THE MASTER STORYTELLER

In today's Gospel, Jesus is presented to us as the master storyteller. He loved to use parables as a tool for comparing one thing to something else. In most of his parables, Jesus revealed who God is by comparing God's essence or actions with something familiar to his listeners. In the parable of the mustard seed, Jesus proclaims a marvelous and irrefutable truth. His small band of disciples, as insignificant as they may have felt, would one day produce a mighty kingdom whose growth was initiated by God. The seeds of this kingdom were planted by God and it is God who will harvest the fruit brought forth from those seeds. The extent of the growth of God's kingdom cannot be predicted. We must trust the work of the Master's hand as we, the mustard plant, grow and grow.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The reign of God comes about because people commit to reversing their lives completely, to embracing new vision, new values. Many popular television shows exploit an unattractive side of human nature by pitting contestants against one another, even to the point of performing dangerous stunts or devious schemes, to gain money or favor.

At the liturgy, we counter that impulse by committing ourselves to live generously. In response to Christ's total gift, we offer bread and wine as the emblems of our lives, our hopes, our joys and sorrows. The bread and wine carried to the altar contain our lives, and by offering our lives to God, we prepare to receive the gift of God's own life. We are to become what we receive: the body of Christ.

On Sundays, this self-giving is often accompanied by a collection and procession of gifts for the poor and money for the upkeep of the parish. There are certainly other methods of collecting money, some perhaps more efficient. Yet the acts of giving from our abundance and attending to the needs of the poor open us up to participation in the changes the Reign of God requires.

A PRAYER FOR FATHERS

God our Father, we give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old.

We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation;

May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family, and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We pray for our own Fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering;

May they know that the God of Compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

We remember fathers, grandfathers, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love.

Amen.

LETTER FROM BISHOP GEORGE J. RASSAS

May 23, 2018

Rev. David Ryan
St. Francis de Sales Parish
135 S. Buesching Rd.
Lake Zurich, IL 60047

Dear Fr. Dave,

It has been such a great pleasure to celebrate 50 years of priestly ministry, all of which began with my ordination on May 2, 1968 and First Mass on May 5, 1968 in the new church at our home parish of Saints Faith, Hope and Charity in Winnetka, Illinois. While the parish has certainly grown since we moved there in 1945, being back home again brought back so many fond and happy memories. My First Communion and Confirmation were celebrated in the original church, which is now the gymnasium. During my days at St. Mary of the Lake Seminary in Mundelein the new church was completed.

It has changed very little over the years and remains as stunning as ever. It has been the place where we have observed so many significant events in the lives of my immediate family and my extended family as well.

My most poignant memory is of our parents, George and Frances, who began to attend daily Mass while my brothers and I served as altar boys. Their practice of attending Mass and receiving Communion daily from that time on and for all their days until they were no longer able to come to church, has always made an impact in my life and that of all our whole family. They have left us with a great legacy for which we are most thankful.

I wish to express my gratitude for all the greetings, and best wishes I have received. In a special way, I would like to thank you for the parish's very kind gift of $500 to the Bishop Rassas Faith Center at Cristo Rey St. Martin College Prep. It has meant so much to me and I am deeply grateful.

Thank you most of all for the gift of your prayerful support and for the gift of your friendship over these many years. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers and always in my heart. May I ask that you do the same for me.

The Lord's peace be with you,

Bishop George J. Rassas

DEACON'S CORNER

June 5, 2018, By Deacon John Sfire

I believe that almost everyone who takes the time to read the DCs on a weekly basis is "thankful" to Our Lord for all that goes on in our lives. I use the expression "all that goes on in our lives" because many of the things that have taken or are taking place in our lives, we are not necessarily happy about. But I know many of you have heard me say either in discussions, homilies or other DCS, that if we are happy with where we are today in this very moment in time, then all that has taken place in our lives has been for the good. And that is how I have lived my life for the past 72 years, or at least as long as I can consciously remember.

