July 4, 2021: Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Be sure then, ... that while externally occupied with business and social duties, you frequently retire within the solitude of your own heart. That solitude need not be in anyway hindered by the crowds which surround you -- they surround your body, not your soul, and your heart remains alone in the Sole Presence of God." - St Francis de Sales

NO BAD NEWS

There are many times when we say, "Tell me what I want to hear, and don't confuse me with facts." And we don't take kindly to someone who might be bold enough to snuff out our expectations.

The biggest problem with such an attitude is not that we miss out on the truth or the facts, but that we miss out on the new and surprising gifts others can give us. Like the townspeople in today's Gospel story, we too often refuse to allow others to display the talents that can be good news for us.

Today's readings call for hospitality and faith and discernment. Hospitality opens the doors of our hearts and minds to the "stranger" among us, no matter how familiar he or she may seem to be. Faith enables us to accept the gifts of others, no matter how alarming or "strange" they may seem to be. Discernment helps us discover the prophets in our midst, no matter how amazing they may seem to be. Hospitality, faith, and discernment—cultivate these. Then, nobody can bring bad news.

On July 4, 1986, Ronald Reagan gave a speech in NYC to honor the newly renovated Statue of Liberty. He recalls the moment of the signing of the Declaration, "56 men came forward to sign the parchment. It was noted at the time that they pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honors...They were brave... Their courage created a nation built on a universal claim to human dignity, on the proposition that every man, woman and child had a right to a future of freedom."

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

It's all so ordinary that we can easily miss it. The seagulls hunting and diving for mollusks at the beach offer a display of determination and precision as they gather their food for the day. It's simply what these creatures do. Yet, there's a magical artfulness and skill to their work that speaks volumes about the One who breathed life into their being. This is pretty much the way it is with God's presence. God comes in common ways through common things and ordinary people. Sadly, we are so engulfed in our little worlds of order and ideas to notice the beauty and wonder of it all. Many have numbed themselves to the Divine spark at the essence of all life because that's just the way it is. What's so special about it? A sunset is a sunset and a seagull is a seagull. That's precisely what they thought about Jesus too. After all, isn't he just the carpenter's son? What merit can his words possibly have?

If we're looking for God to come in an event that is so dramatic and intense that it knocks our socks off, then think again. When pondering God's relationship with His people and God's action in our lives, we have to go back to the stable and the recurring, creative, unending power of God's presence. It was a quiet, run of the mill kind of night. There was nothing spectacular or extraordinary. To the naked eye, a woman gave birth to a child and there wasn't anything extraordinary to see. We have a hard time understanding God's ordinary-ness. Jesus grew up in an ordinary town, had neighbors and did normal human things. Perhaps that's why we don't always like the Gospel. It doesn't dazzle us with extraordinary things but simply challenges us to take a different look at our ordinary stuff. That makes us uncomfortable. We prefer things as they are. Our lack of faith can even cause us to take offense at what Jesus says and does, dismissing it as folly.

God's life-giving presence continues to sustain that seagull in flight and keep all things in being regardless of whether we have the faith to see and understand this. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be hardened and blinded to what God is doing or desiring to do. While God continues to do what he has done for all eternity, faith is needed for God's presence to bear fruit. The blinders we wear and the expectations we bring to life can often prevent us from seeing graced moments that radiate with God's graceful presence. They also prevent God's transforming, healing, and hope filled vision for our world from being realized. Without faith, God won't be able to do much for us either.

When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands!" - Mk 6:2

THE PROPHECY OF YOU AND ME

Prophet. There's a heaviness to this word. It's weighted down with meaning. We think of prophets and we think of Charlton Heston with wild hair and a booming voice, reaching out his hand to work wonders of nature by the grace of God. We think of prophets and we think of ancient Biblical history — someone far away, someone so removed from our everyday life. A prophet is someone who knows something we don't.

When I let you in on this secret, it might scare you at first: in a way, God is calling you to be a prophet. He is calling me. He is calling anyone who hears the truth of the Gospel. However, there is no need for the megaphone and the wild locusts. This prophet gig might not be what you're thinking.

What does a prophet do? He hears and testifies to the truth, even when it's uncomfortable, even when it's unpopular, even when it results in, as Paul says, "weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions and constraints." A prophet doesn't have to be smart or rich or ordained; heck, he doesn't even have to be particularly willing.

All a prophet has to do is listen to the truth. The truth we receive from Christ, through the Gospel and the sacraments, is a mighty gift. But it is a gift that we are not meant to simply keep for ourselves. In possessing it, we are compelled to also pass it on, to share it, to let the Spirit set us on our feet.

