JESUS' EXAMPLE OF HELPING OTHERS

In today's second reading Paul offers a wonderful argument to his converts at Corinth for seeking to help those in need. He is dealing with a practical problem, arranging a collection for the poor of the church of Jerusalem; but as he often does, he develops an important teaching about Jesus to make his point.

After asking that they show their faith by generous gifts, he reminds them of the "gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich" (2 Corinthians 8:9). In the Incarnation our Lord assumed our human nature, certainly becoming poor for one who is God. The ultimate gracious act of this poverty was going to the cross with all its terrible sufferings. By this act of poverty we definitely become rich. Now our sins can be forgiven; we can share in the very life of God through the sacraments; we can attain eternal salvation! *copyright (c) J. S. This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

As our communities, workplaces and schools are opening up after a year into the COVID pandemic, are there some lessons we can take with us in the great re-opening? Have we learned the importance of our interconnectedness; how what we do impacts others around us? Have our priorities been re-examined and do we have a better sense of what really matters? Have we learned to appreciate the simple things in life and not take for granted our health? As we move into our 'new normal' state of life, may God continue to bless you and your family!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

The author of The Cloud of Unknowing prays, "That which I am and the way that I am, with all my gifts of nature and grace, you have given to me, O Lord, and you are all this. I offer it all to you, principally to praise you and to help my fellow Christians and myself." Knowing that God sustains us in being is the key to faith. All that we need to do is to love God as God is and the rest will begin to fall into place. God made us in His image and desires that we have life. God also desires that we be healed of all of our wounds, especially those caused by sin, and know his loving touch. Being weighed down by negativity, imperfections, the cares of the world, and weakness is not something that God desires.

Faith can profoundly change how we see God, ourselves, and one another. It gives a clearer lens through which to see life and connects us with the powerful virtues of love and hope. Three friends journeying with us through all that we encounter, faith, hope, and love, help us experience God's embrace and heal us. All we have to do is let God be who God is and not foolishly try to make Him into what we need or want Him to be. Without God we cease to be.

It's that simple. The very blood that flows through my veins and the life that I have come directly from Divine origins. With this knowledge of who God is and who I am, I can open my ears and hear the powerful words Jesus speaks, "Do not be afraid, just have faith." Trust begins.

When we are struggling, we naturally reach out for God because we know that a divine remedy is the only remedy. But, in doing so we wrestle with letting God take charge. We want something more miraculous and visible than the obvious and have difficulty in finding consolation simply resting in God's presence. Our naked being, stripped of any pretense or self-serving agenda, is being called to rest in and love the uncreated Presence of God. Reach out in love to God. Ask God to heal you from all that separates you from Him. Put aside any ideas of God that create barriers between you and God's tender and endearing presence. The Cloud of Unknowing leaves us with wisdom, "think of yourself and of him in the same way, that is, with the simple awareness that he is as he is and that you are as you are." This is a meeting of two friends who desire nothing more than to share life together.

Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." - Mk 5:36bc, 38-39

TOUCHING THE CLOAK OF CHRIST

Look to today's Gospel and you'll find one of the most arresting images in all of Scripture. Christ in a crowd, everyone clamoring for his attention, pressing against him. Several feet away, is a chronically ill woman, weak and desperate for help. She knows she doesn't have a chance of getting his attention. She has no connections. She has no strength. All she can do is lift up her hand.

So that's what she does. She reaches out.

There comes a time, or maybe several times, in each of our lives when we become this woman. We're tired and we're sick. Is it with sin? With fear? With anger? It doesn't matter. Whatever it is, it's made us weak, and we feel like we've run out of options. We've looked for help and come up empty. We've consulted friends and gotten nowhere. We're lost in the crowd of life, unable to stick our heads above the pressing throng to wave for help.

And there is Christ, always passing by us. The hem of his cloak is never far from our grasp. We have no hope of a big miracle like the synagogue leader. We don't even bother asking for that. But that cloak ... we can touch that cloak. That's something we can do.

Do we do it, though? Do we have the confidence of that sick, beaten-down woman who knew so totally that healing was there for the taking? Or do we retreat back into the crowd, stumbling back home with our pain and our sinfulness? Reach out, friends. However, whatever, whenever — reach out. Christ will not fail you.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHAT IS THE “MIRACULOUS MEDAL” AND WHY IS IT CALLED THAT?

