Ministry Center and Fr. Valker Hall are still closed until further notice. For scheduling funerals or sacraments of Baptism, Matrimony, Confession or Anointing of the Sick please call Parish Office at (847)438-6622.

We pray that as the number of those vaccinated increases over the next few months, positivity and death rates in our state, which have been rising will significantly decrease. These rates determine state and Archdiocesan mandated guidelines regarding safety protocol and capacity limits that we must follow. We need to remain vigilant and continue to adhere to current public health and Archdiocesan guidelines including masking, distancing, capacity limits and hand sanitizing.

We are at a critical tipping point in our fight against this virus. If we stay the course for another few months, following the state and Archdiocese guidelines, we can really knock this virus back for the good of all. And once we see a trend of significant decline in positivity rates, we are hopeful and excited that the state and Archdiocese will safely expand capacity limits and ease other restrictions. In the meantime, let's love our neighbor as Jesus asks of us and continue to do our part to keep everyone safe.

Keeping our church safe for all, requires a huge volunteer commitment. In order to keep our church doors open, we need adequate help. We have a very dedicated and joyful pool of volunteers, but we can always use more. If you would like to ensure that we can continue to safely keep our church open and at our capacity limit, please visit our website to sign up to volunteer.

THE PRESENCE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

We have a unique episode in the Acts of the Apostles today. A whole roomful of people are baptized with the Holy Spirit before they are baptized with water! The verb used—"the Holy Spirit 'fell' on them" (Acts 10:44)—is characteristic of the way the Spirit works throughout the book of Acts: powerful and surprising. Though this "baptism" is not the normative way the New Testament describes baptism, it is still a good reminder today that the Holy Spirit is not controlled by whether or not we pour water, but rather that our sacramental signs reveal the presence of the Spirit at work among us. And we have a double reinforcement of how this work is accomplished from a Letter and a Gospel bearing John's name. It is love, self-sacrificing and self-giving love, that manifests the Spirit in our midst. It is love that is the greatest of commandments. The Spirit is manifested equally through those who live in that love.

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

How does friendship develop? People who spend time together get to know each other. Best friends share their deepest thoughts without fear of judgement. Jesus calls his apostles friends because everything he heard from his Father he shared with them. Your best friend, Jesus, still speaks to you now. He waits to hear from you, converse with you. Set aside personal prayer time and Scripture reflection to hear His voice. Pour out your heart. He is always listening. When you hear his voice, follow the prompt. Maybe you'll need to adjust your plans in order to follow the quiet whisper of the Holy Spirit. Maybe you'll just need to smile at a stranger.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"Remain in my love," and, "I call you friends," are powerful words that are found in John's Gospel. Most of us probably have them committed to memory or have at least heard them proclaimed dozens of times. They are words that can easily become trite and quickly glossed over without fully pondering and digesting their profound beauty. When we take the time to immerse ourselves in them, they can radically change our lives and our relationships. They can open up new doors of adventure and hold countless possibilities for meaning. The essence of love and friendship are things that can easily be taken for granted. They have always been there and are a significant part of our lives. Many would say that they could not live without love and friendship, and they put a great deal of care into preserving, deepening and sustaining them. Love and friendship share a mutual relationship with each other that deserves more reflection.

Where does love come from? We can consider relationships that have not succeeded and conclude that they were somehow due to our "failures in love." In doing so, we assume that human beings are the ones responsible for love, its success and also its failure. While our weakness, emotional composition and sinfulness can easily impact our ability to love, its origin is not human. God is love. God is love's author and origin. When we love, it is God who loves in and through us. It is because of this divine closeness that Jesus is able to call us friends! It is not because of anything we have done but simply because of who we are. Realizing and contemplating this awesome reality becomes a game changer across the board. It gives us reason to clear the table of anything that can adversely affect the way we love so that we can open the door for its author to shine forth.

Coming upon this truth is what leads folks like St. Francis of Assisi to leave that which is comfortable and worldly and live a radical life. They relate with the love of God that radiates in and through all living things and appreciate their sacredness. It was having an intimate experience of God's love and friendship that propelled St.