OUR CATHOLIC GRADE SCHOOL IS DOING A PENANCE SERVICE THIS LENT. DO YOUNG CHILDREN REALLY NEED TO GO TO CONFESSION? HOW MUCH SIN CAN THEY REALLY HAVE?

Ask any mom about her children and see how many would say she has a brood of perfect angels! Parents know that kids do things that are wrong ... and they often know they're doing it! Even toddlers have a sense of right and wrong. The Church recognizes that their minds and consciences are not yet fully developed, however, and typically waits until age seven to offer the sacrament of Confession. Around that age and beyond, most young people, when asked, can easily explain why something is wrong.

Confession for children is an excellent way to help them reflect on their actions and accept responsibility for their behavior. It helps them to grow in their understanding of sin and how it affects others. This helps them to form their consciences and make better choices in the future. Most importantly, they learn the value of forgiveness, both given and received. Rather than singling out what's wrong, Confession offers hope and a new start! Children can grow in understanding God's unconditional love and develop a sense of inner dignity that transcends their failings. Not bad for five minutes and an "Our Father" or two!

EMMAUS HOUSE REOPENING JULY 11TH

With the support of the parish and our volunteers we have put together a plan to slowly and thoughtfully reopen Emmaus House. To begin with, we will simply host our food harvest distribution on Sundays with a twist. We used to open our doors at 5:30pm on Sundays. With the opportunity to analyze our operation we have decided to move up our time schedule to 4:00pm so as to not conflict with the 5:00pm mass. We will reopen the doors of Valker Hall safely on July 11th at our new time of 4pm for food distribution only. At a later date, when it is safe to do so we will resume the community dinner portion of our ministry.

Deacon's Corner

It is quite early in the morning, about 5AM, and I had a thought that I would like to share with you in this week's DC. And that thought is; "what really matters in life". If you notice, I did not end that statement with a question mark since I feel it is more of a statement than a question, although it certainly begs a response. So I began thinking about "what really matters in life" and I believe that everyone will have a different response. Yet I hope that, in the end, all responses end up in the same place. And that is that our association with Our Lord and Savior is truly the most important and really the only thing "that matters in life".

Being human in this world we live in and being immersed in the day to day challenges of our society, I believe that we tend to put too much emphasis on that which goes on around us. What I mean by that is we find ourselves competing with each other and even ourselves to do better than our neighbor, our brothers and sisters, our friends in the workplace and even strangers on the street. And what are we competing for? What are we attempting to accomplish? So many questions and so many answers! You see, our society has created this competition in our lives to achieve more, do better, become more successful (whatever that means), in all that we say and do. So let's stop for a moment and think about this. With all this hustle and bustle competition going on around us every day, how is this related to what we are really on this earth to accomplish. And that is to gain eternal salvation with Our Lord and Savior.

I feel I can speak to this very clearly since I can witness to you that I have fallen prey to this "competition" over the past years of my life. And the most pressing competition in my life has been competing with myself. The most gratifying thing for me has been that in so doing, that is never being satisfied with what I accomplished yesterday, but wanted to do it better tomorrow, I have now directed that energy, that drive within myself, toward learning more and understanding my own "road to salvation".

The good thing about this is that it is never too late to make a change in our lives. To set aside that which is "of this world" and look more to our inner self, with the help of the Holy Spirit within, to do better tomorrow than we did today as it pertains to our spiritual life. And that doesn't mean that we have to live a life without that which we have accomplished, but I do mean that we should "add on" and "continue to increase" our belief in the Lord. Having attended Catholic schools grades 1-12 as many of us have, we were given all the basic teachings of the Church, but what have we done with them since then? Looking around, our lives have changed so dramatically over the years in so many ways. Some good and some not so good. But they have changed all in accordance with the Will of God.

Many times we think that we have control over the changes in our lives, but we really don't, for God has a plan for each of us. He knows what we will do, where we are going and how we are going to get there. And I guess to a certain extent, I takes getting older to better understand this for when we are younger, at least I know for me, I didn't quite understand "what really matters in life". I am not sure if I fully understand that concept except to say that it is a large learning curve that requires continuing diligence for the end result is what we are all hoping for when our journey on earth is complete.

So, my brothers and sisters, take a few minutes after reading this and sit back and ask yourself the question; "what really matters in life". And if you are like most, I believe that you will find that some minor modifications in your life will make your "road to salvation" easier and more meaningful as we progress through our journey.

My Blessings to all,

Deacon John

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call the Parish Office - Ministry of Care, (847)438-6622, when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.
