GOD'S TIME

We either pay attention to or ignore "clock time" as we play in the summer sun and note the earth's tilt and the lengthening days. We live by time. We reckon time in seconds and minutes and hours, or we use broader chunks like supertime and summertime.

God keeps another sort of time. God speaks to us of "saving time," that is, the time of salvation. This sense of time is called kairós, and this time is always now, always present and available, always revealing, often surprising.

This Sunday's readings alert us to the reality and the import of God's time. Ezekiel and the Gospel of Mark remind us that our labor and our plotting and our planning rest in God. For God takes our smallest efforts and makes of them great works. Paul points us to the "harvest" time, urges us to be watchful for its coming, and calls us to recognize that we must spend our time pleasing God. copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

During our bible study, Kevin Pease asks us to remember two fundamental truths:

Remember who we truly are and to whom we really belong.

Sin makes us forget that we are created in the image and likeness of God and that we are children of a loving God.

Try not to forget!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

A favorite motto of St. Teresa of Calcutta was, "do small things with great love." This is how it works in the kingdom of God. God can do tremendous things with the smallest gesture, especially when it is done in love. We can clearly see that our world is suffering greatly. People are struggling to find peace, navigate through conflicts, earn a sustainable living, find security and enough food to eat, and work through political tensions and conflicts. In the light of the magnitude of the difficulties that exist around us and even within us, we can find ourselves floundering to discover practical, effective solutions. How can something so large be helped by someone as small and seemingly insignificant as me? While whole systems and structures may be out of the league of our personal influence, are we really that helpless in the midst of all of the turmoil, sadness, and suffering?

If we believe that God is with us and that God is still working to bring about the glory of God's kingdom, then the answer is no. We are never helpless or without hope. Armed with a strong life of prayer, we can always flee to God and ask for inspiration, wisdom, and especially love. We are all blessed with unique gifts and talents and it often seems that considering all that the world lacks, love and charity remain at the top of the list. Life can easily become a battleground of hostility. Because life is challenging and difficult, anger is not far away. We see it on people's faces and hear it in their voices. There is a measure of frustration that permeates all avenues of life. It is even felt in the air.

As people of faith, we know that what we see here is not the end but only a part of something far greater to come. We know that God's kingdom is where we are ultimately meant to be, and the Gospel is the way to get there. If love and charity can prevail in us, then God will be able to do what God does best. God will use us to scatter the seeds of his kingdom. Through our small gestures, those seeds can receive the nurturing attention that is necessary for them to bear great fruit. We cannot fall victim to the strife that is around us. We have to keep ourselves refreshed and focused so that even in small ways, we can become part of the solution, not the problem. Love and charity, which come from God, can help to heal the ills of the world. May we bring these simple gifts to the everyday simple tasks of our lives! Watch how big the plant grows!

"This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land...Of its own accord the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come." - Mk 4:26, 28-29

ST. ANTHONY CAN FIND ANYTHING — EVEN YOU

“Tony, Tony, come around! Something is lost and it must be found.”

Did you learn this one when you were a kid? In my experience there are even a lot of lapsed Catholics — or people who were never Catholic at all — who know that when you lose something, St. Anthony becomes your best friend. Missing keys? Pray to St. Anthony. Can't find your favorite sweater? St. Anthony. Forget where you parked your car in the mall lot? St. Anth— okay, you get the idea. Whatever it is, large or small, important or trivial, Tony has a reputation for finding the lost things.

It's a devotion that can seem a little like superstition — witchcraft, even? — if you don't really understand it. Mumble an incantation to a dead guy and you're guaranteed to find your sunglasses. But as with most traditions that are old, beloved and effective, looking a little closer reveals the truth of the matter.

When we lose something really important, what do we do? We make the whole household stop what they're doing to join the search. Having St. Anthony as a friend means you ask him to stop what he's doing to help, too. And how he helps is by taking the matter exactly where all matters need to go — straight to the feet of Christ.

Here's the real genius of St Anthony: he takes the most mundane, commonplace occurrence — misplacing socks — into an encounter with the divine and truly all things great and small are gifts from God. He grabs our hand and points to the cross. “That's what you're looking for,” he tells us.

In the end, Tony doesn't really find the lost things. He finds the lost people

WHERE DOES THE MONEY GO THAT IS COLLECTED EACH WEEK AT CHURCH?

This is a good question! Every parish has financial obligations, including the basic operation of the buildings, salaries, maintenance, and improvements. In addition, there are schools to support, programs to run, charities to be funded, and operational expenses like hosts and wine for Mass, music books, vestments, and so on. In some cases, cemeteries and other buildings need attention. Finally, there is the diocesan assessment that each parish pays to help run the diocese and the support services provided to each parish.

Most parishes manage to get by with the collection, a few fundraisers and endowments. But contrary to popular opinion, cash flow is also a problem, and many parishes operate in the red. The Finance Committee is responsible for assisting the pastor in fiscal management, and good stewardship is the basis for successful programs.

Congratulations to Deacon Bob Arvidson on his 20 year anniversary of ordination to the diaconate

We are proud and honored that Deacon Bob has been a valuable part of our parish for the past 20 years! His commitment to our parish community and mission is exemplary. Deacon Bob has been especially helpful these past 6 months. Bob has stepped up to assist us in so many ways! Thank you Deacon Bob, for your kind heart, flexibility, and knowledge as we have learned so much from him! We always appreciate his patience and willingness to support everyone as a great listener. We look to him for good advice and procedures on many different aspects of the parish from wedding prep, baptisms, Confirmation preparation, RCIA, and all types of faith formation among many other things.

We all look forward to Deacon Bob Arvidson's support and guidance over the next 20 years!

Deacon's Corner

Jfor one, find it hard to believe that it is June already. I guess "time flies when you're having a good time". But are we "having a good time?" That is a question that is sometimes difficult to answer. I guess we all have our own interpretation of what a "good time" really is. I know for me, the idea of "having a good time" has taken on many different characteristics over the span of my lifetime. Going back to the time I was in school, during my young adulthood, getting married and raising a family, and now having two of my g'children getting married this summer. Life has been, and I guess will continue to be, ever-changing.

I think most importantly, I can say that I am "having a good time". And I know that one of the most important things that continues to take place in my life is my own spiritual growth. I can admit that when I was younger, my spiritual growth did not seem as important to me as it has been over the past couple decades of my life. Being ordained a Deacon and my ability to serve the altar of Our Lord has given me a much greater sense of direction for my spiritual journey. One that I have been and will continue to share with all I come in contact with now and forever.

Looking at my past, I have come to realize that I have been listening to the Word of God all my life. But the question I pose to myself is "although I have been listening to the Word of God for so long, how much of it did I hear?" You see, I believe there is a big difference between "listening and hearing". Think about it. We have all listened to the Word of God in some form or another, be it at home, at school, in church, at a bible study or even in our workplace. But how much have we really heard? How much have we taken to heart and used His Word to change our lives and the lives of those around us?

The Word of God speaks to us in our own language. How we hear God's Word determines how we relate to the One who has taken the form of a servant for us and for our salvation. To hear His Word is to hear Him, to receive His Word is to receive Him.

So I say to you this day, don't hide your faith, don't practice your faith once a week for an hour in Church or sitting home and watching Mass on livestream based on the times we live in today. If you truly love God and are open to "hearing" His Word, then be the "light" for others every minute of every day. In John 8:12, Jesus said; "I am the light of the world". We too can be a "light" by hearing and living His Word. Remember, attending Church on Sunday (whatever form that might take) doesn't make you a better person, what you have after the experience there does. I suggest you go back and read the last sentence again. This is the challenge that will continue with us all the days of our lives. If you are like me, you can never be satisfied with the "status quo". I am not even sure in our society today what that really means anymore. I do know that we should all want to better our lives. Not just with a bigger house, a better car, making more money, but what is most important in our lives in order to obtain Eternal Salvation. Continue to improve your spiritual understanding of the Word of God. Be a "light" shining so bright that you blind those around you by living the Word of God.

We can all be that lighthouse out in the sea of life that guides all of those around us to a life with Jesus Christ and ultimately gaining Eternal Salvation. We know this is possible because God, our Father, gave us His only Son to die on the Cross so that our sins may be forgiven and we can gain Eternal Salvation. So as we pray today, let us ask God to clear our hearts and minds from everything that would stop us from "hearing" the Word of God and give us the strength to be the "light" for all mankind.

My Blessings to all,

Deacon John

"...as we pray today, let us ask God to clear our hearts and minds from everything that would stop us from "hearing" the Word of God and give us the strength to be the "light" for all mankind."

EMMAUS HOUSE REOPENING JULY 11TH

With the support of the parish and our volunteers we have put together a plan to slowly and thoughtfully reopen Emmaus House. To begin with, we will simply host our food harvest distribution on Sundays with a twist. We used to open our doors at 5:30pm on Sundays. With the opportunity to analyze our operation we have decided to move up our time schedule to 4:00pm so as to not conflict with the 5:00pm mass. We will reopen the doors of Valker Hall safely on July 11th at our new time of 4pm for food distribution only. At a later date, when it is safe to do so we will resume the community dinner portion of our ministry.

10 Things That Happen When You Go To Adoration More Often

by Ruth Kennedy | Adoration, Best Of Catholic-Link.org

The Eucharist is described in the Catechism as the 'source and summit' of our faith. Finding the time to go to Adoration can be difficult. But if you can make it happen, committing to regular Adoration with an open heart can have some surprising results.

