TIME

The holidays are well behind us; the year stretches out ahead. And what sort of year will it be? To judge by the words of Jesus in today's Gospel, it will be a year acceptable to the Lord. And Jesus surely didn't mean only the next three hundred sixty-five days facing his listeners at that time.

When Jesus announced the arrival of God's favor, it was a message for all time, for every year. Similarly, we read today in Nehemiah how the people gathered with solemnity to hear God's word as though for the first time. They listened, and then fell to the ground and wept. But the prophet said, "Today is holy . . . do not be sad, and do not weep."

The year acceptable to the Lord is this year. The day that is holy is this day. The time to listen is now. What sort of year will you have? What sort of day? God's help is always here. What you do with each day can be holy and acceptable to the Lord if you but listen to and act on God's word.

SALVATION

God doesn't LOVE us because we are good.

We are good because He LOVES us.

God LOVES us unconditionally! But it's up to us to open our hearts to His LOVE and allow Jesus to move in. If we allow Him into our hearts, He can change us from the INSIDE OUT! Our conversion happens when we intentionally and joyfully say "YES" to His invitation.

COME, FOLLOW ME

Annual Catholic Appeal

November 30, 2017

Dear Father Ryan,

Our Annual Catholic Appeal is framed in the words of Jesus: Come, follow me. It is an invitation to be Christ for others and to live in a community of discipleship. As Christ's community we help to sustain Catholic schools and parishes in need, support programs of religious education, ministerial formation, and promote the protection of life and peace and justice. Through the Annual Appeal, we together support the efforts of Catholic Relief Services that cares for people across the globe who struggle and suffer because of natural disasters.

Since St. Francis de Sales elected to participate in the ACA Incentive Plan in 2017, your 2018 goal is reduced to 75% of your regular goal. Therefore, your 2018 goal is 4.5% of the previous year's offertory income. Your offertory income for Fiscal Year 2016-2017 was $2,036,797. Therefore, your target is $91,656. When parishioner contributions exceed the parish goal, St. Francis de Sales will receive a rebate of 100% of the funds donated over the goal. Just as you have my gratitude, you also have my prayers. Let us pray for one another. Together, as his disciples, we can do so much to bring Jesus to a world that is deeply in need. With God's grace and help, we will fulfill our mission.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago

THEOLOGY 101

WHO IS A BISHOP?

By Father Louis J. Cameli, S.T.D.

The recent ordination of three new auxiliary bishops for the Archdiocese of Chicago, Bishop Mark Bartosic, Bishop Bob Casey and Bishop Ron Hicks, reminds all of us of the importance of bishops in the Catholic Church. At the same time, many people, including many Catholics, would be hard pressed to say exactly who a bishop is and what a bishop does.

We can easily slip into applying models from our secular experience to Church matters. So, we might think of a bishop as an executive or CEO – maybe even a branch manager responsible to the Pope. That sort of thinking would not be accurate. It is best to begin with a larger sense of the Church.

Our Catholic Church is a single reality that has both a spiritual and a structural dimension. It has an internal life directed by the Holy Spirit and an institutional structure to support its religious mission. Within that reality of Church, there are bishops who, as the original Greek word episcopos indicates, serve as overseers. They exercise a threefold ministry of Word, Sacrament and pastoral governance. They proclaim God's Word by preaching, teaching and faithfully holding fast to the faith that comes to us from the Apostles. They celebrate the Sacraments and, along with their priest co-workers, bring the sanctifying presence of the Lord to his people. They exercise pastoral governance that involves both the administration of the Church's structured life and holding up the perennial mission entrusted to it by the Lord before the entire Church.

When bishops authentically exercise their threefold ministry of Word, Sacrament and pastoral governance, they serve the unity of the Church. That means that they foster the unity of their local church or portion of God's flock entrusted to them. It also means that they foster the unity and communion with other local churches and the universal Church, guided by the Petrine ministry of the Pope.

As you can easily see, a diocesan bishop, that is, a bishop responsible for a given local church or diocese, has great and multiple responsibilities. And those responsibilities grow in relationship to the size of the diocese. The Archdiocese of Chicago, for example, represents a very large diocese, one of the largest in the world. To serve the Church well, the Archbishop of Chicago needs help. For that reason, the Holy Father gives him auxiliary or helper bishops who can assist him. The Archbishop, together with his auxiliary bishops, priests and deacons, can offer the people of God in Cook and Lake counties the ministry of Word, Sacrament and pastoral governance. They can foster the unity of this local church and insure that it is linked in a communion of faith, hope and love with other local churches and with the Church Universal.

It is essential to remember that the ordained ministry of bishops, priests and deacons does not exhaust all the ministry and leadership of the Church. In fact, ordained ministry – as the Second Vatican Council tells us very clearly – is ordered in a mutual relationship to all the baptized. In other words, those who are ordained are to enable and to encourage all the baptized to assume their responsibilities in the Church and in the world to bring the living Christ to all people and to make ready a path for the coming of the Kingdom of God.

When the entire Church harmoniously fosters the gifts of all who belong to the community of faith – the ordained and all the baptized – then that Church becomes a mirror of the most holy Trinity: a mystery of diversity and unity, an effective sign of what God wants for all humanity.