Think about it. If you desire to have a deep and lasting joy with Our Lord and Savior, it's important for us to develop an attitude of gratitude. Sometimes that is difficult to do. Some of the times in our lives we might pray for a certain outcome of our wishes and forget that all is controlled by the Will of God. Not by our own desires and wants. And the sooner we can accept that, the sooner we can get on with our spiritual journey in anticipation of obtaining eternal life. We must choose to see the good in all situations and choose to be thankful regardless of the outcome. Whether we like it or not!

So let us begin right now by "counting our blessings." This is a term that Fr. Ryan uses at every Mass he says and I believe by doing so, we are thanking God for all He has given us. After all, let's think about what it cost Jesus to have a relationship with us. Be grateful for the amazing forgiveness He has given us by pardoning our sins past, present and future. Take time in our day to meditate on our wonderful Lord, who would never forsake us. He loves, protects, and provides for us each and every day of our lives. Sometimes I feel like we are blind to see all that Jesus has done.

You might ask: "Deacon John, where would that blindness come from?" Well, I believe our blindness comes from sin, for sin is the ultimate separator of our relationship with God. And yes, we are all sinners. I know I am and while I am not judging anyone else reading this, take a moment and think about that. See what answer you come up with for yourself.

Bobbi and I just returned (Sunday) from a family wedding in Cincinnati. My sister's granddaughter, one of eleven grandchildren, was the first to celebrate the Sacrament of Marriage. And in a blessing I was asked to give to the Bride and Groom, I spoke about listening to each other, having compassion, understanding and love for each other and, most importantly, never go to bed angry. I believe that those three things could be the secret to a successful marriage. I try to practice them always in my relationship with Bobbi. Sometimes I succeed and sometimes I am not as successful as I would like to be. But all in all, we should all try to practice those three virtues no matter how long we have been together.

Finally, we should all consider the wonderful plans God has for us and all of our loved ones He's given us to share our life. Our spouse, our children, our grandchildren, and even friends and associates. We all have so much to be grateful for. Surely, Our Lord deserves our "thanks" for all He has given us and our "praise" for all He suffered in order for us to have what we have.

I know for me, this idea of giving "thanks" to Our Lord is not new, but I feel we may not exercise it as often as we should. So let's make a special effort going forward to be sure and include "thanks" in our daily prayers for the entirety of our lives, both here on earth and eternal life when our journey here is over.

My blessings to all,
Deacon John

Thank you to our 2017-18 eighth grade students for sharing personal stories of their experiences at St. Francis de Sales Catholic School. We have enjoyed sharing these essays with you over the past couple months. The students who wrote these essays read them at Masses during Catholic Schools' Week in January 2018.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK, By Kendall Scott

Catholic Schools Week is the celebration of Catholic education in the U.S. Catholic Schools Week begins on the last Sunday in January. This year, Catholic Schools Week takes place Sunday, January 29 through Saturday, February 4. Children from all over the country benefit greatly from these schools.

St. Francis de Sales School is one of the great Catholic schools around Illinois. Public schools have great things to offer for children of all ages, but Catholic schools overall have even more. Children from all around the country who go to Catholic schools not only get a great education, but they learn about their faith in God. On the contrary, some public schools do not teach about religion, and don't even allow a child to express their religious views. Learning about your faith and religion helps promote the child's desire to become the best they can with their God given talents. Catholic schools also prepare students to be productive and future leaders. They have a 99% high school graduation rate. 85% of these graduates go to college. Public schools only have a 77% graduation rate. In the years that I have been at St. Francis, I feel like I've really excelled in my education and in my faith.

Thank you to the school parishioners for all of their help that they provide over the school year. The parish community donates about 1 million dollars each year to the school, to help promote our education and make after-school activities or events possible. Events like the variety show, spirit day, the 8th grade dance, and cultural arts events wouldn't be possible without the help from the St. Francis parishioners. Thank you for investing in our future. Also, thank you to all of the parents who send their children to Catholic schools to give us the best experience possible. Thank you for giving us the opportunity to become the best person we can be.

Overall, Catholic Schools Week is a great way to appreciate all of the Catholic Schools.
