"Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven."

— Psalm 83:12

GOD CHOSE US

Who chose first, God or you? That is the question explored in today's three readings. The second reading, from Paul's Letter to the Ephesians, reads almost like a hymn. It praises God for choosing us, for calling us to serve, and for blessing us in our service. Paul makes it clear how honored we are and how special is the call to live as children of God. This is through no doing of our own.

The first reading and the Gospel use prose rather than poetry to describe the same truth: God did the choosing, not us. When the prophet Amos was berated for being a prophet, he retorted that the whole thing wasn't his idea in the first place. Neither did the twelve apostles in today's Gospel ask for their calling. Jesus sent them forth, two by two, to do the work of his kingdom.

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

During our 2021 Parish Mission, Kristin Bird reminded us that each of us has a story! People are moved and hearts are changed when we share our experiences. Many times in life, circumstances are thrown our way. When we invite Jesus into our hearts, we allow him to transform issues into healing moments. We are forever changed by these grace-filled encounters. Be on the lookout for these "God moments" and then be ready to share them with others!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Maybe the work is best left to the professionals. That's how many people view the preaching of the Gospel. That's the stuff priests, religious, deacons, lay ministers, and other professional Church people do. It has little to do with me. Well, that's not really true. The fact of the matter is that preaching the Gospel has everything to do with you, with all of us who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. Nobody gets off the hook from that job. The question is, however, how do we do it? Well, there's a safe way, which many choose, to preach the Gospel — and the risky way. The safe way pretty much keeps the Gospel in church and around like-minded people. I say my prayers, go to Mass, contribute to the food pantry, tithe, and attend Bible Study. That pretty much covers the bases, right? Wrong.

The risky way is the more challenging way and for many, the "road less traveled." Imagine those first disciples going out and into people's homes. They must have had some amazing conversations with folks about God's kingdom, changing their hearts, forgiving sins, and looking at the world differently. They must have met people who were hurting, exiled from their communities, neglected, lost, or living self-insulated lives in a society that served the rich and neglected the poor. While there were many who welcomed what they had to say and the conversations they had, there were others who no doubt rejected them and literally tossed them out on their ears! The Gospel, while being a message of joy and hope, is not always received well by those who are very comfortable keeping things as they are.

The risky way involves example and conversation. We have to take the Gospel from church and carry it with us wherever we go. What kinds of conversations do we have with others? We interact with those closest to us, in our work, social circles, institutions, corporations, in politics, and beyond. Our conversations with others reveal a great deal about how we see things and what we consider important.

If we are really interested in seeing God's vision for the world succeed, then we will talk about it. It will become a part of our everyday conversation and find its way into our interactions with others. How will we preserve the dignity of human life and encourage others to have a relationship with God? We must be the example, live value centered, virtuous lives, stand against injustice, combating racism, and learn ways to resolve conflicts without violence.

If we are going to succeed going forward, we have to find a way to bring our prayer centered lives into the marketplace. Our conversations have to change. Not everyone wants to hear what the Gospel has to say. That's a risk God asks us to take.

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." - Mk 6:7, 10-11

WHAT WE CARRY FROM TOWN TO TOWN

In my experience, there are two kinds of people: the folks who kick off their shoes the second they walk through the door, and the ones who don't.

People can feel strongly about this on both sides. The main thrust of the Shoes-Off Brigade seems to be this: we track a lot of weird stuff on the soles of our feet. Little reminders of all the places we've been — whether it's a private home or a public bathroom — cling to our shoes long after we leave.

This same theory applies to our spiritual lives. As human beings and as disciples, we visit a lot of figurative towns and pick up a lot of figurative dust. Sinfulness. Shame. Defeat. Anger. Fear. Doubt. No matter how hard we try to keep free of it, these things have a way of attaching themselves to us, sometimes without us even noticing. We need to take a good look at what unhelpful and unconstructive baggage from our past we're tracking into our present and future encounters.