Francis and others to embrace simplicity, act nonviolently, pursue humility, love enemies, care for the earth and open up avenues for true justice. Understanding this profound truth will also help us find peaceful solutions to world's problems, restore relationships with our sisters and brothers, bring the grace of loving stewardship to creation and heal many wounds. Once we begin to see how wonderfully holy all of life really is, we discover joy. We lose our need for fear, develop a fierce fortitude, act prudently and seek justice. There is great power in love because it comes from God. It will never fail. It also enjoys the company of two other friends who are eager to become our friends as well: faith and hope. These are just as important to have and to share.

"If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete."

- Jn 15:10-11

CHOOSING TO LOVE ONE ANOTHER

Love one another. The greatest commandment, the simplest commandment — and if you've ever loved anyone, you know it's also the hardest.

I'm man enough to admit it. I've seen one or two of those cheesy Hallmark movies that are especially popular around the holidays. Boy meets Girl. Boy and Girl encounter a catastrophic roadblock to their relationship — they're coaches of rival high school volleyball teams, or he runs a dog kennel and she works at a feline rescue, so it could never, ever work out, right? But sprinkle a little movie magic over the whole situation and Boy and Girl find what Hallmark tells us is true love.

I could make a list of all the things that are inaccurate about these movies, and something I would put right near the top — maybe even above the sometimes-unbelievable storylines — is the idea that love is a feeling.

See, I'm not sure if it's accurate to call these movies love stories. Attraction stories, sure. But if you've ever forgiven someone who's hurt you, nursed a dying parent, gotten up for an infant's night feeding or let your kid have the last piece of cake, you know that real love is a verb. It's something you do. And it is almost always a choice.

Love one another. How often do we hear this? How often do we think about what it really means? How often do we take a moment to consider the action Jesus is asking us to take and the choice he is asking us to make?

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

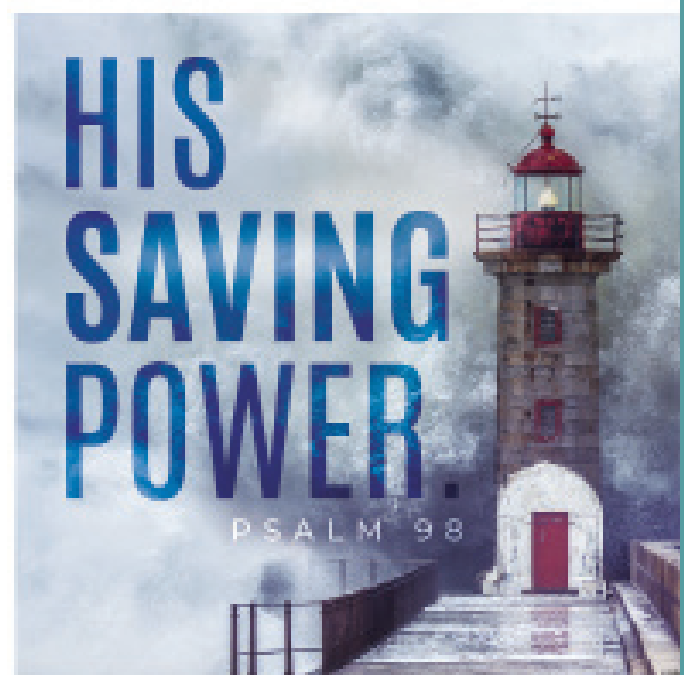

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A "SAINT" AND A "BLESSED"?

The process of proclaiming someone as a saint in the Catholic Church has evolved over the course of many centuries. In the beginning, those honored as saints were almost exclusively biblical figures or martyrs. However, after the legalization of Christianity in the fourth century, new holy women and men came to be honored as saints, and this was often done by popular acclaim or by the local bishop or abbot.

It was Pope Gregory IX (who was pope from 1227 to 1241) who officially proclaimed that only the pope had the authority to add someone to the official list (the "canon") of saints. This is the meaning of the word "canonization."

Today, the saint-making process includes several steps, including detailed studies of the person's life and a recognition that they died as a martyr or lived a life of "heroic virtue." Once someone is recognized as a martyr or if a miracle is attributed to their intercession, they will be beatified and honored as "Blessed." This means that they can be celebrated by Catholics in a particular country or region or by the members of certain religious community. If another miracle occurs and is approved, then the "Blessed" is canonized and honored with the title "Saint," meaning that they are now officially recognized as a universal model of holiness and an intercessor.