We began by considering bishops, but clearly we can never consider the bishops in isolation. They are – along with us – a part of God's grand plan to bring new life in Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit to our world that is so much in need of healing redemption. ■

Father Louis J. Cameli, S.T.D. received his doctorate in theology in 1975 from the Gregorian University in Rome. He is the author of numerous books and articles. Father Cameli is the Cardinal's Delegate for Christian Formation and Mission in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Catholic Schools Week

A Blue Ribbon Thank You!

St Francis de Sales School Principal, Kyle Schmitt, spoke at all masses the weekend of November 24th & 25th to reflect on the Blue Ribbon Award. Below is his speech.

The occasion for my remarks today are to give thanksgiving. As some of you may have heard, or seen from the new banners flying on the parish buildings or in the narthex, our school has won its second Blue Ribbon Award. We won the award in 2007 and now again in 2018. I am here today to share with you what that means exactly.

I want to start with some facts. There are approximately 130,000 total public and private schools in the United States. Of those 130,000, 349 schools received the Blue Ribbon Award this year. That equates to 0.2% of the schools in the United States. 300 of those schools were public, and 49 were private. Right now, we are among the 49 best private schools in the country. That is what this award means and that is what we are claiming and celebrating today.

The Blue Ribbon Award program began in 1982 and since it's inception over the last 26 years less than 9000 schools have received the distinction at some point which is ~14% of the 130,000 schools. Please note that a school is only eligible to apply once every five years. Of the 9000 schools that have received the award, less than 10% of schools have received it more than once. As a two-time award winning school we are part of that very select group.

Theresa Grom, our assistant principal, and I had the honor and privilege of traveling to Washington DC last week to accept the award at the ceremony. But it is the entire parish community that has won this award. We all had a hand in this achievement. God deserves the first praise. All the glory and honor are ultimately his and his alone. Our primary reason for existing as a Catholic school is to bring our students to know, love, and serve God the father, Jesus the son, and the Holy Spirit. That is our mission.

Without the support of Father Ryan and you, the parish, our school would not have won this award. Fr. Ryan's unwavering commitment and support are inspirational. It takes a sizable investment of financial resources to build and maintain the program of academic excellence we have at St. Francis de Sales. Tuition, paid by families, covers a bit more than half of the total cost of education per student. Fundraising contributes a modest amount as well. The remainder of the investment, which represents about a third of the total cost per pupil, is provided by Fr. Ryan to the school on behalf of the parish. The parish investment allows us to not only keep our doors open, but to remain affordable to all families that seek a Catholic education, and to invest in achieving excellence in our programs.

And of course we would not be a school of excellence without our wonderful students and parents, our dedicated faculty and staff, and our many generous volunteers, donors, and other special friends - many of whom were able to join us two Wednesdays ago in a celebration party.

So thank you for having me here to share this news with you and thank you for your support of our successes. After mass, I will be at a table in the gathering space if you'd like to stop by, ask questions about the award, chat about your alumni story, or buy Christmas Cards designed by our art club students.

CLASSES BEGIN FEBRUARY 12TH FOR FAMILY MEMBERS OF THOSE AFFECTED BY MENTAL ILLNESS

One-in-five. That's the number of adults who are dealing with a mental illness this year. Yes, twenty percent! This number might surprise you since many people living with these illnesses and their families don't talk about the illness due the stigma surrounding mental illness.

If this has hit your family, you know that living with a family member who has a mental illness can take a real toll not just on the individual with the illness, but on those in the family as well. In many cases, family members of those who have been diagnosed with depression, bipolar disorder, an anxiety disorder, borderline personality disorder, or schizophrenia feel isolated from the community due to stigma, shame, and the fear of being judged.

The good news is that you are not alone and there is a program that can help you learn more about these illnesses, and how to help your ill family member and yourself. The National Alliance on Mental Illness will be offering a 12-week program designed specifically for those who have a family member with a mental illness. The class will be held at St. Francis on Tuesday evenings, from February 12th – April 30th. For more information and to register, please contact Teri Latter at 847-809-6038.

The Importance of Eucharistic Adoration

Pope Francis leads Benediction outside the Basilica of St. Mary Major at the conclusion of the Corpus Christi procession in Rome May 30. (CNS photo/Paul Haring)The importance of Eucharistic Adoration is shown in the fact that the Church has a ritual that regulates it: the Rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction. This is an extension of the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which occurs in every Mass: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament flows from the sacrifice of the Mass and serves to deepen our hunger for Communion with Christ and the rest of the Church. The Rite concludes with the ordained minister blessing the faithful with the Blessed Sacrament. - taken from the USCCB website

Friday, February 1

Eucharistic Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

is held at St. Francis de Sales every First Friday immediately following the 8:30am Mass, and continuing until 4pm. Eucharistic Adoration honors the special presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist. Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament is a profession of faith in the real bodily presence of Jesus. One of the best ways to look at prayer before the Blessed Sacrament is to see it as an extension of Holy Communion. Our souls are fed and our minds and wills are strengthened and given light, that we may go about the tasks of our daily lives.

*a Prayer

 Michael the Archangel*

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prawl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
