CALLED TO BE HOLY

With this Sunday we begin Ordinary Time. The readings tell us about God's relationship with Israel and John the Baptist's relationship with Jesus. Israel's relationship with God is so close, so intimate, that it is through Israel that God's "salvation [will] reach to the ends of the earth" (Isaiah 49:6). But we know from John the Baptist that for Israel to accomplish God's will, it must also recognize that Jesus is the Son of God. During these weeks we also get to know Jesus. We begin to understand more deeply our relationship to Jesus and what that relationship means for us, who are "called to be holy" (1 Corinthians 1:2).

There is nothing that you have done, there is no thought you've ever had, there is no tragedy you have experienced that can ever change the Father's heart for you. So, don't be afraid to run to him. Open your heart and receive his goodness. Come just as you are, broken and battered, angry and uncertain. Come.

WE CAN "FIX IT" TOGETHER

34th PLEDGE UPDATE & PAYMENTS COMPLETED

Sunday, January 5th, 2020
THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Dear Parishioners, Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The remaining major projects are the new flooring design in the Church. We had hoped by Christmas 2019 to have completed the new Church flooring, but our plans and finances are scheduled for 2020. A monument on the site of the first Church building has been erected in remembrance of the first church in the parish and in honor of the generations of Catholics since 1949 in this faith community as disciples of this Body of Christ.

As pledges are made and paid, we will continue to address the one remaining project, which can be found on our parish website. See what this good parish has accomplished already in total pledges and number of donors! At this point in the Campaign, 923 donors helped us reach $1,539,855 in total pledges. Total pledges paid are $1,527,817. Balance due is $12,037. It is not the intention of the Fix-It Campaign to place the parish in debt. As a parish, we spent 9 years paying off the $3.8 million debt. We will only address the project as we raise the funds to pay. As Thomas Jefferson advised, "Never spend your money before you have it!" My Grandmother Ryan said the same message in her own way! For details on the campaign, including the presentation that was shown at Masses as well as the information on Charitable Giving Options, visit our parish website, www.stfrancislzparish.org. Thank you to those who have already responded with a pledge toward the $1.7 million goal. St. Francis de Sales has a long history of generous giving. I respectfully ask for the prayers, involvement, and sacrifice of many, if not all, in the parish in making a pledge towards the Fix-It Campaign in addition to the generosity you provide each Sunday offering. For example, if 1,000 parishioners pledge the suggested amount of $850 per year for 2 years, we will reach our campaign goal immediately to conclude the project. Please, everyone, participate through a prayer and a pledge. All the funds we raise in the Fix-It Campaign stay within the parish. I want to express my gratitude to Deacon John Sfire, Jason Sfire, and Amie Paige of The Fidelity Group for doing an extensive study of our parish campus, as was presented in the Fix-It Campaign presentation. I have asked the Fidelity Group, under the leadership of Deacon John Sfire and Jason Sfire, to serve as Project Managers of the Fix-It Campaign. I also want to offer my appreciation for the guidance and involvement of Tom Purtell, Chair of the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC), Marty Bush, Member of the PPC; Mike Carlino, Chair of the Parish Finance Council; Doug Samz, Member of the Parish Finance Council; Christine DePrez, Cornerstone Bank Liaison; Laura Angelini, Business Manager; and Pam Lynch, Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministries.

God give you peace,

Are You Feeling the Noose Tightening?

by Kevin & Marilyn Ryan

December 13, 2019

As the religious landscape in our once Christian nation has changed, so, too, has the civil and political climate. More and more Americans have become "nones" or simply are no longer interested in organized religion. So, too, are the forces that see religion as a troublesome social factor growing. They are increasing in power and, increasingly, in vocal opposition to Catholics.

All religions, especially ours, are seen as suspect and impediments to "true democracy" and social progress, perhaps because we stand for certain things about human life and sexuality, which have become increasingly unpopular. In particular, we stand in the way of a progressive agenda that insists on a woman's free choice to abort at any time, with no strings attached, the child in her womb. Progressives are irked by the tax-free status of churches and religious hospitals. They are questioning why the country is paying for the support of military chaplains, and why in court cases Catholic priests are allowed to maintain the secrecy of the confessional. For all this and more, they are coming after us.

We are seeing more frequently the face of anti-Catholic assaults on our religious liberties. Last year, as many as 27 LGBT rights groups urged the U.S. Senate's Judiciary Committee to fight the nomination of Notre Dame law professor Amy Barrett. In direct response to that pressure, progressive senators launched an unprecedented and clearly ideological attack on Barrett. California Democratic Sen. Dianne Feinstein attacked Barrett with the accusation that she was unfit for service as a federal judge because of her deeply held religious views. "The dogma lives loudly within you, and that's a concern," she said. During the same hearing, her Democratic colleague from Illinois, Sen. Richard J. Durbin, who claims to be a Catholic, violated Senate precedent by bluntly asking her if she considered herself an "orthodox Catholic."

Later that year was the Supreme Court nomination hearings, where the not-so-hidden agenda was to stop another Catholic from reaching our highest court. Judge Brett Kavanaugh was subjected to this same ugly insinuation -- that because of his Catholic faith he could not possibly decide cases "independently," but would be morally conflicted to the point that his decisions would be faith-based instead of Constitution-based. As an indication of how antagonism toward our Church is growing, in 1986, outspokenly Catholic Antonin Scalia, whom Kavanaugh replaced, met with no opposition and was affirmed by a 98-0 vote of the Senate.

