a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

OUR PROTECTOR

Today's readings invite us to recognize our need for one who ensures our safety, nourishes us, and leads us to peace and security, like sheep who rest in the care of a good shepherd. Such a shepherd will protect and save the sheep, even from the most deadly of predators. Today, we ponder the incredible news that Jesus accepted death on the cross in order to open the gates of eternal life with God for us. Through his resurrection, Jesus protects and saves us from the power of sin and death. We need only accept his love and live as God's people in this life, relying on the Lord who is the door to new life for us and for all.

*Be patient when enduring suffering for doing good. (1Pt.2)
God bestows grace on us when we imitate Jesus' patience in the face of adversity. He understands our fears. Persevering in love and compassion for others can bring peace to the world, one heart at a time.*

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Cut to the Heart

Everyone who has been married knows this feeling: you're in the midst of a disagreement with your spouse. You've really dug in your heels. You're ready to die on this hill. And you have the awful, heartbreaking realization that you are wrong. Whatever it is you're arguing about, you're wrong. You.

So where do you go from here? The only way forward is to own it. Fess up. Grab a fork and dig into that humble pie. It makes me cringe just to write about it, because it's the worst feeling.

I use the example of marriage because it's the one I'm most familiar with — my closest relationship, the one that teaches me the most about who I am and who God asks me to be. But this is a universal experience, and everyone — single or married, child or adult, lay or ordained — knows how badly it feels to realize that you're wrong. You're human. You messed up.

It is hard to recognize that the Christian life is one of ongoing repentance. It is painful to acknowledge the ways in which we are falling short, even as we strive to follow in Christ's example.

It can, in the words of today's reading, "cut to the heart."

But that feeling of despair is what propels forward motion. We have to allow ourselves to feel bad, that's the fertile ground of penitence. We are meant to have not just life, but life "more abundantly." Stasis isn't the goal. Baptism isn't the finish line.

Examining our conscience is hard. It cuts to the heart. It cuts to the truth.

"Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins." — Acts 2:38

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Does it matter what leg you kneel on when genuflecting?

Answer:

Genuflection is an act of devotion that literally means "to bend the knee." For many Catholics, it's an almost automatic gesture that we perform before entering our pew or row of seats at Mass. But, like many of the symbols and gestures of our faith tradition, genuflecting can also be an invitation for deeper reflection.

The practice of "bending the knee" is an ancient way of recognizing the presence of someone greater than we are. It has been said that the practice dates back to the time of Alexander the Great, but it became a common part of etiquette in the royal courts of the Middle Ages. From throne rooms and palaces, it was a small step to genuflecting, becoming part of the devotional lives of Christians who used this secular gesture as a way of recognizing the presence of the One who is King of Kings, especially in the Eucharist. In our tradition, although many have been taught or prefer to genuflect by placing their right knee on the ground, there is no prescribed way to genuflect. This is especially important to keep in mind if physical limitations or age make certain movements difficult for us.

Today, Catholics are asked to genuflect in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament (whether in the tabernacle or exposed on the altar during eucharistic adoration). So, while it has become second nature to genuflect before entering your seat in church, we should pay attention to where the Blessed Sacrament is kept in each church or chapel we visit, and genuflect in the direction of the tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. In churches or chapels in which the tabernacle is in a separate space, we are invited to simply bow toward the altar.

“Whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice.”

- Jn 10:2-4

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

After his speech in Jerusalem, the crowds asked Peter, “What are we to do?” He replied, “Repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ ... and you will receive the Holy Spirit.” How open are you to receiving the Holy Spirit?

Second Reading

Peter teaches us as followers of Jesus, we are called to be patient when we are suffering. What value do you see in this practice?

Gospel Reading

Jesus speaks of himself as the gatekeeper for the “sheep” (his followers) who are kept safe from strangers. When have you turned to Jesus in your life in times of trouble?

Support our local advertisers

Please show your support for your parish by also supporting our advertisers. We wouldn't be able to bring you our bulletin every week without them. Please encourage and remind others to show their support and shop local.

A Eucharistic Revival that Renews the Church: Part II By Cardinal Blase Cupich

As I noted in Part I of this series, with his letter on liturgical formation, “Desiderio Desideravi,” Pope Francis has made a unique contribution to the three-year eucharistic revival launched by the U.S. Catholic bishops.

