GIFTS

In today's readings, we discover that material wealth alone does not keep us from discipleship. We will see that there are other gifts more important than material wealth, but even so, it is how we use our gifts that matters most.

Today's scriptures point to the value of the gifts of wisdom, trusting in God, and letting our actions reflect the love of God from within. It is not gold that causes us to fall, but rather the desire for gold above all other things. From the readings in Wisdom and Hebrews, we find the source of God's gifts in our lives. Wisdom is more valuable than worldly possessions. In Hebrews, we are challenged to look at our own values and admit honestly what controls our lives..

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

Today's Gospel message is an invitation from Jesus to follow him. In addition to following the commandments, Jesus also wants our whole heart. In return, he gives us unconditional love and eternal life. He also gives us true and lasting peace and joy. These are gifts for you and me. Will you accept his invitation?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to be expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing, and in following a voice other than our own. St. Teresa of Calcutta rightly instructs us that for “love to be real, it must cost, it must hurt, it must empty us of self.” Being in love with God requires more than just checking the boxes of the commandments. It requires a sincere and unconditional self-investment. Desiring God with our whole heart, mind, and soul means that I must also desire a relationship with my neighbor with that same degree of fervor.

Biases and prejudices usually occur when people are kept at a distance and treated as objects. We cannot truly know our neighbors, especially if they are different than us, if we keep them in boxes and do not listen to their stories. When we open ourselves to listen to another person’s story, we begin to realize more how similar we are than dissimilar. Being overly attached to our possessions, ideologies, agendas, lifestyles, and personal needs are absolute barriers to achieving the type of personal investment love demands.

This is why following Christ can be difficult. It is less a matter of intellect and more a matter of heart and soul. It requires that we transfer our treasure from an investment in tangible secular things and move it into the Kingdom of God. It is only the gift of wisdom and discernment that can help us decide what to do and how to do it.

Contemporaries of Jesus would know that a camel could not enter through the portal of a city weighed down with the baggage it was carrying. In order to enter, the baggage must be removed so that the animal could fit through the entry way. The same is true for us. We carry a lot of excessive baggage around with us that keeps us tethered to our past histories, wounds, myopic world views, prejudices, fears, and suspicions. To invest ourselves in the Kingdom of God, do God’s work and live out our love relationship with God, we need to shed the extra weight. While it may seem that a lot of that stuff is necessary, it really is not. We are much more than the things that we think define us and more secure than we think. The more there is to hold on to and the more that we carry with us, the harder it will be to leave it all behind. Many choose not to and walk away sad because they are not ready to trust.

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God.”

- Mk 10:26-27

IF HEAVEN WERE LIKE HARVARD

There's no getting around it: life on earth can seem easier if you're rich. Most of the bodily and material needs a person could have are fulfilled if you've got a little bit of money behind you. So why doesn't this same theory apply to entering the kingdom of Heaven? Why isn't Heaven like an Ivy League school, where a connection and a hasty tuition check might open a lot of doors?

When you think about it, the virtues required to enter Heaven — things like charity and justice and courage — should be even closer within the grasp of those who never had to worry about where their food is coming from. In theory, your capacity for good works should only increase with the resources at your disposal.

The same is true for stewardship potential. Let's say I've got a lot of talent. Maybe I've got a lot of free time. On paper, it should be easier for me to give freely of these gifts, because I have the luxury that eluded the widow and her two coins: I can see my ample gift being put into action, when so many can only offer what they have and remind themselves that God sees it and appreciates it.

But here we get into the mess of humanity: if we have a lot of something, it means we have a lot of something we could use any way we want. And then we hear the whisper of the serpent: Think of what this (money, time, talent) could do for you.

May we pray for God to give us the heart of the widow, no matter our resources.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHY ARE CATHOLICS REQUIRED TO GET MARRIED IN A CHURCH, AND NOT OUTSIDE OR AT A DIFFERENT VENUE?

Because the sacrament of marriage is a sacred covenant between the husband and wife, the celebration of the sacrament of matrimony is much more than simply a social or family event. So, the rule that the sacrament be celebrated in a church is a way to help reinforce the deeper meaning of Christian marriage. To help make this clearer, the Church's tradition also normally includes the celebration of the Mass when the marriage is being celebrated between two Catholics, and so a church or chapel is the ideal setting. For special reasons — which vary from diocese to diocese — the local bishop can give permission for the marriage to be celebrated in another suitable place.

Oil of Gladness

Hi, St. Francis de Sales! It has been a JOY to walk together, ever closer, towards the heart of God. Many challenges confront our world and us today, as we continue to live through and in uncertain times. Please join us this fall as we practice living each day with gratitude, and as we come to rediscover and discern true joy in our lives.

In this 7-week series, we will:

- Examine both Old and New Testament texts related to being in joyful communion with God.
- Practice "discernment of spirits" through examination of conscience and prayers of gratitude.
- Cultivate and nurture life-giving interpersonal relationships by engaging in rich, meaningful discussion!
- Want to learn more about each Gospel's unique Passion narrative!

Announcing the 104th Anniversary 2021
PUBLIC SQUARE ROSARY CRUSADE

The world is at a crossroad. God is more offended than ever as people ignore Our Lady's maternal request to "stop offending God." Yes, we must listen to Our Lady's re-quest and stop sinning if we hope to enjoy God's blessings and to avert His wrath. He will hear us, if we pray through the intercession of His Blessed Mother. That's why we're doing the 2021 Public Square Rosary Crusade. In The Secret of the Rosary, Saint Louis Marie Grignion de Montfort said: "Public prayer is far more powerful than private prayer to appease the anger of God and call down His mercy, and Holy Mother Church, guided by the Holy Spirit, has always advocated public prayer in times of public tragedy and suffering."

SEPTEMBER 26, 2021

Deacon's Corner

What is on your agenda for today? Do you have a meeting to attend, someplace you have scheduled to be? Or is today just another "ordinary" day in your life with not much going on? Looking back over my past life of more than seven decades, I have a good number of memories about how I spent my days. Naturally, those memories change as I got older, mainly because our lives change as we increase in age.

Think about it. When we were younger, we depended on our parents, teachers in school and our own daily activities to lead us through the day. And I believe that was good since it help set boundaries for us in our lives. And by the way, I also believe that boundaries are missing with young people today as our society seems to give more "freedom to choose" the path that young people take, but that is a story unto itself, perhaps for a later DC.

Once we moved through the younger school years, many of us got a job. We may have also gotten married and began to raise a family. These changes create an enormous change in how we spend our time. We now have added responsibilities that require planning our time more wisely. One good thing that we might experience is that by taking on a spouse, we now have a partner who can help in sharing the time responsibilities of our daily lives. And that is a good thing, for in today's busy world, society has us inundated with additional responsibilities on a daily basis.

I know for me, life over the past ten, twenty or even thirty years has become much more complex than it was "in the old days". How about you? Have you ever given thought to what life was like decades ago as opposed to what life is today? If not, stop for a minute and think about it. I am sure you will agree that society has become much more complex than it was in the past. I think many of the complexities we now encounter are based on an influx of information brought to us in so many different forms. Some good and some not so good, but that is for you to decide. I have a hard enough time just thinking for myself, let alone anyone else. I will agree that much of the information put in front of us helps us keep "tuned in" to what is taking place around us on a daily basis, whether it be in our own neighborhood or around the world, with all stops in-between

So with all that said, let's stop for a minute and ask ourselves the question: "how much time on a daily basis do we give to God?" Do we let the challenges of the world around us keep us from strengthening our own spiritual journey by setting aside time on a daily basis to be "one with Our Father"? I know that I have fallen into that trap many times in my life. How about you? I believe that I could go so far as to say that "I have taken God for granted". In analyzing that within myself, I know that God, our Father, through the presence of the Holy Spirit, dwells within us 24/7. Not just when we need Him, but always. All we have to do is ask for His help. But, perhaps, like I have done at times in the past, you might wait too long to ask for His help. The situation you are in may have become untenable and you need help to overcome it.

If you ever find yourself in a situation like that (and I know I have), don't be afraid, embarrassed, ashamed to ask for God's help. That is what God's love is all about. And He stands ready to help in any situation. So as we plan our daily activity today, and everyday, make Our Lord our partner. Utilize Him to help discern every situation you find yourself in and I promise you that your life will be more fulfilling and easier to navigate through the waters of life

My Blessings to all,

Deacon John

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call the Parish Office - Ministry of Care, (847)438-6622, when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.
