This column is written by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

Do you want to be like Jesus? It's a struggle; trying to be good... As you strive to be holy you become a disciple. If you want holiness, ask Jesus to change you, shine His light into your darkness, form you into His disciple. Sometimes his invitation to be a disciple inspires us, sometimes terrifies us, most times it's both feelings together. Pope Francis invites all Christians to open themselves to a daily personal encounter with Jesus. Our exterior life needs to draw from our interior growth in Jesus. Lord Jesus, change me from the inside out!!

Into His Likeness, Edward Sri, p. 36, 41

LIFELONG SERVICE

“I am going fishing.” What an announcement! If asked who made it, and not told it was a Bible quote, we might guess “Grandpa” or “Uncle Fred,” or admit, “I said that last summer!” But it is a Bible quote, from today’s Gospel. The person who said it also once declared, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” Yes, it’s Peter! So today’s announcement seems quite the comedown. Last Sunday Jesus said, “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” But Peter seems determined to return to his pre-apostolic occupation, until Jesus intervenes, making Peter’s later announcement deeper, “Lord, you know that I love you,” and Peter’s apostolic calling clearer, “Tend my sheep.” Peter does so. Acts presents the consequences: Peter declares, “We must obey God rather than men.” As Revelation proclaims, “Worthy is the Lamb”—to receive Peter’s lifelong service, and ours.

Deacon's CornerIl Maseed Kham-Hakkan Kham
Christ is Risen - He is truly Risen

Today, Easter Sunday, is the only time I get to use that expression all year long. And how saying it brings me so much joy and happiness, for I know when I use it, it is referring to the Glorious Resurrection of Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. What a glorious time it is for all Catholics to celebrate Easter Sunday, the day brings to an end this Lenten Season.

But it is truly not an end, it is a beginning for all of us. A beginning that began a little over 2,000 years ago and will not culminate until Jesus comes the second time. And while we do not know when that will be, it is most important to be prepared at all times. Not just by attending Mass, especially not just on Christmas and Easter, or even every Sunday. We must be prepared for the second coming of Jesus Christ 24/7. And while I know we try to do our best, society is filled with so many distractions to keep us from being in the State of Grace at all times.

Jesus knows that too. That is why He suffered a horrible death on the Cross, only to rise again on the third day. And why did He do that? SO OUR SINS MAY BE FORGIVEN, and while we know that is true, I don't believe it gives us the freedom to continue sinning in the same way just because the Church has given us the ability to seek forgiveness in reconciliation. We must exhibit some responsibility in trying not to continue the same pattern of sinning as we progress in our spiritual journey.

So thinking about that idea, let's go back to the many DCs and homilies I wrote and delivered for the past 40 days of Lent. If you recall, I wrote and spoke about "making a change in our life this Lenten Season that will last forever". Not just giving something up for 40 days, but do something that will last well past the end of Lent. I have worked hard every Lenten Season to do just that and I have found that I have much more peace in my life, especially with my relationship with Our Lord. I am sure you recall me referring to the phrase; "I want to do something better tomorrow than I did today". And I have applied that theory to my life, not just my spiritual life, but my whole life, be it with family, friends, business, etc.

Sometimes it is not so easy to strive to improve on everything you do. Why? Because the evil one is there every time you turn around. He never sleeps, he never takes a day off, he is always trying to steer us off-course, and never in a positive way. But if there is anything you ever believe I tell you, know that belief in Jesus Christ is always stronger and will always overcome Satan, and all we have to do is ask for His help. I believe that is the biggest challenge we have to overcome in our life, at least it is for me. Think about it. To know that our souls can be saved just by asking the Holy Spirit for help in our time of need, almost sounds too easy. And trust me, it is that easy.

So as we exit this Lenten Season, as I've said before, it is never too late to make a change. A change that will benefit us for the rest of our lives. And I believe the easiest way to do that is to change our focus. MAKE OUR PRIMARY FOCUS JESUS CHRIST. The key word here is "primary". What I mean by that is that we don't have to change the way we live or change our job or change our family, all we have to do is make a shift in how we think. How we address the challenges of the day, the challenges of our job, the challenges of our family and always ask yourself; WWJD (WHAT WOULD JESUS DO?) And if you do that, I can tell you from experience that your life will be more peaceful, happier, holier than it has ever been before. Why not give it a try. You have nothing to lose and so much to gain.

My blessings to all this Holy Week,

Deacon John

...it is never too late to make a change. A change that will benefit us for the rest of our lives. And I believe the easiest way to do that is to...
MAKE OUR PRIMARY FOCUS JESUS CHRIST.

...all we have to do is make a shift in how we think.
How we address the challenges of the day...

Statement of Cardinal Cupich on the Vatican City State's New Child Protection Policies

Arch Link

Sat 3/30/2019 10:39 AM

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

This message is for all priests, deacons, parishes, and pastoral center employees and its agencies.

