WELCOME TO ST. FRANCIS DE SALES PARISH!

We welcome you to St. Francis de Sales. Organized as a parish in 1949 by the Archdiocese of Chicago, St. Francis de Sales Parish encompasses the communities of Lake Zurich, Deer Park, Hawthorn Woods, North Barrington, Kildeer, Long Grove and has a strong spiritual and temporal presence in Lake County. If you are new in these neighborhoods or are returning to the practice of our Catholic faith, we welcome you to our Parish. Please call or, better yet, stop by the Ministry Center so we can meet you. If you are a visitor, we know that you will take some of our goodwill with you as you return to your home parish.

February 7, 2021: Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"How is your heart with regard to spiritual exercises? Do you like them? Do you esteem them or do they make you ill at ease?... If you note anything to which your heart has less inclination, look for the source of such dislike and discover its cause." - St Francis de Sales

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Job finds life on earth to be drudgery; he is filled with restlessness (Job 7:1-4, 6-7).

Psalm — Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted (Psalm 147).

Second Reading — Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel. I have become all things to all, to save at least some (1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23).

Gospel — Jesus cured many who were sick with various diseases (Mark 1:29-39).

THE GOOD NEWS

Today's readings begin with a few verses from the book of Job. First, Job complains that his nights drag on endlessly. Then, worse yet, "My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle; / they come to an end without hope" (Job 7:6). Not exactly encouraging, these lamentations, not when taken alone.

Most of us have been there, though, and the antidote is the "good news" that Paul found so compelling that "an obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it!" (1 Corinthians 9:16). Paul felt driven to announce the gospel to as many people as possible, "to save at least some" (9:22).

This good news is the mystery of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, who lifted Simon Peter's mother-in-law from her sickbed with a mere touch of his hand. "The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons" (Mark 1:33-34). Our woes and demons are as real as Job's, and Jesus is our savior. copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

In today's Gospel, Jesus cured many illnesses demonstrating his healing power and compassion for us. Later, he rose early and went off to a deserted place to pray. Even Jesus needed to reconnect with his Father and pray for strength to carry out his mission. What a great lesson and example for us! In order to stay focused and gain strength to help others, we only need to turn to God in prayer! Stay connected and you will stay strong.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

If I only knew then what I know now, how different life would be. This sentiment, expressed in myriad ways, is found on every human being's lips at one point or another. Life may have brought us to a vulnerable place where we see some of the poor choices we made and the effects they are having. Perhaps we fell into some destructive and dysfunctional relationships or behaviors and are finding how they held us captive. Our zeal and passion for life may have drifted away and we are waking up to the reasons apathy has taken hold. Life can be hard. In fact, some would describe their lives as a drudgery. They walk through each day with an anxious unsettledness, wondering when their restlessness will cease. There is a temptation to believe that what I see is all I will get. Mortality and hopelessness await the dawn. If I could only have known what would come in the future, I could have made better choices and avoided all of this misery!

Really? While we can certainly give into weakness, sin, impulsiveness, and idiosyncrasies that cause us to stumble over ourselves, life is really a journey. If we don't make the mistake of wallowing in the mire of self-pity and realize the new life God is calling us to, then there are thrills, adventures, surprises, and soul-searching graces we can surely miss. We are not tethered to our past nor are we bound to the ills life can bring upon us. We are never hopeless or helpless. The problem is that our myopic vision only allows us to see the misery and misfortune that is before us, not the potential that can come from choosing healthier and more life-giving options. Jesus came that we might have fullness of life. We need to learn how to reach for Jesus' hand and let him help us to our feet.

We need to allow God into our pain and heal our past. We have to wrestle with our histories, agonize and search and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope, and love. Job could not see how his story would end or trust the guidance of the God who called him. We live in that same blindness and suffer from the same lack of confidence. Once we allow ourselves to be touched by God's healing power, we begin to see that all of the pieces of our lives are necessary parts of a greater whole. Along the way of our lives, God uses our omissions and failures to create new things and possibilities. When doors close, others open and we can be amazed by the joyful and unexpected surprises we receive. Once we know the power of God's creative, healing, life-giving, forgiving, and dynamic presence, it is no wonder we want to put ourselves at the service of others and show them what life can be.

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him. - Mk 1:32-34

THE AUDACITY OF HOLINESS

Do you know a holy person? I'm not talking about piety — that's important, too, in its own way. But right now, I'm speaking of holiness.

