GOOD SEEDS

Today Jesus continues to speak to his followers using parables. What a rich treasure we are given today in three parables about the kingdom of heaven! The kingdom is likened to a man sowing good seed in his field, a mustard seed, and yeast mixed with flour. As they did last week, today the disciples press Jesus for an interpretation of one of the parables—the parable of the man sowing good seed. Lest we think that these parables are simply amusing little anecdotes, Jesus' interpretation should be seen for what it is—a warning. Wailing and grinding of teeth in a fiery furnace await those who are children of the evil one. This parable points to the struggle for today's believer. Sometimes, through sin, we sow weeds and prevent the love of Christ from blossoming. Let today's Gospel help put us back on track. Let us recommit ourselves to preparing for the last days, the harvest, by blossoming as the good seeds we were created in love to be.

LOVE. LOVE. LOVE.

Don't underestimate the power of love!

"So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love." – 1 Corinthians 13: 13.

How do I love thee? Let me count the ways.

I love thee to the depth and breadth and height

My soul can reach, when feeling out of sight

For the ends of Being and Ideal Grace.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Grace and sin, belief and unbelief, good and evil all exist together. While we wrestle with these two dimensions of reality inwardly, they are also witnessed in the actions and words of others. Many, all too often, beat themselves up because of their sin. We are also all too quick to pass judgment on others whom we perceive to be in error and walking down a wrong path. God does not make rash judgments, nor should we. Patience is the order of the day as is an understanding that God is ultimately the caller of the shots.

Our faith tells us that while God allows the wheat and the weeds to coexist, the wheat will always triumph. As long as we can cultivate even a little faith and a small measure of desire for God, He can produce abundant blessings and good things. Even when the weeds seem to have triumphed, there still may be a small measure of faith remaining that can be cultivated and grown. It doesn't take much! Unless a person totally allows the weeds to reign, there is always to be found at least a small measure of faith, good, light, and love. With even this small portion, God can produce abundant growth.

Admittedly, it is easy to give into the weeds, and they grow very quickly. Any gardener knows this to be true. Sometimes, the weeds even seem more attractive and vibrant. Dealing with weeds can quickly become a losing battle, and they can look healthier and grow faster than the very plants we are trying to protect. It's easy to give into them and let them win. While God will deal with all things in due time, we are responsible for keeping things in check in the short term. It is our task to keep our eyes fixed on God's presence and mercy. We are asked to avoid judgment. And, it is not our responsibility to deal with the weeds in someone else's garden, only our own. One garden is enough responsibility for anyone.

Weeds have power. We have to realize this. While they can appear attractive and healthy, they can quickly choke us off from God's presence. Our task is one of maintenance and cultivating a desire for God. Even the smallest kernel of faith can grow into something wonderful. In God's time, the eternal harvest will come, and we will no longer have to worry about the weeds.

"He replied, 'No, if you pull up the weeds you might uproot the wheat along with them. Let them grow together until harvest; then at harvest time I will say to the harvesters, "First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles for burning; but gather the wheat into my barn." ' " - Mt 13:29-30

On behalf of the St Francis de Sales Parish, another anonymous donor (a parishioner of our good parish) purchased 20 sloppy joe lunches from Koffee Kup for the Lake Zurich Fire Department on Thursday, June 25th. When the owners of the Koffee Kup, Bob & Sheila, dropped the lunches off, the staff and firefighters were so appreciative of the thoughtfulness. Our St Francis de Sales community thanks all those who are working on the front lines of this pandemic. We are grateful for YOU!

Deacon's Corner

The DC on June 23rd was based on the phrase "do not be afraid". Giving that some thought and reading numerous comments from you, I decided to write about another phrase I believe is just as important. It is "do not be discouraged". These seem to go hand-in-hand in looking at many writings in the bible. In some cases it seems that being "discouraged" brings on "fear". The important thing to always remember is that Satan is the precipitater of both of these negative emotions. What does Satan gain in doing this? And how do we overcome the constant barrage of negativity that is put in front of us so often? This is what I think and have some ideas how to overcome those feelings.

I believe we become "discouraged" after suffering some type of disappointment in our lives. I am sure we all agree that disappointment comes in various ways and has all types of shapes and sizes. Stop and think about that. I know I can go back in my life and think that certain events, at the time, I considered a failure. Only to realize as time went on that God had bigger plans for me. The key is I know that I am an "instant gratification" type of thinker. I also realize that sometimes that is not in God's plan for what we ask or are doing. I can say that over time I have come to "trust" what God has in store for me whether it is spiritually, mentally, physically or emotionally. I truly believe that all good things will come to us if we "trust" in God.

So many times we think that we have the power to move forward in our lives no matter what the circumstances only to realize that our lives are in the "hands of God". As I have said in so many homilies, we do not know the day that God goes to His rolodex and pulls out our name and calls us home. That means we must be "ready" each and every day of our lives. And that means we must "trust" in God. Remember, we live by faith. We must "trust" in God's love for us which is unconditional and all-forgiving. I know that is easier said than done. I know how difficult it is to "trust" in God's love for us. For by trusting in His love for us, we must surrender to His Will, and sometimes that is not so easy to do. Proverbs 3:5-6 says; "trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all ways submit to Him, and He will make straight your path". Joshua 1:9 says; "haven't I commanded you: be strong and courageous? Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go". As I said earlier, there are so many references to fear and discouraged in the Bible. I urge everyone to take a brief respite each day and read the Bible. I consider it the greatest book ever written. How about you?

Sometimes we can get discouraged for no reason. When we take our focus off God, discouragement will creep in. That is like giving Satan an open door to our minds and hearts. And believe me, he is always waiting for us to show weakness by taking our focus off God. We sometimes turn our focus to things of the world. So the best way to overcome taking our focus off God is with prayer. And I have always said, we don't need to be in Church to pray to God. We don't have to be anywhere special to pray to God. You see, since the Holy Spirit, the third Person of the Blessed Trinity, dwells within us at all times, GOD IS WITH US! All we have to do is talk to him no matter where we are or what we are doing. He is waiting to hear from us and will always answer. Your voice will never be put on hold or go to voicemail. The Lord our God is waiting to help us no matter the situation. We must always be ready to abide in His Will. The answer to your questions may not come back the way you want and that is where "trust" in God comes in. I have always said not to look back in our lives and second guess where we have been or what we have done. Proverbs 4:25 says; "let your eyes look directly forward, and your gaze be straight before you".

I have run out of room for the DC but will continue it next week.

My blessings to all,

Deacon John

You see, since the Holy Spirit, the third Person of the Blessed Trinity, dwells within us at all times, God is with us! All we have to do is talk to him no matter where we are or what we are doing. He is waiting to hear from us and will always answer.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from
You. Amen.

to Saint Michael the Archangel*

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

† Please Pray for the Sick †