Dear St. Francis de Sales Parish and School Family,

You have been patient waiting for news of Fr. David Ryan. It is now some time since he stepped aside in keeping with the church's child protection policies.

While I cannot report a conclusion to the investigation, I can say that there has been progress in interviewing the accuser and researching the circumstances the accuser alleges. We know that the Independent Review Board is doing an impartial and thorough investigation and will make its recommendations in due course.

I will let you know when we have new information to share. In the meanwhile, Cardinal Cupich and I want to assure you that we are close to you in prayer.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Deacon's Corner

In Sunday's Gospel, which was from Lk 24: 35-48, my homily focused on a some things that I feel will make a good DC. The Gospel refers to two very important and much used four word phrases that are used in the Bible more than any other four word phrases. They are PEACE BE WITH YOU and DO NOT BE AFRAID. These are important since we have heard them so often during this Octave of Easter. DO NOT BE AFRAID was first said by Jesus to Mary Magdalene when she visited His tomb and He was not there. When He appeared to Her, she thought Jesus was the gardener since Jesus blocked her from knowing who He was. When Jesus opened her eyes, she was startled and Jesus told her DO NOT BE AFRAID.

The next encounter with Jesus was on the Road to Emmaus which is about seven miles from Jerusalem. Two of His disciples were walking the road and Jesus appeared to them and walked with them without disclosing to them who He was. It was not until they asked Jesus to join them for dinner, when Jesus broke the bread, blessed it, and gave it to them, their eyes were opened and Jesus disappeared after they realized who it was.

This last time, as written in Sunday's Gospel, Jesus appeared to His disciples in the upper room and when He entered He said PEACE BE WITH YOU. The disciples were frightened, they thought Jesus was a ghost. Jesus spent some time to show them that He was flesh and bone, showed them the nail holes in His hands and feet. And Jesus also asked for food and ate with them. After they had eaten, Jesus called down the Holy Spirit in tongues of fire to dwell within His disciples so they would know that He would always be with them. They would never be alone.

And so it is true for all of us. As I said in my homily, Jesus was not just talking to the few disciples who were with Him in the upper room, Jesus was talking to all of us. You see, we are all disciples of Jesus Christ. We have all been infused with the Holy Spirit who is with us 24/7. The question I would like you to consider is; "do you recognize the Holy Spirit who dwells within us?"

Jesus told His disciples that they are to be His witnesses and Jesus asks that of us also. I know, like His disciples, it is hard to be witness to something unless we have experienced it ourselves. So we must ask Jesus to open our hearts to His presence in our lives in order to "spread the Good News of Jesus Christ".

Remember, the disciples' lives were in turmoil. During the Crucifixion, the only disciple who was present was John. All the others were in hiding in fear for their lives after seeing what Jesus was put through. That is why Jesus had to come back to them and open their minds to understand that He had to suffer and die but then would rise from the dead. This is the truth of Easter and His Resurrection.

