a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

The Epiphany of the Lord

"If we do not reject the grace of holy love, it goes on expanding with continual increase in souls until they are entirely converted, just as mighty rivers coming upon open plains spread out and ever take up more space." - St Francis de Sales

GOD'S LOVING CARE

Two readings today refer to the northeast region of ancient Israel: "the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali." Upon hearing these names, some of us might consult maps and determine exactly where these regions lie. Others might let the unfamiliar names drift by unnoticed. If no maps are handy—but we don't want to ignore the references completely—consider this: we might not know the latitude and longitude of Zebulun and Naphtali, but God does. We praise God for watching over every inch of land and sea, caring perfectly for each creature on the planet. While Isaiah celebrates the depth of God's care with "abundant joy and great rejoicing," Saint Paul begs us to remember how the Lord shows this loving care: through the cross. In today's Gospel, Jesus calls Peter, James, and John to follow him. We follow too, confident that God accompanies us, wherever we are.

Remember Mr. Rogers? As a minister, he brought his theology to children on TV. He believed every life matters. He taught children (and adults) to be responsible for each other. Like Jesus, he emphasized that when our neighbor hurts, we all hurt. We can't get to heaven alone. We always get there together; supporting and loving one another.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was a kid, I remember the priest at Mass announcing, “The Lamb of God!” Frankly, it struck me as nonsense. I thought: Why in the world does God have a lamb? And where is this lamb?

John the Baptist sees Jesus coming toward him and announces, “Behold the lamb of God.” His Jewish listeners knew what he meant. God’s lamb is the thing that is sacrificed at the Jewish Passover and consumed by the participants. For almost a thousand years, lambs were ritually slaughtered and eaten in Jerusalem at Passover. The lamb meant sacrifice, freedom from sin, and communion with God. The Baptist is saying in effect, “This man will be ritually sacrificed and consumed so that God’s people may be free from sin and united to God.”

It’s crucial to relate to Jesus as a friend, brother, teacher, and Lord of our lives. But we should also learn to interact with Him as our lamb of God. That means we intentionally place on him our sins, sadnesses, and hopes, and offer him to God. Then we consume him to make us free. This is what we do at every Mass. That’s why he is the Lamb of God.

— Father John Muir

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. He is the one of whom I said, ‘A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.’” - Jn 1:29-30

Showing Up

I broke my foot once, when my second child was only 12 weeks old, and I was about to move houses. For six weeks I was confined to a chair, a shrieking newborn in my arms, a toddler running circles around me, and my right foot rendered useless by a plaster cast. I couldn't do anything without assistance. I couldn't eat or get a drink or change my clothes or feed my children.

My family was in dire straits. A lot of people offered help, but there was a core group of friends and family members who really saved us.

These are the people who turned up in my driveway with empty vans and cooked meals. These are the people who blocked off their Saturdays to haul furniture, mow our lawn, and run after unruly kids. These are the people who said: "Here I am. Give me a job."

If you've ever really, really needed another person's help, you know that "showing up" means more than saying: "Let me know what you need." It means saying: "I'm already here. Tell me what to do."

So often, I pay lip service to the idea of submission. "What do you want, God?" I ask, and I secretly hope that what He wants isn't one of those things that I'm not willing to give.

What if I really strove to "show up" for God? What if I was ready to give what He asks of me, whatever it is?

*Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will.
— Psalm 40*

What is unique or different about the way Catholics read and are exposed to the Bible?

Catholics are exposed to Scripture primarily through the Sunday readings from a book known as the Lectionary. The Lectionary is a book of selected passages from the Bible set in the context of a liturgical season, such as Advent, Lent, or ordinary time. There are four readings assigned to any Sunday: the first reading (usually from the Old Testament), the responsorial psalm, the second reading (usually from a New Testament letter), and the Gospel reading.

These readings together give them a new context. The selected readings relate to one another in a unique manner that is not present in the Bible text itself. In close proximity to each other, these readings now have the opportunity to converse with each other in a way that would have not been possible before.

A homilist pays attention to all four readings, preparing a reflection that speaks of this conversation among the readings, enabling us to zero in on what this unique combination of God's word has to say to us this particular Sunday.

