WHY PRAY?

The "foreigners" as Isaiah calls them, the "Gentiles" as Paul calls them, or the "Canaanites" as Matthew calls them are called to worship the one true God in prayer. As we listen to today's readings, perhaps we are tempted to ask: Why pray? The question is rhetorical; it is tantamount to asking why should friends talk to one another or people in love kiss one another. Prayer is a way of relating to God, a way of talking to God. The apostles had the opportunity to talk to Jesus in the flesh. We have the opportunity to talk to Jesus Christ in prayer. Our relationship with him must be enthusiastic; it cannot be faint-hearted. John Donne, a fifteenth-century poet, knew what the qualities of good prayer were. Donne asks God to treat him differently from most Christians. The poet does not want God to merely "knock, breathe, shine, and seek to mend," but also to "break, blow, burn, and make me new" (Holy Sonnets, XIV).

It takes a dynamic faith on our part to come to God in prayer. As Jesus once said, "Knock and the door will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). It may take pounding the door down, but if we are as persistent as the woman in today's Gospel, the results will follow.

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

Human nature resists. We procrastinate washing the dishes, folding laundry, fixing the screen door, calling a neighbor, reading the church bulletin, vacuuming, changing a light bulb, starting a project (like me writing what you're reading), praying. Some resist healthy habits by eating too much, excessive alcohol use, taking out frustrations on others, working to an extreme. Even St. Paul wrote, "...I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do." (Romans 7:19) Name your resistance. That helps reduce its power over you. Reducing its power allows room for you to grow toward happiness.

Resisting Happiness, Matthew Kelly.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

We are hardwired for wholeness and crave it. When something is broken, we want it fixed. If a part of our body is not working properly, we want it healed. How often do we find ourselves saying, "I'm tired of struggling with this cold, I can't wait for my surgery to heal, or I want my treatments to make me better." Wholeness and healing restore our relationships and make us free to love as we desire. We know very well how our limitations, imperfections, and brokenness really limit us. They can easily prevent us from being and doing what we want to do.

Our physical and emotional wounds and maladies are easier to identify. If my back hurts, I feel it and know what part of my body needs attention. If I am feeling intense anger, I can identify the emotion and take necessary steps to uncover its cause. Being persistent often brings greater and quicker results. But will pursuing and even achieving our physical and emotional healings really be enough? We forget that there is a deeper healing that we seek and desperately need. As we look around at humanity, there are some physical and emotional wounds and scars that cannot be made whole. They are limitations that must remain and, for one reason or another, cannot be rectified. Does this mean that the wholeness and healing that my being longs for is not possible for me? Must I settle with less than what God promises?

The answer is no. Ultimately, there is a desire that goes deeper than the physical and emotional. It is a desire that resides in our soul. What we really seek and thirst for is healing and wholeness for our soul. Inner strength, conviction, focus, grounding, love, hope, faith, courage, determination, peace, and connectedness are all words that center us on eternity. They direct us to a presence we discover in our core, which is none other than the presence of God. In God, we are healed. When we are persistent in reaching out to and establishing our relationship with God, real healing and wholeness begin to happen.

There are some limitations and some of our brokenness with which we may simply have to live. This does not mean that we have to abandon our journey to wholeness and healing. If we have done our inner soul work, we have worked toward and acquired what and who we ultimately need and desire.

And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon." He said in reply, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." But the woman came and did Jesus homage, saying, "Lord, help me."

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

AUGUST 8, 2020

RENEW MY CHURCH UPDATE ST. BEATRICE AND ST. MARIA GORETTI WILL UNITE TO FORM ONE, NEW PARISH

The Archdiocese of Chicago today announced an update on its Schiller Park parishes, St. Beatrice and St. Maria Goretti following their Renew My Church discernment process.

The Pastoral and Finance Councils of both parishes have met over the past two months to review and discern the future parish structure for the area. Based on their meetings and input gathered from the larger parish community, they submitted feedback to the Archdiocese. The Archdiocesan Standards and Recommendations Commission, which includes representatives from across the Archdiocese reviewed the feedback and other information, including financial summaries, capital needs and parish trends, and made a recommendation to Cardinal Cupich.

Earlier this month, Cardinal Cupich, our auxiliary bishops, and the Presbyteral Council met to discuss the commission's recommendation. Based on those discussions and prayerful consideration, Cardinal Cupich made the following decisions on the parish structure in Schiller Park:

Effective Oct. 1, 2020, St. Beatrice and St. Maria Goretti will unite to form one, new parish, which will be named at a later date.

St. Beatrice will be designated the parish church, where the business office and sacramental records are kept.

The Renew My Church Commission recommended the new parish's regularly scheduled Masses transition to St. Beatrice no later than Nov. 28-29, 2020 (First Sunday of Advent). Local leadership will set a specific timeline for this transition.

In the coming weeks, parish leadership and parishioners will discern possibilities for the name of the new parish, within guidelines provided by the archdiocese and submit their considerations to Cardinal Cupich for his decision on the permanent name of the new parish.

The united parish community will embark on the next phase of the renewal process to become a stronger, more sustainable presence for the future, capable of reaching more people in their work of making disciples of Jesus Christ, building communities and inspiring witness in the world around us.
