How do we respond as Disciples of Jesus in challenging times?

Jesus tells us to keep our eyes fixed on Him. Jesus shows us that we have a loving God who is with us always and has a good plan for our future. Our HOPE and TRUST is in Him.

St. Francis de Sales invites you to participate in ways to stay focused on Jesus:

Parish Days of Fasting & Prayer On Wednesdays let's come together to fast and pray as a parish.

Throughout Scripture, prayer and fasting have been used as powerful acts of love. Fasting is normally thought of as limiting yourself to one meal, but there are many things we can fast from - social media, coffee, snacking. Whatever you decide to fast from, let it bring you closer to Jesus.

Virtual Sunday Mass Join us virtually on Sundays at 9:30am on Facebook LIVE and YouTube for Mass.

Virtual Weekday Masses Join us each weekday at Noon on Facebook LIVE and YouTube for Daily Mass.

Virtual Weekday Rosary Join us following daily weekday Mass on Facebook LIVE and YouTube in a community rosary.

Virtual Adoration Join us virtually on Wednesdays of fasting and prayer, from 1:30-3pm on Facebook LIVE and YouTube for Adoration.

Sacrament of Reconciliation Call Father Ryan 847 726-4723.

Grocery/medicine pick up For those in our community who are unable to leave their house -- contact the Ministry Center, 847 438-6622 for more information or to help.

Scripture reading at home While we can not be together celebrating Mass, we can still read the daily readings <http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings/031720.cf> or read a portion of the Gospels, God's Word to us, each day.

If the Holy Spirit inspires you with other ideas to help during this time, please contact Judy Reilly at 630 338-7543.

"PUSHED" OUT ON MISSION

There is a delightful character in the original Dr. Dolittle Tales called the "Pushmi-Pullyu." It is a beast with two identical halves, with a head at each end. No matter which direction the beast walks, one end is the "push me" and the other is the "pull you." Today's feast is a bit like that in the life of the church. In the book of the Acts of the Apostles, it is the ascension of Christ that calls for the Holy Spirit, which consequently sends or "pushes" the church out on its mission. This is the message that we hear from the angels today as they tell the friends of Jesus not to look up into the clouds, but to get busy. It is the message of Jesus himself in Matthew's Gospel, as he sends them out to baptize. He also tells them, "I am with you always, until the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20). And it is this message, confident in faith that Jesus has ascended to shouts of joy, that "pulls" us along to our final destiny. The life of the faithful disciple, sent into the world on mission, will one day know the same risen, ascended glory. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

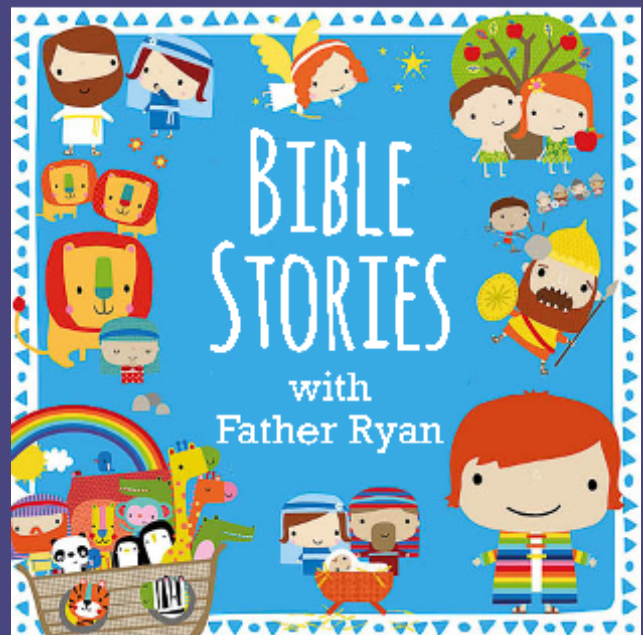

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

Just before He ascended, even as the disciples met Jesus for the last time on the designated mountain "...they worshiped, but they doubted..." Yet He commissioned them to "Go... and make disciples of all nations, baptizing...teaching... How could He trust these weak, doubting men to carry on? How can He ask us to do this? Who does he think we are? He knows we can do it --with His grace. "I am with you always until the end of the age." GO!

Deacon's Corner

Being homebound, so to speak, we all have the opportunity to think about what is taking place in our lives and what we deem to be important. Not that everything in our lives needs classification by level of importance, since I believe that if something is "in our lives", it should be important to each of us. And I am sure you will agree that we all have different things that we deem important. Not only to ourselves, but also in our family, in our workplace, in our "community", in our society, in our country and even in the world. I say that because we all seem to be connected in recent times by the internet and all levels of communication that take place and are ever evolving. So what does all this mean? What are we supposed to do with so much "stuff" being brought before us? How do we segregate/separate what should be most important in our lives, while we accept that we are all different? What are the common denominators that make us all one?

I just took a short break from writing to watch/listen to the 9:30 live-streamed Mass at St. Francis. This Sunday, Mother's Day, Deacon Bob did the homily, and it was very good. Thanks Bob. He spoke about something that I find helps to answer the questions I wrote above. Questions I wrote before I listened to his homily. Deacon Bob spoke about the importance, especially during this trying time in our lives, the importance of "community". And this struck a note with me, especially during this unusual and unprecedented time in our lives.

I know that we have in the past always spoken about "community". And while "community" has always had a special meaning in our lives, especially in our "faith community" here at St. Francis. I also know that all of you out there who are reading this today, while you are literally spread all over the globe, have your own "faith community". The wonderful thing about "community" is that it doesn't matter where we are or what "community" we are associated with, we are all one in Jesus Christ. For I believe that our "faith community" is not defined by the four walls of bricks and mortar. It is not defined by the Church or town we live in. It is defined by the people who make up the "community". And that is really the most simple answer and definition. You see, people make the difference. And the difference is not determined by how much money you have, what kind of house you live in or what kind of car you drive, or what your job is. It is determined by "how much you love Jesus Christ".

While this seems to be a subject I speak and write about a lot, I feel I can never say it enough. Remember the two most important Commandments; "love the Lord thy God and love your neighbor as yourselves". Yes, I know I say that a lot too, but again, I feel I can never say it enough. Today's (Sunday) Gospel, Jn 14:1-12, is a great teaching Gospel. It again shows how Jesus tried so hard to help His disciples understand "who He is and who they can be by believing in Him". How frustrating that must have been for Jesus to go through, especially after spending so much time with them. How they witnessed for three years all that Jesus had done and yet they still didn't seem to really understand "who Jesus was and is".

I am not sure how I would have related to Jesus Christ if I was there with Him 2,000 years ago. How about you? How would you have related to Jesus? Would you be asking Jesus the same questions that His disciples asked Him in today's Gospel? Maybe yes, maybe no. Whatever your answer might be, look at where we are today, 2,000 years later. For years, most of us have been taught the Word of God in school, in our homes, some in our workplaces, but most of all in our "faith communities". And for that, I know that I am most grateful. That I have been brought up in a country, in a "community" where my faith is not suppressed. We are free to "love the Lord thy God and love our neighbor as ourselves" without any fear of repercussions. So let's take advantage of that. Let's use our freedom to share our beliefs, not only within our own "community", but spread it throughout the world. Do that, and you will help allay all your fears.

My Blessings to all,

Deacon John

Our "faith community" is not defined by the four walls of bricks and mortar. It is not defined by the Church or town we live in. It is defined by the people who make up the "community".

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

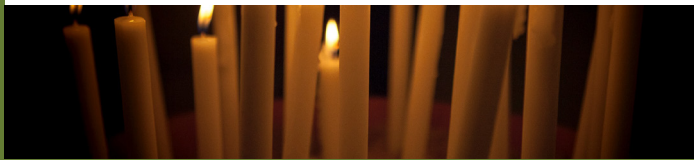

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen
