REPENT AND BELIEVE IN THE GOSPEL

Lent is the time of year we devote to scrutinizing our lives in the light of our baptism into the death and resurrection of Jesus. Today's readings are a nice shorthand catechism of what our baptized lives mean. As Noah passed through the waters of the flood to a covenant with God, so did we enter into a covenant, a promised relationship with God through our baptism.

Peter's letter gives an explicit explanation of what our baptism means: it is an appeal we make to God for a clear conscience. How do we obtain this clear conscience? The words proclaimed by Jesus immediately following his temptation show us the way: "Repent, and believe in the gospel" (Mark 1:15). It might be a good spiritual exercise to keep these readings before us throughout the entire season of Lent, a means to help us return to a life lived by our baptismal promises. copyright (c) J. S. GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

St. Oscar Romero said, "Aspire not to have more, but to be more." These powerful words provide the perfect framework for a conversion oriented Lenten experience. God is giving us this Lenten sign to stop being concerned about what you have and focus on who you are. This requires that we create a desert space and listen more attentively for God to reveal His presence. It is all so wonderfully simple on the one hand and so incredibly challenging on the other. The message is simple: love God, neighbor, and self. Those simple words make great sense, but we struggle translating them into reality. Our attachments, compulsions, obsessions, addictions, routines, and busyness all anchor us to the "idol of the self," keeping us mired in our compulsive need for self-aggrandizement. It's not about us!

God vowed, long ago, to nurture, sustain and protect the relationship He has with His people. He called us into being, nurtures us in being, and sustains us in being. Without the Loving Divine Presence, all life would cease. Once we slow down a bit and clear away some of the clutter, we can see how the journey of our life is unfolding. We can see what brings us in and out of tune with God's love and how we can better imitate God's loving fidelity in our relationship with Him. In short, we will see our myopic short sightedness and figure out how we can better share the Divine Fire within with others. Lent isn't just about giving stuff up for forty days and indulging again at Easter. We need to push things much farther and wrestle with the question of how we can be more. "Being more" means becoming more fully alive and in touch with the holiness of life and the divinity that lives in and empowers all beings and things. It is realizing that the "quality" of our presence is crucial to being an effective witness and herald of God's unconditional love.

The illusion we have bought into causes us to believe that the wrong things and systems matter. We tirelessly fight to keep things the way they are, to return to the former ways of doing things or restore some nostalgic fantasy memory of "life in the good old days." Lent isn't about maintaining what we have or returning to something that is gone. It's about becoming something new. It's about being more focused, centered, convicted, and grounded so that we can be a person who truly loves and treasures being made in the image of God. The secret to Gospel living is not found in accumulating anything for ourselves, even merit points for heaven. Gospel living means learning how to live with less so that others can live with more. The thought of permanently giving something up makes us feel uncomfortable. Truth often does.

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel." - Mk 1:14-15

THE UNLIKELY SUSPECTS

Have you ever taken a nature walk? Have you leisurely strolled through a forest or field, with no real destination in mind and your only objective being receptivity to and observation of all God's creation?

Sometimes, Scripture readings can feel like a nature walk. All of salvation history plays out against the backdrop of the natural world, with all elements of God's creation — plants and animals and the dust of the earth itself — turning in a supporting performance. How about Jesus in the hot and dusty desert, tempted, living "among the wild beasts?" Noah departed from his ark with the animals he rescued, observing God's sign in the very clouds of the sky. Even God Himself, offering us salvation from original sin through the waters of baptism.

How often do we remember that God speaks to us through all of His creation, even in the unlikeliest suspects?

Let's go back to the nature walk. It sounds like a lovely way to pass an afternoon, amongst wildflowers and butterflies, but don't forget the beating hot sun, mosquitos, and threat of rain on the horizon. Remember, we're not in heaven yet. Here on earth, God may be present in His creation, but that doesn't mean it's always easy to endure.

Lent is, essentially, a time to listen for the voice of God in places we may not expect: the mild irritations you experience when you're craving the chocolate you gave up, or the dull pangs of hunger during the Ash Wednesday fast. It's a golden opportunity to see the divine hand in all of creation, even those unlikely suspects.

DOES IT MATTER WHAT LEG YOU KNEEL ON WHEN GENUFLECTING?

Genuflection is an act of devotion that literally means "to bend the knee." For many Catholics, it's an almost automatic gesture that we perform before entering our pew or row of seats at Mass. But, like many of the symbols and gestures of our faith tradition, genuflecting can also be an invitation for deeper reflection.

