How do we respond as Disciples of Jesus in challenging times?

Jesus tells us to keep our eyes fixed on Him. Jesus shows us that we have a loving God who is with us always and has a good plan for our future. Our HOPE and TRUST is in Him.

St. Francis de Sales invites you to participate in ways to stay focused on Jesus:

Parish Days of Fasting & Prayer On Wednesdays lets come together to fast and pray as a parish.

Throughout Scripture, prayer and fasting have been used as powerful acts of love. Fasting is normally thought of as limiting yourself to one meal, but there are many things we can fast from - social media, coffee, snacking. Whatever you decide to fast from, let it bring you closer to Jesus.

Virtual Sunday Mass Join us virtually on Sundays at 9:30am on Facebook LIVE and YouTube for Mass.

Virtual Weekday Masses Join us each weekday at Noon on Facebook LIVE and YouTube for Daily Mass.

Virtual Weekday Rosary Join us following daily weekday Mass on Facebook LIVE and YouTube in a community rosary.

Virtual Adoration Join us virtually on Wednesdays of fasting and prayer, from 1:30-3pm on Facebook LIVE and YouTube for Adoration.

Sacrament of Reconciliation Call Father Ryan 847 726-4723.

Grocery/medicine pick up For those in our community who are unable to leave their house -- contact the Ministry Center, 847 438-6622 for more information or to help.

Scripture reading at home While we can not be together celebrating Mass, we can still read the daily readings <http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings/031720.cf> or read a portion of the Gospels, God's Word to us, each day.

If the Holy Spirit inspires you with other ideas to help during this time, please contact Judy Reilly at 630 338-7543.

CHRISTIAN HOSPITALITY

Day in and day out, we are required to make judgment calls informed by tough, durable, serviceable Christian love. We do what we can do, and God takes notice. God is in charge of rewards, and a glass of water will do when that is what we have to offer with a glad and open heart.

Paul gives us a clear theology for the missionary work we do whenever anybody is close at hand. He reminds us that our work, our ministry, is carried on in concert with Christ. We have been baptized into his death and life. In any given moment both life and death are there, a kind of play of shadow and light. Sometimes it's difficult to tell where shadow leaves off and light begins. God will take care of that, too.

Let there be peace on earth,
and let it begin with me.
Let there be peace on earth,
the peace that was meant to be.
With God as our Father,
family all are we.
Let us walk with each other
in perfect harmony.
Let peace begin with me,
let this be the moment now.
With every step I take,
let this be my solemn vow.
To take each moment, and live
each moment in peace eternally!
Let there be peace on earth,
and let it begin with me.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When we were baptized, we were baptized into Christ's death. Take a moment to ponder these profound words. We were baptized into death. In every sense of the word, we are asked to die. This is not just about our final death but about daily deaths due to inconvenience, discomfort, pain, loss, or others' needs. This is an incredible epiphany given the way we very often approach our lives. We do everything to avoid death, let alone encounter it! Many avoid pain, discomfort, inconvenience, uneasiness, change, interference, and suffering of any kind. We put a lot of energy into finding the easiest and least inconvenient way through many things. Even holding the door open for a stranger or saying hello to someone in the store can be major undertakings.

We are called to die. One of the biggest wake-up calls we can have is realizing that life is not about us! There are millions of other people sharing life on this planet with whom I have a relationship. Does my life celebrate those relationships? The most distracting question we can ask is, "What do I want to do?" The more focused, faith-filled question is, "What do I need to do?" What I need to do may not be what I want to do. However, asking this question more frequently will teach us how to more purposefully and intentionally live so we can be a life giving vessel for others. When we learn to live more sacrificially, to put the needs of others before our own, and to not always seek our own self-interest, we become aware of what baptism into Christ's death is really all about. These are the roots of virtue and the seedbed for justice, tolerance, solidarity, love, and peace.

Learning how to accept all the "small deaths" and sacrifices life calls us to teaches us how to approach our final death. All deaths ask us to empty ourselves into something or someone else. Whether we empty ourselves into the heart and soul of another human being or empty ourselves into God at the moment of our final death, new life is always received and nurtured. A heart that exclusively seeks its own interest is a heart that is closed to love. A heart that pours itself out to others and is content with being emptied is a heart that has been touched by and open to mercy. It is a heart that overflows with joy.

On behalf of the St Francis de Sales Parish, another anonymous donor (a parishioner of our good parish) purchased 25 sloppy joe lunches from Koffee Kup for the nurses and caretakers at Aspira on Rand and another 15 for the Lake Zurich Police Department on Thursday, May 14th. When the owners of the Koffee Kup, Bob & Sheila, dropped the lunches off, the staff and police officers were so appreciative of the thoughtfulness. Our St Francis de Sales community thanks all those who are working on the front lines of this pandemic. We are grateful for YOU!

