Celebrating Labor Day

Work is fundamental to the dignity of a person.
Work, to use an image, "anoints" us with dignity, fills us with dignity, makes us similar to God, who has worked and still works, who always acts...

Parish School Spirit Day Presentation

September 2, 2018: 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

All our happiness consists in this subjection of our own spirit, as on contrary all our unhappiness comes from a lack of it.

-St. Francis de Sales

THE HIGHEST LAW

From time to time, newspapers and magazines will offer, as an item of “filler,” various laws that are still on the books but seem silly to us in our day and age. In one California city, it is illegal to have two indoor bathtubs in one house. Clean water, a precious commodity when the law was written, is now readily available, so the law seems silly. But the human value of protecting and preserving precious resources is still around, evident in many conservation laws that seem sensible to us. So it is with the laws of religious tradition. What Jesus scorns today is others' attitude toward ritual laws, an attitude that becomes nearly idolatrous when laws are observed for their own sake. Jesus teaches that observation of external ritual laws is of value only when they are emblems of our internal disposition toward the will of God. Our whole lives must follow the one ultimate law of God: to love God completely and to love neighbor entirely. Roman Catholicism is a tradition rich with customs, traditions, and even laws. As we continue to listen to the voice of Christ, we must always look into our own hearts and underneath our ritual practices to make sure that love of God and love of neighbor are what we prize above all.

GROWING DISCIPLES

Welcome to this new column in our weekly bulletin! It is written by fellow parishioners with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus. In Greek, DISCIPLE means “a follower or apprentice of a master.” To be Jesus' disciple, we are called to live like him, think like him, serve like him. Lets walk together and follow Jesus!

CREATION

We are created with a desire to be loved. The only thing that can truly satisfy that desire is knowing and loving the One who created it. Saint Augustine famously wrote, “You have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless, until they can find rest in you.”

It is your birthright. Are you willing to follow Jesus and claim it?

LETTER FROM CARDINAL BLASE J. CUPICH TO THE PEOPLE OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO IN RESPONSE TO THE PENNSYLVANIA GRAND JURY REPORT

August 17, 2018

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Anger, shock, grief, shame. What other words can we summon to describe the experience of learning about the devastating revelations of sexual abuse—and the failures of bishops to safeguard the children entrusted to their care—published in the Pennsylvania grand jury report, released Tuesday? This catalogue of horrors comes on the heels of news accounts of deeply disturbing sexual-abuse and harassment allegations against Archbishop Theodore McCarrick, who recently resigned from the College of Cardinals. And yet whatever words we may use to describe the anguish of reading about these heinous acts, they can never capture the reality of suffering endured by victims of sexual abuse, suffering compounded by the woeful responses of bishops who failed to protect the people they were ordained to serve. As the Holy See put it in its August 16 statement on the grand jury report: “The church must learn hard lessons from its past, and there should be accountability for both abusers and those who permitted abuse to occur.”

I know that many of you are asking: How could this be happening again? Didn't the U.S. bishops address this crisis sixteen years ago when they met in Dallas? What are they doing now, and why should we trust that this time they will do the right thing?

These are precisely the questions that ought to be asked. As a former chair of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops Committee for the Protection of Children and Young People, I have asked them myself. And sorrow, disgust, outrage—these are righteous feelings, the stirrings of the conscience of a people scandalized by the terrible reality that too many of the men who promised to protect their children, and strengthen their faith, have been responsible for wounding both.

We know this not only because of the admirable work of the many members of the news media who played an essential role in bringing this crisis into the light. Now, we have been made to face these scandals first and foremost by the courage of victim-survivors—the men and woman who found the strength, even when doing so meant suffering again unimaginable pain, to come forward and seek justice from an institution that grievously failed them.

What are we bishops doing now to ensure that those failures are not repeated? Today, USCCB President Cardinal Daniel DiNardo announced on behalf of all the bishops that our conference will launch a thorough investigation of the allegations against Archbishop McCarrick; that it will establish new ways in which people can report complaints against bishops; and that it will advocate for more effective resolution of such allegations. The USCCB will invite the Holy See to investigate the McCarrick case, in concert with a predominantly lay group of experts.