This steady and piecemeal attack on the freedom of religious Americans was evident again just last month, when a progressive federal judge took away the rights of doctors and nurses not to participate in medical procedures, such as abortion, sterilization, and assisted suicide that conflict with their religious conscience.

How long before two men or two women come to a Catholic rectory demanding under the law that the pastor marries them at a nuptial Mass? Show trial to follow.

Then, there is the outrageous media storm following the last spring's March for Life in the nation's capital. Waiting for their buses home, a group of Covington Catholic High students was being baited by the racist provocations of the Black Israelites, a radical nationalist group. Then, Nathan Phillips, a drum-beating Native American approached and confronted one student, Nicholas Sandmann, with his drum. The boy did nothing. Just stood his ground and tried to smile through it.

The event was caught on video and, that night, went viral with sneering commentators from major news broadcasters. The next day, The View and other cable news programs heaped insults and accusations on these "sneering, arrogant racists from a privileged Catholic boys' school." The criticism was so intense that even the local bishop fell into the media trap condemning the boys.

Subsequent videos told an entirely different story. So did the formal report of the incident that appeared months later, which exonerated Sandmann and the other students. But the narrative of racially prejudiced Catholic boys was set. It fit so snugly into the growing view of the Church being a dangerous, malignant force in American society.

We in Massachusetts have witnessed a prime example of this assault on religious liberties when in 2006 our elected legislators, under pressure from gay lobbying groups, decreed that religious adoption agencies could not follow their Church doctrine of only placing children with traditional father and mother families. This meant that the 100-year-old Catholic Charities of Massachusetts was forced to end adoption services. In the 13 years since, there has been a huge decline in the number of adoptions in the state. Also, the number of children waiting for foster care and let loose to the streets has skyrocketed.

Perhaps, following the leadership of our state, the Obama Administration adopted similar adoption rules. Thankfully, they have been rescinded by the current administration. However, in Massachusetts, these discriminatory laws are still enforced. The result is that a primary religious activity of Catholics, taking care of vulnerable children, has been terminated.

We are living through what is clearly a coordinated effort of the entertainment industry, the educational establishment, and popular culture to remove religious faith -- and the faithful -- from American civil life. In its place, progressivism has become the new American religion.

There is a new and interesting word circulating. It's "woke," as in "I had been sleeping about racial injustices, but now I'm woke." Christians, and particularly Catholics, have been asleep to the hostility toward people of faith and to legal encroachments on their freedoms. We need to get -- and stay -- woke.

But we also need to act -- to fight. When Christ returned to Jerusalem, he entered the Holy Temple, what was then the public square. Outraged at what he saw before him, he acted. He overturned the tables of the money changers, made a whip of cords and drove out those who had despoiled the temple. We need to act and reclaim the public square in every village, town, city and school.

Proverbs Project

Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the Lord, and He will reward them for what they have done. -Proverbs 19:17

Hello my name is Giacomo Armagno, and last year, my friend Michelle Roesner started a charity for the homeless she calls the Proverbs Project for the Homeless. Her and a group of parishioners gathered food, clothing, and supplies for the homeless people of Chicago. After making individual packages for people around the city, they spent the day delivering what they had prepared.

Michelle is a freshman in college this year, so she was not able to do all the planning work as she did last year. I volunteered to take her role in conducting the project this year, and she was excited to see that I was interested.

Now the winter season is back and there are still thousands of people in the city who live without a home. I feel that it is our duty to give these people the love and dignity they deserve as human beings.

Like last year, the project will depend on support from the kind of people that make up this great Parish. We are in need of the following items: non-perishable individually packaged foods (granola bars, applesauce pouches, bottled water) clothing (socks, underwear, gloves, hats, pajamas, winter coats) gift cards (small amount gift cards to restaurants like Starbucks and Subway) toiletries (soap, toothbrushes, toothpaste) and finally, blankets. All items will be wrapped in a blanket and tied with a ribbon. There will be blue bins in the Gathering Space and Ministry Center where you can drop off any donations. We'll be collecting donations all the way through the 19th of January.

We will need volunteers to help distribute the packages around the city also. We'll be delivering the package is on Monday, January 20th, which is Martin Luther King Jr. Day. This year, my goal is to deliver 100 packages throughout the city.

Please email me, Giacomo Armagno, at garmagno212@gmail.com if you have any questions.

And lastly, like Michelle, I will be away at college next year attending Kent State University in Ohio studying Aeronautics on an Air Force ROTC scholarship. I will need a replacement for next year so the project can continue, so if you enjoy helping out, please consider taking on the leadership role next year.

Thank You from St Vincent de Paul

As we start a new year, we would like extend a heartfelt thank you to the wonderful volunteers who give their time and hearts each and every week to make the St. Vincent de Paul Pantry's mission to help those in need in our community a success.

To the local businesses who donate food each day (such as Peapod, Target, Walmart, Sunset Foods, and the Lake Zurich, Barrington, & Buffalo Grove Jewels) – please know your generosity is immensely inspiring and helps so many. To the harvesters who selflessly give their time each day to pick up from those local businesses – to you we are eternally grateful.

A special thank you goes out to local schools, boy scouts, girl scouts, athletic teams, high school clubs, park districts, and local businesses who generously give their time and help to bring us much needed food through their food drives. Your help does not go unappreciated.

And finally, to each and every parishioner who donates food and to those who come each week to help stock & sort our shelves, unload our trucks, and serve as part of our Thursday night crew – you are everyday heroes and without your help and God's grace & support, we could not do what we do. Thank you all so much.

Happy New Year

 Michael the Archangel*

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen
