"People who cannot forgive others break the bridge over which they must pass if they are to reach heaven; for everyone has a need to be forgiven."

— George Herbert

FOOLISHNESS

Sometimes the idea of repentance seems old-fashioned, naïve, even foolish. But if you're looking for real foolishness, you'll find it in today's readings.

We begin with Leviticus and the admonition, "Take no revenge and cherish no grudge" (Leviticus 19:18). We've heard that message before, of course, so we might forget how far it is from the so-called "practical realities of life." Saint Paul warns us about being practical, though. Whoever considers oneself wise had better "become a fool," because "the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the eyes of God" (1 Corinthians 3:18, 19).

This "foolishness" continues in the Gospel: "Offer no resistance to one who is evil" (Matthew 5:39). In fact, offer the other cheek when you've been slapped. Hand over your coat as well as your shirt. Be like God, who sends sunshine and rain on the bad as well as the good. "So be perfect," says Jesus, "just as your heavenly Father is perfect" (5:48).

Washington Post

Disgraced former cardinal McCarrick gave more than $600,000 in church funds to powerful clerics, records show

By Shawn Boburg, Robert O'Harrow Jr. and Chico Harlan

Former cardinal Theodore McCarrick gave hundreds of thousands of dollars in church money to powerful Catholic clerics over nearly two decades, according to financial records obtained by The Washington Post, while the Vatican failed to act on claims he had sexually harassed young men.

Starting in 2001, McCarrick sent checks totaling more than $600,000 to clerics in Rome and elsewhere, including Vatican bureaucrats, papal advisers, and two popes, according to church ledgers and former church officials.

Several of the more than 100 recipients were directly involved in assessing misconduct claims against McCarrick, documents and interviews show. It was not until 2018 that McCarrick was removed from public ministry amid allegations of misconduct decades earlier with a 16-year-old altar boy, and this year he became the first cardinal known to be defrocked for sexual abuse.

The checks were drawn from a little-known account at the Archdiocese of Washington, where McCarrick began serving as archbishop in 2001. The "Archbishop's Special Fund" enabled him to raise money from wealthy Catholic donors and to spend it as he chose, with little oversight, according to the former officials.

McCarrick sent Pope John Paul II $90,000 from 2001 to 2005. Pope Benedict XVI received $291,000, most of it a single check for $250,000 in May 2005, a month after he was elevated to succeed the late John Paul.

Representatives of the former popes declined to comment or said they had no information about those specific checks. A former personal secretary to John Paul said donations to the pope were forwarded to the secretary of state, the second most powerful post at the Vatican. Experts cautioned that such gifts may also have been directed to papal charities.

A Vatican spokesman declined to comment. In statements, Vatican clerics who received checks described them as customary gifts among Catholic leaders during the Christmas season or as a gesture of appreciation for their service. They said the gifts from McCarrick were directed to charity or used for other proper purposes.

The gifts "never had any effect on the Cardinal's decision-making as an official of the Holy See," said a spokesman for Cardinal Leonardo Sandri, a high-ranking cleric who received $6,500 from McCarrick in the 2000s, the ledgers show.

The checks from McCarrick's fund add a new dimension to a scandal over how he rose to the highest levels of the US Catholic Church and remained there despite complaints of misconduct that reached the Vatican as early as 2000. A Post investigation earlier this year found that another cleric, a McCarrick ally who was a bishop in West Virginia, also gave cash gifts to influential clergy in the United States and at the Vatican while facing allegations of sexual misconduct and financial abuses.

McCarrick, a legendary fund-raiser for the church, was defrocked in February after Vatican officials found him guilty of two charges: soliciting sex during confession and committing "sins" with minors and adults "with the aggravating factor of the abuse of power."

The Vatican plans to release a report about its handling of the allegations against McCarrick in the coming months, church officials have said. The financial records from the Archbishop's Special Fund are among the documents church officials in Washington sent to Rome for that examination, according to one former archdiocese official. The former officials spoke on the condition of anonymity because they were not authorized to discuss the matter.

An attorney for McCarrick did not respond to requests for comment for this story. In his only public statements about the misconduct allegations, McCarrick recently told a reporter, "I do not believe that I did the things that they accuse me of."

In a statement to the Post, the Archdiocese of Washington said McCarrick had sole control of the tax-exempt fund.

"The funds in the account came from donations sent personally to Mr. McCarrick to direct in his sole discretion," the archdiocese said. "During his tenure in Washington, Mr. McCarrick made contributions to many charitable and religious organizations and members of leadership in the Church."

The ledgers obtained by the Post show names of beneficiaries, check numbers, amounts, and dates of disbursement. The ledgers also contain the names of donors for the years 2010 to 2016.