The bishops will also update our 2002 “Statement of Episcopal Commitment” by which the bishops pledged to follow a procedure for reporting allegations of sexual abuse of minors by a bishop.

This document needs revision to clarify how victims can report abuse of minors or other misconduct by bishops, as well as develop third-party reporting systems, many of which are already being looked at today. Of course, bishops are not exempt from following standards of behavior. Our own Cardinal Joseph Bernardin provided a strong example, when he chose to step aside after he was accused of abuse—a charge that was eventually retracted.

The USCCB will also press for procedures that will make it easier to resolve complaints against bishops in a timely, fair, and transparent manner.

As Cardinal DiNardo explained, all this will be conducted with “proper independence, sufficient authority, and substantial leadership by laity.” This call for lay oversight of the investigation, as much as the scandal itself, shows the need for systemic change in the way we order church life. The clericalist mindset, responsible for so much of the scandal, must be purged from church life. As Pope Francis has urged, we need to remember that it is our baptism that unites us. We as a church must reflect more deeply on what we share in common, rather than what distinguishes us.

The abuses contained in the Pennsylvania grand jury report are, as you know, appallingly familiar. And while it is true that the vast majority of abuses contained in that report occurred decades ago, that is of no comfort to victims, nor should it be to any of us. We cannot say this enough: the abuses should never have happened, and no one should have acted in ways that enabled them. This is why, following the 2002 waves of scandals, the USCCB adopted policies designed to protect young people from abusers. We instituted a zero-tolerance policy which holds that even one instance of child sexual abuse would bar someone from the priesthood forever. The Archdiocese of Chicago has implemented these policies and even done more.

1. We established an independent lay-majority review board to consider allegations against clergy and make recommendations to the bishops.
2. We refer all allegations of abuse to civil authorities.
3. We require diocesan employees and volunteers to undergo background checks.
4. We mandate that all diocesan employees and volunteers undergo safe-environment training to help them identify predatory behavior and understand avenues of reporting. And we required that children be taught how to recognize, resist and report abuse.
5. We undergo an annual audit to measure compliance with these policies, which every year has found the Archdiocese of Chicago compliant.

Since 2002, hundreds of thousands of our people in dioceses across the United States have undergone safe-environment training. In many ways we can say that the policies of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, which established procedures for addressing allegations of sexual abuse of minors by clergy, have been successful. According to the Pennsylvania grand jury report, for example, just two of the 300 priests named in the text were accused within the past decade, and both were reported to civil authorities. This excuses nothing, and we can never become complacent about our responsibility to protect children and adults from abuse and harassment, but it does say something about the effects of our post-2002 policies.

Here in the Archdiocese of Chicago, we have been following procedures that were first established by Cardinal Bernardin in 1992, following revelations of clergy abuse that came to light during that period. In addition to what the Charter calls for, we offer payment for counseling or other assistance to anyone who comes to us with allegations even before attempting to establish the credibility of the claim. After any civil investigation has concluded, we conduct our own inquiry into allegations against priests, and our majority-lay review board considers the case and makes a recommendation to me about whether the accused should remain in ministry. One of the most important things Cardinal Bernardin did was to establish a regular meeting of everyone who might be called in to consider a case of sexual abuse, whether it involves a minor or an adult. So, to this day, representatives from across the relevant pastoral center offices regularly meet with me to advise me on cases that arise and ways to strengthen our commitments.

Of course, not set of procedures is perfect. As the grand jury report illustrates, they are subject to the strengths and weaknesses of those entrusted to carry them out. Closed systems always tend toward self-protection; it is only when we create systems of accountability that we let in purifying light. That’s what our practices are designed to do. They exist because we as a church have a grave responsibility to ensure the safety of our people. That is why I encourage anyone who has been victimized to contact our Office of Protection of Children and Youth at 800.994.6200 or protect.archchicago.org.