Next time you attend Sunday liturgy, try reading the Scripture ahead of time and see how this new relationship among the readings addresses and challenges you to be a better Christian here and now.

Join us for our 8 week series

In-person groups begin Thursday January 12th 7:00pm
Zoom groups begin Wednesday January 11th 6:30pm

All are welcome!

Would you like to have a glimpse of life when Jesus walked with his disciples? Come and meet some of Jesus' followers and gain new insight into how they saw Jesus and how they grew together.

Through this series - you can see how God was at work in the lives of the first disciples. Many people who participated in Season One said that the Scripture stories now have new meaning for them.

After watching an episode, we discuss how God is at work in our own lives and how we can follow Him today.

The Chosen is a critically acclaimed series on the life of Jesus.

We suggest that you should watch Season One before you begin Season Two, but all are welcome - regardless of Season One.

Our parish patron saint, St Francis de Sales, spiritually composed this prayer. Fr Ryan reflects upon these spiritual and strengthening words often - and offers this prayer for your consideration and contemplation. Jesus is with us and count your blessings.

Be at Peace

A BEAUTIFUL PRAYER BY ST FRANCIS DE SALES

Do not look forward in fear to the changes of life; rather look to them with full hope as they arise. God, whose very own you are, will deliver you from out of them. He has kept you hitherto, and He will lead you safely through all things; and when you cannot stand it, God will bury you in His arms. Do not fear what may happen tomorrow; the same everlasting Father who cares for you today will take care of you then and every day. he will either shield you from suffering, or give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imagination.

Deacon's Corner

After reading last week's DC again, and reading all the positive responses I received from all of you, I decided that "change" is something worth writing and talking about. Giving more thought to it, many of the "changes" we experience are brought on by outside sources, which leaves us in the position to better understand that we really have very little control over most of the "change" that takes place in our lives.

I received a package today from my office in Illinois which, among other things, contained a lot of Christmas cards that had come to our home while we are gone. And one stood out in my mind and it was from Fr. Wissam, pastor of St. Joseph Church in Phoenix, AZ. Bobbi and I spent a number of winters there and I served on the altar with Fr. Wissam. The card he sent contained the phrase:

"The gift of Faith, The blessings of Hope and the peace of His Love at Christmas and always"

This phrase struck me as both simple as well as powerful. Thank you, Wissam. It reminds me of the three Acts I pray each night; the Act of Faith, Hope and Love. Each prayer has its own meaning and they all refer to something that I believe embodies Jesus Christ. And each prayer also gives us the opportunity to ask Our Lord for something different yet all having the same end, to become one with Christ through different means.

You might ask; "Deacon John, I thought you were going to talk about change?" And I have come to realize how important these three short prayers in trying to help us implement changes in our lives, or perhaps, how better to accept them no matter how difficult they seem to be. As I said in last week's DC, all that takes place in our lives is the Will of God. I don't know about you, but there are times in my life that occur and I am not very happy with them. And how easy it is not to want to accept His Will over our own thoughts and desires, and that is where the gift of Faith becomes so important to abide in. I know it is not easy but remember that nothing good in life comes without some difficulty.

Then there is Hope. Jesus died on the Cross so that we can have Hope. Hope in life eternal through His Death and Resurrection with the forgiveness of our sins. The question I ask myself is; "Do I fully understand and appreciate what Jesus has done for us?" Oftentimes I find myself too self-involved to say "Thank you Jesus" for what you have done for me. How about you? Does some of this sound familiar? I pray it does for it is truly our Road to Salvation given to us 2,000 years ago.

And last but not least, there is Love. For me, this is the most important of all three. Why, you ask? I believe that Jesus Christ is the embodiment of Love. Think about it for a minute. We just celebrated His Birth and in a couple months, we will celebrate His Death and Resurrection. Jesus has done all of this out of His Love for us. He knew what was to take place even before He was born, yet He came to walk among us to be spat upon, scourged at the pillar, carry His Cross, be crucified and die for one reason, because He Loves us.

So as we enter this New Year, let us always remember the three Acts of Faith, Hope and Love. Say them each day and let 2023 be a year of thanksgiving for all He has given us.

My Blessings to all,
Deacon John