While they were eating, He took some bread, and after a blessing He broke it, and gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is My body." And when He had taken a cup and given thanks, He gave it to them, and they all drank from it. And He said to them, "This is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. (Mark 14:22-24)

In today's culture, the idea of interior progress is drastically undervalued; many times it's considered a waste of time or something from our naive ancestors. Usually, only exterior and more palpable progress is worth anything. The main difference between the two (material and spiritual) is that material progress remains outside of you. It will offer you certain positive sensations, yet it is always colored with a fleeting and inconsistent kind of occurrence. An interior progress, on the other hand, means that it is you who are changed. The time you spend adoration may surprise you these ten ways:

1. You develop a sense of awe and wonder

There is nothing like the atmosphere of a quiet chapel or church, the smell of incense and the splendour of the monstrance to help you understand the truth of what is happening in Adoration. We are truly before Jesus Christ, His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. The more you sink into that silence in front of the Host, the more you'll realize that the only response is awe and wonder at the greatness of our God.

2. You experience peace in other areas of your life

Jesus said "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you." (John 14:27) The outward peace we can experience in Adoration (the quiet and the stillness) reaches much deeper. It leads to an inner peace that affects all areas of our lives. It doesn't mean everything in our life will be perfect and without suffering, but Christ's peace means that we know that the storms of life can't shake us.

3. You begin to look outwardly

Jesus told us to "love one another as I have loved you". (John 13:34) Spending time in Adoration connects us to the whole world – after all, we're spending time with the Creator of all things! More time praising and adoring God means you can look beyond your own concerns and see the needs of others in your life and in the world that we live in.

4. You get bored sometimes

There are going to be times when Adoration can feel anything but glorious. You get distracted, your mind begins to wander, you can hear someone else sniffing next to you. Maybe in the beginning Adoration was full of wonderful feelings! Regular Adoration is when daily life sets in and it can make it feel not so special. But that doesn't devalue or take away from the truth of what Adoration is. Our faith is more than feelings and God will still be working in you. This is the beauty of the Incarnation – God made man, coming into all our stresses, fears, problems – and yes, boredom. Know that even if an hour spent in Adoration is a continual returning to Him every few minutes when your mind wanders, you are still giving God the best gift you can – your time and company.

5. But you become excited going to Adoration

The more time you spend in Adoration discovering that God is a God who loves you and wants to spend time with you, the more you begin to actually want to go. If Adoration once felt like a chore, you might even find yourself becoming excited to go! Adoration is addictive, not just because of the things we can gain for ourselves, but because we were created to adore. As we say in the Mass, it is "right and just" that we should give thanks to the Lord! Adoration is imprinted on our hearts and "our hearts are restless until they find our rest in Him"! (Thanks, St Augustine!)

6. Grace enters your life

It's amazing how a simple act of committing to even a short time of regular Adoration makes such a huge difference to the rest of your life. You can carry that moment of being in His presence with you long after you've left the church or chapel. His grace sustains you in every moment, especially in moments of temptation. Temptation becomes easier to resist when you're spending more time in Adoration. Sometimes, it really is that straightforward.

7. You realize how fortunate you are

If it is as simple for you as getting in the car and driving to Adoration at church, or even walking to the chapel nearby, you realise how much you can take it for granted. There are those who would love to spend more time with Jesus in Adoration but who are housebound, sick or busy parents. Then there are those around the world who actually risk their lives for the Eucharist, in places where they are persecuted for their faith. When you remember those who walk for hours or days in dangerous situations in order to be present with Jesus, you realise what a gift it is to be able to pray openly, not to mention having a priest to minister the sacraments.

8. You realize that God has a sense of humor

The more you are able to sit and let God speak to you (instead of spending all your time filling the silence with talking to Him), you'll find that God has a really good sense of humor. He likes a joke or two, and sometimes these moments are funny enough to make you want to laugh out loud. Surprising, maybe, but don't the best fathers show you their love by affectionate good humor?!?

9. You want to go to Confession more

This might sound scary, but it's not. Confession allows us to experience the mighty boundless ocean that is God's mercy. His mercy swallows up all our sins and gives us a true kind of freedom, a freedom without fear, which allows us to make the leap into His love and goodness, complete with all His perfect plans for our life. Time and time again, going to Confession re-enforces the knowledge that we are jumping into the arms of a father who loves us very much and "never tires of forgiving us". (Pope Francis).

10. You fall in love

Ultimately, you can't help this one! When you spend more time with an open heart in Adoration and just let Christ love you, then you'll fall in love too. That love will define you and allow you to be yourself. "I came that they may have life, life in all its fullness." (John 10:10)

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

† Please Pray for the Sick †