Anger, shock, grief, shame. There is one other word that we bishops must summon: resolve. We must resolve to face our failures and hold each other accountable. We must resolve to be clear-eyed about what we have done, what we have failed to do, and what remains to be done. We must resolve to live in the light of humility, of repentance, of honesty—the light of Christ. As your bishop, I pledge to continue holding firm to that resolve. And I ask for you to pray for all victims of abuse. I also invite you to review what I have written here and make suggestions for improving our safe-environment standards, ever heeding the Second Vatican Council’s “Dogmatic Constitution on the Church,” which called on the laity, “by reason of the knowledge, competence or outstanding ability which they may enjoy ... to express their opinion on those things which concern the good of the church.”

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Archbishop Blase J. Cupich
Archbishop of Chicago

St. Francis de Sales

WE CAN "FIX IT" TOGETHER

18TH PLEDGE UPDATE AND REPAIRS COMPLETED

Sunday, August 26, 2018
21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners,

As a reminder of what has been accomplished since May 2017, the parking lots, paved areas, curbs, and sidewalks of the St. Francis de Sales Campus—including our Church and School—have now been completed. The new siding on the Ministry Center roof has also been installed. Repairs have been made to the Chapel roof on the Church, which began to seriously leak along the south wall of the Chapel during the spring and summer rainstorms. In addition to the Chapel roof, the slanted roof above the back sacristy and Music Room has been fixed. It had been leaking for a number of years. The installation of the new heating and air conditioning system for the Ministry Center is almost completed, and the next initiative has begun. On Tuesday, August 21, workers began the demolition of the building that housed the original St. Francis de Sales Church. Not only was this building the first St. Francis de Sales church, but it also housed the first Ela Township Library in the basement. When the church was decommissioned, it became a lunchroom for the parish school and then a storage facility.

As pledges are made and paid, we will continue to address the remaining projects, which can be found on our parish website. See what this good parish has accomplished already in total pledges and number of donors! At this point in the Campaign, 816 donors helped us reach $1,282,092 in total pledges. Total pledges paid are $1,183,578. Balance due is $98,513. It is not the intention of the Fix-It Campaign to place the parish in debt. As a parish, we spent 9 years paying off the $3.8 million debt. We will only address the projects as we raise the funds to pay for them. As Thomas Jefferson advised, "Never spend your money before you have it!" My Grandmother Ryan said the same message in her own way!

For details on the campaign, including the presentation that was shown at Masses as well as the information on Charitable Giving Options, visit our parish website, www.stfrancislzparish.org. Thank you to those who have already responded with a pledge toward the $1.7 million goal. St. Francis de Sales has a long history of generous giving. I respectfully ask for the prayers, involvement, and sacrifice of many, if not all, in the parish in making a pledge towards the Fix-It Campaign in addition to the generosity you provide each Sunday offering. For example, if 1,000 parishioners pledge the suggested amount of $850 per year for 2 years, we will reach our campaign goal immediately to conclude the projects. Please, everyone, participate through a prayer and a pledge. All the funds we raise in the Fix-It Campaign stay within the parish.

I want to express my gratitude to Deacon John Sfire, Jason Sfire, and Amie Paige of The Fidelity Group for doing an extensive study of our parish campus, as was presented in the Fix-It Campaign presentation. I have asked the Fidelity Group, under the leadership of Deacon John Sfire and Jason Sfire, to serve as Project Managers of the Fix-It Campaign. I also want to offer my appreciation for the guidance and involvement of Tom Purtell, Chair of the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC), Marty Bush, Member of the PPC; Mike Carlino, Chair of the Parish Finance Council; Doug Samz, Member of the Parish Finance Council; Christine DePrez, Cornerstone Bank Liaison; Laura Angelini, Business Manager; and Pam Lynch, Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministries.

