The Baptism of the Lord

"It is an abuse to confess any kind of sin, whether mortal or venial, without a will to be rid of it since confession was instituted for no other purpose." - St Francis de Sales

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Isaiah speaks of the Servant whom the Lord upholds; he shall bring forth justice to the nations (Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7) or Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11.

Psalm — The Lord will bless his people with peace (Psalm 29) or Psalm 104.

Second Reading — Jesus was anointed by God with the Holy Spirit; he went out healing and doing good (Acts 10:34-38) or Titus 2:11-14; 3:4-7.

Gospel — A voice comes from heaven proclaiming Jesus as the beloved Son, with whom God is well pleased (Luke 3:15-16, 21-22).

BAPTISMAL DEATH AND RESURRECTION

As we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, we also honor our own baptism as our initiation into the Christian life and community. In the Gospel, the baptism of Jesus, with his immersion and then emergence from the water, points to his later submission to God at his death, and his emergence from the grave at his resurrection. This pattern of death and resurrection is our path too, as followers of Jesus. Throughout life, often in small ways, we learn to surrender our limited and self-centered agendas. This surrender often feels like death. The sacrament of Baptism ritually enacts this pattern to remind us of Jesus' death and resurrection, so that we too might embrace the deaths and resurrections of our own lives. As Jesus emerged from the water, he encountered his Father and the Holy Spirit. Like Jesus, we can know we are God's beloved, empowered by the Spirit.

"Today's Gospel reading about Jesus' baptism shows the importance of our receiving the sacrament of the Baptism. Christianity is not primarily about 'becoming a good person.' Let's face it: anyone can be any of those things. To be a Christian is to be grafted onto Christ and drawn into the inner life of God.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ."

— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

*"I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."
- Lk 3:16bc*

I HOPE I AM LIKE HIM

“Who is this Christ? Is he like you?”

Perhaps you’ve heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

“He is nothing like me,” the saint is said to have answered. “But I hope I am like him.”

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. “One worthier than I is coming,” he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God’s will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let’s examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God’s plan?

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

AT MY GRANDSON’S BAPTISM, THE PRIEST PUT A BIB ON THE BABY. I DO NOT REMEMBER SEEING THIS BEFORE. WHY IS THIS DONE? IS IT SOMETHING NEW?

When an adult is baptized, there is a part in the ceremony when the newly baptized is vested in a white garment. It is symbolic of the changes that baptism brings in the life of the baptized as they are freed from the bonds of sin and brought into the saving grace of Christ. Realities that are so profound are symbolically presented so that we might better grasp and understand them.

Infants are often dressed in a baptismal dress, which is the baptismal garment. In some places, the bib is used as a kind of baptismal garment. At the place in the ceremony where the investiture takes place, the bib is used. Some are poncho-like and fit over the baby’s head. Others are simply placed on the baby’s chest. If the baby is dressed in a white garment, nothing else is needed. The prayer says it all: “See in your white garment the outward sign of your Christian dignity ... bring that dignity unstained into the everlasting life of heaven.” In baptism, we are given our purpose and goal in life as believers, and this is symbolized by the white garment.

Thank You to all those who donated supplies, their time, skills, resources and efforts to the Kentucky Tornado Supply Drive. With a special shout out to Dave Voitik over at Legend Creative in getting this outreach going and on its way!

Reminder to our good parish - 11:00am Mass is also broadcasted on 89.9FM in the West Parking Lot. This has been offered since Father's Day 2019, the first Parking Lot Mass. Deacon's Corner

For me, it is hard to believe that this is the last DC of 2021. As I have said many times in the past; "just blink a few times and the year is over". And what a year it has been for everyone. No one has escaped the challenges of 2021. I don't want to get into all of the challenges we have experienced over the past year, I will leave that to each of you to think about.

What I want to talk about this morning is the past Sunday and the homily I gave at Mass. Being the Feast of the Holy Family, it sparked a lot of good thoughts about family and I want to share some thoughts and ideas with you all.

I am writing this on Monday morning (yesterday), and in doing so, I came upon an article written by Pope Francis with his thoughts about family after we all celebrated Holy Family Sunday. The most important part of the Pope's message is the three words that he so often speaks about when addressing families. Those three words are PLEASE, THANKS and SORRY. He stresses that during the past time of being somewhat sequestered at home due to the virus, people tend to take out their frustration in those around them. So being at home, it usually ends up with family members. He also emphasizes something he has spoken about many times in the past and that is never to go to bed angry. If you do, you end up in a "cold war" in the morning.

I thought this was important to share because, while I am sure we all know this, it is important, at least for me, to remind myself how important it is to "keep peace in the family", no matter what it takes.

Doing some research for my homily yesterday, I found it most interesting that the Feast of the Holy Family as written by Luke 2: 41-52 is the only depiction of the life of Christ from the time of His birth to the beginning of His ministry at the age of 30. The gospel is based on Jesus, Mary and Joseph traveling to Jerusalem for their annual celebration of Passover. When they set out to return home, after traveling one day, Mary and Joseph realized that Jesus was not with them. They thought He was with relatives but was not. So they went back to Jerusalem and spent three days looking for Jesus, finally finding Him in the Temple discussing Scripture with the rabbis. And they were all astounded at Jesus' understanding and discussions, especially at the age of 12.

Obviously when Mary and Joseph found Jesus, they expressed some displeasure with Him being absent for three days, but Jesus just told them that "He was to be about His Father's work". They then returned home.

The basis of this gospel is that we are all part of a holy family for, we too are children of God. Just like Mary and Joseph, our family life is enriched when we come to Church to worship, to celebrate the Eucharist, to celebrate the One who created and loves us. Like Mary and Joseph, we must be attentive to the presence of Christ in our lives, to hold all that He did and said in our hearts, and to participate in God's divine plan for all of us.

So let us go into the New Year making a concerted effort to abide in His Word. If we do this, I promise you that the coming 2022 will be a better year than we have just experienced. All we have to do is remember that "He is always with us, even to the end of the age".

My blessings to all,

Deacon John

Helpful tip:
Make sure to eat a healthy meal and drink plenty of water before donating.

All donors will receive socks this winter to remind them how giving warms the heart!

Please donate during National Blood Donor Month

Who benefits from blood donation?

At Versiti Blood Center of Illinois, formerly Heartland Blood Centers, we never forget the patients who receive the blood we collect. Every unit of blood is collected from volunteer donors who meet specific criteria and have been screened according to strict guidelines. Every unit (pint) is collected, transported, tested and stored according to tightly-controlled procedures.

Examples of transfusion needs are:

- Cancer: up to 8 units/month
- Bone Marrow Transplant: up to 2 units/day
- Liver Transplant: up to 100 units
- Auto Accident: up to 50 units
- Cardiovascular Surgery: 2-25 unit
