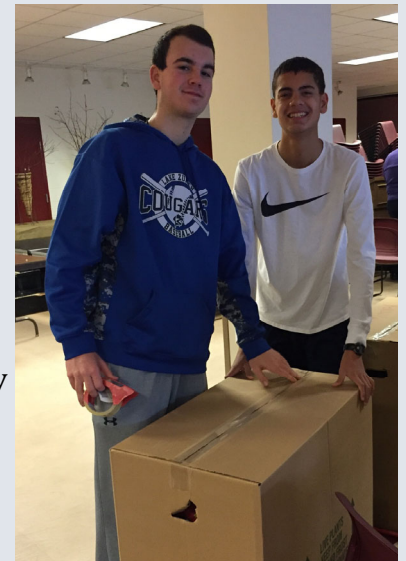

Thank you to Parishioner Marinés Hesslau for organizing the Toy Drive at East Lake Academy and collecting over 100 toys for the children of the OLT Elementary School.

Thank you to Parishioner Karen Nolan and the Boy Scouts for providing all the boxes to pack the gifts. We would have not been able to accomplish this job without those boxes.

Our most sincere "Thank You" to Father Ryan and the Ministry Center Staff, particularly Tami Anderson, Traci Dahlinger, and Karin Jurczak, for always supporting this Ministry and allowing the friendship with OLT to continue and flourish every year.

You are all an example of God's love, and this project would have not been possible without the help of so many. May God bless you abundantly, and may you have a wonderful 2018, full of happiness, peace, love, and good health!

Sincerely,
Patricia, Marcos, Estefan, and Natalia Linares
Our Lady of Tepeyac Ministry at St. Francis

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GIFTS OF LOVE!

Thank you, Father Ryan, for your continuing support for this program. Once again parishioner response to this ministry is overwhelming. The Gift of Love served 253 families and 285 nursing home residents – a total of 1,371 people. In addition, we also able to supply gift cards to Most Blessed Trinity Academy in Waukegan and Chicago Jesuit Academy. Some highlights from this year's Gift of Love program!

- 336 parishioners signed up to sponsor individuals or families.
- Lake Zurich High School National Honor Society sponsored 8 families (90 people) this year. This is the 18th year they have participated.
- Judy Reilly worked tirelessly on the coat drive that benefits both the Gift of Love and Our Lady of Tepeyac.
- St. Francis de Sales Religious Education students decorated gift bags for Lexington residents. We have some real artists in these classes!
- The Prayer Shawl Ministry knitted over 60 winter scarves and hats that were donated to those who received winter coats. In addition, the Ela Knitters donated a similar number of scarves and hats.
- The Girl Scouts, through the annual Pajamarama, collected and donated over 100 pairs of pajamas. They also decorated Christmas gift bags used for the Lexington residents.
- Kathy Brady-Murfin coordinated students from the Religious Education program to collect gifts that parishioners dropped off on Friday and Saturday of drop-off weekend.
- Youth Ministry Confirmation classes volunteered in two-hour shifts to help our partners load their trucks and also helped distribute gifts to St. Francis de Sales families on the Sunday of drop-off weekend.
- Boy Scout Troop 309 refurbished and reconditioned 46 bikes for Gift of Love families and additional bikes for Our Lady of Tepeyac.
- St. Francis de Sales Parish School Student Council donated all the toys collected at their annual toy fundraiser to the Gift of Love.
- Numerous other parishioners helped with sign-up weekends and drop-off weekend.

Once again, the Ministry Center and maintenance staffs provided invaluable support. They are unfailingly kind and considerate to all requests. The Gift of Love program could not succeed without them.

Sincerely,

Jane Clery
Chairman, Gift of Love

THANK YOU TO OUR COLLEGE CHRISTMAS CHOIR!

Thank you to our college students (including Master's level) for returning to St. Francis de Sales over Christmas break to lead us in worship and song! Classes Begin in February for Family Members of Those Affected by Mental Illness

One-in-five. That's the number of adults who are dealing with a mental illness this year. Yes, twenty percent.

If this has hit your family, you know that living with a family member who has a mental illness can take a real toll not just on the individual with the illness, but on those in the family as well. In many cases, family members of those who have been diagnosed with depression, bipolar disorder, an anxiety disorder, borderline personality disorder, or schizophrenia feel isolated from the community as they learn how to manage this situation.

The good news is that you are not alone and there is a program that can help you learn more about these illnesses. The National Alliance on Mental Illness will be offering a 12-week program designed specifically for those who have a family member with a mental illness. The class will be held at St. Francis on Tuesdays, beginning in February.

WORD MADE CLEAR: THE GOSPEL OF MARK

A presentation with Fr. James McIlhone

January 25, 2018, 7 p.m.

St. Francis de Sales Parish Center

Father James McIlhone, Director of Biblical Formation for the Archdiocese of Chicago, will offer a presentation on the Gospel of Mark at St. Francis de Sales. All are welcome to join us!

Come hear some of Fr. McIlhone's wisdom from years of teaching and preaching about the Gospel and join in the discussion as we are challenged to take the Word we hear and make it the Word we live in our daily lives.

Fr. McIlhone's presentation kicks off an opportunity for Catholics throughout the Archdiocese of Chicago to join in a virtual journey through the Gospel of Mark. You will receive the tools to explore the Gospel whatever way works best for you. If you choose to sign up, you will be provided with weekly e-mail updates to guide you through the process.