God give you peace,
Father David F. Ryan, Pastor

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

November 30, 2017

Dear Father Ryan,

Our Annual Catholic Appeal is framed in the words of Jesus: Come, follow me. It is an invitation to be Christ for others and to live in a community of discipleship. As Christ's community we help to sustain Catholic schools and parishes in need, support programs of religious education, ministerial formation, and promote the protection of life and peace and justice. Through the Annual Appeal, we together support the efforts of Catholic Relief Services that cares for people across the globe who struggle and suffer because of natural disasters.

Since St. Francis de Sales elected to participate in the ACA Incentive Plan in 2017, your 2018 goal is reduced to 75% of your regular goal. Therefore, your 2018 goal is 4.5% of the previous year's offertory income.

Your offertory income for Fiscal Year 2016-2017 was $2,036,797. Therefore, your target is $91,656.

When parishioner contributions exceed the parish goal, St. Francis de Sales will receive a rebate of 100% of the funds donated over the goal.

Just as you have my gratitude, you also have my prayers. Let us pray for one another. Together, as his disciples, we can do so much to bring Jesus to a world that is deeply in need. With God's grace and help, we will fulfill our mission.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT: First Friday, September 7, 2018

Eucharistic Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is held at St. Francis de Sales every First Friday immediately following the 8:30 a.m. Mass, and continuing until 4 p.m. Eucharistic Adoration honors the special presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist. Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament is a profession of faith in the real bodily presence of Jesus. One of the best ways to look at prayer before the Blessed Sacrament is to see it as an extension of Holy Communion.

Our souls are fed and our minds and wills are strengthened and given light, that we may go about the tasks of our daily lives. Please come and spend some time in prayer with the Lord. For more information, call Denise Alianello at (847) 726-1307 or Lillian Shutty at (847) 682-4555.

CHURCH BUS PILGRIMAGE

Our next Church Bus Pilgrimage will take place on Tuesday, September 18. We will begin the day with the 7 a.m. Mass and depart to the Shrine of Christ's Passion in St. John, Indiana. The Shrine offers a beautifully landscaped half-mile prayer trail and an exquisite 10,000 square foot Shrine Gift Shoppe. For those who are unable to walk the half-mile prayer trail, we have reserved 3 club cars (15 riders).

The cost will be $25/person with lunch at your own expense. Please call the Ministry Center at (847) 438-6622 to register.

CLASSES BEGIN SEPTEMBER 18TH FOR FAMILY MEMBERS OF THOSE AFFECTED BY MENTAL ILLNESS

One-in-five. That's the number of adults who are dealing with a mental illness this year. Yes, twenty percent. This number might surprise you since many people living with these illnesses and their families don't talk about the illness due to the stigma surrounding mental illness.

If this has hit your family, you know that living with a family member who has a mental illness can take a real toll not just on the individual with the illness, but on those in the family as well. In many cases, family members of those who have been diagnosed with depression, bipolar disorder, an anxiety disorder, borderline personality disorder, or schizophrenia feel isolated from the community due to stigma, shame, and the fear of being judged.

The good news is that you are not alone and there is a program that can help you learn more about these illnesses, and how to help your ill family member and yourself. The National Alliance on Mental Illness will be offering a 12-week program designed specifically for those who have a family member with a mental illness. The class will be held at St. Francis on Tuesday evenings, from September 18th – December 4th.

For more information and to register, please contact Teri Latter at 847-809-6038.

RCIA

Evangelization is the responsibility of every Baptized Catholic. Each of us needs to spread the Good News. Will you help us?

- Are you, or do you know, an adult who attends Mass regularly but who is not Catholic?
- Are you, or do you know, an adult who is married to a Catholic but is not Catholic?
- Are you, or do you know, an adult who is interested in becoming Catholic?

BECOMING CATHOLIC

RCIA

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) is a process of evangelization that answers religious questions, teaches Catholic doctrine, and welcomes adults into an active role in our parish life.

If you are, or if you know, someone that would be interested in becoming Catholic and receiving the three Sacraments of Initiation, including Baptism, Holy Communion, and Confirmation, please contact Father Ryan at (847) 726-4723 with your name and phone number. Father Ryan will return your call for a conversation about becoming a Catholic through the RCIA Program. We look forward to hearing from you!