McCarrick's fund took in more than $6 million over 17 years. Among the biggest contributors was Maryanne Trump Barry, the sister of President Trump and a former federal appellate judge. She gave him at least $450,000 over four years, the records show. She declined to comment.

McCarrick, 89, became one of the most recognizable church figures in America during a career spanning a half-century. He traveled the world for the Vatican and became the US Catholic Church's de facto spokesman nearly two decades ago as it reeled from a sex-abuse crisis that began in Boston. In Washington, he presided over funerals of the city's political elite, including Edward M. Kennedy, the Democratic senator from Massachusetts, and hosted dinners for President George W. Bush and other dignitaries.

Catholic Schools Week
Saint Francis de Sales School

The other weekend a few 8th Graders from our 2007 & 2018 Blue Ribbon School shared their essays with our Parish after Holy Communion at each of the masses on Saturday and Sunday.

Great job, students!

Anna Roscoe

Hi. My name is Anna Roscoe, and I attend St. Francis de Sales Catholic School in Lake Zurich, IL. To be honest, when my language arts teacher Mrs. Nigro asked our class to write an essay about our school for Catholic Schools week, I didn't know what to write. Not because there's nothing to write about but, because I'm at a loss for words of what to say. The past 7 years of my life have been filled with so many memories and experiences, and I am forever grateful for everyone who helped contribute to that. Through good and bad times, this faith filled community has always been there for me. The memories I've made through activities, the strong sense of community I feel and the way we celebrate faith have all been apart of my experience here. And I'd like to share some of my favorite moments with all of you.

When you go into 7th grade, you get a first grade buddy. You sit by them at mass, have a couple of parties together during holidays, and you guide them with your experience to help them make the right choices. Each time I pass my buddy, Chloe, in the hallway, her face lights up, and we wave to each other. We always have tons of fun together when we hang out at the parties the room moms prepare for us. I like to think that she looks up to me, and I'm proud that St. Francis offers this opportunity to create a relationship with someone who is younger than you. Our school play is another activity that has greatly affected me. Every year, the middle school puts on a musical. I really enjoy this because I have made some of my best friends through these plays in different grades that I wouldn't have normally talked to. The play really brings everyone together, and we all make so many memories throughout the practices. Whether we are focusing on just blocking scene one or doing the final dress rehearsal the day before opening night, we have a blast. At St. Francis we also go on some of the most exciting field trips. The 5th graders go to Lorado Taft, which is almost like a summer camp. They participate in activities like night hikes and a game called instincts for survival, which I'm sure every kid who has gone there remembers. In the game, you are either assigned to be a herbivore, omnivore, or a carnivore. You are given three life chips and you have to "survive in the woods." You can only eat what your specific animal could eat. There is also one person who is the hunter. I will forever remember my homeroom teacher in 5th grade, Mrs. Jeske, running around the woods and shouting bang at the top of her lungs so that we would have to give her a life chip. St. Francis also allows the 7th graders to go on a day trip to Springfield and the 8th graders to go on a 4 day trip to Washington D.C., which I will attend this year. All students grades 4 through 8 also have the opportunity to join our sports teams. We go and play the other Catholic Schools teams in our district. The unity of being on a team has helped me grow closer to my friends, and I know we always have fun at our games.

St. Francis has a strong sense of community. Since we have preschool through eighth grade, I have been able to become close with almost everyone in my grade. At this point, they're basically my sisters and brothers. We have each others backs no matter what because we have been able to go to the same school our whole lives. I also feel very safe here. As I said, I've known the same people my whole life, so I don't feel that I will be judged by them. I can be myself without worrying. This has helped my grow in confidence when giving presentations or when participating in our annual speech contest. It's nice to know that you have people who you can rely on with you every day. Another part of St. Francis that shows our great community is everyone's willingness to help out. Each homeroom has a set of room parents who help plan for field trips and parties. These parents don't have to help, but they do anyway. Mr. Chris and Mr. Jerry are also some of the most helpful people in our community. They are constantly at the church and school helping to pick up the tables in the lunchroom and then mop the floors after the school day is finished. They do so much for us, and I don't know if our school would be the same without them. Fr. Ryan also helps our school immensely. He has helped lead many fundraisers to keep our school open, so for that I would like to say thank you.

Our school is also faith filled. Since we are a Catholic school, we have the opportunity of learning about our faith every day in Religion class. Our teachers lead us in class discussions about prayer and Jesus's life. We also study scripture together

Reverend David F. Ryan
St. Francis de Sales
135 South Buesching Road
Lake Zurich, Illinois 60047-2500

Dear Father Ryan,

Across the past two years, the Annual Catholic Appeal has invited our Catholic people to hear the call of Jesus, Come, follow me, and to become His missionary disciples. This year's theme develops the call and the outreach: Come, follow me...and heal our world.