PARISH GARDENS PROVIDE FRESH PRODUCE TO PANTRIES DURING PANDEMIC

By Joyce Duriga | Editor

For years, some parishes in the archdiocese have maintained gardens whose produce was donated to local food pantries. With the rise in food insecurity during COVID-19 sending more people to food pantries than before, those ministries have taken on a new importance.

Volunteers at the Jubilee Garden of St. Francis de Sales Parish in Lake Zurich debated whether they would be able to have the garden at all this year because of the pandemic. But when businesses started opening up, they made plans to start the garden with social distancing measures in place, said coordinator Sharon Fredrickson.

No more than 10 people are allowed in the garden at a time, and all are encouraged to wear masks.

"All of us wear gloves because it's dirty work," Fredrickson said. "Being in a garden by nature you're typically far apart anyway. And by its very nature, you're outside."

The Jubilee Garden began over 20 years ago and uses a plot of land donated by a parishioner. Heavy rains in early May meant volunteers weren't able to start planting in the garden until the end of the month.

Volunteers work in the gardens on Saturday mornings and produce is donated to the local St. Vincent de Paul food pantry.

"What makes it even harder this year with COVID-19 is you have a lot of people who might not have been on the other end of needing a food pantry, but they are now because of so many layoffs," she said.

They plant a variety of crops such as tomatoes, string beans, zucchini and cucumbers. One parishioner plants pumpkins that are donated to the pantry for the kids around Halloween.

"We do a lot of tomatoes. We also have a larger Hispanic population, so we do tomatillos," she said. "We're going to try potatoes this year."

It's a group effort.

"Everybody has different interests. Some people like to sit and weed. Some people like to harvest. Some people love to mow the lawn," Fredrickson said. "It's amazing what we get done."

They are able to harvest several hundred pounds of fresh, organic produce each year.

In the Centennial Garden at St. Paul of the Cross Church in Park Ridge, social distancing measures are also the priority this year, according to Adrienne Timm, director of Social Service Ministry at the parish. The garden is in its ninth year and produce is given to the parish food pantry, which is open once a month.

They are using SignUp Genius to schedule times when people can be in the garden. Only one family, or no more than three individuals, can be in the garden at one time. Gloves are mandatory and they are asking people to be aware of common surfaces like the latch on the garden gate.

When the parish put out the call for volunteers again this year, everyone said yes.

"They said, 'This gives us a sense of normalcy. It gives us a way to give to others things that are fresh that they cannot always get from pantries,'" Timm said. "Everyone is on board."

She said the garden, which allows parishioners sections to plant, care for and harvest, is an effective way to build community within the parish and families. They have 40 growing areas that include buckets, vines, raised bed gardens, an herb garden and a butterfly garden.

"There's a lot of good stuff that comes out of it," she said. "Our food pantry clients really love the fresh food. It's about hopefully building some sort of relationship beyond 'Here you go,' because it's a win-win on both ends."

Any extra produce is donated to Catholic Charities food pantry in Des Plaines.

"It's a very tangible way to feed the hungry and people like to see the fruit of their labors," Timm said. "It is about relationship and it's about hope. It's not just how great we are that we're doing this. We're working together to make the kingdom come here on earth."

Father Ken Fleck, pastor of St. George Parish in Tinley Park, has been gardening since he was in fourth grade and has turned several areas of his parish into gardens with the yields being donated to the Tinley Park Food Bank.

When school is in session, he uses the gardens to teach the school students about the science behind growing produce. Students will seed the plants. He has apple trees on the property that he uses as a teaching tool for the school students. They harvest and process the apples then make apple muffins for the food pantry.

"They're learning religion and corporal works of mercy and a little chemistry, too," Fleck said.

When church is open normally, during the summer months, the parish has baskets in the vestibule where parishioners can drop off fruit and vegetables from their home gardens for donation to the food pantry.

Last year, between the parish gardens, which encompass about 2,800 square feet on the parish grounds, and parishioners donating items from their own gardens, the parish gave 1,000 pounds of fresh produce to the Tinley Park Food Pantry.

"It's living our faith," Fleck said. "What helps to keep us spiritually and emotionally healthy is to think outside of the box that is ourselves. When you focus your attention on the needs of others all of a sudden life has a purpose, it has meaning."

The parish also grows hundreds of tomato and pepper plants in two greenhouses and buys about 1,000 more tiny seedlings each spring and gives them to the school students to nurture. This year, after schools were closed for the pandemic, Fleck took over the nurturing.

When they are ready to be planted outdoors, the parish will make them available to parishioners. They can make a donation to summer youth ministry programs in exchange for plants, or they can take some for free. But if they don't make a donation, Fleck said, they are asked to raise more than one plant, keeping the produce from half of what they take for their own families and donating the produce from the other half to the food pantry.

He encourages parents to plant gardens with their children and donate some of the produce to a local food pantry.

"When parents and children work together it reminds parents of the baptismal promises that they are the first teachers of the children. Parents teach their children more so by their example than by sending them to religious education classes."

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from
You. Amen.

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen
