THE INSIDE SHOWS

In this third Sunday of our reading from the Sermon on the Plain, Jesus speaks of the inner soul and its outer expression. He uses images as he teaches. He addresses all of us.

Jesus sees a plumb line connecting the soul with the soul’s expression—words and actions. He uses exaggeration to drive home his point. We are urged to clear out the debris that blinds us. He knows that we have an uncanny ability to be blind to our own weaknesses, though they be as big as a board. He knows, too, how willingly we seem to ferret out others’ smallest speck-like flaws.

And this, too, is for our general consumption; solid old goodness and solid old badness will show eventually. The old Latin saying, which echoes Jesus’ images, is true: “What is bred in the bone will out in the flesh.” By and by, the inside will show through.

HOLY SPIRIT

In Baptism, your parents’ faith stood in for you. Now God desires YOUR authentic personal response. How? Pray. Listen! Be open to an ever-greater yielding to the Holy Spirit’s Presence. Follow Jesus. Be His disciple. Surrender to Him unconditionally. Put Him first in your life. Be led into deeper fidelity and freedom in the Father through his Son ... become HOLY.

Catholic Schools Week

Saint Francis de Sales School

The weekend of January 27th, 2019 a few 8th Graders from our 2007 & 2018 Blue Ribbon School shared their essays with our Parish after Holy Communion at each of the masses on Saturday and Sunday. Great job, Ben Swiat, Katie McCormick, Mary Huels, Georgia Pissios, Francisca Alivia, Nathan DiLegge, and Bradley Schaefer!

An Essay by Katie McCormick
January 15, 2019

Good morning. My name is Katie McCormick. I have been attending St. Francis de Sales School since I was three years old and I am in my eighth and final year, "the home stretch" I've called it. As I work toward leaving this school, one question I've asked myself is "what opportunities have I been given by going to St. Francis?" Now I have realized I have been given so many advantages here that I might not have gotten anywhere else. And I want to thank those who have given them to me.

By attending St. Francis, I have received the knowledge and understanding of life skills. Ever since preschool, I have been taught the foundations of friendship. I have known most of my best friends for most of my life. After I leave St. Francis, I will have to say goodbye to many good friends that have been with me since the beginning. But I don't think of it as "goodbye." In high school, I will make new friends but I still can hold on to my old friends. I have been so lucky to have seen these people I care about every day at school for nine years, and I consider this a big opportunity.

St. Francis has a valuable curriculum. Here at St. Francis we host an annual speech contest. Every year, students must prepare, memorize, and perform a speech or poem in front of their class and teacher. Some students then move on to perform in front of judges, and the final winners are awarded medals as they perform in front of the entire school. The speech contest, as much as some students despise it, is actually very beneficial. Students are taught how to use their voices to inspire others at an early age. They are also taught to use their voices in their own writing in language arts class. Thank you, teachers, who have taught us these skills.

I have also been given the opportunity of being involved in extracurricular activities, such as sports and the spring musical. I have been on the basketball team since third grade and the volleyball team since fifth grade. From these teams, I have learned important values like teamwork and perseverance. I have been taught that losing is just as important as winning and that I should never give up on myself or my teammates. I also have learned that hard work pays off. This year, our eighth grade volleyball team won conference. This was not because we were just good at the sport. We won because we worked hard, never gave up, and played as a team. St. Francis' sports have taught me many important life lessons, and for that, I am grateful.

I also have been in our spring musical since sixth grade. I am very thankful for the chance to express myself and do something I am passionate about. So, thank you coaches and those who have donated time and money for allowing students like me to experience both the wins and losses in sports and life.

Another great thing about St. Francis is that I have been taught the most important of thing all: the value of faith, hope, and love. A few years ago, I remember playing with my dog in my backyard, the same thing any other kid might do after school. I ran to the bottom of the hill my house sits on and looked straight into the sky. At this moment, watching the clouds move and the tree limbs sway from side to side in the wind made me realize something. God is always with me. No matter what I'm doing, even if it is just a thing any kid might do, He is always with me. Growing up in a school like St. Francis where I have learned so much about my faith has made such an impact on my life. Thank you teachers and Father Ryan for allowing me to express my faith freely and for helping me grow in my beliefs. And thank you parishioners for funding St. Francis de Sales School. Without you, none of us students would be where we are today and would get to where we are headed in the future.

Women's Retreat 2019

On February 1-3, the St. Francis de Sales Women's Retreat took place at Marytown (Shrine of Maximilian Kolbe), welcoming 98 women from twenty-one suburbs and four more from other states to a three-day weekend filled with inspirational talks, small group time, beautiful music, and fellowship. The retreat was led by Father Britto Berchmans, current pastor of St. Paul of the Cross Parish in Park Ridge and former associate pastor of St. Anne's in Barrington. The theme of "Love Notes: How to Build A Deeper Relationship With Jesus" was examined and given powerful insight through Father Britto's highly engaging and thought-provoking commentaries, mostly infused with his trademark humor. The largest women's retreat ever for our parish, there were fourteen small groups that met throughout the weekend to discuss topics such as forgiveness, prayer, and knowing Jesus personally. The weekend also offered time for adoration, reconciliation, rosary, rest, touring the Holocaust museum on-site, and more. For more information on future women's retreats, contact Rose Weismann at 847-975-8005 or Rose.Weismann@gmail.com.

OUR TIME TO SHARE

a cancer support group

Wednesday, March 13th

A support group for cancer patients and survivors continues to serve the St. Francis de Sales community. Our next meeting will take place on Wednesday at 7 pm in the Church Gathering Space. We offer a safe place to share, to release, to offer comfort and to be comforted... a place to feel loved. Strength, hope, faith and courage... this is what we can offer each other. Please contact Mary Manson at (847) 382-3051 and let's begin our journey together.

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves." - Matthew 11:28-29

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

Emmaus House of Hospitality supports members of our local communities in need. We "harvest" food from local groceries and restaurants that we then distribute at our weekly Community Dinners. We have two openings to rotate as part of a team: (1) Tuesday 8 am Ela/Lake Zurich Jewel pick-ups, and (2) Sunday 9 or 10 am Algonquin Jewel pick-ups. You simply bring the items from the Jewel to Fr. Valker Hall where they are stored to be distributed each Sunday. Please contact Becky Corrado at 847-707-0148 or rcorrado@allstate.com if you'd like to join our team of food harvesters to help with one of these roles. It's a great way to give back to the community!

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prawl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers.

Please call Fr. Ryan (847-726-4723) or Ministry of Care (847-438-6622) when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion.

Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.

Only two defining entities have ever offered to die for you.
 One was Jesus Christ. The other is the American Soldier.
