THE GIFT OF THE EUCHARIST

Today we hear how Abram encounters Melchizedek, "king of Salem ... and a priest of God Most High" (Genesis 14:18). Melchizedek appears nowhere else in scripture, but is nonetheless significant. Psalm 110 declares of the great King David, "You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek," a description later given (in the letter to the Hebrews) to Christ as High Priest. Early Christians saw in Melchizedek's bread and wine the bread and wine of the Eucharist; Paul's account of the Last Supper (in today's second reading) is the oldest one in scripture. In the Gospel, Luke describes Jesus providing bread for a crowd in words similar to Paul's, words still used by the Church: Jesus takes bread, gives thanks, breaks it. Together, these three readings reveal how Christian priesthood, Christ's Real Presence, and the call to serve those in need are all found in the gift of the Eucharist.

"[A]s often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes." — 1 Corinthians 11:26

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

What do you want out of life? What are your deepest hopes and wishes? As you search, remember that we can find God in our longings. Kevin Pease taught us in our bible study that God is the ultimate fulfillment of all human desires. As Saint Augustine stated, "You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our heart is restless until it rests in you."

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Jesus went to those most in need. He forgave the sinner, ate with the outcast, defended, and fed those who were poor and hungry. He worked for true justice, risked being unpopular, willingly accepted suffering and death, and always stayed connected with his Abba, Father. Jesus also consistently reminded folks that God's compassion, love, and mercy trump everything, even the law. This is the Christ that the Eucharist calls us to be. As we look around our churches, our towns and cities, and our world, there are many people who need to see the face and body of Christ. Some of those most in need may be right within our families. But it is always in the poorest of the poor and those most vulnerable that we find the greatest need. There are many who cannot function on their own. When the gift of the Eucharistic Christ takes root in our hearts, we can more readily see the face of Christ in others.

Many people are vulnerable. Highest on that list are the homeless. They show us the face of Christ. Whatever the cause, to have no place to go and no place to call home takes a toll on the human spirit. For Jesus when there were hungry people, they were fed.

God asks us to do the same ... feed people. There are many who are hungry physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Gifted by the Eucharistic presence of Christ, we can bring them Christ. Who are the hungry around us and how can we feed them?

When someone is hurting, you comfort them. When someone is hungry, you feed them. When someone needs clothes, you provide them. When someone is cold, you warm them. When someone is in prison, you visit them. With over a million people who are homeless and over a quarter of them children, it is important to ask the question, "why?" and strategize for ways to lessen or alleviate the problem. Nevertheless, we are not off the hook for responding to the immediate needs that present themselves at our doors. Whether a person's current station in life is self-imposed or the result of being victimized, they are sacred vessels. We cannot lock the door and send them away and still believe we bear the Eucharistic presence of Christ. It doesn't work like that.

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets. - Lk 9:16-17

SACRED VESSELS

Have you ever paid attention to the purification of the sacred vessels after Holy Communion? If you haven't, I highly recommend doing so this Sunday. See the care with which the priest handles the chalice and the paten, pouring water into them to cleanse any loose particles of the Body and Blood of Christ. Observe the loving reverence he uses in wiping them dry with a special purificator. It's a ritual unto itself, and a powerful moment for reflection.

These vessels begin as earthly objects. They are made by human hands. There is nothing special about them — not until they go about the work for which they have been created. Until they contain the Body and Blood of Christ, they are only ordinary objects. But after they have carried within them the Eucharist, they are never the same. They will always be special and deserving of special care.

That's why partaking of the Eucharist is, for us, an evangelical undertaking. It is both a transformation and a declaration. When we accept this tremendous gift, we are proclaiming what we believe, and we are accepting the grace to follow through on that commitment.

When we are receiving the Eucharist, it is not possible for us to be passive. We become the vessel. We carry Christ into the world with us.

But do we act like it? Do we treat ourselves — our bodies, our souls — with the same respect as the priest cleansing the chalice? Do we treat one another with the reverence we would reserve for a sacred object? When we look at another person with anger or irritation or envy, do we acknowledge the change that we have willingly undergone by receiving Christ's Body and Blood into ourselves?

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

If one's gift or talent is making money, and one uses that money for honorable purposes, is it considered a spiritual gift? What does our faith teach us about wealth and stewardship?

