STRENGTH AGAINST TEMPTATION

The first Sunday of the season of Lent always includes a Gospel account of the temptation of the Lord Jesus in the desert by the devil. This year, the story is set against the backdrop of the first reading from Genesis, which recounts the very first temptation by the devil. That story is set in a garden of delight. The Gospel story is set in the desert. As believers, we know that temptation comes our way in our own gardens of delight as well as the deserts of our lives. As Lent begins, our attention is drawn to that temptation within each of us to become like God—we want control, power, and answers to all of life's difficult questions. As communities of faith, we are given this season of repentance so that we can join our hearts with others on the difficult journey of conversion. We look to God and to one another for strength against temptation. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

GROWING DISCIPLES

Excerpt from "Lenten Gospel Reflections" by Bishop Barron

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.... Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." Matthew 25

Jesus' powerful teaching about the connection between our love for God and neighbor was exemplified in the life of Saint Teresa of Calcutta. What can YOU do for a needy person in your life this week?

POPE FRANCIS — BELOVED AND CONTROVERSIAL

By Father Louis J. Cameli, S.T.D.

On Dec. 13, Pope Francis will celebrate the 50th anniversary of his priestly ordination. Across those years, as priest, bishop and now pope, he has dedicated himself tirelessly to the renewal begun by the Second Vatican Council.

Paradoxically, Pope Francis is both immensely popular throughout the world and, at the same time, intensely controversial in certain limited but vocal quarters of the Church. How can we understand this? And, what does it mean?

Perhaps the best starting point is to identify the pope's mission and ministry in the Church. The pope is the successor of St. Peter. The Lord Jesus entrusted to Peter three responsibilities that constitute the "Petrine" ministry in the Church, which his successors are to fulfill:

- To be the rock of fidelity for believers assuring them of the truth of the Gospel;
- To foster and maintain the unity of the Church; and,
- To encourage believers by confirming his brothers and sisters in faith.

This is the threefold mission that the pope exercises in and for the Church of God: fidelity, unity and confirming encouragement.

Every pope has carried these responsibilities throughout history. The Holy Spirit leads the Church and guides whoever is the Holy Father, but human limitations and historical circumstances also shape how those responsibilities are fulfilled. Pope Francis has clearly followed this Petrine ministry, but in a particular way. For example, he has steadfastly affirmed the truths of faith. At the same time, he is not satisfied just to enunciate those truths. He wants to find ways to bring people along so that they can embrace them with their lives. Sometimes, as his predecessor Pope St. John Paul II indicated, this involves a "law of gradualism." So often, we cannot snap into the ideal all at once. We need help, and we need to be brought along on our unfolding life journeys. Some commentators have said this approach dilutes the truth. I think that it actually reflects a deeper respect for the truth of faith that is meant to be lived and embodied and not just professed.

When Pope Francis fosters the unity of the Church, he insures that the Church is like a "loving mother" welcoming all her children, especially those on the margins who may have been excluded, for example, the poor, the distressed and even the sinful. Some people view this dimly as giving an "easy pass" to those who don't deserve it. I think, on the contrary, that Pope Francis sees this expansive welcome as a manifestation of the mercy of God that brings us all together in God's own family.

At the Last Supper in Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells Peter to confirm his brothers and sisters, that is, to encourage them. Pope Francis takes up this task in his own remarkable way. He encourages the Church by nudging all of us to go in new directions to which the Lord is summoning us in our time. Take the initiative, he says to all believers, to share the Gospel in your words, your lives and in your work. Be missionary disciples. Some take this as dangerous innovation. It seems to me to be a retrieval of what Cardinal Martini called "the freshness of the Gospel."

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, is indeed much beloved, probably because he projects so much warmth and love for everyone. Even more importantly, he has fulfilled his pledge to carry on Peter's ministry captured in the words: fidelity, unity, encouragement. For that, we need to thank God and pray for Pope Francis' strength to persevere. ■

Parish Pastoral Council Meeting

Minutes of December 3, 2019 Meeting Ministry Center - Fr. Joseph Firnbach Meeting Room

Present: Fr. David F. Ryan (had to leave early due to receiving a call from a parishioner to come to Good Shepherd Hospital), Marty Bush, John Ergastolo, Melissa Larson, Julie Morones, Christina Sikorski, Pam Lynch, Tom Purtell, Doug Samz, and Kyle Schmitt Not Present: Laura Angelini (excused), Mimi McGlauchlin (excused), Judy Reilly (excused), Deacon John Sfire (excused)

Fr. Ryan had to leave the meeting for an emergency so he asked Chair of the Parish Pastoral Council Tom Purtell to preside at the meeting. Chair Purtell began the meeting at 6 pm with the Renew My Church prayer.

1. FIX IT CAMPAIGN – Doug Samz, Finance Council Chair

- a. Operational Update - PPC postponed an update from Deacon John Sfire and Jason Sfire because they were not able to attend the meeting, due to an emergency.
- b. Financial Update – Doug Samz
Doug Samz indicated that the parish is in good shape for total contributions although the target of $1.7 million has yet to be achieved. Approximately $1,482,000 has been collected as of this date with $13,000 outstanding. Doug Samz and Pam Lynch are not concerned about collectability. Pam Lynch indicated that a new mailing went out to prospective new donors that have not donated in the past. Another 20 or so donors pledged and paid. Doug Samz reconciles contributions with Pam Lynch on a quarterly basis. Through September 30, 2019, there was $130,000 available in the bank. It was discussed what projects are remaining to complete, which is the flooring in the church and the area around the Altar. Christina Sikorski, PTO Chair, brought up the suggestion of adding railings on either side of the altar.

2. PARISH SCHOOL UPDATE - Kyle Schmitt, Principal

Kyle Schmitt distributed a sheet showing Enrollment Projections which is Attachment A. The points highlighted were as follows:

- a. Based on previous trends from previous years, the Preschool program is expected to be at full capacity again for the 2020-2021 school year with at least three classrooms and possibly a fourth class depending on interest shown in the summer of 2020.
- b. Two grades have a projected net re-enrollment rate of less than 100% which are the 4 year old preschool class and the fifth grade class.
  - i. The 4 yr. old preschool class includes PreK, and the net re-enrollment rate is projected to be about 54%. The reason for this is many parents send their child(ren) to SFDS because it is a great value for preschool in the area with high quality staff, but then they send their children to the free public schools for K-8 so enrollment drops off.
  - ii. From fifth to sixth grade, the school loses approximately 10% of students that transition to the public junior high again for cost saving reasons.
- c. Kyle Schmitt then reviewed the other school updates noted on his handout.
  - i. The theme for the 2019-2020 is the "Best Year Ever". Christy Sikorski said they are trying to engage parents more and be more inclusive and collaborative.
  - ii. Kyle Schmitt discussed the school initiatives for the current school year were set last March and are the following:
    1. Focusing on improving the K-8 writing and MS Math curriculums
    2. STREAMS development - Stands for "Science, Technology, English, Arts, Math, and Social Studies. They already had the kick-off for expanding these programs.
    3. The School Board Workstreams are ideas that came out of the Bright Minds Survey and feedback has been or is still being obtained. Kyle highlighted the following areas:
      - a. Communication - The new website is being redesigned.
      - b. Marketing and Enrollment -There is new branding being implemented (i.e. new logo on uniforms)
      - c. Fundraising - This is an ongoing project.

Catholic Schools Week
Saint Francis de Sales School

The other weekend a few 8th Graders from our 2007 & 2018 Blue Ribbon School shared their essays with our Parish after Holy Communion at each of the Masses on Saturday and Sunday.

Jennifer Bukowsk

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit" (John 15:5). If there is one thing that my Catholic education has taught me it is that all things are possible with God and you need God in order to do all things. I have been attending Catholic school since I was three years old, and my Catholic education is something that I hold very near and dear to my heart. A strong Catholic education has allowed me to learn, serve, lead, and succeed. I have learned many things during my time as a student in Catholic schools. Although I received a great education in areas such as math and science, what I learned in those classes is nowhere near as important as what I learned about myself and my faith. It was in a Catholic school that I learned about Jesus's miracles and how to pray the Creed. It was where I prepared for my First Holy Communion and joined my classmates in prayer. I learned what it meant to be Catholic and I learned how to love God. I specifically remember one day in fourth grade when our teacher told the class that Jesus is our friend. I also recall singing a song called "Footprints." This song said how God would always be by our side and carry us when we can no longer walk. Catholic school is where I learned many things about my faith. I learned what it means to truly serve others during my Catholic education. We had many drives at my Catholic Parish School to help the community in need. One food drive in particular in eighth grade was a huge success. The two eighth grade homerooms decided to have a competition to see who could bring in the most food, and both classes took this very seriously. We ended up bringing in many non-perishable food items for our parish's food pantry. However, I also learned that I can serve others simply with kind words. I learned this through the friends I have made at Catholic school. Whenever I feel down, my friends are always there with smiles, kind words, and hugs. I learned how to serve others emotionally from them. I learned how to serve others during my time attending a Catholic school. Catholic education has given me the tools to become the leader I am today. As a young girl, I was extremely shy and timid. I was scared of talking with other people and standing up for myself, but as time went on, I began to gain confidence. I learned that God had given me gifts, and I am to share these gifts with those around me. One of the gifts that God has blessed me with is the gift of being a good listener. By listening to others, I am able to see different perspectives of the same situation and help lead people toward a solution. He has also given me the wonderful gift of five younger siblings, which has helped me build my leadership skills and responsibility. Catholic education has given me the building blocks to lead. I have learned what it means to truly succeed due to my Catholic education. I used to wonder what success truly was. Was it wealth? Fame? Power? It wasn't until after praying during my Catholic education that I began to realize what success was. True success was happiness. People who are happy are successful, and people who follow God are happy. Perhaps this is not the conventional definition of success, but we are successful when we live our lives in the name of the Lord. During my time at Catholic School I learned that success can only be reached by following God. Throughout my years at Catholic school I have learned how to learn, serve, lead, and succeed. I am so grateful for all the kind people who have helped me in my faith formation and for the amazing opportunities that I have been given to deepen my relationship with God. For God is the vine, and we are the branches, as all that we do stems from Him.

Pastoral Associate, St Mary of Vernon

Lectors have a critical role in the celebration of the Mass. Because lectors proclaim not just any word, but the Word of God, it is essential that they develop the skills required to communicate God's Message competently.

Through the use of voice, eye contact, and personal presence, lectors help God's Word come alive for the assembly.

This training will provide the skills and self-confidence needed for those who wish to become lectors in their own parish. Open to adults and high school students. This training is for NEW ministers only.

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen
