THE BARRIERS THAT SEPARATE US

We live in a society that has many technological avenues for stimulation and entertainment, one in which the urban population exceeds the non-urban. It is curious that loneliness is a prevalent malady. It is easy to reach out and touch someone, we are told. But—in truth—it is not all that easy, and statistics from the mental health field will reinforce that opinion. Today's readings are about the ways in which we can authentically reach out: God touches Adam to create a mate and end his solitude; God-in-Jesus takes on human flesh and death in order that we might come to glory; Jesus reaches out to the children whom the disciples had tried to keep away, showing us the manner in which we must approach the loving embrace that awaits us in heaven. Until that day, however, we must remember that ours is a sacramental church, a church of signs of the love of God. And so we are called to reach out continually to ease the loneliness and the barriers that separate us from one another and, therefore, from the love of Christ.

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

It's harvest time! Pumpkins, apples and zucchini are ready for picking! All the hard work and dedication for a healthy crop from our farmers has paid off. We live in a bountiful country with food and resources aplenty. The same goes for the banquet of the Lord. He wants to shower his blessings on YOU and all his children. Come and taste the goodness of the Lord!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Archbishop Fulton Sheen said, "It takes three to make love, not two: you, your spouse, and God." Apart from the incarnation of God in Jesus Christ, nothing speaks better of God's incarnate love than marriage. God designed it this way. We place great value on love and rightly so. What we fail to realize, however, is that love, its very presence and place in our lives, is not simply part of the human package deal. Love comes from God. It is one of God's greatest gifts to human beings. When we begin to realize that our very ability to love is sacred, it changes up how we see the essence of life, and purpose and sanctity of marriage.

God is love. It stands to reason then that if we follow the path of unconditional, self-emptying love we will then stumble upon God. It is precisely this intimate wedding of God with love that gives such eloquence and honor to the love between husband and wife. As a living sign of Christ's love for the Church and for humanity, husbands and wives speak volumes of God's unconditional incarnate love for all of his children! The Divine power that brings unity and life to marriage is so strong that once joined, it really cannot be separated.

Admittedly, marriage covenants can be extremely difficult to negotiate and, at times, very painful to experience. God's perfect divinity always meets our broken and imperfect humanity. God is okay with this setup as he created it this way. Our loving is never as unconditional as God's and often tainted by our own imperfections, needs, memories, hurts, sinfulness, and weakness. All of this baggage negatively impacts even the most well-intentioned marriages, causing them to be hurtful and empty. We are love works in progress. God can succeed in perfecting our love only if we keep our eyes fixed on him as the source of that love. That's why marriage is always about three and not just two.

The Divine intimacy at the heart of marriage is what can make them celebrations of great union and happiness. Couples who are still madly in love with each other after many years, still looking at each other with that timeless twinkle in their eyes, best tell the story of God's oneness with humanity. Honor, celebrate, and support those who have accepted a vocation to marriage. Living in a world that easily pulls relationships apart, may they find hope and inspiration from their faith companions who are on the same journey!

He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female." - Mk 10:3-6

THEREIN LIES THE...RIB

“If I were God...” is a dangerous way to start a sentence, but how many of us do this? Probably more regularly than we would like to admit. Even if we don’t verbalize the sentiment, we likely think it from time to time. Most of us finish that statement with some genius, original idea for eradicating difficulty and pain from the world. If I were God, I wouldn’t let anyone go hungry. If I were God, all wealth would be equally distributed. If I were God, war wouldn’t exist.

I imagine that, when we think thoughts like these, God shakes His head and wonders why we don’t look a little harder at the whole of His creation — because I can promise you, it’s never lacking.

When Adam had a need for a companion, God used what was available: Adam’s rib. Everything that He had put into place was already perfect, already complete. Woman was a new creation, but not a new species. Adam searched through all of creation to find the perfect mate, but God had tucked the answer inside of His creation all along.

I’m guilty of it as much as anyone else — looking to Heaven with a chip on my shoulder. “Why haven’t you sent me what I need? I’ve been asking over and over again.” But have I even thought to look inside of myself?