By showing the link between the Church remaining faithful to the mission of Christ and the celebration of the liturgy, the Holy Father is inviting “the whole Church to rediscover, to safeguard, and to live the truth and power of the Christian celebration, (lest) the beauty of the Christian celebration and its necessary consequences for the life of the Church ... be spoiled by a superficial and foreshortened understanding of its value or, worse yet, by its being exploited in service of some ideological vision, no matter what the hue.”

This Concern Is Not New

His concern about a superficial understanding of the liturgy that disconnects our worship from the Church’s mission is not new. Pope Pius XII warned that the liturgy cannot be understood merely as “decorative ceremonies or a mere sum total of laws and precepts that govern the cult” (“Mediator Dei”). So, too, the bishops who gathered for the Second Vatican Council 60 years ago made it clear that the aim of the liturgical reforms was not about cosmetically modernizing our worship.

Rather, like all of Vatican II’s reforms, the goals were “to impart an ever-increasing vigor to the Christian life of the faithful; to adapt more suitably to the needs of our own times those institutions which are subject to change; to foster whatever can promote union among all who believe in Christ; to strengthen whatever can help to call the whole of mankind into the household of the Church” (“Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy”).

The starting point for the renewal envisioned by the Council was the promotion of the full, active and conscious participation of all the baptized in the full breadth of church life, including the liturgy. Engaging all the members would be needed if the Church was going to respond to the precise challenges facing believers and all of humanity.

Historical Context

Consider the historical context of the decision by Pope St. John XXIII to call a council, and the contemporary challenges facing the Church. By the time Angelo Roncalli was elected pope in 1958, humanity in the 20th century was deeply divided, having suffered through a global pandemic and economic depression.

Similarly, Christians, particularly in Europe, expressed doubts about the significance of their faith following two world wars fought for the most part by “Christian nations.” People wondered whether faith and religion really mattered, since the Gospel of Christ, the Prince of Peace, preached and celebrated among these people for nearly 2,000 years, seemed to have little impact on these “Christian nations.” Likewise, many of the faithful expressed the concern that the only time the Church seemed to engage the world was to offer criticism or condemnation.

A “Light to All Nations”

For the Church to be a credible “light to the nations,” all her members need to embrace their responsibility for building solidarity within the human family and reaching out to it with love and concern. The bishops at the Council expressed this new vision of the role of each of the baptized and the Church as they addressed the modern world: “The joys and the hopes, the griefs and the anxieties of the men of this age, especially those who are poor or in any way afflicted, these are the joys and hopes, the griefs and anxieties of the followers of Christ. Indeed, nothing genuinely human fails to raise an echo in their hearts. For theirs is a community composed of men. United in Christ, they are led by the Holy Spirit in their journey to the Kingdom of their Father and they have welcomed the news of salvation which is meant for every man. That is why this community realizes that it is truly linked with mankind and its history by the deepest of bonds” (“Gaudium et Spes”).

St Patrick's Day Dinner Thank You!

We hosted another wonderful St. Patrick's Dinner Dance on Friday, March 17th, bringing together parishioners both young and old to partake in an evening filled with fun, food, refreshments and music to celebrate St. Patrick. The annual event sold out for the fourth consecutive year! It would not have been possible without the help of so many people. Special thanks to Fr. Ryan, Traci, Laura, Karen and Katie from the Ministry Center and Chris and Jerry for setup and cleanup support. The transformation of Fr. Valker Hall could not be possible without our decoration crew lead by Madelon Queenan with help from so many parishioner families and kids from Carmel Catholic High School, Lake Zurich High school, St Francis De Sales School and Middle School North that came to help.

Beth & Jeff Gauthier did an amazing job of managing the front door and the check-in process. A special thanks to Carol LaPenta for raffle sales. Amazing parish musicians provided the fantastic music with Seamas O'Kane kicking the evening off with traditional Irish music played on guitar. Out of Storage got the crowd on their feet to dance the night away. Refreshments served by our wonderful volunteer bartenders. The night wouldn't be the same without the famous Shannon Rovers Pipe band, the McNulty Irish dancers and the wonderful food provided by Crystal Cuisine.
