JOHN THE BAPTIST

Since June 24 falls on a Sunday this year, the Church has the opportunity for a more intense celebration of the birth of John the Baptist, who is often described as the last of the Old Testament prophets and the bridge between Judaism and Christianity. More commonly, John is known as the “precursor” of our Lord Jesus Christ. All the Gospels report John’s basic message: Repent, the kingdom is near at hand. One greater than I is coming.

Though he was a wandering preacher who dressed in camel skins and ate grasshoppers, John’s legacy is one of true royalty. His origins are similar to those foretold by God through the prophet Isaiah: “You are my servant, he said to me, Israel through whom I show my glory” (Isaiah 49:3). John’s humility—“I am not he”—was surpassed only by that of his Lord Jesus, the humble servant who followed.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We have the advantage of celebrating one of the great hidden treasures of our liturgical calendar on a Sunday this year. There are only three “nativity” feasts on our calendar: for the Lord, the Blessed Mother (September 8), and today’s birth of the Baptist. Today’s date is anchored by the Annunciation (March 25), when Mary learns not only of her own child’s advent, but of Elizabeth’s child. We are exactly half a year away from Christmas Eve. There are strong traditions around this feast. Just as the winter solstice provides a rich vocabulary for Christmas, so does the abundance of light at midsummer inform this celebration. Just as at Christmas, a religious festival spills over into culture. As summer light reaches its peak, the sun-drenched zones of northern Europe see people staying up all night, lighting “St. John’s fires” in the summer twilight. Bonfires seem to be the unifying force in all these celebrations, kindled along the shores of the St. Lawrence in Quebec and Montreal, with harbor illuminations in France. You may be most interested in the custom in San Juan, Puerto Rico, the Baptist’s own city. People there will leap into the sea between midnight and dawn to honor John. Why not find your way to a pool, a lake, or a sandy beach today and plunge in to recall your baptism? It’s a tradition!

CARDINAL'S COLUMN: THE BEGINNING OF A LIFELONG CONVERSATION

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Chicago Catholic, June 6, 2018

The following homily was delivered by Cardinal Cupich at the May 19 priests' ordination Mass.

Welcome to all of you. My special greeting goes to the parents, families and friends of the ordinandi. I know that some of you have traveled long distances. We are blessed to have each one of you here today.

My brothers, the Gospel scene you selected for today opens with Jesus and his disciples just having finished breakfast. It is the start of a new day and it is at this moment that Jesus decides to pull Peter aside to begin a conversation about the rest of his life. This is a scene made for you, for today is not just any day, but a new day, the start of a conversation that will be the point of reference for the rest of your life.

So, for a moment see yourself entering into this scene, this conversation Jesus is having with Peter. See Jesus pulling you aside to have a similar intimate talk about your future with him.

He begins by asking you a question: "Do you love me more than these?" It is a question that brings all disciples of Jesus back to the moment when, walking along the shores of Galilee, those first to be called heard him ask, "What are you looking for?" Both are questions of the heart.

Before knowing your talents, your learning, your intelligence, your acquired skills, he wants to know the longings of your heart. Return often to the moment in your life, that Galilee shore moment, when he first called you and you discovered that your heart is all he ever wanted. That is a good way to start this first day of your priesthood and, for that matter, each new day forward.

Let him first know not what you are going to do or have to do, what you need, your successes or sufferings, but what you have been looking for, what is in your heart and what you wanted to tell him from the very beginning: "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." What a great way to begin your prayer this and every new day.

But then we hear him repeat the question not twice but three times. We can sympathize with Peter, who is left exasperated and frustrated, wondering why Jesus was not satisfied the first time he responded. In commenting on this passage, St. Augustine writes that Peter's threefold confession of love was needed to blot out his threefold sin of denial. ("Sermon 88 on the Gospels"). Augustine explains that because sin leaves us so deeply wounded, our healing must come in stages.

Pope Francis echoes this truth in "Gaudete et Exsultate," calling on Augustine frequently to remind us that "in this life human weaknesses are not healed completely and once for all by grace. ... Grace, precisely because it builds on nature, does not make us superhuman all at once. ... Grace acts in history," taking hold of us and transforming us progressively.

In asking Peter the question three times, Jesus was calling him to be patient with his humanity. But he was also asking Peter to trust that his grace, while not healing his sin all at once, works gradually, in a targeted and organic way. Both your personal lives and your ministry to the people of God should always reflect this core value of Christian doctrine, moving you to be humbly patient with human weakness but also fiercely trusting of God's persistent grace.

Finally, Jesus tells the fisherman, Peter, "tend my sheep." But wait a minute — a shepherd? Peter was told he was going to be a "fisher of men." And besides, just before this post-breakfast conversation, Peter didn't do so badly as a fisherman, hauling in a total of 153 fish. Now he is to be a shepherd?

You could almost hear him saying, "I didn't sign up for this." It is hard to imagine a wider gap in skill sets. Clearly, either Jesus or the placement board didn't get the memo. (I can hear Father Mike Knotek, head of our priests' placement board, now: "Oh sure, blame the placement board.")

It is striking, as far as I know, that in the history of Christian art there are no depictions of Peter as a shepherd tending a flock. He is always shown as a fisherman, hauling in a catch, tending his nets or getting out of the boat to walk on water. Yet, as we hear in the second reading, when Peter addresses his fellow presbyters about how they should approach the ministry they share with him, he robustly embraces his new role as a shepherd: "Tend the flock of God in your midst, overseeing not by constraint but willingly, as God would have it, not for shameful profit but eagerly. Do not lord it over those assigned to you, but be examples to the flock."

Maybe the difference between the artistic depictions of Peter as a fisherman and these words in his First Letter, portraying himself as a shepherd, is expressive of the tension that we often feel in our ministry as priests. It is a tension we experience as the church calls us to stretch beyond our own expectations or personal inclinations, especially if it means not recognizing or using the talents we think we have, or even humbly accepting that maybe we have placed limitations on the potential others see in us.

Like Peter we should be willing to live in that tension, and willing to do what the church needs and asks of us. It would not be too difficult to believe that after this morning conversation, Peter once again left his nets and his boat, as he did the first time he met Jesus, but this time he left them for good.

The story of an early morning conversation with Jesus has so much to offer you on this new day in your life. But consider it just the start of an ongoing conversation that should continue through your ministry. I encourage you always to try to make a connection between the Word of the day and your service of God's people.

For instance, as you recall the story of the poor widow Jesus observes giving all she has, be inspired by the many parents who sacrifice so much for their children, and the generosity of ordinary people, while unheralded, does so much good.

As you proclaim the Gospel of the rich young man who went away sad, remember Jesus' response. He looked on this youth seeking purpose in life not with condemnation or judgment but with love.

As you preach on the Beatitudes, remember that when the Lord looked over the crowd from the hilltop, he did not lord it over them or point out their faults and shortcomings, but he told them they were both blessed and blessings in the kingdom of God.

And as you come to the Chrism Mass each year, and hear the same text from Isaiah proclaimed on the day of your ordination, take seriously that you serve so many who look to you not just to announce these glad tidings, but do all you can to see that they are fulfilled in their hearing.

The liturgy of ordination this day tells us that the Lord has set you apart for service to the people of God. The Gospel you have chosen makes clear that this setting apart is not to separate you from the people, but to help keep fresh in your mind that on the day of your ordination, calling you to tend the flock, He pulled you aside, as He did Peter, to begin a conversation He wants to continue for the rest of your lives.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL FOOD PANTRY LEADERS NEEDED!

The St. Vincent DePaul Society is in need of adult volunteers to serve as Food Pantry leaders on Thursday evenings for food distribution.

Volunteers would need to be available Thursday evenings, at least 1-2 times per month, from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. Training will be provided. Above average PC skills would be a plus. Ability to speak Spanish, a plus.

These leadership positions involve setting up in advance of the arrival of our guests at 6 p.m.. This includes setting up the computers, printer, scanner, and applications required to run the food pantry. It also includes being the central point of contact for all volunteers that evening, should questions arise. It includes working with our clients to ensure they have been provided excellent service. Finally, it includes closing everything down for the evening, making sure the facility is back in order, doors are locked, etc.

