a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

PERSISTENCE

Exodus recounts the journey of the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt to the land promised to their ancestors. It was not an easy journey. In today's reading, they are attacked by Amalek and his soldiers, members of one of the peoples who live in the land through which the Israelites are traveling. Moses was on the hilltop with his arms raised to invoke the LORD's assistance in the battle below, a powerful illustration of the LORD's favor upon Israel. If the soldiers were to lift up their eyes to that hill (see Psalm 121:1), they would be reassured by Moses's presence and posture. Paul urges the Thessalonians to persist in proclaiming the gospel, and Jesus likewise commends the widow for her persistence in pursuit of the justice due her. Whether they preach or pray, the followers of Jesus need persistence through periods of difficulty.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Brendan wouldn't stop. He continued nagging his mom to let him have a little more time with his phone. He knew the rules but wanted to finish a game and text a few more friends. He begged, had a temper tantrum, pleaded, screamed, pouted, and used every means he could think of to get Mom to change her mind. Mom had a busy day and was tired. At first, she held her ground. Then, her son's persistence got the best of her, and she caved. "Brendan, you can have 30 more minutes and no more!" she retorted. Brendan's determination paid off. He won.

Is this how it works with God too? If we want something enough and feel it is our due, does our persistence allow us to eventually get our way? Judging God by human standards, it would seem so. But is this the way God works? It gets a bit confusing when Jesus tells his disciples to "pray always without becoming weary" and then further tells them how God will "secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night." If we catch God at the right time, when he's having a weak moment, then our tenacity ought to pay off. What we want, we will get. Really? Sadly, the way many approach prayer suggests that this is precisely how it goes.

Good parents set boundaries and offer proper discipline. They learn the art of being steadfast when presented with determined minds and wills. They know what is best and, at times, have to say "no." God is always there with His full attention and unconditional love showering itself upon us. God also knows what is best. And, as with any good parent, the one constant that is always available and never withheld is love. We can be as persistent and determined as we want if what we are seeking is God's love. We are never a bother and requests for God's love are never denied. This is the prayer of the heart. Desiring God alone and not only what we want God to do for us places this love relationship foremost in our minds, hearts, and souls. God is never bothered by this prayer. As we breathe in and exhale out, the Divine Life freely flows.

"A widow in that town used to come to him and say, 'Render a just decision for me against my adversary.' For a long time the judge was unwilling, but eventually he thought, 'because this widow keeps bothering me I shall deliver a just decision for her lest she finally come and strike me.'"

- Lk 18:3-4b, 5

SPARKING HOLINESS

As the seasons change, a lot of us like to clean out our homes and unload some of the junk we've acquired over the summer. One trendy approach to decluttering is the Marie Kondo method, named after the author who popularized it. Overly simplified, it's a process that compels you to go through your closets, your garage, your basement — all the places you collect the dreaded "stuff." As you do so, you hold up the items and ask yourself: "Does it spark joy?"

It's a question that is bold in its simplicity. In answering, you're supposed to go with your gut. If it's a quick "Yes, it sparks joy," the item should be kept. If the answer is no, it gets tossed.

There are people in life who will support our efforts to do God's will. There are those who will, as Paul says, "convince, reprimand, (and) encourage," unafraid of the reaction we give them. There are those who will shore up our defenses when the battle goes longer than we thought.

The same goes for hobbies and pastimes. There are those that will ennoble our minds and bring us closer to God. And there are also those that will drain our funds and our free time, with nothing to show for it.

During these autumn months, don't just declutter your basement in preparation for the hauling out of the Christmas ornaments. Take stock of the people and pursuits that make up your life. With each one, ask yourself: "Does it spark holiness?"

If the answer is yes, thank God that our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. If the answer is no, maybe it's time to declutter.

Who is Ignatius of Antioch and what example does he offer us in Christian living as we celebrate his feast day on October 17th?

