SPEAK, LORD, WE ARE LISTENING

In today's first reading God keeps calling out in the night to a sleeping boy. Neither the boy, Samuel, nor his teacher, Eli, understands who is calling. But God's persistence convinces them. Samuel is then ready—not ready yet to do anything, but ready to listen. "Speak, for your servant is listening" (1 Samuel 3:10).

In the Gospel Jesus is out teaching. Various people notice him and begin to gather around. They soon become disciples and, like the young Samuel, are ready—not ready yet to do anything, but ready to listen. "Speak," they say, "we are listening."

God's voice is always with us, awake or asleep. It swirls around us like fog on a waterfront, enveloping us, gently urging us to wake up, to listen. Awareness of the voice comes first; then willingness to listen; then, in time, the decision to act, to live according to God's word. Let's ask today for the ability to keep our ears open so we don't miss God's voice.

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

...The Lord...sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was to come." We are also His disciples who bring the good news to the grocery store, a friend in need, an alienated child, everywhere Jesus wants to be. Disciples need support from other disciples who share their journey and mission. Disciples need one another for loving support so as not to grow weary.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Our faith is not just about ideas. It's really about having an encounter with God and, in particular, the Risen Christ! Once we give ourselves over to the notion of God's presence, we have to train ourselves to listen for God's voice and be attentive to God's call. Having companions on our faith journeys is so incredibly important as they can help us fine-tune our listening skills and discern God's voice from others we may be hearing. Faith is all about having these profound encounters not only with God but with our brothers and sisters, and creation itself. Anyone or anything that is alive with God's presence becomes an occasion for God to speak and call us to deeper graces and experiences. "Come, and you will see."

The example and teaching of Jesus, the lives of the saints, those living among us and those glorified in heaven, and the wonder and beauty of creation can all serve to help us listen more clearly and assist in positioning ourselves for this profound God meeting. It is an encounter that can quickly and easily lead to a friendship and intimate intertwining of our souls to their Maker, making a claim on us like no other. Then, the Word of God moves from being just a body of ideas to something we simply accept and do. The person of Jesus Christ swiftly moves from being just a good prophet in word and deed to the incarnate presence of God Himself, the Lamb of God. The voice leads us to the Person behind it.

The Gospel is hard to follow. We can intellectually debate whether what Jesus said is really what we are asked to do. The Gospel ideas do not always make sense in our practical, secular world. The person of God always does. We can debate the practicality and sense of ideas and doing so often keeps the more difficult ones at a safe distance away from us. Jesus said to love our enemy, but we really don't need to do that; our minds try to convince us. It just doesn't make sense. Yet, if we are truly in love with the God who is behind the voice of those words, they make perfect sense. Our deep and intimate love of this God would even find us laying down our lives for Him if necessary. Speak Lord, your servant is listening.

Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi"—which translated means Teacher—"where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come, and you will see." - Jn 1:38-39a

CHRIST IS ANYTHING BUT ORDINARY

We're about to dive headlong into week two of Ordinary Time, and we need to admit, after the hustle and bustle of the holidays, things are indeed looking more ... ordinary, at least in our spiritual lives.

The transcendent highs of the Christmas season are flatlining a bit and the vivid imagery of the Nativity scene has faded. The solemn anticipation of the Advent season is by now a distant memory.

Are you bored yet?

Here's a secret: I think that Ordinary Time can actually be quite extraordinary, if we're really living out our baptismal call.

In today's Gospel, Jesus point-blank asks Andrew, who is following him after hearing

John the Baptist's testimony: "What are you looking for?" He's asking us the same question.

What are you looking for? Why are you following me? Is it for the Christmas cookies and the Advent carols? Is it for the King's Cake on the Epiphany? Is it for the feeling we get on Christmas when we just know God has done a wondrous thing?

None of those things are bad, but they are not what Andrew was looking for, and they were not what Christ promised him when he said, "Come, and you will see." Andrew was looking for the Messiah — the One who makes even Ordinary Time extraordinary. The One who can sanctify the longest and dullest of to-do lists, on the longest and dullest of days. The One whose peace can reign in our homes on January 25, not just December 25.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHY DO PARISHES HAVE THE BLESSED SACRAMENT IN A SEPARATE ROOM?

While many Catholics of a certain age have memories of the Blessed Sacrament being housed in the tabernacle on the high altar of the church, many parishes in the decades since the Second Vatican Council have chosen to build a separate space — a reservation chapel — where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. Although this practice is not universal, it is in keeping with the guidance offered by the US Bishops in their document Built of Living Stones (see nos 77-78). The goal is to create a space that is separated from the nave and sanctuary, but which is "integrally connected with the church" which can foster "reverence and can provide the quiet and focus needed for personal prayer." This can be especially important for communities that have continuous eucharistic adoration, allowing people to come and pray in a space separate from the normal activities of parish life.

The practice of reserving the Eucharist in a separate space — or in a dignified location away from the altar where Mass is celebrated — is that it emphasizes the importance of the liturgy itself, which is the "source and summit" of the life of the Church.

As with many things in the Church, the practice of placing the tabernacle in the sanctuary or in a separate chapel is not universal (as can be seen in visits to historic churches in Rome and other places). The important thing is that as communities question where to place the tabernacle, they listen to the voice of the Church, explore the ancient and varied liturgical tradition of the Church, consider the needs and life of the community, and also take into account the architecture and limits of the spaces they might already have.

A PRIVATE CHOICE. A SECRET BURDEN.

DO YOU FEEL LIKE I DO?

A while ago, I made the decision to have an abortion. It was, after all, my right to choose. But now, as I look back on it, I realize that something else besides my baby died inside of me that day.

I made a private choice. But it became a secret burden.

If you feel this way, there's hope.

Please call our confidential helpline to speak with people who will not condemn you for your decision. Take the first step toward healing by calling:

Keeping Our Neighbors Warm

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who donated new coats and hoodies to our 2020 St Francis de Sales Coat Drive! As winter sets in, we are able to provide warmth to many in need. Over 350 coats and hoodies for men, women and children were donated in November. The coats were distributed by JoAnn Swank to the Pacific Gardens and Emmaus House (Catholic Worker) shelters in Chicago and to the Waukegan soup kitchen and homeless shelter. Patricia Linares also distributed to our sharing parish, Our Lady of Tepeyac in Chicago. Once again, prayers of gratitude for the generosity of this good parish and for Mr. Jerry and Mr. Chris' assistance.

Thank you for your Gifts of Love

In a year that has challenged us in so many ways, we were able to bring Christmas joy to over 225 local families through the generosity of our parishioners. Gift cards were distributed to these families on December 13th. Our recipient families were so appreciative and grateful for the difference this "gift of love" provided them. We were also able to deliver gift bags and gift cards to Mt. St. Joseph and supported Our Lady of Tepeyac and Holy Family Food Pantry in Waukegan with gift cards. We are so gratified by the overwhelming response of gift cards and money to purchase gift cards. This was a unique request, and the parishioners of St. Francis de Sales rose to the occasion. A big shout out to the Girl Scouts, who through the annual Pajamarama collected and donated over 100 pairs of pajamas, which were distributed to Our Lady of Tepeyac.

We hope that next year we will be back to our traditional giving platforms, but it is comforting to know that no matter what obstacles are presented, St. Francis will always rise to the occasion.

A special note of gratitude to Fr. Ryan, who has always been so supportive of these ministries and making it possible for us to serve so many underserved individuals.

Sincerely,
 Jane Clery Coordinator, Gift of Love and Patricia Linares Coordinator,
 Our Lady of Tepeyac
