USING OUR TIME WISELY

A jar of honey lasts practically forever. The oldest jar of honey ever discovered was over five thousand years old. Honey is quite different from market-fresh produce, then; because most fruits and vegetables last only a few days, we treat them carefully. At this time of summer, we rush to find recipes for cherries and cucumbers so we won't waste a single one. We wouldn't feel that same urgency about honey.

In our own way, we are as delightful and fragile as ripe produce. Today's readings urge us not to spoil, but to make good use of our limited time on earth. Ecclesiastes reminds us that because God provides for us now and always, we can manage our daily affairs without anxiety. Saint Paul encourages the Colossians to keep thoughts of heaven in everything they do, and Jesus himself asks us to treasure not earthly wealth, but God alone.

This column is written by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

Has a friend or family member ever said to you, "I'm spiritual but I don't need a church"? Hopefully, you can find fellowship and friendship here at St. Francis de Sales Church where we can run the race together! As Proverbs 27:17 states, "irons sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another." This fellowship keeps us on track, strengthens us in our most noble pursuits, makes us better, sharpens our swords and continually rekindles the fire of our faith.

WE CAN "FIX IT" TOGETHER

30th PLEDGE UPDATE & REPAIRS COMPLETED

Sunday, August 4th, 2019
EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Parishioners, Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The remaining major projects are the new flooring design in the Church. We had hoped by Christmas 2018 to have completed the new Church flooring, but our plans and finances are scheduled for 2019. A monument on the site of the first Church building will be erected in remembrance of the first church in the parish and in honor of the generations of Catholics since 1949 in this faith community as disciples of this Body of Christ. This monument is scheduled for the spring of 2019.

As pledges are made and paid, we will continue to address the one remaining project, which can be found on our parish website. See what this good parish has accomplished already in total pledges and number of donors! At this point in the Campaign, 881 donors helped us reach $1,418,433 in total pledges. Total pledges paid are $1,402,003. Balance due is $16,430. It is not the intention of the Fix-It Campaign to place the parish in debt. As a parish, we spent 9 years paying off the $3.8 million debt. We will only address the project as we raise the funds to pay. As Thomas Jefferson advised, "Never spend your money before you have it!" My Grandmother Ryan said the same message in her own way! For details on the campaign, including the presentation that was shown at Masses as well as the information on Charitable Giving Options, visit our parish website, www.stfrancislzparish.org. Thank you to those who have already responded with a pledge toward the $1.7 million goal. St. Francis de Sales has a long history of generous giving. I respectfully ask for the prayers, involvement, and sacrifice of many, if not all, in the parish in making a pledge towards the Fix-It Campaign in addition to the generosity you provide each Sunday offering. For example, if 1,000 parishioners pledge the suggested amount of $850 per year for 2 years, we will reach our campaign goal immediately to conclude the project. Please, everyone, participate through a prayer and a pledge. All the funds we raise in the Fix-It Campaign stay within the parish. I want to express my gratitude to Deacon John Sfire, Jason Sfire, and Amie Paige of The Fidelity Group for doing an extensive study of our parish campus, as was presented in the Fix-It Campaign presentation. I have asked the Fidelity Group, under the leadership of Deacon John Sfire and Jason Sfire, to serve as Project Managers of the Fix-It Campaign. I also want to offer my appreciation for the guidance and involvement of Tom Purtell, Chair of the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC), Marty Bush, Member of the PPC; Mike Carlino, Chair of the Parish Finance Council; Doug Samz, Member of the Parish Finance Council; Christine DePrez, Cornerstone Bank Liaison; Laura Angelini, Business Manager; and Pam Lynch, Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministries.

God give you peace,

Father David F. Ryan, Pastor

SFds Young Adult Ministry HOSTS IT'S FIRST THEOLOGY ON TAP EVENT

On Monday July 15th, St Francis de Sales hosted our first Theology on Tap event at Farmhouse on North in Barrington for young adults ages 18-39. The speaker, Joe Paoelli a Theology teacher at IC Catholic Prep High School in Elmhurst, presented "Reasons to Believe: Why Faith Makes Sense". Over 40 guests were greeted by a group of young adults who helped plan the event and Josh Goodman who provided music throughout the night. Joe did an excellent job of describing many good reasons for us to believe in God and Jesus. He relied on Philosophical, Historical, Psychological and Scientific examples.

