a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

FEELING BLESSED

Congratulations! Welcome to the Kingdom! Rejoice and leap for joy! Sounds a little like Easter, doesn't it? Well, in a very real way, it is. This Sunday, the scriptures remind us that we are blessed and beloved, especially when we have difficulties and don't feel especially blessed. Jesus reminds us that God blesses us in our trials, so we should trust in the saving power of God. We are "raised from the dead," as it were, each time we arise from our hardships. The ultimate proof of all of this is our new life in Christ, who died so that we could be free of sin, and was raised from the dead so that we might all have new life. Wouldn't that be something? A new life, in which poverty is riches and sadness is transformed into lightness of spirit? It's a topsy-turvy world, isn't it? Do you feel blessed today? Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

What is prayer? In essence, it's a discussion with trusted friends- Jesus, Father and the Holy Spirit. Prayer can take on many forms. This acronym can help us remember the various types of prayers we can have with our Lord, our PAL.

- P – Praise and thanksgiving for the blessings he showers upon us
- A – Ask for healing, forgiveness and ask in the name of Jesus Christ
- L – Listen to God in the quiet of the day for direction and guidance

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

What has been the most difficult challenge you faced in your life? Many difficult human experiences can “turn up the heat” in our lives, causing us to question the why of things or even fall into despair. Some people just somewhat passively accept what life brings, even death, and chalk difficult experiences up to happening “because they do.” They seemingly endure and move on. Taking life at face value, there really is no ultimate meaning to things. It’s easier to ignore that inner prompting calling us to understand why. It’s there whether we admit it or not. To question or not to question — that is the question! People sometimes give up the God search because it causes too many questions. Once we open the door to the possibility of God’s existence, then all of the awkward, challenging, and tragic pieces of life have to find their place.

It gets messy. But the search is so important to living. We can easily dry up and become arid, abandoning any hope for purpose and meaning because it’s too difficult and non-rational at times. In searching for answers to the how and why of life, human beings also embark on a search for God. When one finally stumbles upon the real living tangible presence of God, then that discovery allows life’s ironies and tensions to be held side by side with the all-encompassing totally unconditional, unmerited love of God! Then when life’s heat gets turned up, difficulties and challenges abound, dryness and heartache become the norm, the soul remains in joyful repose. There is no fear.

The beatitudes celebrate life’s ironies and tensions, holding them all together in the Kingdom of God. Poverty, hunger, weeping, being insulted and hated are not things we would normally associate with being God’s friends. But they are! In fact, those who experience these uncomfortable realities of life are actually better off than those who do not. This is what makes Jesus’ message so intriguing! Don’t give up questioning. Questioning the apparent inequities and polarities of human experience will certainly challenge one’s faith. But it’s the only way to deepen it.

*“Blessed are you who are now hungry,
for you will be satisfied.
Blessed are you who are now weeping,
for you will laugh.”
- Lk 6:21*

PLANTED NEAR WATER

We all know that there are times when life can feel, as Jeremiah writes, empty and wasted. There are moments when we think we resemble a barren bush, thirsting in the desert sun.

That's why it is imperative for us to know the location of our water source. I promise you, it's closer than you think. God never planted a seed in barren ground.

For me, it's the Mass. Going to Mass is where I find total peace and renewal. I don't have any great theological explanation for this — Mass is simply where I can truly rest in God for a time, where nothing and no one in the world can touch me. And wouldn't you know it, it's in the toughest times that I need Mass the most — that my roots stretch harder for that water.

Woe to the rich, says Jesus — woe to the popular, to the content, to the happy. It's not because He hates to see us smile. It's because He knows our humanity. He knows our limitations. He knows that when things are going really well, we often stop looking for God.

What replenishes you as a disciple, as a steward, as a Christian? If it feels far away or hard to reach, why is that? How can you bring it closer?

We are all trees planted near water, to yield our fruit in due season. Let's pray for the strength to know where our water source is, and to seek it both in good times and in bad.

HOW CAN A PRIEST COUNSEL PEOPLE ABOUT MARRIAGE WHEN HE HAS NEVER BEEN MARRIED?

If a marriage counselor is in a bad marriage does that mean that he or she will be a bad counselor? If one's counseling ability depended upon first-hand experience, would that require counselors to be perfect before they can help others? Obviously not. Some of the skills necessary to help others do come out of personal life experience. But you don't need personal, first-hand experience in order to understand something. We would not think that a doctor, who is an oncologist, would not be able to treat cancer because he himself has never been sick. We also would not expect every doctor to treat cancer. It is the same with priests.

