a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

CATHOLIC PRAYER CORNER

Prayer After the Rosary

O God, whose only-begotten Son, by his life, death, and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life; grant, we beseech you, that, meditating upon these mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSING THE POINT

"You missed the point," we might be tempted to shout at the servant in today's Gospel. His master had just forgiven a huge debt when he cried for mercy, and yet, when given the opportunity to show mercy himself, he instead acted violently and with retribution toward a fellow servant. Certainly, he had missed the point of his master's merciful actions toward him, and suffered the consequences as a result. He missed the point. He is not alone, however. We all "miss the point" sometimes—we miss the point of God's enduring covenant of love, and miss the mark in our call to live as though we are the Lord's, for this is who we are. God's love is always about what is just and right. As God's people, we are to live and die for the Lord, forgive even when it doesn't make sense to do so, and leave the rest in God's hands.

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

Psalm 23 must be the most beloved and quoted Psalm. Psalm 25 is a good way to start the day. Psalms 1 and 2 express in a nutshell the whole theme of the Bible. Those who delight and take refuge in the Lord are blessed (happy). Delight comes from "making God's word the food of their thoughts day and night." Thus they don't "hang out with habitual sinners or participate in the ungodly ways of the disobedient."

Liturgical Life

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

The Hateful Things We Hug Tight

At the end of "Lord of the Rings: Return of the King," Gollum fights with Frodo for possession of the One Ring. He wins the fight, but in doing so topples over the edge of the mountain ledge, falling into the cavernous fires of Mount Doom. As he falls, we see him smile, and clutch the ring to his chest. He is happy. He has won what he spent his life pursuing.

It is only in the last millisecond before his face slips below the lava that we see his eyes widen in terror as he realizes the truth: the thing he clutches to his heart is the thing that killed him. In choosing the ring, he chooses death.

Sin, and the fallen nature of this world, makes us addicted to something that kills us.

Like any addiction, it is a vicious cycle. The less we forgive, the more hardhearted we become ... and the less we seek forgiveness ourselves.

What breaks the cycle? Reconciliation with God — or, Confession, as we call it. In fact, it does more than break the cycle. It turns it backward. Not only does it detoxify our souls of sin, it weakens our addiction to sin's effects — anger, vengeance, unforgiveness. The confession of evil works is the first beginning of good works, said St. Augustine.

Ultimately, I view our whole human life as a struggle on the ledge of a mountaintop. It is certain that we will choose sin — we always do. We will tumble over the side, toward ruin. But let us be Frodo, and not Gollum. Let us cling to the rock of the sacraments and accept the hand that would drag us away from the flames.

"Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight." — Sirach 27:30

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Are Catholics allowed to visit psychics? Why or why not?

Answer:

It's part of human nature to experience some sense of unease and fear about the future. This can lead some people to seek out the services of psychics or consult horoscopes or turn to other occult practices or resources (e.g. Ouija boards or tarot cards). The Catechism of the Catholic Church is very clear that Catholics should avoid such practices: "Consulting horoscopes, astrology, palm reading, interpretation of omens and lots, the phenomena of clairvoyance, and recourse to mediums all conceal a desire for power over time, history, and, in the last analysis, other human beings, as well as a wish to conciliate hidden powers. They contradict the honor, respect, and loving fear that we owe to God alone" (no. 2116).

Despite the uncertainties we might feel, we are called to have faith and trust in God, confident of God's desire for what is best for us. This means that we are called to surrender, to pray and to reflect on how we can best move into the future in hope, knowing that God is with us.

Liturgical Life

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times."

- Mt 18:21-22

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

Sirach teaches that the Lord desires us to be forgiving and merciful to each other. In doing so, the Lord will show us mercy and forgiveness in return. To whom could you show mercy and forgiveness this week?

Second Reading

Paul instructed the Romans that Jesus was the Lord of all — both the living and the dead. How should this reality impact our daily living?

Gospel Reading

Jesus tells the parable of the unforgiving servant to teach the disciples the importance of compassion and forgiveness, especially toward those who sin against you. How do you deal with friends or co-workers who have wronged you?

Support our local advertisers

Please show your support for your parish by also supporting our advertisers. We wouldn't be able to bring you our bulletin every week without them. Please encourage and remind others to show their support and shop local.

LEARNING ABOUT ANIMALS THROUGH TIME

Ms. Kyrychenko's 3rd graders, had an exciting afternoon digging out dinosaur fossils. In Mystery Science, they learned about the unit, Animals Through Time. The last lesson was about fossil evidence and dinosaurs. Students had so much fun digging out dinosaur fossils. They were very excited to find Mosasaur teeth in our classroom fossil dig! Looking forward to seeing if students can outrun a dinosaur next!

Welcome DIANA ARIZMENDI

Hello! My name is Diana Arizmendi and I am excited to join the pastoral team and serve the community at St. Francis de Sales as Director of Youth Ministry. I have been involved in ministry for about 15 years in various roles within Religious Education and Youth Ministry programs. Prior to coming to St. Francis de Sales, I served at Most Blessed Trinity Parish in Waukegan and St. Raymond Parish in Mount Prospect.

Although I was baptized Catholic when I was a baby and grew up going to Mass every Sunday, I didn't see my faith as a personal relationship until I was a Sophomore in college. I attended Loyola University Chicago and that year I had the opportunity to study abroad in Rome where I had a deep encounter with my faith. I met priests and seminarians from the Pontifical North American College who would come to my campus to lead different prayer and formation experiences as part of their apostolate. I remember at the time I had a lot of questions about our faith and Church teachings and the seminarians would spend time patiently answering my questions. Not only did they answer my questions, but they also opened their hearts to share their love for Jesus and the Church in ways no one had ever done before.

During my semester abroad it became very clear to me that God was calling me to serve Him and His Church. Upon graduating from LUC with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology, I moved to Miami, FL to pursue my Master's degree in Pastoral Ministry from Barry University. I have found a passion for working with youth and young adults and facilitating moments of personal encounter for them. I have led groups of teens to events like NCYC and Life Teen's Camp Covecrest and it is a joy to be a part of the faith journey of many of the young people I've had the privilege to work with.

I enjoy traveling, spending time with family and friends and reading. I love reading about the lives of the saints and some of my favorite saints are St. Ignatius of Loyola, St. Therese of Lisieux and St. Gianna Beretta Molla.

I look forward to meeting all of you and serving the community of St. Francis de Sales. Please pray for me as I enter into this new role. Be assured of my prayers for you and your families.

Diana
