GOD'S REIGN

By pointing to the end times, today's readings speak to the coming reign of God, when God will make all things new. In Christ, this time has already begun. We, by our energized watchfulness, can further God's reign. We can heal broken hearts, free captives, spread the Good News. Even so, the reign of God will not be complete without the second coming of Christ. Our weekly eucharistic gathering is a sign of the fullness of the end times. At Mass we join as an assembly to recall and to claim the story of Jesus as our own. Together we give thanks to God for the many gifts bestowed upon us. We receive nourishment in the simple but profound meal. And our weak and weary selves are invigorated and transformed by the power of Christ, so that we ourselves might become effective signs of God's reign present and to come. Copyright © J. S. St. Joseph protected and taught his adopted son, Jesus. Pope Francis reminds us that fatherhood is more than bringing a child into the world. It's responsibly introducing them to real life with loving support. Like God our father, a true father does not possess a child. God allows us to follow or go astray. St. Joseph loved freely, gifting himself to Jesus and Mary. His life is a model for all the good fathers we sorely need today.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

“And then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in the clouds’ with great power and glory.” Take a moment to ponder these words from today’s Gospel. How does this image make you feel? For people to truly understand the significance of this message, something profound has to happen within. If we find ourselves reacting with a sense of dread or fear, we have to step back and ask why. Our answer will reveal a great deal about our relationship with God. It’s hard to fall in love with a God of whom we are afraid. God does not want us to be afraid. Nor does He want us to align our wills to His in order to avoid some kind of horrendous eternal consequence. That sounds like too much of a superficial power play on the part of God who continues to seek out His children in love.

In order for these words to carry any type of significant meaning for us, they have to resonate with and touch us on a deeper level. They have to be able to connect some dots and have meaning for us in order for this promise to change our lives. Sometimes we get preoccupied with the uncertainty of our deaths. Not knowing when or how we will eventually die can be unsettling. But, more so than needing an answer to the “when” of death, the “what” of death answer we provide has more significance. What happens to us when we die? Whether we die during the natural course of our lives or when Christ comes again, the experience is the same. If we believe that we are meant to live in union with God eternally and that death completes and does not diminish us, then it is worth our time and effort to wait in vigilant hope of the Lord’s coming in glory. Our journey back to God is something beautiful to be desired, not dreaded or feared.

Sadly, many folks believe that life is no more than a random occurrence without any purposeful direction or meaning. Death is simply death and nothing more. For them, the Second Coming of Christ and God’s eternal promise have no meaning. When we understand the truth about who we are, it changes things up. We then can see ourselves as works in progress who have the choice to either resist the inspirations of the Divine Artist or give into the wonderful creativity of His will. Life awaiting the fullness of Christ to come becomes an unfolding of Divine surprises and abundant joy. God is eternally merciful, forgiving, and welcoming. It is only when we directly reject this gift and turn our backs on Love itself that we have anything to fear.

“Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.” - Mk 13:30-32

GIVING UNTIL IT HURTS

In the time of Christ, sacrifice was nothing new to the Jewish people. The Israelites were experts at sacrifice. So, after centuries of every kind of offering imaginable, what was so special about Christ's? What made it so different from the sacrifices offered by the Levitical priests for centuries before his death?

Well, to adequately answer that question would consume whole volumes. And, of course, the first and most important reason is that Christ was the son of God and the savior of the world, not a random (if "unblemished") lamb offering. It was only by the blood of Christ that we could be redeemed.

But another answer is this: Christ's sacrifice cost him. In fact, it cost him everything. The offerings made by the Israelites through their priests cost them too, of course. They gave of their flocks, of their household stores, of their wealth. But Christ gave differently. He gave of himself. He gave until it was all gone.

Such is the highest form of stewardship: the gift of self to the point of discomfort. It can take a multitude of forms and I am not saying we are all called to be nailed to the cross. In fact, for most of us, our gifts will not involve physical discomfort at all. But certainly, stewardship demands discomfort. It demands that we go against our human nature of putting ourselves first, of thinking primarily of our own needs and desires. And most of all, it demands love. For that, above all else, distinguished the gift Christ gave us.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHY DO SOME SACRAMENTS LEAVE A CHARACTER OR MARK ON THE SOUL? DON'T ALL SACRAMENTS AFFECT THE SOUL?

All sacraments mediate grace and connect us to Christ and to the Church. Some sustain us in our faith journey, while others help us heal from the effects of sin. Each one offers a share in God's life, giving us what we need to be faithful followers of Jesus. But some sacraments change us in ways that are irreversible. The three sacraments that leave a character are Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Orders. We are literally different people because of the effect of the grace of those sacraments. We are changed at the core of our being in such a fundamental way that we can not go back to what we once were.

In Baptism, we are freed from original sin, initiated into the Body of Christ as adopted sons and daughters. In Confirmation, we are given the fullness of God's Spirit, sealed in his grace and gifted with what we need to live a Christian life. In Holy Orders, a priest is marked as an 'alter Christus,' another Christ, and is once and forever a priest who offers sacrifice, forgives sin, and acts in the person of Christ. In these three sacraments, we are conformed more closely to Christ, reflecting his love and truth.

WIDOW & WIDOWERS GROUP - HOLY FAMILY PARISH

A Holiday Tradition | A Gift of Love

We are returning to our tradition of adopting families and women from Mt. St. Joseph again this year. This year we have many individuals and families who need our assistance during the upcoming holidays. By remembering them with a Christmas gift and food for their dinner, we act as a reminder of Christ's presence in the world today. We are also requesting gift cards or cash donations to allow us to purchase gift cards for families and for our sharing parish – Our Lady of Tepeyac, now Our Mother of the Americas. We will not collect gifts for them again this year, but we will appreciate the gift cards.

We ask that you purchase a new article of clothing and a gift for each child in the family. Gifts for the parents are optional. We also ask that you purchase $10 Jewel or Walmart gift cards per person for the family so that they may make their own food selection. Look for the Gift of Love sign-up tables in the Gathering Space before and after Masses the weekends of November 6th and 7th, 13th and 14th and 20th and 21st. If you donate gift cards or cash they can be:

- Mailed to St. Francis, 135 S Buesching Road, Lake Zurich 60047
- Dropped off at the Ministry Center
- Dropped off in a dedicated box in church during the weekend Masses
- Through the online giving program

If you donate gift cards please make the cards in increments of $25 or $50 and only for Walmart, Target or Jewel. Stop by the table to sign up or learn more about the program or call Jane Clery at 847-370-8933 with any questions you may have.

ST FRANCIS DE SALES NEW HOODIE DRIVE

SFS GRADUATE SPOTLIGHT

Mary Kate Mooney, daughter of Angela and the late Michael Mooney, ran into Fr Ryan at the Hungry Mule this past summer and he insisted that we share Mary Kate's update with the parish! She graduated from SFS class of 2013, Carmel Catholic High School Class of 2017, and most recently graduated from Hope College in 2021 to accept a Special Education Teaching Position at the International Community School in Bangkok, Thailand.

"I am in my first year teaching at ICS, a private, non-profit Christian school. Majority of our students do not come from Christian homes, so each day our community has the opportunity to plant seeds about the truth of Christ and demonstrate the love of Christ.

I am the Elementary Special Education/Life Skills teacher at ICS. My focus is on inclusion. My students are given the opportunity to join their peers in the general education classroom as much as possible. My role is to support them in those classes, as well as providing direct instruction in my own classroom throughout the day.

I'd say most students come from well-off families, but we do have a good amount of missionary families! Our missionary families receive quite a bit of financial support. Taken from the website, ICS continues the tradition of offering quality Christian education for the international English speaking community and now educates over 1000 students from over 22 nations.

Our Mission Statement: Based on the Bible, in partnership with parents, we teach the whole student to know and apply wisdom for the good of our world and the glory of God.

I think the coolest thing is that most of our students are not from Christian homes, but their parents still choose ICS knowing they will hear about Jesus each day."

Here is the website if anyone wants to check out more! <https://www.ics.ac.th/who-we-are>

We love you, Mary Kate and are praying for you and your ministry!

Deacon's Corner

How many times when you begin a new project to build something do you make sure you have the right tools to complete the job? After all, it would be a waste of time and effort if you begin a job without having the right tools to assist in completion. And let me preface this by telling you that while I feel I am "handy" around the house, being capable of some of the things I have accomplished in building even amaze me. I remember when we began to build our new home twenty-one years ago. Since one of my companies, Fidelity Construction, built it, I was very involved in its construction every day. So much so, that when it came time to do much of the finish carpentry such as door trim, chair rails, crown molding, etc., I did most of the cutting and installation. I would go home after work, have dinner, put on work clothes and go to our new home and start working, many times well into the night. I really enjoyed being "part of the installation team". And while I made plenty of cutting mistakes like wrong-way corners, backward bevels, etc. I eventually got it right. I remember the most important part of the whole project from my perspective was "having the right tools" for the job.

So too, we can look at our spiritual growth and development in much the same way. Think back about growing-up. Most of us went to Catholic schools and back in those days, we had religion classes, altar service, Mass, all available almost on a daily basis. I would liken all of this to having established the "foundation of our faith" by "having the right tools". Remember, prior to getting into high school, we had already received four of the seven sacraments, Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and Confirmation. And, if you recall, much preparation and training went into preparing us for all of these Sacraments (although I don't recall much about my own Baptism, how about you?). And this preparation was part of "having the right tools" for us to move forward with our spiritual growth.

Now let's take a look at life about 2,000 years ago while Jesus Christ walked among the people with His Disciples. He taught them with every word He spoke, He taught them with every action (miracle) He performed. And all of this was done to prepare them for the time when He would no longer be with them. Jesus knew when that time would come, but no one else on earth did. Also remember that His Disciples were simple men. They were not learned scholars who had studied to sit in the synagogues and prevail over the people. Yet, after the Death and Resurrection of Jesus, He came back to His Disciples and called the Holy Spirit to abide within them to empower them as they set upon their "journey" to spread the Word of God to all nations. And the same is true even for us today as it has been for the past 2,000 years, for the Holy Spirit abides within us and we should ask every day to be empowered to be "a better Christian than we were yesterday".

You see, we all have within us the Holy Spirit. Life is not like God is "up there" and we are "down here" being separate and distant from each other. It is more like the Holy Spirit speaking within each of us, bringing peace to our soul. The Holy Spirit allows us to know the mind of Christ within ourselves and accomplish the Will of the Father. And this is the hard part for all of us...to listen and believe the Holy Spirit for as difficult as it is sometimes to trust that Jesus Christ will save us, we must also have faith that the Holy Spirit will lead us.

So this day I challenge each of us to come humbly before God with a contrite heart and depend upon the work of the Holy Spirit within us and hear what He has to say. Do this, and I promise that you will have "all the right tools" to complete your own spiritual journey here on earth in a perfect fashion. We will feel like the master carpenter who built his own house here on earth with the knowledge that, by doing so, we have also built our house in Heaven with God our Father.

My blessings to all,

Deacon John

"I challenge each of us to come humbly before God with a contrite heart and depend upon the work of the Holy Spirit within us and hear what He has to say."

Michael the Archangel*

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen
