PROMISE FULFILLED

Isaiah reminds the people of God that the land shall be restored to their possession, they shall rejoice to see their people return from the bondage of exile, and they shall be a light to the nations. In other words, through the people of Israel, the Savior shall come to all people who seek God with a sincere heart. This brings joy and the radiance of God's glory to all the world and to all people everywhere. Through the fidelity of the people of God, and through God's fidelity to them, all people shall become God's children and rejoice in the fulfillment of God's promise to Israel.

Our parishes are made up of people with doubts, people who are curious, those who are seekers, believers, disciples, missionary disciples, and probably even some non-believers. Regardless of your involvement in the parish, do you have a good relationship with Jesus? Where are you on your faith journey? There are many missionary disciples at St. Francis willing to walk with you. You can meet them through Alpha, Build, Equip and Bible study. Come and see; all are welcome!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"Where is that thing?" mumbled Bob as he searched frantically on his dimly lit desk for the current electric bill. "I know I put it right on top of these papers this morning!" Growing in frustration and bordering on anger, he flies stuff around, moves books and opines why simple tasks need to be so hard. Enter his wife, who calmly says, "Maybe it would help if you put the light on, dear." The desk light goes on and lo and behold, there is the electric bill right where Bob left it earlier. All it took was a little light!

We stubbornly refuse to turn on the lights! Either we are distracted, determined, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Or perhaps, we fail to do the obvious. We would rather live our lives with the dimmest of lights or even in total darkness. Why are we afraid to do something so that we can actually see? It might help us to find quicker and better answers to problems, the meaning of life, relationships, happiness, and what is ultimate truth. Yet, we stumble along, moving things from one side to the other, getting angry, feeling cheated, being unsettled, resigning ourselves to the agony of defeat once again.

"And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was." The light has come into the world in the person of Jesus Christ! We no longer have to fumble in the darkness. We have been gifted with the illumination we need to see our way through things and find what we really are looking for. All these years later, however, so many are still reluctant to accept him. Perhaps they are unconvinced, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Everyone has their own reason for not wanting to turn on the switch.

But there are so many answers to so many of our problems in this humble Child of Nazareth. A simple birth teaches us about God's tender wedded relationship with humanity. It speaks to the expanse of God's salvation across the globe, and the incarnate Divine wonders and blessings that are a part of our life moment to moment. It calls us to understand the design of world order God intended as found in the Beatitudes, the sacredness of every human life and all of creation and the meaning of things we struggle with most, like suffering and death. We have a lot of Good News to share, not just with a privileged few but with all the world. All races and creeds can receive God's healing word. God continues to manifest himself even now! Use the light to find what you are really looking for!

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. - Mt 2:10-11

WISE MEN SEE GOD IN THE SIMPLE THINGS

If you're on social media, you have probably seen a meme going around that features this quote: "God has a plan for your life. The enemy has a plan for your life. Be ready for both. Just be wise enough to know which one to battle and which one to embrace."

There were certainly two competing plans for the Magi: God's and Herod's. And, wise as they supposedly were, it wasn't entirely easy for the Magi to discern which was which.

After all, Herod posed as a friend. He offered the Magi hospitality and kindness. Though the Gospel doesn't say so, he probably flattered them and appealed to every moral weakness he could observe in them. In his palace, they must have felt great physical comfort — rest and tables of plenty on what was an otherwise long and treacherous journey.

But if the Magi were honest with themselves, I'll bet they would have admitted that, regardless of Herod's charm, they felt a gnawing sense of doubt while in his presence. When they looked upon the Christ Child, born in a stable without any of the comforts of the world or protections of wealth, they probably felt the opposite. They probably felt safe.

The Magi were lucky enough to have the right plan spelled out for them in a dream, but for the rest of us, it's enough to remember this: God's plan is often the one that leads us to places of great simplicity, great humility and great love. Let's have the wisdom to view power with suspicion, and innocence with admiration.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A CHASTISEMENT AND A PUNISHMENT?

The distinction between chastisement and punishment is, in many ways, a subtle one, but which is still relevant in our Catholic tradition.

First, chastisement is a concept that is grounded in Sacred Scripture. Here, we see chastisement as a response by God to people's actions that is intended to teach a lesson. As St. John Paul II observed, "chastisement appears to be ... a kind of divine pedagogy, in which the last word is reserved to mercy: He scourges and then shows mercy, casts down to the depths of the nether world, and he brings up from the great abyss" (Tobit 13:2). The idea here is that in order to capture our attention or to highlight how we have not lived out our covenant-relationship with God as we should, there are times when God uses events in life to draw us back to the quality of relationship or faith that we should have.

The concept of punishment, however, has a different sense. The Catechism of the Church observes that punishment is the consequence of a damaging action that "has the primary aim of redressing the disorder" and to protect the community and the common good from further damage or harm (see no. 2266). Although we always hope that someone who is being punished for a crime or some other harmful action will learn from their actions, punishment isn't necessarily intended to teach a lesson in the same way that a chastisement is.