The medal of the Immaculate Conception that has come to be called simply the “Miraculous Medal” dates back to an apparition of Mary to Saint Catherine Laboure, who was then a novice sister with the Daughters of Charity. On November 27, 1830, Our Lady appeared to her standing on a globe, with shafts of light streaming from her hands and the words, “O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee,” surrounding the image. In the same vision, Catherine saw a capital “M” with a cross above it and below two hearts. Catherine seemed to hear a voice telling her to have what she saw struck as a medal and a promise that those who wore the medal would have the protection and intercession of the Mother of God. The first 1,500 of medals were distributed in 1832. Many miraculous favors were attributed to the use of the medal.

Saint Catherine's “Miraculous Medal” is among the recognizable and popular symbols of modern Catholicism. Reflecting on its widespread use, the 2001 Vatican document, “Directory on Popular Piety and Liturgy,” observes that the medal “recalls the mystery of Redemption, the love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and of the Sorrowful Heart of Mary. It signifies the mediatory role of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the mystery of the Church, the relationship between Heaven and earth, this life and eternal life.”

EMMAUS HOUSE REOPENING JULY 11TH

With the support of the parish and our volunteers we have put together a plan to slowly and thoughtfully reopen Emmaus House. To begin with, we will simply host our food harvest distribution on Sundays with a twist. We used to open our doors at 5:30pm on Sundays. With the opportunity to analyze our operation we have decided to move up our time schedule to 4:00pm so as to not conflict with the 5:00pm mass. We will reopen the doors of Valker Hall safely on July 11th at our new time of 4pm for food distribution only. At a later date, when it is safe to do so we will resume the community dinner portion of our ministry.

Deacon's Corner

I was thinking of a topic for this week's DC and I heard it in the homily given by Fr. Bob while serving Mass this past Sunday. The topic relates to the idea that "the world is smaller than we think". Fr. Bob's homily was relating to the fact that the terrible pandemic that we have and are suffering through has affected the entire world we live in. And while I believe that it is "in the rear-view mirror", we still need to be vigilant in our daily activity going forward.

I don't know how anyone on this planet has escaped the terrible nature of the past 12-18 months, be it having contracted the pandemic or just suffering the consequences of its existence. Think about it. So many people have succumbed to the affects in losing their lives. Many suffered financial setbacks in their business and/or jobs being lost, and the list of tragic events goes on and on. So how did you "weather the storm" of the past 12-18 months?

I know for myself, having Covid pneumonia and being in intensive care for a time, I am convinced that the most important thing I did was pray. Pray and ask the blessings of Our Lord to let me see another day with my family and friends. And I thank Him daily for that blessing. I know that my own survival was the result of someone much greater than myself and the doctors who treated me.

So let's get to today and the present time. This past weekend saw our Church open 100% for the first time in over a year. No registrations, no masks, no social distancing, no hand sanitizing, no restricted entrance and exits. What a great feeling. It felt like a new beginning and it actually is. And I believe that we all must continue to be respectful of those around us who might still feel compromised and fearful of contracting the virus. I don't believe that the virus is gone, we have just found a way to control it with the development of vaccines.

So let's backtrack our thought process a bit. What I mean by that is let's think about not how many perished over the past 12-18 months, but how many of us survived and what responsibility comes with that. I know for me, I have been praying and asking for God's grace to be bestowed on myself, my family, my workmates and actually the whole civilization of the world around us. And I believe He gave us a miracle in the speedy development of vaccines. For that we must be thankful of God's goodness. Think about where we might be if that didn't happen. It is something I don't want to even imagine.

Our past experience should bring us all closer to God. It should bring us all closer to the realization that the two most important Commandments that I preach about all the time, give us hope. They are; LOVE THE LORD THY GOD WITH YOUR WHOLE HEART, MIND AND SOUL and LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.

I can tell you that I am the "eternal optimist". And I believe that because I know I have a "partner in life" in Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, for He will "never give us more than we can handle". While we might sometimes challenge that statement, we must trust in God to know what is best for each of us. You might say; "Deacon John, sometimes that is not possible based on the circumstances of my life", but that is when we must remember that life on earth is only temporary and that Eternal Salvation with Our Lord is our ultimate goal.

So we must all continue to be thankful for all that we have, all that we are and, most importantly, where we hope to be when our journey here is over.

My Blessings to all,

Deacon John

"Our past experience should bring us all closer to God. It should bring us all closer to the realization that the two most important Commandments ... give us hope."
