a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"What joy there will be for man's heart to look upon God's face, that face so long desired, that face which is the only desire of our souls! Our hearts have a thirst that cannot be quenched by the pleasures of this mortal life." - St Francis de Sales

TODAY'S READINGS

Second Reading — May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ (Galatians 6:14-18).

GOOD NEWS IS ON THE WAY

This week, in the midst of summer, the scriptures greet us with joy, peace, mercy, and more peace! Sounds a little like Advent, doesn't it? We often associate the prophet Isaiah with that preparatory season, and our first reading rings with such words as exult, comfort, and rejoice. The Israelites had reason to rejoice, for they had returned, come home, to a rebuilt Jerusalem from their exile in Babylon.

In the Gospel, the seventy-two disciples who were sent out have their own "homecoming," returning to Jesus from spreading the Good News of the Kingdom and preparing people for the "advent" of Jesus into their cities and towns on his long road to Jerusalem. Like the exiles in Isaiah, the disciples return rejoicing.

The Good News, the Kingdom of God, is coming, even in summer. As today's psalm reminds us, "Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!"

As fireworks light this weekend's sky, remember: your faith is dynamite. Peter Marin, of the Catholic Worker Movement, says "the church has taken its own dynamite and placed it in hermetically sealed containers and sat on the lid." Open the lid, dispel the darkness and let your light shine before others.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Freedom properly defined is freedom properly understood. The Cambridge Dictionary tells us that it is, “the condition or right of being able or allowed to do, say, think, etc., whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited.” That same dictionary defines liberty as, “the freedom to live, work, and travel as you want to.” Both definitions sound very similar. Is there a difference between freedom and liberty? Many are accustomed to believing that freedom and liberty are interchangeable and simply involve possessing rights and privileges. For the Christian, however, there is a big difference between the two.

St. John Chrysostom directs that “the only person who is free is the one who lives for Christ.” There are many other inspirational people throughout history who see freedom as something far greater than liberty. True and properly understood freedom has little to do with entitlement or self-promotion. For the believer, it is a matter of the heart and soul. Freedom (and liberty, for that matter), seen only in terms of the world, can quickly be taken away. The freedom spoken of by St. John Chrysostom can only be lost by personal choice. When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one’s soul (faith, hope, and love) and strengthen one’s character (justice, fortitude, temperance, and prudence). Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached. Privileges, rights, and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

The world is not always open to listening to the truth. “I am sending you like lambs among wolves,” Jesus tells his disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty are very attractive. They promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks his disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon things or anything those with worldly power or investment can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That’s what true freedom will give us. If we do not want what Christ offers, we can close the door, and the messenger will walk away. Distracted by the lure of personal liberties, we risk losing our freedom. We will not have anything truly life-giving to share with others.

Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God is at hand for you.’” - Lk 10:8-9

WHEN GOD SPEAKS LIKE A POLISH GRANDMOTHER

A friend of mine had a Polish grandmother who was famous for giving her children some blunt advice every time they left the house: “Eyes straight ahead. Mind your own business.”

Every mother knows her children best, and this mother knew hers liked to argue and sometimes liked to show off. She knew that could lead to trouble. She could not anticipate every scenario they would encounter each time they departed from her. All she could do was distill what she knew about life, safety, and manners into a few simple words, and hand them over to her children like a set of car keys or a hastily scribbled map. In this way, a woman who rarely said “I love you” expressed her devotion. And long after she was dead and buried, her aging sons and daughters repeated these words to themselves, like a child wrapping himself in a warm blanket.

Jesus does much the same for us, in many portions of the Gospels. “Ask the master to send out laborers for his harvest...Carry no money...Eat what is set before you...Know that the Kingdom of God is at hand...Rejoice because your names are written in Heaven.”

He knows us best — knows our strengths, but even more importantly, he knows our weaknesses. He doesn’t always have the space to address each of these explicitly in the pages of Scripture, but what he can do is distill the truth of effective evangelization into a few simple words, and hand them over to us as food for our journey of discipleship. In this way, a God who addresses the entire world and every soul who ever lived also speaks intimately to each one of us.

WHY DO WE HAVE A LITURGICAL SEASON CALLED ORDINARY TIME? CAN YOU EXPLAIN?

Ordinary time is the longest season of the liturgical year. It begins the Monday after January 6, the Epiphany, and goes until the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. That period can last anywhere from five to eight weeks, depending on when Easter is celebrated. Ordinary time picks up again the Monday after Pentecost Sunday and lasts from twenty-three to twenty-seven weeks, until the end of the liturgical year, the Saturday before Advent begins.

Why the name ordinary? “Ordinary” is not in contrast to “extraordinary” or “special” but rather stresses the Latin language notion of “ordinal” or numbered Sundays. The Latin title for the season, tempus ordinarium, conveys the sense that this time of the year is measured or numbered time. Measured time can allude simply to the numbered Sundays, or the notion that these Sundays are a “measured” time to deepen and immerse ourselves completely in the realities of Jesus’ incarnation, ministry, passion, death, and resurrection. Ordinary time offers us the opportunity to connect the ordinary lived experiences of our lives with those of Jesus, who modeled for us how to live a truly human existence.

Lake Zurich Mayor Tom Poynton Memorial Day Speech

- American Legion Post #964 Commander Mike Hudson
- Father David Ryan - (St Francis de Sales Parish)
- Village Board Members Present: Greg Weider...Dan Bobrowski
- Andrew Tangen: Superintendent of Veterans Assistance Commission of Lake County – Guest Speaker
- Assembled Veterans ... Current Military, and ... Residents and Families of Lake Zurich

Good morning ... and Welcome! to Lake Zurich and today's Memorial Day ceremony. Thank you for attending.