Thank you to Pam Lynch, Mimi McGlauchlin, Lexi Fye, Katie McGlauchlin, Aimee Wright, Emily Weismann, Will Ergastolo, and Joe Bruno for planning and hosting the event. A BIG thank you to Tom Purtell for helping to sponsor the food, music, and our speaker for the night.

We are planning our next event and will publish more information as soon as possible. Please follow our instagram account @SFdsYAM to stay up to date!

How Catholics see the scandal

by Russell Shaw

During the listening session I attended, the sentiment was frequently expressed that the bishops ought to be "doing more"

What do serious, practicing Catholics think about the sex abuse crisis? To find out, you can commission a public opinion survey or you can attend a parish listening session. I chose the latter approach, and the results were at least as illuminating as any opinion poll and possibly more so.

What I found out was that serious, practicing Catholics — those people in the pews who are the backbone of the Church — are definitely angry, but they haven't lost their faith in the Church or their affection and respect for their priests. They want answers to how all this happened and they don't want airy reassurances that all is well. But they're willing to listen if the leaders of the Church will just give them straight talk.

Herewith a few verbatim notes on what I heard

"...angry, sad, confused..."

"We feel lost. We looked to the priests and religious to tell us what our religion was all about. How do we stay faithful to our faith?"

"Our major concern is our children and grandchildren... How would you evangelize now?"

"Our own good priests have been betrayed."

"This happens outside the Church in society....We're not alone."

"The devil is in our world at work."

"...a need for much greater transparency."

"...a feeling of joy that this is all out in the open....There must be dramatic changes in the Church."

"It's time for the laity to wake up and speak out."

"...more lay involvement in the decision making process all the way up to the Vatican."

"We must learn to forgive."

There were no big surprises here nor were any magic solutions offered. People suggested what you'd them to suggest: more accountability, a bigger role for the laity in general and women in particular, maybe married priests.

Most striking perhaps in what I heard was the absence of bitterness. People are indeed deeply distressed about what has happened, but they aren't in a rush to blame anybody for it — not yet at least.

Commendable as it is, however, this patience is not inexhaustible, and I would not advise anyone occupying a leadership position in the Church to count on things staying that way without early and effective action to address the roots of the present crisis.

I was also struck by the fact that so many people appear

THE IMPORTANCE OF EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Pope Francis leads Benediction outside the Basilica of St. Mary Major at the conclusion of the Corpus Christi procession in Rome May 30. (CNS photo/Paul Haring) The importance of Eucharistic Adoration is shown in the fact that the Church has a ritual that regulates it: the Rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction. This is an extension of the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which occurs in every Mass: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament flows from the sacrifice of the Mass and serves to deepen our hunger for Communion with Christ and the rest of the Church. The Rite concludes with the ordained minister blessing the faithful with the Blessed Sacrament. - taken from the USCCB website to suffer from dismayed gaps in what they know about the sex abuse scandal. During the listening session I attended, the sentiment was frequently expressed that the bishops ought to be "doing more."

Very likely the bishops should be doing more, and perhaps they soon will be (their November general meeting will be crucial). But the people making this point often seemed unaware that the American bishops have been doing quite a lot about the sex abuse problem for the last 35 years, and apparently with good results as measured by the notable decline in new cases of abuse of minors reported in this time.

Here I mainly fault the media — especially the secular media — for feeding audiences a diet of sensational news while downplaying or ignoring the fact that sex abuse in Catholic institutions in the United States is way, way down. Is it possible that this partly reflects a certain deep-seated dislike of the Church arising from prejudices that have little or nothing to do with its record on sex abuse?

All in all there is cause for much encouragement in hearing serious, practicing Catholics speak out about this scandal. But note that I said encouragement, not complacency.

WEDDING BANNS

Lauren & Jake Johnson (3)

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prawl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call Fr. Ryan (847 726-4723) or Ministry of Care (847 438-6622) when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.
