THE INBETWEEN

In between: we all find ourselves there from time to time—sometimes uncomfortably. Like in between money coming in and money going out, earning income and paying bills. In between customer and manager, diner and chef: any honest server trying to serve both. In between theory and practice, ideal and reality: everyone from parents to pastors. Ask the kids—or parishioners! This Sunday, in between Ascension and Pentecost, reminds us we're in between Jesus' departure and glorious return—sometimes uncomfortably. Though Jesus promises in Revelation, "I am coming soon," Acts shows Stephen tragically called home first. But Pope Francis urges us not to become "sourpusses," as if living Gospel love is impossible in between. Today's Gospel shows Jesus praying for those about to betray, deny, and desert him, but also praying "for those who will believe in me through their word." Us! "So that they"—we—"may all be one."

This column is written by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

Practical ways to be like Jesus:

Give a gift for "no reason"; write your teenager a loving note; hold your temper when your toddler makes a mess; thank God for food on the table; cheer up a friend when you're "too busy"; be totally attentive when listening to another; stand up for a moral truth; avoid discouragement when things are difficult; look for a humorous side; let your kids or spouse pick the movie; say hello/smile at a stranger; be calm in the parking lot; praise another; avoid the spotlight; offer to do chores; get up early to pray; joyfully accept your spouse's annoying habit; pray in the check-out line.... How many more can you think of?

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Pope Francis Issues Global Mandatory Reporting Law for Sexual Abuse and Cover-up

The Holy Father's motu proprio "Vos estis lux mundi" strengthens the Church's response to abuse allegations and cover-up around the world

Chicago, IL (May 9, 2019) – As part of the commitment of the Catholic Church to protect minors and vulnerable people, the Holy Father has established a universal Church law by a motu proprio, "Vos estis lux mundi," which creates new requirements for the reporting, handling and investigating sexual abuse and the mishandling of such misconduct, including cover-up, to and by Church authorities. This universal law goes into effect June 1, 2019 and includes measures already in use in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Vos estis lux mundi is among the concrete measures called for by the Holy Father at the February 2019 Meeting on the Protection of Minors in the Church. The first was Pope Francis' March 26 motu proprio and related documents, which made the reporting of sexual abuse of minors and vulnerable adults in the Vatican City State and the Roman Curia mandatory for all officials. Vos estis lux mundi extends that obligation worldwide. "While this new law validates many of the procedures already in place in the Archdiocese of Chicago and in the United States, it provides a framework for the bishops in this country to adopt measures at our June meeting that will both implement the pope's executive order and address the issue of holding everyone in the Church accountable," said Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, archbishop of Chicago.

What are the provisions of this law?

- This law requires Church leaders throughout the world to offer spiritual, medical and psychological support to victims and their families as appropriate. The Archdiocese of Chicago's Office for Assistance Ministry has offered these services for nearly three decades.
- Dioceses must establish publicly accessible systems for reporting sexual abuse and other sexual misconduct, as well as for dealing with the mishandling of such misconduct, including cover-up, before June 1, 2020. The archdiocese has such systems and regularly encourages those who have experienced abuse to come forward.
- Vos estis lux mundi mandates that all clerics and members of religious orders within the global Church report clergy sexual abuse and the cover-up of such misconduct to Church authorities, including when these offenses were committed by bishops or religious superiors, regardless of when they occurred.
- Vos estis lux mundi confirms the duty to follow the reporting requirements of local civil jurisdictions. The archdiocese has reported all allegations to civil authorities, regardless of whether the accused is deceased or a diocesan clergy person or a member of a religious order.
- Sexual acts carried out through violence or use of intimidation, including offenses against seminarians or novices, are subject to mandatory reporting and investigation.
- This law protects those who report abuse from recriminations of any kind.
- Vos estis lux mundi requires metropolitan bishops to investigate allegations of sexual abuse and the mishandling or cover-up of such misconduct by bishops and religious superiors in a timely and effective manner.
- It encourages the inclusion of lay people in such investigations. Lay people are already integral to the investigatory process in this archdiocese through our independent review board comprised of victim survivors and experts in the fields of counselling, law enforcement and child care.
- Investigations of accused bishops or leaders of religious orders are to be carried out at the local level, whether by archbishops or superiors of religious orders, unless there are conflicts of interest. In such cases, the law provides for an appropriate alternative. The law allows for lay experts to be used in the process.

How does this law work?

