How do we respond as Disciples of Jesus in challenging times?

Jesus tells us to keep our eyes fixed on Him. Jesus shows us that we have a loving God who is with us always and has a good plan for our future. Our HOPE and TRUST is in Him.

St. Francis de Sales invites you to participate in ways to stay focused on Jesus:

Parish Days of Fasting & Prayer On Wednesdays lets come together to fast and pray as a parish.

Throughout Scripture, prayer and fasting have been used as powerful acts of love. Fasting is normally thought of as limiting yourself to one meal, but there are many things we can fast from - social media, coffee, snacking. Whatever you decide to fast from, let it bring you closer to Jesus.

Virtual Sunday Mass Join us virtually on Sundays at 9:30am on Facebook LIVE and YouTube for Mass.

Virtual Weekday Masses Join us each weekday at Noon on Facebook LIVE and YouTube for Daily Mass.

Virtual Weekday Rosary Join us following daily weekday Mass on Facebook LIVE and YouTube in a community rosary.

Virtual Adoration Join us virtually on Wednesdays of fasting and prayer, from 1:30-3pm on Facebook LIVE and YouTube for Adoration.

Sacrament of Reconciliation Call Father Ryan 847 726-4723.

Grocery/medicine pick up For those in our community who are unable to leave their house -- contact the Ministry Center, 847 438-6622 for more information or to help.

Scripture reading at home While we can not be together celebrating Mass, we can still read the daily readings <http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings/031720.cf> or read a portion of the Gospels, God's Word to us, each day.

If the Holy Spirit inspires you with other ideas to help during this time, please contact Judy Reilly at 630 338-7543.

May 10, 2020: Fifth Sunday of Easter

"The greatest defect we have in our prayers and in all that happens to us, particularly in that which concerns tribulations, is our lack of confidence....Faith is great or little according to the measure of our confidence."

VOCATION

Roman Catholics in the United States spend a good deal of time speaking of "vocation" and the manner in which each of us discerns our vocation for life. In today's apostolic letter, however, Peter gives us the "cornerstone" of our vocation, the description of what each of us is called to first and foremost by our baptism. He describes our vocation as "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of [God's] own, so that you may announce the praises" of Christ, who called us out of darkness into light (1 Peter 2:9). All of us, no matter what path our life's vocation may take us down, have been chosen by God, made holy, and anointed as priests in the high priesthood of Christ through baptism. All of this, so that we may announce the praises of Christ. Vocation is given for proclamation at home, in the workplace—wherever life takes us—in service, in word, and in sacrament.

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

Jesus says He has a place for us, a dwelling place which He will prepare. We need a place. We need a home. Today is Mother's Day. Mothers give life, love and comfort. They create "home" for us. Mary created a holy home for Jesus. She can help us reach our eternal home. Matthew Kelly reminds us that as Catholics we need to find a genuine place for Mary in our spirituality, not just a "Hallmark Card" acknowledgement.

Deacon's Corner

It is Sunday afternoon and I thought I'd get a jump on this week's DC. For the past five weeks, I have been on the altar M-F at noon and Sunday at 9:30 live-streaming Mass with Fr. Ryan. Today's gospel was the Road to Emmaus (Lk 24:13-35) as it was on Easter Sunday and Wednesday, the 15th within the Octave of Easter. I did the homily at all three of those Masses and felt it would be a good topic for this week's DC.

Doing the homily on the same gospel three times in two weeks posed a bit of a challenge since I didn't want to be repetitive in my presentation, so I did a little extra research on the subject. I found that archaeologists were never able to identify the location of Emmaus or the road thereto. I realized that was because Emmaus is everywhere. Emmaus is found in every Church when Christ's Word in scripture and the Eucharist are given to us, just as He did with Cleopas and the second disciple. This is how Jesus Christ identifies Himself to us.

Looking back 2,000 years, His disciples had hoped, believed, followed Jesus....but now He is dead. So many left everything to follow Jesus and they now felt that their lives, their future, their dreams have been shattered. During this time, all of Jesus' disciples were still in hiding for their own lives, at least that's what they thought they should be doing. It took Jesus numerous times to visit them after His Resurrection to assure them of "who He is". As I said in one of my homilies, I believe the disciples were expecting the Messiah to come as a warrior to overthrow the Roman Empire. They were not expecting the Messiah to come as their savior, with the full intention of "forgiving their sins".

Take a moment and think about what I call the "D" words; disappointment, doubt, defeat, discouragement, depression, despair and even death. You see, I believe that we can all identify with the feelings of these two disciples in some, if not many, ways. And that is OK. You see, Jesus reveals Himself to all of us every time in His Word and the Sacrament of the Eucharist. When we receive Jesus in this way, in order for Him not to vanish as He did with His disciples, we must keep our eyes of faith on Him and Him alone. The message was simple. The Word of God sets our hearts on fire and the Eucharist opens our eyes, renews us, heal us and recreates us. And that is what is available to all of us as it was to the two disciples on the road to Emmaus.

We all have our own road to Emmaus. Yes, we have and/or will have doubts, disappointment, etc. over something that has or will happen in our lives. The question we always should ask ourselves is "how do we overcome those feelings?" My suggestion is to pick up our bible, read scripture and attend Mass to receive the Eucharist. Jesus Christ never leaves us, He is always with us. It is our own human emotions that create the barrier between ourselves and the Risen Lord.

Ask yourself the question, "how many times does Jesus Christ come to us and we don't recognize Him?"

I promise you there have been many times for all of us. You see, Jesus is in the face of our children, our spouse, our friends, and even strangers we don't even know. But if we see Jesus in all who are before us, then you know what I mean. I want to leave you with this question; "how many times have we missed Jesus in our own lives?" Give that question some thought!

Tomorrow, Wednesday the 29th, I am finally having surgery to repair my ruptured Achilles tendon. The surgery has been put off three times due to "no elective surgeries". It looks like it will finally happen so I am asking for your thoughts and prayers for the surgery and recovery. I assure you that you are all in my prayers daily.

My Blessings to all,

Deacon John