If this might interest you, please contact St. Vincent DePaul Society at 847-726-4890 to arrange an in-person meeting to get more information.

We appreciate the giving of your time.

God Bless,

The St. Vincent DePaul Society

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Calling all crafters and prospective volunteers, your help is needed. The Children's Organ Transplant Association (COTA) will be hosting a Craft Fair on October 13, 2018 in Valker Hall in honor of local Lake Zurich teen Matthew Dobson. COTA has helped families such as Matthew's with transplant related expenses and that will continue throughout his life. We are in great need of volunteers to help in the following areas:

1. Kitchen help to assist with serving food. We have a person heading it up, but need people to help. (4-5 people)
2. 1 or 2 people to help with the food pantry box to help get the food to where it belongs. Crafters will be asked to donate 1-2 food items for the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry if they choose to do so.
3. Help on Friday, October 12th to space out the booth sizes for the crafters and put two chairs per spot. We will have between 50-60 crafters.
4. 1-2 people to help run the 50/50 raffle and be in charge of ticket sales.

Also if any of the parishioners who own a restaurant might be interested in catering the event/premade sandwiches, we would love to speak with them about possibly working out a menu for the event and to give us a quote.

Anyone who would like more information can contact Nancy Dobson at nancbear@sbcglobal.net.

THE SPRED MINISTRY THANKS THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS!

The Knights of Columbus presented SPRED with a check on in early June for $4,387 which is in addition to the check given to SPRED in April of $500. The SPRED Ministry is extremely grateful for the support of the Knights of Columbus Council #3954. Through their generosity and support we are able to continue to offer faith formation for our parishioners age 6-16 with intellectual disabilities with no cost to the families or the parish. The Knights also donated their time and talent in building our SPRED Center located on the second floor of the Ministry Center. Our SPRED center is one of the three training sites in the Archdiocese and the only one in the suburbs. We have interested catechists come from all over the country to be trained on how to set up a thriving SPRED ministry in their church and diocese. We couldn't do all of this without your support and prayers! Thank you!

15TH PLEDGE UPDATE AND REPAIRS COMPLETED

Sunday, June 17, 2018
Father's Day

Dear Parishioners,

As a reminder of what has been accomplished since May 2017, the parking lots, paved areas, curbs, and sidewalks of the St. Francis de Sales Campus—including our Church and School—have now been completed. The new siding on the Ministry Center roof has also been installed. Repairs have been made to the Chapel roof on the Church, which began to seriously leak along the south wall of the Chapel during the spring and summer rainstorms. In addition to the Chapel roof, the slanted roof above the back sacristy and Music Room has been fixed. It had been leaking for a number of years. The next initiative has begun. On May 15, the installation of the new heating and air conditioning system for the Ministry Center, now scheduled to be completed in June.

As pledges are made and paid, we will continue to address the remaining projects, which can be found on our parish website. See what this good parish has accomplished already in total pledges and number of donors! At this point in the Campaign, 801 donors helped us reach $1,256,117 in total pledges. Total pledges paid are $1,125,821. Balance due is $130,290. It is not the intention of the Fix-It Campaign to place the parish in debt. As a parish, we spent 9 years paying off the $3.8 million debt. We will only address the projects as we raise the funds to pay for them. As Thomas Jefferson advised, "Never spend your money before you have it!" My Grandmother Ryan said the same message in her own way!

For details on the campaign, including the presentation that was shown at Masses as well as the information on Charitable Giving Options, visit our parish website, www.stfrancislzparish.org. Thank you to those who have already responded with a pledge toward the $1.7 million goal. St. Francis de Sales has a long history of generous giving. I respectfully ask for the prayers, involvement, and sacrifice of many, if not all, in the parish in making a pledge towards the Fix-It Campaign in addition to the generosity you provide each Sunday offering. For example, if 1,000 parishioners pledge the suggested amount of $850 per year for 2 years, we will reach our campaign goal immediately to conclude the projects. Please, everyone, participate through a prayer and a pledge. All the funds we raise in the Fix-It Campaign stay within the parish.

I want to express my gratitude to Deacon John Sfire, Jason Sfire, and Amie Paige of The Fidelity Group for doing an extensive study of our parish campus, as was presented in the Fix-It Campaign presentation. I have asked the Fidelity Group, under the leadership of Deacon John Sfire and Jason Sfire, to serve as Project Managers of the Fix-It Campaign. I also want to offer my appreciation for the guidance and involvement of Tom Purtell, Chair of the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC), Marty Bush, Member of the PPC; Mike Carlino, Chair of the Parish Finance Council; Doug Samz, Member of the Parish Finance Council; Christine DePrez, Cornerstone Bank Liaison; Laura Angelini, Business Manager; and Pam Lynch, Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministries.

God give you peace,

Father David F. Ryan, Pastor

Good morning! I'm Cayla Stubler, President of Student Council, and I would like to share the accomplishments of this year's Student Council.

On our first meeting, each member was assigned a home room to recycle for. So, we made sure to recycle for the rooms once to twice a week. On that same day, our Secretary, Meredith Modelski, made a prayer schedule for the Tuesdays and Thursdays of each month and we made sure to maintain this schedule throughout the school year. In September, we painted the faces of the kindergarten through third grade on Spirit Day. We all had fun painting their faces and getting to know all of the kids, and we hope that they had fun too.

In October, Student Council helped promoted Red Ribbon Week. We created pledge cards, promising to be drug free, and handed them out to the homerooms. We also made flyers to hang around the school to promote the themes for each day of that week.

In November, we started to collect gifts from all of the students to donate to the Gift of Love, and we hosted the Open Gym and Toy Dance for the sixth through eighth grade. There, we collected over 100 toys, all of which went to the Gift of Love.

In December, we wanted to try something new out this year pertaining to the eighth grade. We wanted to create a night, before our graduation, to all get together, ease our stress from school, and have fun! So, the board members of the Student Council set up a date for the Eighth Grade Dance. On December 8, most of the eighth grade danced the night away under the strobe lights and sang their hearts out in karaoke.

Towards the middle of December, we held our annual candy cane messaging week. Throughout the whole week, we encouraged the students to send candy cane messages to students. At the end of the week, our Treasurer, Spiros Pissios, counted the money and told us that we raised a grand total of $695 which we donated to St. Jude's.

In March we were able to hold the fourth and fifth grade movie afternoon event. The students were able to relax in their pajamas while watching a movie, and we raised $100 in concession money.

As the year slowly came to an end, the Student Council promoted Pack the Stands for all of our school's athletic teams. We also provided a service morning for our teachers and helped them with some of their classroom activities early in the day. This was something new that Student Council took on in place of the Spring Door Decorating Contest.

In honor of this past year, I have one request for the new members of Student Council as well as the new Board members. To keep anything going for as long as we have, you have to follow a legacy. In anything that we do, we are following some legacy that was put in place for us. As this year's board members move on to high school I want to encourage this new board to uphold some of the newer things that we brought to Student Council this year. I wish that this year's Student Council will continue, or try to continue, to maintain a prayer schedule throughout the weeks to come. It was a way for us to bring the school together in prayer at the end of a stressful day, whether they chose to listen or not. I would also like for you to try your best to continue the Eighth Grade Dance tradition. It was really a way for the eighth grade to come together and celebrate all of the things they have been through together before crying at graduation. Please continue to support our school teams in Pack the Stands because I know that every team could use that extra push of encouragement. Finally, please find more time to help the teachers before school. You might not realize it now, but our teachers do more things for us than you could ever imagine and the smallest deed can go the longest way.

I'm definitely going to miss being a part of Student Council and seeing all of the members after school or super early in the morning. Thank you all for such a great year and I'm so proud of everything we were able to accomplish.

EUCHARIST FOR PERSONS WITH CELIAC-SPRUE DISEASE

At St. Francis de Sales, we have become aware of several parishioners who suffer from Celiac-Sprue disease, which makes a person sick when they ingest gluten. Gluten is a component of wheat flour and our standard Communion hosts contain gluten. Low-gluten hosts (.01%) are available for sufferers of this disease. If you wish to learn more about this option, please contact Father Ryan at (847) 726-4723.

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers.

Please call Fr. Ryan (847-726-4723) or Ministry of Care (847-438-6622) when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion.

Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.