Where is the rib you are missing today? What are the opportunities God has set before you? What are the needs that He is ready to fulfill, if only you would stop wasting time lamenting all the solutions that don’t fit the bill?

CAN A PERSON (THE MOTHER, FATHER, OR PROVIDER) EVER BE FORGIVEN FOR AN ABORTION?

For people of faith, any conversation of human sinfulness should always lead us to reflect on God’s loving mercy. Because God’s mercy is greater than any sin, the Church is clear that even those involved in the sin of abortion can be reconciled with God and the Church. To help make this grace more available through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Pope Francis extended the permission to absolve someone of the sin of abortion to all priests in 2016.

Even with the grace and blessings of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the tragedy of abortion and the aftermath of abortion takes a toll on everyone involved. Ministries of outreach and support, such as Project Rachel, offer pastoral counseling, support groups, retreats, and other forms of care.

As Christians, we are also called to help promote this healing and reconciliation in all its forms. To learn more, visit www.hopeafterabortion.com.

Deacon's Corner

*A*s I was walking through our vegetable garden the other day, which has yielded more veggies than ever before, I was thinking about how the root systems for different veggies are formed. It got me thinking about the homily I did this past Saturday on the Gospel of Lk 8: 4-15. If you don't recall it, I suggest you open your Bible and read it so to better understand this week's DC.

Many times in my homilies, I refer to the term "parable". I do this because Jesus often spoke in "parables" to the crowds who gathered to hear Him teach the Word of God. Webster defines "parable" as a "metaphor or story used to create doubt about its precise application in order for us to derive our own understanding through active thought". And this particular Gospel of Luke is no exception. As a matter of fact, Jesus' own disciples many times did not understand the parables put forth by Jesus. Sometimes they were reluctant to ask Jesus what He meant. This has always created thoughts in my mind about my own interpretation of the Gospels. How about you? Do you ever ask yourself the question; "what is Jesus really trying to teach us?"

This Gospel, chapter and verse, is one of those that creates a lot of questions about what Jesus is saying. Therefore, when Jesus speaks to the crowds comprising people from one town after another, about seed falling on rocky ground, among thorns, and on good rich soil, His disciples need to ask Him what the meaning of this "parable" might be. Remember that 2,000 years ago, they were living in an agrarian society. So why would this particular subject matter from Jesus not be understood by His disciples.

Jesus explains that the seed is the Word of God and the Word is shared with everyone regardless of their internal "soil" and how they are to initially receive it. Things affect how the Word is transmitted, how and where it settles, and where it lands. And all this would be well and good if we didn't have the evil one lurking around us constantly waiting to steal the Word of God. And by doing so, the evil one stops our seed from taking root in the soil of our soul. But we are able to overcome this adversity by keeping our "soil" rich and fertile so it will bear fruit through our own perseverance.

One thing I have found is that reading the "parables" that Jesus puts in His Gospels, makes it easier to remember what message Jesus is trying to convey. I know I am a repetitive learner, which to me means that I remember something by repeating it over and over. As a matter of fact, in my last homily, I told the story about how, when I was growing up and wanted to remember something for school, I would go into our living room and walk the four corners of a big oriental rug we had on the floor, repeating over and over. And it worked!

And because a "parable" makes it easier for us to remember, we are ensured that it is returned to, treated, nourished and, most importantly, given the opportunity to take root within us. So I say, "let's step up our game". In addition to reading the Gospels, let's take time to better understand what the message Jesus is giving us. Think about it, dwell on it so we can hear the Word of God.

I leave you with two questions. "What in this parable sticks with you today?" and "What can we do to ensure that God's Word can take root and flourish in ourselves?"

My Blessings to all,
Deacon John

"What in this parable sticks with you today?" and "What can we do to ensure that God's Word can take root and flourish in ourselves?"

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE NEWLY BAPTIZED & THEIR FAMILIES

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call the Parish Office - Ministry of Care, (847)438-6622, when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.