I welcome the release today of three important documents by which Pope Francis makes clear that everyone in the Church has a “duty to report abuses (of minors and vulnerable adults) to competent authorities and to cooperate with them in the activities of prevention and response.” This is so, the Holy Father remarks, because “the protection of minors and vulnerable persons is an integral part of the Gospel message that the Church and all her members are called to spread throughout the world.”

The first of these documents is an executive order (motu proprio), which issues both specific laws and pastoral guidelines applicable to Vatican City State and the embassies of the Holy See around the world. It is true that few, if any children reside in the Vatican. Yet, it is precisely that fact, along with the inclusion of the most advanced international norms in shaping these documents, which demonstrates that Pope Francis is offering a template for the global church. Specifically, these documents released today put into law and/or provide the following measures:

- All crimes related to abuse of minors and vulnerable adults, not just those of a sexual nature, but any mistreatment, will be prosecuted even if the victim does not file an official report;
- Everyone in the Vatican, the members of the Roman Curia and diplomatic staff serving in embassies around the world are mandatory reporters and there are sanctions for failure to report;
- The Vicar of Vatican City has the obligation to report to the Promoter of Justice any information of abuse that “is not manifestly unfounded”, and to remove the alleged perpetrator of the abuse from pastoral activities as a precautionary measure;
- Anyone found guilty of abuse will be “removed from office” in the Vatican. If the person is a priest, all the canonical norms already in force, will be put into practice;
- A qualified expert will be appointed to offer pastoral care and accompaniment for victims of abuse in the Vatican;
- Guidelines are now in place regarding proper behavior of adults, i.e., adults must “always be visible to others when they are in the presence of minors,” it is strictly forbidden “to establish a preferential relationship with a single minor, to address a minor in an offensive way or to engage in inappropriate or sexually allusive conduct, to ask a minor to keep a secret, to photograph or to film a minor without the written consent of his parents;”
- A 20-year prescription period (statute of limitations) has been introduced, that, “in the case of offense to a minor” begins on his or her eighteenth birthday. In Italy, these crimes could not be prosecuted more than four years after the crime itself was committed.

We should not overlook the fact that these documents come just a month after the Holy Father’s meeting with the presidents of the episcopal conferences and leaders of religious women and men from across the world. On the last day of the meeting, the pope called for an all-out battle against child abuse. Today’s development should be viewed as the first in a series of concrete steps the pope indicated would come in short order. We can anticipate the release of a handbook or ‘vademecum’ for the universal Church, the revision of chapter 6 of the Code of Canon Law, the issuance of procedures for implementing the Apostolic Letter “Like a Loving Mother”, which deals with misconduct and mishandling on the part of bishops and the creation of task forces to assist under-resourced dioceses in bringing their norms for protecting minors up-to-date and to deal with these cases effectively.

Much work needs yet to be done, but today sets the Catholic Church on a path from which there is no turning back.

Catholic Call to Action!

Act NOW to Protect Women and Children

HB2495/SB1492: Known as the New York Abortion Bill!*

- Makes abortion a fundamental right; for any reason or no reason up to birth
- Repeals the ban on Partial-Birth Abortion. A 100% repeal!
- REMOVES ALL RESTRICTIONS on abortion in Illinois!
- Repeals legal protection for ALL doctors and hospitals who decline to participate in abortions; even Catholic ones.
- Requires private health insurance to fully cover the cost of abortion.
- Removes abortion clinics from a regulatory framework designed for significant medical procedures.
- Removes the requirement that only doctors can perform abortions.
- SEEKS TO DEFINE ABORTION AS BASIC HEALTHCARE, AT NO COST!

*This bill allows for abortion up until birth for any or no reason!

HB2467/SB1594: Repeal of the parental notice of abortion law

- Will no longer require the notice of at least one parent when an underage girl, as young as 12 years old, seeks an abortion.
- This bill effectively takes the power and control from parents and transfers it to coercive boyfriends, sex traffickers, bullies, classmates, educators, and to the underage girls; who themselves may not know the risks of such a surgery.
- Parents are ultimately responsible for the well-being of their children, so they should be the ones to grant permission, for any surgeries... especially dangerous abortion procedures.

A PRIVATE CHOICE. A SECRET BURDEN.

Lectors have a critical role in the celebration of the Mass. Because lectors proclaim not just any word, but the Word of God, it is essential that they develop the skills required to communicate God's message competently.

Through the use of voice, eye contact and personal presence, lectors help God's Word come alive for the assembly.

This training will provide the skills and self-confidence needed for those who wish to become lectors in their own parish. Open to adults and high school students.

The Importance of Eucharistic Adoration

Pope Francis leads Benediction outside the Basilica of St. Mary Major at the conclusion of the Corpus Christi procession in Rome May 30. (CNS photo/Paul Haring)The importance of Eucharistic Adoration is shown in the fact that the Church has a ritual that regulates it: the Rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction. This is an extension of the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which occurs in every Mass: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament flows from the sacrifice of the Mass and serves to deepen our hunger for Communion with Christ and the rest of the Church. The Rite concludes with the ordained minister blessing the faithful with the Blessed Sacrament. - taken from the USCCB website

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prawl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