What is the "town" God is asking you to visit today in His name? Is it a tough conversation with a friend, a brief witness to a stranger in the checkout line, a call to be present to someone in your family? Before you go, remember, shake off the dust. Don't let a past disappointment constrain you. Don't allow yesterday's failures or burdens to keep you from the joy of today's witness, whatever form it might take.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHAT KIND OF RELIGIOUS PRACTICES SHOULD WE BEGIN, ONCE WE MARRY, TO HELP US PRACTICE OUR FAITH EACH DAY?

Your spiritual life as a couple is important. The sacrament of Marriage is a gift and a grace, but living it well isn't always easy! It requires intentionality and perseverance. Growing your spiritual life as a couple also requires a plan. Life can be incredibly busy. There's never "enough time" for everything we want to do. But we can live by our priorities. If we don't prioritize prayer, we'll find it slowly disappear from our lives.

If you're not already praying individually, that's a good place to start. If your schedules are similar, take some quiet time at the same time to help hold each other accountable. Praying together is also important! You could start by looking at the religious practices of your family and of families around you that you respect. Talk with your spouse about the ones who make the deepest impression on you or were most meaningful when you were young. Think about what you want your future children to experience. Making faith a commitment now will mean it is engrained habit when you grow your family. Ultimately, these faith practices should help us grow in our love for God and for one another.

Deacon's Corner

Today's DC is based on the Gospel and homily I gave on this past Father's Day. The Gospel was Mark 4: 35-41 and, if you have the time, I suggest you read it before reading the DC. I received a number of good comments about the homily and thought it was a message worth sharing.

QUIET! BE STILL! These were the words that Jesus used to calm the storm that was threatening the Disciples as their boat was being tossed around and filled with water. I imagine the storm was fierce since it frightened these men who spent most of their lives on the sea and had experienced many storms. They were afraid enough to wake Jesus who was asleep in the boat. They wanted Jesus present in their panic and fear.

Thinking about what was taking place, I realized that Jesus can calm the worst storms in our lives as well. You might ask; "Deacon John, what storms are you referring to?" How about any struggle we have in relationships. Perhaps our storms are connected to physical or financial difficulties. Maybe we struggle with our FAITH, or might be challenged by anxiety or depression. And how wonderful it is that Jesus can calm any and all those storms, as He is always with us bringing His peace in our lives. Just as He quieted the winds and silenced the waves, Jesus can bring comfort to the storms we encounter every day.

Remember, as the Disciples witnessed this miracle on the sea, they were struck with awe and wonder. The Gospel says; "who is this, they ask whom the wind and the sea obey?" Think about it. Even though they followed Jesus daily, listened to His words, witnessed hundreds, if not thousands, of His miracles, they were still uncertain. And Jesus rebukes them when He asks them; "why are you terrified? Do you not have faith?"

You see, I believe the truth is that in our spiritual journey to our Father, we are still learning who Jesus is as well. IT IS A BIG LEAP TO GO FROM THE JESUS WE READ ABOUT OR HEAR IN THE GOSPELS, TO THE JESUS WHO LIVES FULLY IN OUR HEARTS. There is a difference between knowing Jesus intellectually and becoming one with Him. As in any relationship that we want to nurture and deepen, our love and closeness will grow as we get to know each other better. This requires spending time together – listening, watching and learning.

So in order to grow our faith, we need to deepen our relationship with Jesus. You might ask; "how do we do that?" The answer is simple and I believe we all know the answer. We need to spend more time with Him daily and include Him in our thoughts and decisions through prayer. And I don't mean prayer just when we are in Church on Sunday or even daily. As I said in the homily; "and I don't mean written prayers like the Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be or Acts of Faith, Hope and Love". We all know that prayers need not be anything more than "talking to Jesus, one on one".

As I have said so many times in past homilies, Jesus resides in our hearts not in our minds. And for Jesus to reside in our hearts, we must invite Him in and then nourish that relationship daily. That is why Jesus returned to His Disciples after His Death on the Cross to quell the "storms of confusion and fear" that they were experiencing in His physical absence.

We can also survive the STORMS in our lives with the help of Jesus in our lives. In loving Jesus, the STORMS which we live with each day will be calmed, and our faith will grow stronger as it did with His Disciples.

My Blessings to all,

Deacon John

It is a big leap to go from the Jesus we read about or hear in the gospels, to the Jesus who lives fully in our hearts.