Before I get to my "official" duties... How about the LZHS Band...they are out here every Memorial Day...rain, sleet, snow or sometimes in sweltering heat...you will hear more from them in a bit. Thank You Josh Thompson and LZHS Band! I am again honored to be here with you this morning as we reflect upon...and remember...our fallen service members and the sacrifices that they and their families have made on behalf of our country.

Memorial Day is a day of reflection and remembering the men and women who died while serving ... and the "usual" theme of Memorial Day is ... "Remember".

Today is no different...even as we are facing the unprecedented modern challenges of COVID-19, the unconscionable Russian invasion of Ukraine and the recent senseless shootings in Buffalo, NY and Uvalde, TX.

Though we may also be facing our own individual challenges, we will always devote time to honor and remember the heroes who gave their lives. <Pause>

It is common to give special emphasis on historical wars and rightfully so. No one who has given their lives for our freedom should ever be a passing memory. Memorial Day gives us time to reflect on the historical battles and wars fought ... and the lives lost. The "War to End All Wars" did not unfortunately, end all wars.

We must not only honor the fallen of past wars but to also, keep in mind that men and women are dying today at war.

Military combat zones exist all over the world and the United States, with 750 bases in at least 80 countries, remains at war today ... with thousands deployed overseas and still more thousands serving at home.

St. Francis de Sales parish in Lake Zurich "Remembers". They devote a full page of the Weekly Parish Bulletin to the remembering of local service women and men currently serving and those who have returned home safely Memorial Day Weekend can be very complicated for modern military families. So, we remain mindful of not only the past but our present losses.

Before you wish every veteran or service member or their family a "Happy" Memorial Day, remember that for military families it means something much, much bigger than the start of summer.

This is a very tender time of year for many ... and many are grieving. Their day feels fraught with memories of those they've lost, and it could be a recent loss that is mixed with gratitude for the times that they've had.

If we want to honor and celebrate patriotism and the military this Memorial Day, then we have to honor the complicated feelings that surround it.

Memorial Day is about remembering and honoring every single man and woman who has died for our freedoms — men and women who were mothers and fathers, sons and daughters, husbands and wives, brothers and sisters, patriots, and incredible Americans and really, really great friends.

While it is true that every day is Memorial Day for the families of the fallen, they aren't asking that you stay inside and wallow. But we do owe it to them to pause, reflect, honor and remember.

What better way to honor them than to be surrounded by those we love. They are grateful for your pause and reflections as you celebrate our heroes and the lives that they lived. From Bunker Hill to Afghanistan, there has always been a select group of Americans willing to fight for a cause greater than their self-preservation.

Most of us have not been willing to write our wills at the age of 18 and good-bye letters in case we are killed in serving our country.

So, honor those who President Lincoln characterized as giving "the last full measure of devotion". Talk to your children, grandchildren, neighbors, family, and friends about...sacrifice, service, and what this three-day weekend really means. Observe the National Moment of Remembrance Silence at 3 p.m. today with a minute of silence and reflection. Look for ways that you can be of service throughout the year to honor the memories of those who gave their lives. It is humbling to reflect how inextricably connected and united we are as a nation in remembering, because of the brave that gave the ultimate sacrifice. We honor them today and strive to continue throughout the rest of our days to never forget.

Referencing back to Ukraine ... I don't know how anyone can look at the killing and destruction happening there and not be moved ... and pissed off. It is mindless, amoral and unnecessary. Please keep the people and soldiers of Ukraine ... who are dying for their freedom ... in your remembrances today. I am a veteran and I "remember"

May we never forget. Thank you for attending today.

LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR ST. JOSEPH'S HOME

We have a serious replacement/repair situation that has come up and we need your help!

Our building (173,000 square feet) is heated through a hot water system. The hot water is pumped through the building through seven (7) pumps. The pumps have been failing and we have just found out that they have reached the end of their useful life. They need to be replaced so that we can heat the building when the weather turns cold.

The estimated cost is $220,000. Additionally, with supply chain issues, there is an 8-week lead time for the parts. Do you think this project would be something that you would consider supporting financially? If so, visit

Please keep us in your prayers. We promise to pray for you and your loved ones each day!

Now

On Pentecost weekend, the deacons were not available for Mass at St. Francis. It was the 50th anniversary of the diaconate in Chicago and we attended a convocation. After some "figuring" we determined that there has been a deacon at weekend Mass for 27 months without a break until now.

The three deacons in our parish have found being available at Masses an important service while we dealt with re-opening the church after the pandemic. We also have wanted to provide contact with parishioners during the year that Fr. Ryan was not able to minister to the parish and we had visiting priests at Mass.

We will continue to deacon Masses often as we find this an important part of our ministries and it's just good to see you all. The deacons also enjoy their ministry in doing baptisms, marriage preparation, Religious Education, RCIA, Ministry of Care and several other roles in the parish.

WHO IS OUR LADY OF FATIMA?

Our Lady of Fatima is the title given to the Blessed Virgin Mary in connection with her apparitions to three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal. Our Lady of Fatima told the shepherd children to pray the rosary daily for the end of the war (World War I). Mary continued to appear once a month for 6 months to the three children, Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco. In October of 1930, the Bishop of Leiria-Fátima approved the visions as "worthy of belief." Our Lady of Fatima urgently desired for all of faithful to pray daily for the salvation of poor sinners, and for the whole world. That message from Our Mother Mary is a challenge – no matter where you are in your own personal prayer life – to go deeper, to pray often, and with greater fervor.

JOIN US FOR A ROSARY TO OUR LADY OF FATIMA

Wednesday, July 13th following the Noon Mass

We will pray a rosary with the 5 prayers to Our Lady of Fatima. Prayers for Hope, Healing and an end to abortion in our country.

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call the Parish Office - Ministry of Care, (847)438-6622, when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.
