IT'S ALL ABOUT CONTROL

From toddlerhood to old age, we grow in mastery of our own lives, our bodies, and our destiny. This mastery is hard won, and we don't let go of autonomy easily. Much of this self-mastery involves the avoidance of pain or discomfort, so when we hear things like "take up your cross" and "lose your life," we tend to resist the message.

James says that faith without works is dead. Ouch! That is really a direct message! One way to look at this, as well as the part about losing our life to find it, is that faith is a process of more and more openness to God's direction of our lives. It is very hard for us to give up control, but perhaps what we are being asked to do is not to become passive and babyish, but to allow God to direct where our self-mastery will lead and what it will accomplish. We are asked to relinquish the need to control the results of our efforts; to risk, as Jesus did, the loss of everything we are working to achieve. We are asked to let God take the lead and to control the results, even though we may never see those results. copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

As we remember the 2,996 people who died on 9/11/2001, we also remember the countless heroes who came forward out of the ashes to dispel the darkness. They came to the aid of those in need. God's love and his Son's light will always conquer darkness.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

We often come to life expecting all of the pieces of the puzzle to nicely fit together. We want and expect harmony, order, and fairness, the achievement of rewards for good behavior, good health, and happiness. We can more easily accept death when it comes naturally after a good long life, but have a real difficulty comprehending the meaning of it all when it is cut short. Willing to put in a good measure of effort, we desire positive results. When things go wrong and life gets hurtful, unjust, and downright ugly, we become unsettled and can quickly fall into despair. This is especially true if we are people of faith who believe in a God who sees things on our terms and works in favor of our life agenda. What happens to our faith when we find ourselves sitting in a mess?

Does it help to know that God understands and that hardship, failure, disappointment, injustice, confusion, and all of life's ugliness do not make faith irrelevant or irrational? God is wonderfully and surprising creative! He turns the tables on not only our understanding of life, but of what it means to be a king. God sends us a king who is not exempt from life's ills but embraces them. The king that God gives to us knows what it means to be poor, suffer insults, be ridiculed, face rejection, endure suffering, be betrayed, and face a most unjust and horrific death. This is our king. Jesus is not a king of prestige or grandeur but a king who brings light to darkness, hope to despair, sinners to mercy, and new life out of death. Christ dances before us pleading with us to hold on, cling to love, avoid being negative, stop feeling cheated, and be strong in faith! There may be hardship and disappointment now but there are more surprises to come.

Once we understand this truth, we will also understand that we are on a most incredible and awesome universal journey to Christ and becoming one in Christ. We all carry within us the image of God, the image of our suffering king. The One who lives in us also lives in all of our brothers and sisters. Failing to see this universal Divine Presence in all is one of the greatest mistakes we can make, for we also fail to see God, our king, as well. There are many things that can bring hardship to life. If we keep our head about us and do not lose hope, we can persevere and strive for the greatest degree of justice possible. Even though there are ample things that can challenge our faith, we also know that our deepest joy comes from union with God and our brothers and sisters. One day, the fullness of that joy will be ours to have when we are all eternally one with Christ our King forever.

*So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?"
Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."
- Jn 18:37*

LONG LIVE THE KING

Did you know that you can become royalty, for the right price? It's true — for the low, low cost of $50, you, too, can purchase a 12-square-inch souvenir plot of Scottish land and call yourself "Laird So-and-so." Now, this lordship or ladyship doesn't come with the ability to boss anyone around, but maybe your friends will be impressed enough to bend the knee.

My point is, we've all got our own little fiefdoms — folks or communities for which we have a feeling of responsibility. Maybe we're not their "king," but most of us have those we think of as "our people."

Now, in this world, people lay themselves down for their kings. History is riddled with the bodies of men, young and old — and plenty of women and children, too — who were casualties of wars waged by men in power, men who never had to shed their own blood. But in the next world, the King dies for his people. This is leadership par excellence — the leadership of someone whose love is greater than his ambition.

We are all leaders of a sort. On the parish level, you have the obvious roles — serving on pastoral council, spearheading the capital campaign, leading the Altar Guild. But you also have the quiet ones who lead from the wings — the janitor who can always be relied upon to do his job, or the volunteer librarian who puts in extra hours on the weekends.

There is a saying — find your people. I say, find your people, and find a way to lay yourself down for them, in imitation of the greatest King that ever was.

WHY DO WE MAKE CHANGES IN THE MASS? SOME SEEM SO SMALL AND UNIMPORTANT. ARE THEY REALLY NECESSARY?

The celebration of the Eucharist is at the heart of our identity as Catholics. Our purpose as a Church community revolves around the Eucharist. Everything we are and everything we do is measured not only by how well we celebrate, but also by how well we live the sacrament. If that is so, then we as a community will always strive to celebrate the Mass as best we can. The reasons for some changes might seem more obvious than others, but there is a reason behind each one.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal is the introduction to the Missal that contains all the prayers for the celebration of the Mass. The Order of Mass we use now was issued in 1975 and, as often happens over the course of years, some questions have come up about the proper way of doing some things and whether or not other practices are acceptable. These changes clarify some things and make the celebration of the Mass more meaningful for everyone.