The practice of "bending the knee" is an ancient way of recognizing the presence of someone greater than we are. It has been said that the practice dates back to the time of Alexander the Great, but it became a common part of etiquette in the royal courts of the Middle Ages. From throne rooms and palaces, it was a small step to genuflecting, becoming part of the devotional lives of Christians who used this secular gesture as a way of recognizing the presence of the One who is King of Kings, especially in the Eucharist. In our tradition, although many have been taught or prefer to genuflect by placing their right knee on the ground, there is no prescribed way to genuflect. This is especially important to keep in mind if physical limitations or age make certain movements difficult for us.

Today, Catholics are asked to genuflect in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament (whether in the tabernacle or exposed on the altar during eucharistic adoration). So, while it has become second nature to genuflect before entering your seat in church, we should pay attention to where the Blessed Sacrament is kept in each church or chapel we visit, and genuflect in the direction of the tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. In churches or chapels in which the tabernacle is in a separate space, we are invited to simply bow toward the altar.

Virtual Fair Showcases Student Scientists

St. Francis de Sales School (SFS) will be sending nine students to compete in regional competition after hosting its first-ever Virtual Science Fair. On Feb. 3-4, 14 volunteers with STEM backgrounds divided up and reviewed 25 science fair projects developed by SFS' 8th grade class. The judges evaluated written reports as well as presentation slides. Students diligently presented their science projects virtually and answered questions posed by the judges.

Following the event, SFS Middle School Science Teacher Rita Salit announced the following individuals qualified for the IJAS Virtual Regional Science Fair:

Andrea F: Battery Size vs. Time

Abby H: Surfin' on Radio Waves

Lilly K & Meghan W: How Music Affects Accuracy

Philip K: Green Energy

Annabella O: Does What You Think Something Is, Affect How You Smell It?

Joseph Q: Is this Helpful for Blind People?

Evan V: The Corked Bat: Powerful or Pointless?

Elizabeth V: Do the Movies We Watch Affect How We Sleep?

Congratulations to all of the 8th graders for their hard work...and good luck to those that are advancing to the regional event.

FEBRUARY 7, 2021

Deacon's Corner

*J*n last week's DC I wrote about "almsgiving to the poor". And you might recall, I was referring not to the financially poor, but those who are spiritually poor. This can be done by giving of ourselves in the form of evangelizing. Spreading the Word of God.

As I have said many times in the past both in the DC and homilies, I view Lent as a time of not necessarily giving something up, but a time to do something that will benefit ourselves and/or those around us. And most importantly, do something not just for the 40 days of Lent, but make a change in your life that will last forever. Going through life, as we do every day, the world continues to change around us. Many changes that take place are simple and some are more complex and impactful in our lives. I would suggest at this time to stop reading this and take a moment to reflect on how the world has changed and how it might have impacted our own individual lives.

OK! Now that we have all thought about all of the many continuing changes that have taken place in our lives, let's take a step back and look at how we have or will react to them. We are not going to judge anyone else about these changes, but only look at ourselves. I know that I have had a number of reactions (both good and not-so-good) to many of the changes that have recently come to light. And when I say recently, I might go back a number of years in my thought process.

But one of the most important facets of this Lent could be brought together with the message from Pope Francis, when he also speaks about "hope for the future". One thing the Pope has stressed is not just for the Lenten Season is the second Commandment. One of the two Commandments that I have been stressing, almost to the point of my own exhaustion, which is; "love your neighbor as yourself". And as we all know, we shouldn't take the literal translation of this Commandment to only love our "neighbor". It means for us to reach out to as far as we can to stretch our love for all of our brothers and sisters across this earth.

Pope Francis calls it "hope for the future". Not just our family. Not just our friends. Not just our business associates. But all who we may come in contact with, no matter how that contact occurs. Think about it. With internet access, social media agendas, radio, television, we are constantly bombarded with information (good or not-so-good) that is in the eyes of the presenter, supposed to keep us better informed about our life, our future, our family, etc.

It seems to me that much of the aforementioned information that we are inundated with every day, definitely has some type of effect on our lives. Some information makes us happy, some makes us sad, some makes us judge one another. But how often do we take this information and look deep into our own hearts and minds to determine how we are individually affected. And when we do, I believe that this causes us to do something that I work so hard not to do in my life. That is to judge one another. The world around us is "setting us up" to be judgmental about almost everything that takes place in our lives. And I want all of us to get off that "judgmental train". To do that we must get "closer to Our Lord and Savior" and there is not better time to do that than during the Season of Lent.

We are given soooo many opportunities to "ask the Lord, our God, to help us become better people, better citizens, better Catholics, but just spending a little more time practicing fasting, prayer and almsgiving" and who better to share that with than our neighbors. This practice gives us the basis for a lifetime of "change in our lives for the better".

My Blessings to all,

Deacon John

How will you love your neighbor this lent?

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call the Parish Office - Ministry of Care, (847)438-6622, when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.