To register for this event and/or to receive weekly e-mails, visit www.stfrancislzparish.org

GREAT BIBLE ADVENTURE WINTER 2018

Our winter session (January 10 to March 10, 2018) will focus on Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance. Paul's letter to the Ephesians reveals many remarkable gifts that we as Christians are given in the Church. This letter tells us about the nature of the church—as a body, as a household, as a mystery, as a communion, as a bride. It shows us the great inheritance that awaits us as sons and daughters, adopted fully into the family of God. It reveals how God's great love for us can transform our daily lives if we allow it. Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance is an 8-part Bible study that will enrich your faith, and show you how to live it out.

Choose from a Wednesday, Thursday, or Saturday class. For online registration, visit www.stfrancislz.org. You may also pick up a hard copy form in the Ministry Center.

"Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light for my path." - Psalm 119: 105

Attention: GIFT OF LOVE SPONSORS Signed Tax Donation Forms Available for Pick-Up

If you submitted a tax donation form for gifts or donations you provided, look for your signed form in an envelope in the Gift of Love thank you note bins located in the Gathering Space. Tax forms and thank you notes that have been received are available for pick up now.

PRESENTATION: UNDERSTANDING TARGETED VIOLENCE EVENTS AND HOW TO AVOID THEM

The Village of Lake Zurich in partnership with St. Francis de Sales Catholic Church is hosting a Targeted Violence: Pre-Attack Behaviors and Indicators presentation by Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) David Young. This presentation has been designed for local leaders in both government and non-governmental agencies such as associations, businesses, churches, and all other emergency support functions.

Join us on Wednesday, January 24, 2018 from 6 to 8 p.m. in Fr. Valker Hall, 33 S. Buesching Rd., Lake Zurich.

Stay tuned for details regarding registration for this event.

THANK YOU, SACRISTANS!

Dear Sacristans,

Thank you for your continued service and being active to our Lord with ministry entrusted to you by the parish. All of us are called to be intentional disciples of Jesus the Christ. It is through our service that we come together as one in Christ.

It is with deep appreciation that we continue to acknowledge your commitment to the "Lord's Laundry" for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. All for one and one for all in Jesus Christ!

God bless and Happy New Year,

Father David Ryan

Sacristans include:

Toni Sergott, Marcia Venditti, Mary Lou Sylwestrak, Joanne Luce, Irene Goldthwaite, Kim Stratman, Mary Taylor, Rose Koerner

Sacristans are responsible for caring for the sacred linens used during our Eucharistic celebrations. Duties for this Ministry can certainly be accomplished at home - no meetings required!

Laundrying is on a rotating basis. Please call Father David F. Ryan at (847) 726-4723 for more information.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO Office of Human Dignity & Solidarity Immigration Ministry

National Migration Week:
"Many Journeys, One Family"
January 7-14, 2018

"I feel compelled to draw attention to the reality of child migrants, especially the ones who are alone... I ask everyone to help those who, for various reasons, are forced to live far from their homeland and are separated from their families." -Pope Francis

For nearly a half century, the Catholic Church in the US has celebrated National Migration Week to reflect on the circumstances confronting immigrants, refugees and victims of human trafficking. Today, more than 65 million people are forcibly displaced around the world, and more than 22 million are refugees. The US is the cornerstone of the international humanitarian system. We must maintain our leadership and protect life-saving U.S. humanitarian assistance.

ACTION: Respond to the call and urge your legislators to protect poverty-reducing international assistance and include passage of the Dream Act (H.R. 3440/S. 1615). Visit the USCCB website: www.JusticeforImmigrants.org.

For additional ways to advocate for immigrants and refugees visit: www.CatholicsAndImmigrants.org

There are so many ways to stay connected and build your faith, so come join the fun! Join us every Sunday at 5 p.m. Mass. Life Nights follow in the Ministry Center from 6:15 to 8 p.m. Open to all high school students! Join us for dinner and dessert!

SUNDAY, JANUARY 14, 2018 STUDY NIGHT

Time to prepare for finals!
Bring your books and backpack!

“...Youth Ministry is bringing the Good News to young people by the art of living well - and it begins and ends with the Lord. May we remain faithful to the challenges of our own time, and using the gifts before us, including technology, may we bring many people to live well in this life and the next.”

-His Excellency, The Most Reverent Frank J. Caggiano of Bridgeport, CT, Committee on Laity, Marriage, Family Life and Youth

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION— EVERY WEDNESDAY!

Open to all ages! Join us from 7 to 8 p.m. for this contemporary hour of Adoration each week. Josh Goodman leads worship through music. Feel free to pray along with the lyrics of the songs, journal, or just be present in the moment.

A PRAYER FOR RENEW MY CHURCH

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today, as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us. In every age and in our own time, you call to us and say: Renew My Church.

Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us, and so enable us to hear you clearly, to listen to each other attentively,
to imagine our future boldly,
to discern your direction wisely, to persevere in your holy will courageously, to stay together in charity, to surrender our own plans readily to embrace the greater good, to hand on your gifts to future generations. May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles, and all the saints. May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace.
We ask this of you who live and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers.

Please call Fr. Ryan (847-726-4723) or Ministry of Care (847-438-6622) when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion.

Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.

Only two defining entities have ever offered to die for you.
 One was Jesus Christ. The other is the American Soldier.
 One died for your soul † The other died for your freedom!

We thank you for your continued dedication and service to our country. You are in our prayers.