The opportunity is presented to us to better learn and understand each part of the Mass, which in turn should help us deepen our appreciation for its beauty and meaning. We will be a better Church if we have a clearer understanding and knowledge of Who and what we celebrate.

"To Be Joyful Again", a non denominational support group for widows, widowers, or anyone else who has lost a significant other, meets the 1st and 3rd Thursday of every month at 7pm at Holy Family Parish, 2515 Palatine Road, Inverness. Come get the support you need in this difficult time.

Back to School Backpacks want to say THANK YOU!

THANK YOU to all who participated in the Back-to-School program! We again had a wonderful year with 261 backpacks donated to needy children! Because of your generosity, these children will start school with a new backpack and the school supplies they need for a successful year. The backpacks were distributed to low income children through our St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry, Our Lady of Tepeyac and Catholic Charities, just in time for the first day of school. We are grateful for your contributions to support these children and for giving them a chance for a bright new future.

Thank You!

Dear Fr. Heinz,

Thank you for participating in Communities That Care Back to School program! The program was a great success because of the generosity of your parish to provide backpacks and school supplies for students in need. Your contribution of backpack kits brought hope and encouragement to disadvantaged students and gave them a bright start to the new school year.

Thousands of students in our community wish for nothing more than to begin the school year on a positive note, equipped with the paper, pencils and notebooks they need to complete their assignments. With your help, these children will have the school supplies needed to practice their arithmetic, write their book reports and explore their creativity with the self-confidence they need to succeed.

Your contribution means the world to the children living in poverty who struggle to find sufficient resources. Your help is invaluable as they grow and learn and work their way out of their low income status through the education they receive now. Thank you for supporting the educational needs of the children in our community and giving them the gift of education!

Sincerely,

If you are worried about coming into church and being in a crowd, we are offering an option. At the 11 am Sunday Mass, you can park in the back parking lot, stay in your car, listen to the Mass on your car radio and receive the Eucharist in your car. As you get to the back parking lot, look for directions from our Knights of Columbus. We expect to offer this option for awhile until it is safe for everyone to return to the church building.

Deacon's Corner

Over the past weekend, a close friend sent me a video that talked about the expression "Keep the Faith" and after watching it three times, I decided that it is a good topic for a DC, thanks Jack. The thought of "Keep the Faith" is something that we really don't give much thought to. Perhaps I should explain.

I believe that in today's complex society, we are inundated daily with so much information that it is almost impossible to keep our focus on what is really most important in our lives. Think about it. So those of us who have reached "senior status", let's look back twenty, thirty or even forty years. How much easier it was to "get through the day, week, month or even the year" than it is today. And why is that? What has changed so dramatically that makes our life more complicated, more complex, more difficult to navigate than it was years ago? The answer I use is the introduction of the "information highway". Yes, you guessed it, the internet that brought with it social media in all its shapes and sizes. Presenting to us each day information that is factual and non-factual, true and untrue and I will let each of you finish the statement.

I have said in the past having been in the computer business a good part of my life, that the human brain is like a computer disk drive. What I mean by that is we have the capability of storing large amounts of information for long periods of time. Think about it. I know I can recall things that took place in my life as far back as kindergarten at Maire School in Grosse Pointe on Cadieux Road. And while I jokingly sometimes say; "I can't remember what I had for lunch yesterday", I find that when I need to remember something meaningful, it comes to me in time.

So what do I mean when I say "Keep the Faith"? Let's look at today's world, the world we live in now. I don't know about you, but I am very saddened by the goings on in this world. And you might agree, that while I am not so worried or concerned for myself, I am very worried and very concerned about the future of my children, g'children and their children. What are we leaving them?

What condition are we creating for the future generations of our families, friends and people we don't even know? For me, it is a scary legacy we seem to be leaving.

This brings me to the topic of this DC which is "Keep the Faith". And while this idea creates a big challenge for all of us, it is, in my opinion, the most important thing we can do to help protect the future generations of the world. You might ask why I think this and here is the answer I will give you.

As I was growing up and attended Catholic schools, grades 1-12, as many of you did, we were taught certain precepts of the Catholic faith in both religion class and also in our daily lives both at home and with friends. I can remember never missing Mass on Sunday, and even every day at school. And what did this do? For me, it established my "faith" in Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. While I know over the past 76 years of my life, I was not always on the right path, I can say that my continued "faith" in Jesus Christ has brought me where I am today and I am happy with that. I believe this subject needs more discussin but for now, "Keep the Faith".

My Blessings to all,

Deacon John

"Remember to Keep the faith."