Ultimately, how we make the distinction between chastisement and punishment is a matter of discernment. As with almost everything in life, our experiences can be an opportunity for grace — or for something less — depending on how open we are to recognizing the movement of God's Spirit within them.

November 28, 2020

Dear Saint Francis de Sales Parish and School Family,

With this letter, I write to share some difficult news about your pastor, Father David Ryan. In keeping with our child protection policies, I have asked Father Ryan to step aside from ministry following receipt by the Archdiocese of Chicago's Archdiocesan Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review of allegations of sexual abuse of minors approximately 25 years ago while he was assigned to Maryville Academy in Des Plaines. Allegations are claims that have not been proven as true or false. Therefore, guilt or innocence should not be assumed.

Father Ryan has been directed to live away from the parish while the matter is investigated, and he is fully cooperating with this direction. Father Jerome Jacob, pastor of Saint Mary of the Annunciation in Mundelein will serve as temporary administrator of Saint Francis de Sales Parish. Father Jacob, a seasoned pastor and Dean of the area will attend to the needs of the parish and school community.

Moreover, as is required by our child protection policies, the allegations were reported to the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) and the Cook County State's Attorney. The persons making the allegations have been offered the services of our Victim Assistance Ministry and the archdiocese has begun its investigation of these matters.

In the days and weeks ahead, members of the archdiocese's Office for the Protection of Children and Youth will be available to answer any questions you may have and provide you with support during this challenging time.

It is crucial that you know nothing is more important than the welfare of the children entrusted to our care. The Archdiocese of Chicago takes all allegations of sexual misconduct seriously and encourages anyone who feels they have been sexually abused by a priest, deacon, religious or lay employee to come forward. Complete information about reporting sexual abuse can be found on the Archdiocesan website at www.archchicago.org.

Please know that you are in my prayers. We will do our best to keep you informed of developments as they occur.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

To our fellow St. Francis de Sales community,

These past few days have been difficult for all of us as we move through so many different emotions. The parish staff has been encouraged and supported by many kind words from our community. We know many of you are praying for all involved, and this is most important.

We would like to assure our community that our parish staff is united and working together to continue the important ministries of our parish that serve your needs. As disciples of Christ, we will strive to place our trust in God and follow the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

As we move forward, please know that:

- When Bishop Grob spoke at Mass, he reminded us, and as stated in the letter from Cardinal Cupich, "Allegations are claims that have not been proven as true or false. Therefore, guilt or innocence should not be assumed."
- Bishop Grob and Father Jerry Jacob have been working closely with the parish staff to ensure Masses, including the Christmas Masses, and other sacraments continue without interruption. The Christmas Mass schedule will be published soon and will include outdoor Mass opportunities.
- During this time, there will likely be many different priests who are making themselves available to serve our parish. Please welcome them and show your appreciation for their service to our parish.
- Many people have asked about opportunities to pray together. Members of our parish staff are currently formulating a plan to gather and pray for Fr Ryan, our parish and for every person affected by this situation. Updates will be shared soon.
- If you would like to reach out to Father Ryan, cards and letters can be dropped off at church during our weekday or Sunday Masses. At our parking lot Masses, letters can be placed in the offertory collection bags. These letters will be sent to Father Ryan weekly.

Please know that we will share additional details as they become available. During this time the parish staff remains available to help. Please call the Parish Office, and we will do our best to help you.

The Parish Staff

Keeping Our Neighbors Warm

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who donated new coats and hoodies to our 2020 St Francis de Sales Coat Drive! As winter sets in, we are able to provide warmth to many in need. Over 350 coats and hoodies for men, women and children were donated in November. The coats were distributed by JoAnn Swank to the Pacific Gardens and Emmaus House (Catholic Worker) shelters in Chicago and to the Waukegan soup kitchen and homeless shelter. Patricia Linares also distributed to our sharing parish, Our Lady of Tepeyac in Chicago. Once again, prayers of gratitude for the generosity of this good parish and for Mr. Jerry and Mr. Chris' assistance.

Thank you for your Gifts of Love

In a year that has challenged us in so many ways, we were able to bring Christmas joy to over 225 local families through the generosity of our parishioners. Gift cards were distributed to these families on December 13th. Our recipient families were so appreciative and grateful for the difference this "gift of love" provided them. We were also able to deliver gift bags and gift cards to Mt. St. Joseph and supported Our Lady of Tepeyac and Holy Family Food Pantry in Waukegan with gift cards. We are so gratified by the overwhelming response of gift cards and money to purchase gift cards. This was a unique request, and the parishioners of St. Francis de Sales rose to the occasion. A big shout out to the Girl Scouts, who through the annual Pajamarama collected and donated over 100 pairs of pajamas, which were distributed to Our Lady of Tepeyac.

We hope that next year we will be back to our traditional giving platforms, but it is comforting to know that no matter what obstacles are presented, St. Francis will always rise to the occasion.

A special note of gratitude to Fr. Ryan, who has always been so supportive of these ministries and making it possible for us to serve so many underserved individuals.

Sincerely,

Jane Clery Coordinator, Gift of Love and Patricia Linares Coordinator, Our Lady of Tepeyac