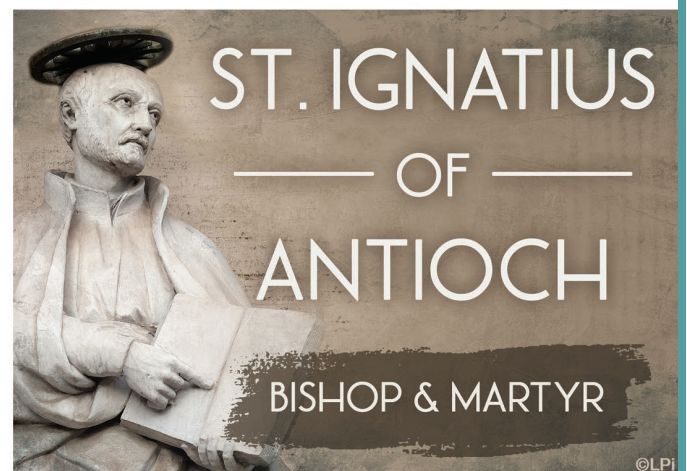

As Bishop of Antioch (the modern day city of Antakya, Turkey), Ignatius witnessed to the faith during the reign of Emperor Trajan, who ruled from 98-117. Persecution of Christians broke out in Antioch, and Ignatius was captured and taken to Rome for martyrdom in the arena.

On his journey to Rome over land and sea, Ignatius writes seven letters to various churches. These letters give powerful glimpses into the theology and practice of the early church, along with insights into the role of a bishop as pastoral leader. Ignatius is the first to use the term "Catholic Church" to refer to the various Christian communities of the Roman Empire.

The best known of his letters is the one he wrote to the Romans. Ignatius addresses influential Christians who might be tempted to intercede on his behalf, thus sparing him from martyrdom. He advises them against it, being resolute in his desire to be the "wheat of God."

Eucharistic links are most evident in his words. As Christ willingly offered himself as witness to God's total love, Ignatius, too, desired to be "food for the wild beasts," so that he could become "the pure bread of Christ." Eucharistic living was so crucial to Ignatius that he was willing to die in order to model himself on the Lord who willingly offered all.

Reflect on how you can use Ignatius as a model in your own eucharistic life of faith.

Deacon's Corner

It is about 4AM on Monday morning and I couldn't wait to get up and write this DC. After serving Masses this past weekend and reading the Gospel (Lk 17: 11-19), I decided this is the subject of today's DC. If you don't recall the Gospel, please go back and read it. It should give you some insight regarding where I am coming from.

The Gospel is the parable of Jesus encountering ten lepers on His journey from Samaria to Galilee. As He entered a village, the ten lepers approached Him. Keeping their distance, they called out saying; "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us". Jesus responded by telling them to go and show yourselves to the priests and while they were on their way, they were all healed of leprosy. Then one of them when he saw he was healed, turned back to fall down at the feet of Jesus and thanked Him. He was the only one to show gratitude to Jesus for curing them. Then Jesus told the one; "get up and go on your way, your faith has made you well".

This leper received from Jesus a double healing. First, he was cured of this horrible illness and second, he has a new relationship with God. And yet, he was the only one of the ten to show his "gratitude" to Jesus. This is what the premise of the DC is all about. I call it the ten percent rule. Only one out of the ten who were cured, came back to say "thank you" to Jesus. And I believe this is so wrong on so many fronts. Think about only saying "thank you" ten percent of the time.

You see, I believe that we must be "thankful" to Jesus for all the blessings He has given us. So many over our entire lives and how often do we take the time to say; "thank you, Jesus". If we don't say it each and every day, we should begin now. And what a result you will get by doing so. I know when I am "grateful", I don't have time to complain about anything. How about you? Have you ever stopped and thought about how "grateful" we all should be and how many times we are not? I believe we sometimes feel an element of entitlement in our lives, which can rob us of being "grateful". We should always remember that we are loved without condition. Not because we have earned that love, but because God, our Father, gives us His unconditional love no matter what.

How often do we ask God to fulfill our needs? And how often do we remember to give "thanks"? I believe to give "thanks" completes the circle of gratitude. So why don't we do it? I will tell you that every night as I say my evening prayers, I never go to sleep without saying; "thank you God for this day". And yes, we all have so much to be "thankful" for such as my life, my faith, my family, my friends, my health, etc., etc. There is so much to be "grateful" for, and we need to remind ourselves of this from time to time. In the great joy of being cured of their sickness, the other nine lepers forgot the greater joy that they were recipients of.

When we find ourselves in trouble and distress, many of us in desperation turn to prayer, asking for God's help. We ask for an answer to whatever the difficulty that we find ourselves in. We plead for help, crying out as the lepers did from the depth of our being. And Jesus responds to our prayer in a way that is best suited for us. But we can forget, so often, to say "thank you, Jesus". Say a prayer today asking Him to let us never take Him for granted.

My Blessings to all,

Deacon John

"We should always remember that we are loved without condition. Not because we have earned that love, but because God, our Father, gives us His unconditional love no matter what."

GOOD THINGS ARE HAPPENING IN SPRED!

(SPRED- SPecial RELigious Development)

Meeting the spiritual needs of people with developmental disabilities

Hello, my name is Kelly Smith. I am, and have been, a SPRED Catechist at St. Francis de Sales Parish since our beginnings in 2001. I want to tell you that good things are happening in SPRED! I want to tell you my SPRED story. I want to tell you why I said YES to SPRED, why I am still here 21 years later, and to invite you to join me.

My road to SPRED began back in the 1980's when I was teaching at a school for the developmentally disabled. It was then, that I heard the first whisperings of the SPRED Ministry, which was by then already 30 years old. I learned that several of my students were participants in SPRED and I was asked to join them. Although I was quite interested, I was newly married and expecting my first child, so I said maybe next year. The next year we moved to Lake Zurich and St. Francis became our new parish. St. Francis did not have a SPRED Ministry. Soon after, I was expecting my second child and so it went through the 90's with the addition of a third child to our family. However, by the late 90's I was compelled to volunteer as a catechist for a group of developmentally disabled preschoolers. We were using a modified preschool curriculum which was not working out all that well. It was also at this same time, that I was struggling. I felt that something was missing in my life. I was, and am very blessed with a wonderful husband, three children, great friends, and a supportive extended family. So, what could be missing? I realized that although I attended church regularly, my spiritual growth had stagnated. Then, I heard that a neighboring parish was to host an informational meeting on SPRED. There it was, that ministry I had heard about so long ago. I attended that meeting and finally I heard God's call loud and clear. I knew instantly that this was the ministry for me and that it would be a much better fit for our friends with special needs. SPRED is a ministry that happens to serve our special population, but also those that come forward and call themselves their friends. SPRED is a small community of individuals who gather to share God's word and their faith with others. After each SPRED session I am rejuvenated and feel closer to God. My faith has continued to grow, because SPRED feeds the hearts and souls of all involved. That is why, I said yes to SPRED and now twenty years later continue to be passionate about this ministry. Consider joining me and our SPRED community. No special requirements are needed to participate in this program, just a desire to share your love and faith with another. Perhaps you have heard God's whispers calling you, or you too have been searching for that missing element in your life. Perhaps SPRED is the answer for you or someone you know. Say YES to SPRED! Join us! Good things are happening in SPRED! # Hand-Carved Olive Wood Gifts from the Holy Land

The group that sells the olive wood from the Holy Land is going to be in the parish to sell the beautiful figurines to help the Christian community in the Bethlehem area. The Christian carvers in the Holy Land are suffering greatly as the local government refused to assist them with any kind of funds. Therefore, the consequences are threatening to their existence. They are building hope on the Catholic churches to make a purchase from their group to put food on the table.

Please visit their website
www.starofbethlehemart.com
 and try to purchase anything that would help substantially.

Thank you and God bless you all.
 Issam

October 15 & 16

Did you know that 600 Christian families living in Bethlehem are completely dependent on carving olive wood figurines for their livelihood? The recent clashes in the Middle East and Covid-19 have stopped the tourism industry in Bethlehem, causing most of those families serious harm in earning their living and forcing many of them to leave their homeland. In addition to Covid-19, the local government didn't offer any help for the families who make these holy items, simply because they are Christians. As a result of these actions by the local government, the Christian families are devastating. Emptying the land of Christ from Christians can have tragic consequences on the Holy sites. Issam from "Star of Bethlehem Group" came to the United States with a mission to help those families by selling their beautiful religious handicrafts. The cost of goods goes to benefit the Christian carvers to keep them working in the spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, the profit from sales goes directly to the needy Catholic schools and clinics in the Holy Land. The Star of Bethlehem has been approved by many bishops and dioceses of Jerusalem.