CLEAN JEANS DRIVE

Please drop-off your new or gently used "Clean Jeans" in the bins outside of church before each mass at St. Francis de Sales Church on the weekends of September 8-9 and September 15-16, 2018. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul will distribute them to the people in our area who need them. Clean Jeans Only would be appreciated.

All sizes are needed (men's, women's, children's). We are only collecting blue jeans at this time (no other clothes). Financial donations will also be accepted to purchase pairs for sizes we don't receive. Checks can be made out to St. Vincent de Paul and reference "Jean Drive" in the memo section.

As you are searching through your closets or boxes, please keep in mind that St. Francis de Sales will be having a "Coat Drive" in November. Reminders will be in the Church bulletin, e-newsletter, and parish website.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL THANK YOU!

THANK YOU to all who participated in the Back-to-School program! We again had a wonderful year with 502 backpacks donated to needy children! Because of your generosity, these children will start school with a new backpack and the school supplies they need for a successful year. Thanks to the Ministry Center staff for their help moving backpacks whenever we needed it, and to Sherry Otto, Geri Gaj, Julie Rohrbach and Diane Larrabee for their help on all the weekends. A special thanks to Stewart Tanakatsubo for his assistance in transporting the backpacks on the last weekend of our drive. The backpacks were distributed to low-income children through our St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry, Our Lady of Tepeyac, and Catholic Charities, just in time for the first day of school. We are grateful for your contributions to support these children and for giving them a chance for a bright new future.

JUBILEE GARDEN

Please join us for the 2018 Jubilee Garden Season! NO GARDENING EXPERIENCE NECESSARY! Farming season will continue through October 20. We meet from 8 to 11 a.m. on Saturday mornings. Your help is needed, even if only for an hour! For details, call Sharon Fredrickson at 847-643-6633. The Garden is located on the north side of Route 22, just east of Quentin.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Calling all crafters and prospective volunteers, your help is needed. The Children's Organ Transplant Association (COTA) will be hosting a Craft Fair on October 13, 2018 in Valker Hall in honor of local Lake Zurich teen Matthew Dobson. COTA has helped families such as Matthew's with transplant related expenses and that will continue throughout his life. We are in great need of volunteers to help in the following areas:

1. Kitchen help to assist with serving food. We have a person heading it up, but need people to help. (4-5 people)
2. 1 or 2 people to help with the food pantry box to help get the food to where it belongs. Crafters will be asked to donate 1-2 food items for the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry if they choose to do so.
3. Help on Friday, October 12th to space out the booth sizes for the crafters and put two chairs per spot. We will have between 50-60 crafters.
4. 1-2 people to help run the 50/50 raffle and be in charge of ticket sales.

Also if any of the parishioners who own a restaurant might be interested in catering the event/premade sandwiches, we would love to speak with them about possibly working out a menu for the event and to give us a quote.

Anyone who would like more information can contact Nancy Dobson at nancbear@sbcglobal.net.

CHICAGO CATHOLIC SCRIPTURE SCHOOL

This fall, St. Anne Parish will host The Loyola University Institute of Pastoral Studies (IPS) Chicago Catholic Scripture School (CCSS). This course provides a transformational encounter with Jesus Christ and formation in Sacred Scripture within a Roman Catholic framework. Anyone wishing to deepen their understanding of scripture will benefit. This first two years focus on biblical study and prayer with the Bible in the Roman Catholic tradition, including a comprehensive study of some major books of the Old and New Testaments. The remaining two years delve deeply into the Old and New Testaments, covering all other books in the Bible. Two options of study are available, including a Certification Program (required to complete homework and exams) and St. Jerome Lecture Series (not a formal Certificate). St. Anne is hosting CCSS beginning September 11 on Tuesday afternoons from 1 to 3 p.m. and evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. For general info, contact Mary Jane Kurowski at mjkurowski@stannebarrington.org. For further info, a calendar, and to register, visit www.luc.edu/ips/ccss.