Jesus said it best: to whom much is given, much is expected. All gifts come from God, and our abilities are given to us to be used for the benefit of ourselves and of others and at the service of the Gospel. In an article entitled "The Many Faces of Stewardship," Catherine Doherty wrote about stewardship in the "nitty-gritty everydayness of my life," and about the currency or "money" of spiritual stewardship: love, understanding, and unselfishness.

For a gift to have a spiritual benefit, our intention and involvement would be part of the consideration. If I give money to a charity, but do so in order to gain a tax advantage, it could hardly be a virtuous thing on my part. But if I give because I want to help and, in fact, am even willing to get involved, I have committed myself in a deeper, more meaningful way. Regardless of our money-making talents, in the end, true stewardship comes down to how well we practice the virtues of faith, hope, and love within our life and with those in our community and church. Ultimately, the most important element in stewardship is not intangible—it's you!

Congratulations to the 104 children who received their First Holy Communion throughout the month of May

JESUS, WE LOVE YOU WITH ALL OUR HEARTS. HELP US TO ALWAYS FOLLOW YOU. PLEASE KEEP US CLOSE TO YOU AND BE IN OUR HEARTS. AMEN. GOD BLESS OUR FIRST COMMUNICANTS AND THEIR FAMILIES!

Deacon's Corner

There is an interesting phrase that we have all heard most or all of our lives. The phrase is: "do we practice what we preach?" I can't speak for anyone else, but speaking from my own experience, I know that I have slipped time and time again in doing this. And this phrase can apply to many different aspects of our lives. But today let's focus on one specific area and that is being a good Christian. How many of us call ourselves good Christians, but in reality we are not since we all tend to stray away time and time again from following the teachings of Jesus Christ.

I know it is easy to speak the words of being a good Christian, to tell our children, spouses, friends, even ourselves how we should live, but putting those words into practice and following them on a daily basis every day, 365 days a year, is not always easy. Perhaps you remember in many DCs and homilies in the past, I talked/wrote about the "evil one" and our "guardian angel". One sitting on our right shoulder and one on our left shoulder always whispering in our ear to do what they wanted. The "evil one" preaches bad or evil and our "guardian angel" tells us to do what is right in the eyes of Our Lord. In the end, we listen to one or the other in all instances, but I know from my own experience, the final decision is not always the correct one. How about you? Have you ever had second thoughts about the decisions you have made? The impact those decisions have on family, friends and most importantly, ourselves.

So what causes us to listen to the "one" on our left shoulder, the "evil one"? Why would we consider not doing the right and correct thing told to us by our "guardian angel" on our right shoulder? Why do we stray from the teachings of Our Lord and Savior, even when we know it is wrong to do so? I believe the answer lies in the fact that we are human and

Our Lord has given us all free will to do as we choose, to make our own decisions. So with this in mind, the great question comes to us; "how do we overcome the constant temptation for disobey the teachings of Our Lord and Savior?"

This a tough question to answer but as I have gotten older, I have come to realize that our salvation is not something we can achieve on our own. That is why Jesus Christ called upon the Holy Spirit to come down on His last days on earth to empower His disciples to "go out and teach ye all nations". And remember, we are all His disciples. Jesus empowered all of us, through the Holy Spirit who dwells within us all to also "go out and teach ye all nations". We are empowered to be better Christians, to live our lives following the teachings of Our Lord and Savior thereby keeping us in the State of Grace so we can enter the Kingdom of God when our days on this earth are over. Remember, life on earth is temporary, life eternal in Paradise with Our Father is what we are all striving for and we must be ready each and every day for we know not the time nor the hour that we will be called home.

All good things are available to us always through our relationship with Our Lord. And while all the roads of our lives have different potholes and curves, all roads lead to the same place. All we have to do when we hit one of those potholes or curves that is too hard to navigate is ask for His forgiveness. So from this day forward, let us all work on "practicing what we preach" and I promise you, in doing so, we will all feel better about ourselves and our journey in life.

My Blessings to all,
Deacon John

WHO IS OUR LADY OF FATIMA?

Our Lady of Fatima is the title given to the Blessed Virgin Mary in connection with her apparitions to three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal. Our Lady of Fatima told the shepherd children to pray the rosary daily for the end of the war (World War I). Mary continued to appear once a month for 6 months to the three children, Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco. In October of 1930, the Bishop of Leiria-Fátima approved the visions as "worthy of belief." Our Lady of Fatima urgently desired for all of faithful to pray daily for the salvation of poor sinners, and for the whole world. That message from Our Mother Mary is a challenge – no matter where you are in your own personal prayer life – to go deeper, to pray often, and with greater fervor.