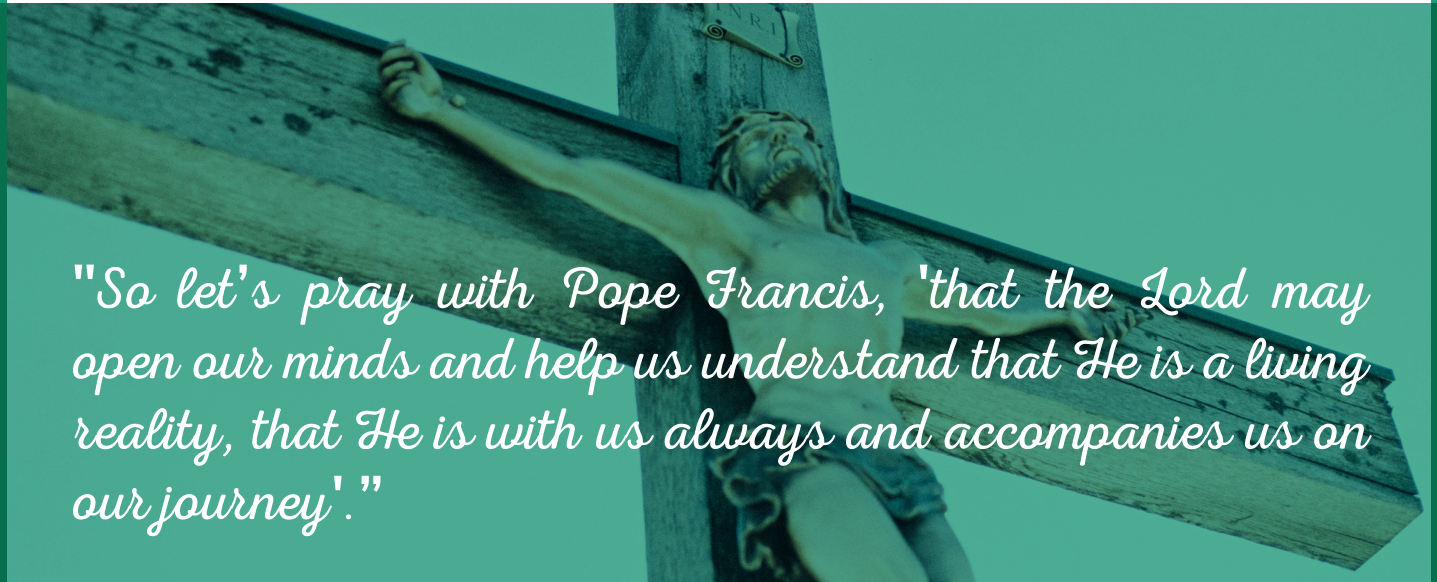

Pope Francis, in a homily on this Gospel, said; "we are afraid of JOY, and Jesus, by His Resurrection, gives us JOY, the JOY of being Christians, the JOY of following Him closely, the JOY of taking the road of the beatitudes, the JOY of being with Him". And Pope Francis described the fear of JOY as a Christian Illness.

So let's pray with Pope Francis, "that the Lord may open our minds and help us understand that He is a living reality, that He is with us always and accompanies us on our journey". Let us ask the Lord for the grace not to be afraid of JOY.

Jesus said; "whenever 2 or 3 are gathered in My name, I will be with you". The presence of Jesus brings peace and casts out fear. So let us all take some time and listen to Jesus when He says to us; DO NOT BE AFRAID and PEACE BE WITH YOU.

My Blessings to all,

Deacon John

Hand-Carved Olive Wood Gifts from the Holy Land

Proceeds benefit Catholic communities in the Holy Land.

The group that sells the olive wood from the Holy Land is not going to be in the parish to sell the beautiful figurines to help the Christian community in the Bethlehem area. The Christian carvers in the Holy Land are suffering greatly as the local government refused to assist them with any kind of funds. Therefore, the consequences are threatening to their existence. They are building hope on the Catholic churches to make a purchase from their group to put food on the table.

Please visit their website
www.starofbethlehemart.com
 and try to purchase anything that would help substantially.

Thank you and God bless you all.
 Issam

Did you know that 600 Christian families are living in Bethlehem and are completely dependent on carving olive wood figurines for their livelihood? The recent clashes in the Middle East have stopped the tourism industry in Bethlehem, causing most of those families serious harm in earning their living and forcing many of them to leave their homeland. Christians having to leave the land of Christ has tragic consequences on the holy sites. Issam from "Star of Bethlehem Group" came to the United States with a mission to help those families by selling their beautiful religious hand crafts. The cost of goods goes to benefit the Christian carvers to keep them working in the spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, the profit from sales goes directly to the needy Catholic schools and clinics in the Holy Land. Star of Bethlehem has been approved by many bishops and the diocese of Jerusalem.

Each prayer and each pledge makes a difference! The prayers and gifts of many enable our parishes, schools and ministries to deliver needed services.

Our Annual Catholic Appeal goal for this year 2021 is $125,410.

To make your gift, you can complete the mail-in giving envelope available at church or make a gift online by clicking the button on our website, www.annualcatholicappeal.com.

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call the Parish Office - Ministry of Care, (847)438-6622, when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.
