"Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls."
— James 1:21b

DOERS OF THE WORD

The second reading for today begins a five-week series of selections from James, a letter that is classified among the so-called "catholic" (or universal) epistles because they are addressed to a general audience rather than to one particular community. Today's text offers important advice for Christians of every generation. God is first cited as the author of all gifts, and in particular, reference is made to the gift of baptism by which we have been made the "first fruits" of the new creation.

What follows is advice based on a very Jewish understanding of the "word" as an active force, operative in the world. We are reminded that unless we, too, become "doers" of the word, our claim to faith is empty. Today and in subsequent weeks the author reminds us that it is equally important to do the "works" of love, for example, by caring for the "orphans and widows in their affliction."

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

The book of James is full of practical advice. Only 5 chapters, less than 3 pages, it evokes challenges to the serious Christian. Today we hear in James 1:22, "Be doers of the word, not hearers only." In 1:27 "...keep oneself unstained by the world." The world needs our action, our message. These can only come from a heart formed in prayer and by grace. The world can easily poison our thoughts. Guard against its influence. Spend time growing in the Spirit.

You have great support within our community.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Albert Einstein said that the “true measure of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination.” Being a disciple of Jesus Christ requires a great deal of imagination. It is not enough to simply attend to facts, rules and rituals and consider the job done. Quite contrarily, the Gospels demands creativity, of trying to discern how to put flesh on the Beatitudes and properly serve God’s children. Jesus never doled out a top down agenda. Not once did he ever demand conformity over conversion or sacrifice over mercy. The Gospel is always about putting people in touch with their compassionate, forgiving, and unconditionally loving God and meeting them where they are.

For Jesus, it often meant breaking a few rules. Well respected and time-honored traditions had to be set aside in order to attend to what really mattered. God’s compassion, mercy and true conversion were always the trump cards. The story of the Good Samaritan, healing on the Sabbath, and bypassing of purification rituals all display this theme. Human beings can get too hung up on protocol and tradition. This is so much so that often preserving all of these things is of greater concern than the beggar knocking on our door or the sinner looking for mercy. It is no wonder, then, that we can easily become hypocritical. Many can see us on our knees in prayer while our true heart and actions, rooted in judgment and self-preservation, are hidden from others. It is a trap into which we can easily fall. Who cares how we live our lives as long as our hands are properly washed!

Here enters the need for imagination and the distinction of truly being a wise and intelligent person. It takes a good measure of creativity and a lot of guts to really be a doer of God’s word and not merely a hearer. Being a person who doesn’t just tell people about God but shows people God requires courage and ingenuity. That’s why people like St. Francis of Assisi and St. Teresa of Calcutta are timeless. Their genuineness speaks volumes generation to generation. It’s risky business taking the step to allow God into our hearts. Permitting God to release us from the grip of our evil thoughts, infidelity, greed, malice, sexual improprieties, licentiousness, envy, arrogance, folly, and the like takes courage. That’s why we prefer to spend our energy rearranging the future rather than take measures to secure a foundation that is most certainly crumbling.

“Why do your disciples not follow the tradition of the elders but instead eat a meal with unclean hands?” He responded, “Well did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it is written: This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.” - Mk 7:5b-6

GIVE IT ALL BACK

Pop culture has given us a unique idea of the term justice. Justice, we often think, is about taking. Taking what's owed. Taking revenge. Taking what we deserve. This worldview tends to make mincemeat of our Catholic social teachings. Seeking the good of the poor, a call to community and participation, solidarity — on the face of it, in a society where everything must be earned and we are encouraged to hoard for ourselves whatever success we can achieve, these principles look a lot like highway robbery.

But when you remember the presence of an omnipotent, all-loving and all-merciful God, it turns our gunslinging sense of justice on its head. For how does justice inhabit the same universe as a God who is so quick to give and indeed to forgive?

Well, very easily, when we remember Who exactly is the source of every good and perfect thing in this world. There is no law that cannot be traced back to the Word. And the Word saves our souls.

Is that justice? No, that is a gift. It is the reckless, indulgent gift of a father whose love is greater than His anger. What is justice in the Biblical sense?

The answer is simple. Look at your life. See the hours in your day? See your spouse, your kids, your grandkids? See the house they live in, the money in your wallet, the food in your fridge, the breath in your lungs?

Calling it all your own, refusing to share any of it — that's robbery. Giving it all back to the One who gave it to you — that's justice.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

MY FRIEND HAS NEVER HEARD OF CHRIST AND I WANT TO SHARE THE GOSPEL WITH HER BUT I'M AFRAID TO. HOW DO I SHARE MY FAITH?

There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you!

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

STATEMENT OF CARDINAL BLASE CUPICH ON *TRADITIONIS CUSTODES

I am grateful to Pope Francis for issuing on July 16, 2021, an apostolic letter entitled Traditionis Custodes ("Guardians of the Tradition"). His letter gives directions about the use of the liturgical forms prior to the reforms of 1970, that is, the use of the Roman Missal published under the auspices of Pope St. John XXIII in 1962. In doing so, Pope Francis follows a trajectory from Pope St. John Paul II through Pope Benedict XVI and into his own pontificate with regard to the use of this earlier Missal. His concern is the unity of the Church. Very properly, by entrusting the implementation of his directives to local diocesan bishops, he restores the principle that the bishop is the chief liturgist in the diocese.