St. Therese of Lisieux called holiness “a disposition of the heart that makes us humble and little in the arms of God, aware of our weakness, and confident — in the most audacious way — in His Fatherly goodness.”

The holy person sees a storm on the horizon of life, and rather than give themselves over to fear and despair (natural and understandable reactions), regards the gathering winds as an opportunity to rely more fully on God. The holy person takes a bad situation and sanctifies it with charity and understanding that defies our fallen human nature.

Peter's mother-in-law was still in the throes of a fever when Jesus grasped her hand. It wasn't until she took his hand and allowed him to help her up that “the fever left her and she waited on them.” Before the fever could leave her, she had to commit to holiness — to put her trust in him in a most audacious way. She had to find it within herself to lift her weakened hand to grasp his — and as soon as she did, she was rewarded. Her bodily health restored, she gave thanks, and attended to his needs.

God's hand is always outstretched to us. Will we take it, even if the fever of sin and pride and worldly concerns rages in our souls? Will we muster the strength? Will we be audacious enough to have confidence in His Fatherly goodness?

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

IS IT EVER OK TO LEAVE MASS BEFORE IT ENDS?

This is an interesting question because beneath the surface there seems to be an assumption that if it's okay, then why do we have to stay after we receive communion? The short answer is “no,” but we definitely want to go a bit deeper as we consider why.

First, when we think about questions like this, we must consider this in adult terms. If there is something gravely important that we need to do, then we must attend to that. However, if it is a matter of convenience or preference, then we really have to stop and think again. First, while we always want to recognize the importance of sacramental communion in the Mass, we also need to understand how important the time of thanksgiving and prayer after communion is. This is summarized in the Prayer After Communion offered by the celebrant and then we are also commissioned to “Go forth” during the Dismissal of the Mass, reminding us that we have been entrusted with a gift — the Word of God and the Presence of Christ in the sacrament — and that we are to share that gift with others.

If we simply leave after we receive communion, we risk two things. First, there is the possibility that we will turn our reception of communion into a purely personal, individual experience that is separated from our common experience of worship — and communion in the fullest sense — and, second, we lose an opportunity for gratitude and serious reflection if we simply leave after communion. This time of thanksgiving, reflection and, ultimately, missioning, are important and, in the end, an essential part of the celebration of the Mass.

WORLD DAY OF THE SICK

February 11

An observation started by Pope John Paul II and continued by Pope Francis, World Day of the Sick offers a way for believers to offer prayers for those suffering from illnesses. This year, in the midst of a world-wide pandemic, the call to pray for the sick is urgent. The National Association of Catholic Chaplains has sample petitions that can be used in the Universal Prayer / Prayers of the Faithful that can be used on February 11, and the weekend before or after. View sample petitions, other prayers and the letter of Pope Francis for 29th World Day of the Sick 2021.

Ever-Present and Faithful God,

I trust in You for Your protection and comfort in this time
of illness and uncertainty in my life.

Come to ease the fears and anxieties that trouble my heart and spirit
as I wait for answers and help
from all who are caring for me.

Please continue to guide their knowledge and skills, and bless the work of their minds and hands as they serve as instruments of Your healing presence for me.

Help me rest assured that You will hold me
close in Your healing and caring embrace in all that may happen in the time to come.

Give me strength, peace, and courage
as I trust and give myself
into Your loving care.

Amen.

Sister Jane McConnell OSF, BCC

Dear brothers and sisters,

The celebration of the XXIX World Day of the Sick on 11 February 2021, the liturgical memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Lourdes, is an opportunity to devote special attention to the sick and to those who provide them with assistance and care both in healthcare institutions and within families and communities. We think in particular of those who have suffered, and continue to suffer, the effects of the worldwide coronavirus pandemic. To all, and especially to the poor and the marginalized, I express my spiritual closeness and assure them of the Church's loving concern.

~Pope Francis

Deacon's Corner

It is Wednesday of last week today and I am writing this at 4:30AM because I couldn't sleep. Mainly because I am so distressed by the evil that is pervading all aspects of our society. I have come to the conclusion that too many people are listening to the "evil one on their left shoulder" whispering in their ear; "do whatever you want, don't worry about what is right, don't worry about the Word of God". I think all reading this know what I am referring to. And while I do not have any intention of making this any kind of political statement, I want to focus more on how to overcome the evil that surrounds us each and every day.

The conclusion I have come to is asking for God's help through prayer. I say that because looking back in my own life, any time I was presented with circumstances that I needed help to overcome, I prayed. And when I was done, I prayed some more. I will admit that as I have grown older, I find more time to pray than when I was younger. I guess that is because the daily activities of my life occupied more time than I would like and there "weren't enough hours in the day" to take time out to pray. That is not an excuse but a fact. I am happy to be able to sit down and write this DC every week and also to attend daily Mass, and most of all, to take time out to pray.

Time out to pray is not done only to ask God for something. Many times I pray just to say "Thank You, Jesus" for all the blessings in my life. Blessings like my family, my business, my faith in God and so many smaller blessings that I sometimes take for granted.

While I always talk about not looking backward, reflecting on what has taken place in our lives in the past will give us a better perspective of what to expect in the future. Many times I call upon the memories I have of my youth and young adulthood to compare some of those decisions with decisions before me in my present life. You see, I believe our brain is like a big computer storage facility. I am always amazed how so many thoughts from the past seem to surface just when I need them to give me better understanding about how to proceed when I have any doubts.

But enough about me. How about you? Do you take enough time, especially in this time of change and challenges, to ask for God's help in understanding what is taking place. I know it is easier to just get angry and/or question what is going on, but my dad always said; "two heads are better than one". And sometimes we choose the wrong one as opposed to asking God to join in our thought process. So I recommend that we all take the time to ask for God's help to get us through any and all times of stress and unknowing that occur in our lives. And most importantly, LISTEN to how God answers our prayers.

We can only do that by prayer. Remember, in one of my recent homilies, I said that prayer isn't limited to written prayers like the Our Father, Hail Mary or Glory be. Prayer is any time we stop and talk to God, our Father. And we don't have to always ask for something, we can just say "Thank You" as I said earlier. I don't believe for a minute that there is anyone who reads this DC that doesn't have questions and/or concerns about what is taking place in our society. So the question is; "how do we deal with it, how do we make things better, how do we overcome our fears of the unknown?" You all know the answer!

Think back about what we did when we were growing up. I know if I had a circumstance or challenge in my life, I asked my father. So as I have gotten older and become a father and g'father, I would like to think that my children would do the same. And where do I go? I go to God, my Father and it brings much solace and peace to my mind. My suggestion is; "try it, you'll like it".

My Blessings to all,

Deacon John

CIVILIZE IT

DIGNITY BEYOND THE DEBATE

2020

Prayer to Fast from Incivility

God of all compassion,

You call us to love one another as you have loved us, especially when we face division in our communities.

Help us to see our sisters and brothers as beloved children of God.

Help us to fast from incivility and feast on your love for each one of us.

Help us to fast from discord and feast on the knowledge that you have created each person in your own image.

Help us to fast from fear of those with whom we disagree and feast on the joy community brings us.

Help us to fast from timidity when we hear hurtful language and feast on sharing the good news of our God-given dignity.

Help us to fast from the desire to win arguments and feast on compassion shared in understanding.

Help us to fast from assumptions and feast on listening deeply to the stories of our community.

Lord, our God, be with us in this time of hurt in our communities. In our fasting may we grow closer to you. In our feasting, let us find healing.

Let us turn to you as the source of our joyfulness and our first giver of love.

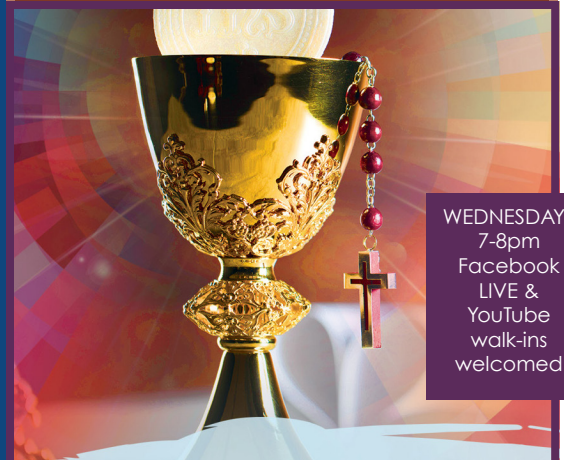

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call the Parish Office - Ministry of Care, (847)438-6622, when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.