Essentially marriage is a relationship and we've all been involved in different kinds of relationships: in our family, with our friends, and with God. And so counseling people about marriage is really helping them to look at the issues that really are part of their relationship, finding ways to better understand themselves in relationship to one another and in relationship to God. In many ways a priest's training, background, and experience, as well as his personal knowledge of many different relationships in families and couples, gives him a broad background from which to draw upon.

Most priests are quite capable of helping couples prepare for marriage and discussing the issues that are important as they begin their life together. And they do not do it alone. With the help of married couples and specially trained counselors, most parishes offer a very good preparation for the sacrament of marriage.

Rev. David Ryan
St. Francis De Sales Church
135 South Buesching Road
Lake Zurich, IL 60047

Dear Fr. Ryan,

After reflecting on the graces, joys, challenges and sorrows of 2021, we look to 2022 with great hope and dreams for a promising new year. COVID has certainly changed us, but it hasn't all been bad. We have been inspired and strengthened by your kindness. Thank you for your gift of food. Your support is a great help for us in caring for our dear elderly.

In writing of the Feast of the Presentation of our Lord which we celebrate this month, Pope Francis contemplates Simeon and Anna, whom Jesus, Mary and Joseph met in the temple. "Dear grandparents, dear elderly, let us follow in the footsteps of these extraordinary elders! Let us too become like poets of prayer ... the prayer of grandparents and of the elderly is a great gift for the Church!" He goes on to say "old age is a vocation". Elders are charged "to preserve our roots, to pass on the faith to the young and to care for the little ones"

It is our honor to guard and care for the elderly and their special vocation of 'old age' that the Lord has entrusted to us. With your help, together we will protect the elderly, a treasure of our families, the church, and society.

We know firsthand the powerful prayers of our Residents. Each day we pray for you and your loved ones. May the Lord keep you safe and healthy and may 2022 be filled with countless blessings!

Sincerely,

Sister Amy Marie, lsp

Catholic Schools Week Essays

By Olympia Pissios

St Francis de Sales once said, " Do not lose courage in considering your own imperfections." St Francis has taught me so many things like how to love myself and others. My St Francis experience has been amazing, I've been taught how to use my face, come together as a community, and excellence.

Community means a feeling of fellowship with others, as a result of sharing common attitudes, interests, and goals. St Francis is very familiar with the word community, as we practice it everyday. For example, during covid in the tough times we still gathered every Wednesday for online Mass. We also had Second Grade Buddies that we help throughout the year and get to know. In my personal experience throughout the years I have formed a community with volleyball and basketball teammates. I have gotten to know my best friends here at St Francis. We don't just practice community, we also help serve others. Things I do to show my services are being in NJHS and president of the student council, I have learned so much from Mr. Walker, Mrs. Guduto, Mrs. Salt, Mrs. Sprinkle. The school also comes together and holds fundraisers and drives. For example, the toy drive that gives toys to people who don't have as much as us, food drive where we can food donations to different organizations, Glove and Supply Drive where we donate gloves for the winter and supplies to other schools that need it, Heifer Intl Services project to help people be free from hunger and poverty, and so much more.

Another factor that makes St Francis very special and unique is that I can talk about my faith in every class. It doesn't matter if I'm in language arts or history class, I am able to make connections with my faith whenever and wherever. I can also talk to my classmates about my faith and how strongly I believe in it. I don't have to hide my face or be ashamed about it because St Francis has made a safe place to talk about how I feel and to spread the good news. St Francis also has prayer services and we pray together in the morning which also makes my day better knowing that I have prayed with my classmates in the school.

St Francis does not only help us with community and our face, it also helps us academically. I have never been so confident of my grades because of how my teachers have prepared me for every test, homework, and even lessons I'll be seeing in the future. The grading scale might be challenging and hard to achieve at times, but I feel very prepared for high school and what is yet to come knowing I've gone through school getting good grades at a hard grade Level. St Francis has also won 2 Blue Ribbon Awards. This shows the teachers help us academically and push us to try to to be our best!

St Francis has played a really big role in my life. I have learned so much about community, service, faith, and excellence. I feel very prepared for the upcoming years in high school. I wonder what my life would be like if I never attended St Francis de Sales School.