- Anyone can forward an allegation against a diocesan cleric and/or member of a religious order to the relevant bishop and/or religious superior for investigation. Other measures for reporting can also be adopted to assure accessibility and transparency. All reporting requirements to civil authorities are to be observed.
- Once a bishop or religious superior receives an allegation, he must forward it to the relevant local Church authority, the metropolitan archbishop of a given region or the superior general ("supreme moderator") of the religious order. The allegation also must be forwarded to the Holy See.
- The metropolitan archbishop or supreme moderator must then investigate the allegation in a timely manner. If the metropolitan archbishop or supreme moderator is accused or subject to a conflict of interest, another person, who is not in a conflict, is chosen by the Holy See.
- Those tasked with carrying out such investigations are encouraged to engage the help of lay experts — including, for example, members of the existing review boards of many dioceses. Our conference can adopt guidelines to standardize the use of lay people in the process throughout the dioceses of the United States.
- Once the investigation is complete, the results are forwarded to the relevant office of the Roman Curia, which must act promptly in accord with set timelines.

The Archdiocese of Chicago takes all allegations of sexual misconduct seriously and encourages anyone who feels he or she has been sexually abused by a priest, deacon, religious or lay employee to come forward. Complete information about reporting sexual abuse can be found on the Archdiocesan website at www.archchicago.org.

Pope Francis Issues Global Mandatory Reporting Law

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

Blessings to you in this joyful season of Easter. In keeping with my pledge to update you on the Church's efforts regarding safeguarding of children, I want to share an important step taken by Pope Francis. This past Friday he published an executive order mandating that all bishops implement a new universal law requiring all dioceses and religious orders to report abuse of minors and vulnerable adults. The new law provides the process for investigating abuse by any member of the hierarchy, including cardinals, bishops and priests as well as religious men and women. There is also a process for investigating the mishandling of such cases by bishops. Now, all bishops' conferences and religious congregations in every country around the world will have to meet more rigorous standards.

This unprecedented development comes less than three months after the Holy Father's meeting in Rome with all religious superiors and presidents of bishops' conferences from around the world. On that occasion the Pope promised concrete action. The announcement today, along with the norms he published earlier for the Vatican City State, demonstrate his resolve to put an end to cover ups and take decisive action to rid the Church of the scourge of abuse of minors. For your convenience, you can read the full statement the Archdiocese released on the law. I invite you to share this information with your family members and friends. As I noted in that statement: "While this new law validates many of the procedures already in place in the Archdiocese of Chicago and in the United States, it provides a framework for the bishops in this country to adopt measures at are June meeting that will both implement the Pope's executive order and address the issue of holding everyone in the Church accountable." As our auxiliary bishops and I prepare to attend that meeting in a few weeks, I pledged to you once again that I will do my best to see that our response in June, as well as our ongoing efforts in this regard, are marked by responsibility, accountability and transparency.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Blase Cardinal Cupich

Deacon's Corner

It is 4:15AM and I am going through the news available online before I begin my day. And it seems to me that there is one glaring point that stands out in many of the stories. But before I go on, I want to be clear that while I used the word "news", I strongly feel that the media tends, more often than not, to distort the facts surrounding most of the stories they report. Negativity and violence seem to be the overriding topic that is put in front of us no matter what the real story might be.

That glaring point I was referring to above is the "lack of respect" that our society seems to have adopted in lieu of following the guidelines of Our Lord to "love you neighbor as yourself". And sometimes I come to the conclusion that maybe most people just don't like themselves anymore so they live in the state of anger and disdain toward themselves as well as others.

I know for myself, I have tried to live my life to the best of my ability showing "respect" to all those around me. Not because someone might be in a higher position in the corporate world, not because someone has more money, not because of where someone lives, but because we are all children of God no matter what our station in life is at any given time.

I have raised our children with the help of my wife in hopes of them becoming young adults at the age of 18 to have R & R. That is Respect and Responsibility. And from what I have been able to ascertain, I couldn't be more proud of our children to have followed that idea. More importantly, they have used this same concept in raising their children with the same directive, i.e. R & R.

Sadly, it becomes more and more evident that the society that we live in today seems to be wandering further and further away from the idea of "respect". And I believe that the "lack of respect" in society is not something new. It dates back thousands of years but in the world we now live in, with everything we do or say publicized "for the world to see", this apparent "lack of respect" that surrounds us constantly is put in our face every day. So what is the answer? How do we overcome the constant barrage of "disrespect" that we see daily?

I am not sure what might work for you, but for me, trying to stay immersed in the Word of God, reading the Bible more often, devoting each day as a prayer to Our Lord are some of the ways that help keep me "on track" with Our Lord. Remember, we don't have to be in Church to be prayerful. Speaking with Our Lord is not limited to being in Church. As a matter of fact, I believe that quite the opposite is very appropriate. So stay "in touch" with Our Lord each day, each hour, each minute. And this can be most easily accomplished by keeping thoughts of Our Lord at the forefront of our mind. Don't let the distractions of society that surround us take over our thought process.

In keeping Our Lord at the forefront of our mind, we will always show the "respect" both to Our Lord and equally as important, to those around us. Whether it be family, co-workers, and even strangers on the street, keep Our Lord ever-present in our thoughts, our mind and in our deeds and I promise you that your life will become easier, more productive, more comfortable and, most importantly, attached to Our Lord at all times. After all, who deserves more "respect" than Our Lord? Who should we be thanking every day of our lives? Of course, the answer is Jesus Christ who sacrificed His life for ours so that we can obtain eternal salvation. But remember as Fr. Ryan says so often, our salvation is not automatic, we must work for it while here on earth and we can best do that by living a "respectful" life.

My blessings to all,
Deacon John

"Stay "in touch" with Our Lord each day, each hour, each minute. And this can be most easily accomplished by keeping thoughts of Our Lord at the forefront of our mind. Don't let the distractions of society that surround us take over our thought process."

WE CAN "FIX IT" TOGETHER

28th PLEDGE UPDATE & REPAIRS COMPLETED

Sunday, June 2nd, 2019
SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Dear Parishioners, Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The remaining major projects are the new flooring design in the Church. We had hoped by Christmas 2018 to have completed the new Church flooring, but our plans and finances are scheduled for 2019. A monument on the site of the first Church building will be erected in remembrance of the first church in the parish and in honor of the generations of Catholics since 1949 in this faith community as disciples of this Body of Christ. This monument is scheduled for the spring of 2019.

As pledges are made and paid, we will continue to address the one remaining project, which can be found on our parish website. See what this good parish has accomplished already in total pledges and number of donors! At this point in the Campaign, 873 donors helped us reach $1,394,243 in total pledges. Total pledges paid are $1,376,064. Balance due is $18,179. It is not the intention of the Fix-It Campaign to place the parish in debt. As a parish, we spent 9 years paying off the $3.8 million debt. We will only address the project as we raise the funds to pay. As Thomas Jefferson advised, "Never spend your money before you have it!" My Grandmother Ryan said the same message in her own way! For details on the campaign, including the presentation that was shown at Masses as well as the information on Charitable Giving Options, visit our parish website, www.stfrancislzparish.org. Thank you to those who have already responded with a pledge toward the $1.7 million goal. St. Francis de Sales has a long history of generous giving. I respectfully ask for the prayers, involvement, and sacrifice of many, if not all, in the parish in making a pledge towards the Fix-It Campaign in addition to the generosity you provide each Sunday offering. For example, if 1,000 parishioners pledge the suggested amount of $850 per year for 2 years, we will reach our campaign goal immediately to conclude the project. Please, everyone, participate through a prayer and a pledge. All the funds we raise in the Fix-It Campaign stay within the parish. I want to express my gratitude to Deacon John Sfire, Jason Sfire, and Amie Paige of The Fidelity Group for doing an extensive study of our parish campus, as was presented in the Fix-It Campaign presentation. I have asked the Fidelity Group, under the leadership of Deacon John Sfire and Jason Sfire, to serve as Project Managers of the Fix-It Campaign. I also want to offer my appreciation for the guidance and involvement of Tom Purtell, Chair of the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC), Marty Bush, Member of the PPC; Mike Carlino, Chair of the Parish Finance Council; Doug Samz, Member of the Parish Finance Council; Christine DePrez, Cornerstone Bank Liaison; Laura Angelini, Business Manager; and Pam Lynch, Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministries.

God give you peace,

Father David F. Ryan, Pastor

Eucharistic Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is held at St. Francis de Sales every First Friday immediately following the 8:30am Mass, and continuing until 4pm. Eucharistic Adoration honors the special presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist. Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament is a profession of faith in the real bodily presence of Jesus. One of the best ways to look at prayer before the Blessed Sacrament is to see it as an extension of Holy Communion. Our souls are fed and our minds and wills are strengthened and given light, that we may go about the tasks of our daily lives.

WEDDING BANNS

Emily Deichstetter & Christopher de Jesus Patac (2)

Deanna Lundgren & Benito Vasquez (1)

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prawl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call Fr. Ryan (847 726-4723) or Ministry of Care (847 438-6622) when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.

Only two defining entities have ever offered to die for you.
 One was Jesus Christ. The other is the American Soldier.
 One died for your soul † The other died for your freedom!