Certainly, each one of us individually stands in need of healing and so does our wounded Church. Even as we embrace our own healing in Jesus, we are also called to be His healing presence in our broken, fragmented, and sometimes violent world.

The Annual Catholic Appeal enables us to be missionary disciples who bring the Lord's healing to those in need. It does so by supporting parishes, Catholic schools, programs of religious education, ministry formation, and initiatives for justice, peace, and respect for all life. The healing outreach extends throughout the world to people devastated by war and natural disasters through Catholic Relief Services.

Your leadership as pastor and your willingness to follow well-proven and effective procedures has made the Appeal successful. To date, this year's Appeal has raised over $13,500,000. Thank you for your support. It makes all the difference.

As we build on our past collaboration, I ask you once again to follow the Appeal process and procedures. We know that they work. More specifically, your 2020 goal is 7% of the previous year's offertory income. For Fiscal Year 2018-2019, your offertory income was $1,818,468. Therefore, your target for the 2020 Appeal is $127,293. As you know, when contributions exceed the goal, St. Francis de Sales will receive a rebate from those donated funds.

If you and/or your leadership team have any questions about the 2020 Annual Catholic Appeal, please contact Barbara Shea Collins 312-534-7944 or bcollins@archchicago.org and she will assist you.

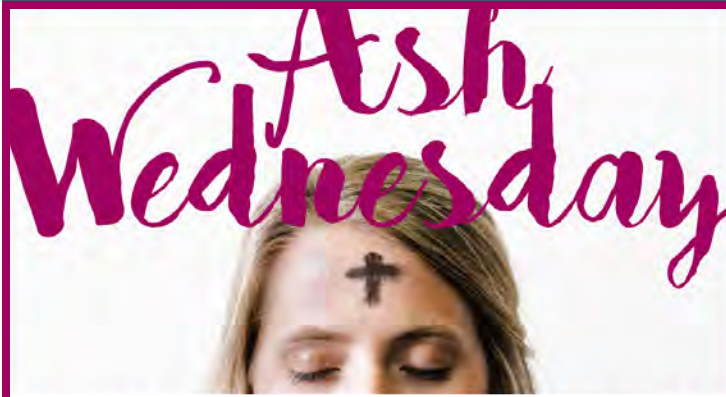

Father Ryan, thank you again for your support of the Annual Appeal, which is an instrument for missionary disciples to bring the Lord's healing into the world.

With my gratitude and my prayers,

Sincerely yours in Christ, and talk about the lessons it teaches us about life today. Because of our faith, we also pray in morning and right before lunch to give thanks to God about how blessed we are. Every Wednesday, Fr. Ryan leads our whole school in a mass that different homerooms prepare. Together, each class creates a presentation about the Gospel or Feast Day that they are assigned. Then, the teachers assign different jobs in the mass to their students, such as gift bearer or first reading. In addition to attending mass, every first Friday of each month, we have adoration. Our school once again joins together to celebrate the Lord. I can strongly say that I have grown so much in my faith, since I started attending here back in preschool.

I am sad that my time here is almost over, but I'm glad it happened. I've had some of the best years of my life here, and I wouldn't change anything for the world. I am so blessed to have this opportunity. Again, I would like to thank Fr. Ryan, Mr. Chris and Mr. Jerry, all of my teachers, the parish community, and my parents. Thank you for your time. Have a good day!

Mass of Remembrance

Dear Parents of Brothers and Sisters in the Risen Christ,

On behalf of St. Francis de Sales Bereavement Ministry and Forever in Our Hearts Grief Support Group, I invite parents and family members to share in a liturgy to honor children now entrusted to God's loving care. To reach out to parents who have lost a child and to help parents take another step on the long road to healing, a Mass of Remembrance to honor children who are deceased will be celebrated on Saturday, February 23 at 11 am. Whether death came recently or long ago, and whether they departed this life before birth, or as infants, young children or teens, or in adulthood, the lives of our beloved children were far too short. Please join us to pray with other parents who have also lost children and share our hope in the Resurrection. All bereaved parents and family or close friends are welcome. Please join members of our Forever in Our Hearts Grief Support Group and Bereavement Ministers in the Gathering Space following Mass for refreshments and fellowship.

Moly Finucane 2019 Golden Rose

On Saturday, December 7th, 2019, the Vicariate 1 ACCW (Archdiocese Council of Catholic Women) and Bishop Alberto Rojas recognized 30 high school young women with a Golden Rose award. Our St Francis de Sales recipient was Molly Finucane who was honored for her service, including working with Gigi's Playhouse, her spirituality, leadership and service. Fr Ryan and others from Youth Ministry joined Molly and her family at this special celebration.

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call Fr.