In response to the letter I will take time to study, reflect and consult with others on it and in due time offer a pathway for implementing what the Holy Father has asked us to do, keeping in mind the principle of unity and the ability to appropriately authorize the use of the Missal of 1962. In the meanwhile, current practices with regard to the 1962 Missal remain in place.

My hope and prayer, as always and in communion with the Holy Father, is for the unity of the Church. I also pray that this will be an occasion for all of us to deepen our understanding and appreciation of the worship life of the Church, the Eucharist and the liturgical renewal of the Second Vatican Council which, St. Pope John Paul affirmed, represents the "movement of the Holy Spirit in the Church." Apostolic Letter, VICESIMUS QUINTUS ANNUS, 12, 1988.

Dear Brothers,

During my vicariate meetings with the priests, I was told that some parishioners are asking their pastors to provide or sign a document testifying that their refusal to be vaccinated against the Covid virus is supported by the teaching of the Catholic Church. I do know that some bishops individually or by state have provided templates for such a declaration, even though there is no basis in Catholic moral teaching for rejecting vaccine mandates on religious grounds.

In fact, the Holy See has clearly stated that receiving the Covid vaccine is unquestionably in keeping with Catholic faith, and even has urged people to be vaccinated as an act of charity and out of respect for the common good in fighting the pandemic. Our moral teaching, while ever respectful of the rights of individuals, always keeps in focus the common good. Not doing so distorts Catholic doctrine.

Therefore, if you are asked to offer such testimony, please politely decline and explain that doing so would mean that you would be endorsing something that is not in keeping with Catholic teaching. Parishioners surely can determine their own actions, but it would be important to clarify that they cannot use the teaching of the church to justify such decisions, which in their essence, are a rejection of the church's authentic moral teaching regarding Covid vaccines.

This letter gives me the opportunity once again to thank you for your extraordinary service to God's People and assure you of my closeness to you in this time of the pandemic, filled with great challenges but also God's abundant grace.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

Deacon's Corner

Some time ago, I wrote about "obedience". This week I am writing about "talking vs doing". I am sure you have all heard the expressions; "talk is cheap" or "are you a talker or a doer?" or "actions speak louder than words" and the list goes on and on. In looking at the "information highway" of the internet, I googled "expressions of talking vs doing" and I was amazed at all of the expressions that have been written over the years. This sparked some ideas that led to this DC.

Over the past seven decades of my life, I have always tried to "do what I say". And sometimes that creates a challenge, at least in my life it has, since I have found myself saying things that might be difficult to do. How about you? Give that some thought as you continue to read this. How easy it has been for us over the years to say something, but find it more difficult to do it. Like raising our children, for instance. Many times we tell our children to do something that we may or may not be willing to do ourselves. We know that if our children do what we tell them, they will be better off in the long run, but are we willing to "take our own advice?" I know this has happened to me over the years so it is easy for me to write about it.

And while this concept of "talking vs doing" is easy to recognize when relating to others in our lives, how do we apply it to our spiritual life? How do we communicate the message that we hear from Our Lord into actions? How do we apply all we have been told over the years and all that we have talked about with our parents, in school, in the workplace, at Church and most importantly, to ourselves?

Looking more deeply into this concept, we can see that there are numerous ways to apply this to our daily lives in all that we do. And that is the most important premise to follow; "in all that we do". How we relate to members of our own family, how we relate to friends, how we relate to fellow workers and how do we relate to strangers? For me, I try not to differentiate in my relationships, and sometimes that is a challenge. Of course, we have different types of relationships with all of the above categories of people, but, all in all, our basic actions should be the same.

I am sure you all recall that I continually stress; "Love the Lord thy God with your whole heart and love your neighbor as ourselves". This, to me, is the ultimate expression of being a "doer not a talker". And I will continue to stress these two Commandments as long as I am here on this good earth. For I know that by living by these Commandments, my life will be pleasing to God and that is the ultimate, the most important, number one thing that we should all strive for. For our life to be pleasing to God. Not just some of the time when we feel like it, but all the time. Even when the evil one, who is ever present in our lives, tries to move us off the path of righteousness. And, believe me, it is easy to be led astray in today's society. I don't say that because I read it in a book or listened to someone tell me that, I know because I have been led astray many times in my life. The good thing I can say is that I have, to the best of my knowledge, asked God for His forgiveness and gotten back on the right track. How about you? Can you relate to what I am saying?

If so, we all know that it is never too late to ask for His forgiveness. For Our Lord is always there for us. You see, He is a doer not a talker. Our Lord and Savior is always ready to "pick us up" as we continue to fall in this life. He does not judge what we have done, He only wants us to live in His grace so that when our journey is complete, He can welcome us into His Heavenly Paradise. He is the ultimate "doer" as proven by His own journey here on earth. Let's take His example and become a "doer not a talker" as our life continues and I know from experience that each passing day will become more enjoyable as we journey here on earth.

My Blessings to all,

Deacon John

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call the Parish Office - Ministry of Care, (847)438-6622, when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.
