POST-SUMMER CHALLENGES

With any luck, summer delights will continue a while past last weekend's Labor Day: refreshing recreation (with maybe an occasional swim) or enjoyable relaxation on the deck (with tasty outdoor grilling). Truth is, for some of us, this year's Labor Day came way too early. With many schools back in session for a while already, mealtimes and driving schedules needed readjustment to coordinate youth sports with adult commitments. Some religious education and parish programs resumed, too. No surprise, then, that this weekend's scriptures sound a little like post-summer challenges. For instance, Wisdom reminds us that believers in God can never be content with "timid deliberations" and "unsure plans." Paul challenges longtime friend and follower Philemon to "let the good you do be voluntary." Jesus instructs "great crowds" traveling with him—including us—on three things necessary for all true disciples to accomplish. On this early autumn weekend, our scriptures describe disciples' lifelong labors. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

This column is written by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

The Devil Lies

You are not defenseless against Satan. You have weapons to break his hold on you, to draw down God's kingdom into you. These include fellowship & communion with others who share Jesus's divine life; Sacraments, those particular encounters with the Father's love which require our response; the Bible, God's living word speaking to us; intercession & the communion of saints from those who successfully responded to God's grace; service to the world, returning God's love to others; and renunciation, using our free will to reject Satan's lies.

Deacon's Corner

Good morning! Bobbi and I returned Saturday evening from Drummond Island with our friends. Thanks Dan and Nancy for a great week. On our return drive, we stopped at a restaurant for breakfast in Gould City, MI which is about 65 miles west of the Mackinac Bridge. While I was eating a delicious breakfast, I noticed a sign of the wall and after reading it three times, I decided it would be a good topic for a DC. I took its message to be something of a "life lesson" and thought you might enjoy it and possibly give it some thought about practicing its precepts.

It read as follows: BE THANKFUL, LIVE SIMPLY, BE KIND, BELIEVE IN YOURSELF, NEVER GIVE UP, USE PLEASE AND THANK YOU, HELP OTHERS, CHERISH FAMILY AND FRIENDS, DO YOUR BEST, LISTEN WITH YOUR HEART, LAUGH OFTEN AND LOVE LOTS!

There you have it. What do you think? I believe there is enough there to "live our life by". How about you? As I read it over and over, I try to answer the question; "how many of these phrases do I practice?" As you can see (and read), they cover a myriad of opportunities that cover a wide range of different life ideas.

The only thing it seemed to lack, at least from my perspective, pertains to "love the Lord, thy God and love your neighbor as yourself". I know some might say that it does cover the spiritual aspect of life, but I like to be specific when it comes to my own spiritual growth. How about you, do you agree or disagree? And I believed the answers will vary from each of us, but, hopefully, we all end up in the same place which is working toward our eternal salvation when our time on earth is completed.

Looking back at the statements of the sign, one could apply many of them to the life of Jesus Christ as well as our own lives. They reach many different aspects of our lives, both internally and externally. In other words, how we live ourselves and how we live with others and our relationship with family, friends, workmates, classmates, and even strangers on the streets who we may not even know.

We all have the same opportunities in life when it comes to "how we choose to live". Sometimes I ask Our Lord; "why did this happen to me?" or "what did I do to deserve this?" and the answer I have come up with is simple. As I have said many times in the past; "if I am happy to be here in this moment in time, then all things that have taken place in my life have been OK". I say this because I truly believe that if something had been different in my past life, then "today in this moment may not have brought happiness and joy".

Think about that and use the first phrase in the sign listed above. BE THANKFUL to Our Lord for putting us in this moment, for giving us all the blessings He has bestowed upon us, whether we think we deserve them or not. Remember, life is a blessing that deserves to be recognized every day. So before you go to sleep tonight, be sure and say; "thank you Lord for all the blessings in my life".

My blessings to all,

Deacon John

Congratulations!

For my project, I partnered with Bookfriends, a local not-for-profit organization, founded in 2004 to send donated textbooks to schools in Africa. When the founder Paulette Kutchat learned that the African girls were dropping out of school after they reached puberty due to a lack of feminine hygiene products she decided to add hygiene kits for the girls to each shipment of books.

For my project, I assisted Bookfriends in the launch of their African Girls Project. The bake sale that you allowed me to hold in the Fall of 2016 was the starting point for my project. Many staff members at St. Francis including Cathy Chiarelli and Traci Dallinger, gave me advice, encouragement, and support. Many Girl Scouts and Religious Ed families donated baked goods for the sale. Through the generosity of the St. Francis community, I raised $1450, plus many ladies donated fabric. Also, some of my first volunteer sewers were members of the "Threads of Faith" group led by Donna Miller.

These funds from the bake sale were used to purchase fabric, underwear for the girls and plastic bags for the kits. During the time of my project, Bookfriends sent 1500 kits to Kenya in 2017 and 3078 kits to Tanzania in 2019. Bookfriends has now built a network of "padsters" who are currently making more pads for future shipments.

After receiving a shipment of books and hygiene kits Faith M., the headmistress and a teacher of a rural school in Kenya, shared the following observation:

"We see our girls coming to school now with less fear, definitely more confidence now that they have monthly supplies. And what a difference that confidence and regular class attendance makes in their educational progress."

Throughout my project, I learned so much about the importance of education and why it is imperative all children, both boys AND GIRLS are educated. Last summer with the help of Sue Messmer, who I met when she volunteered to sew, I was able to summarize this information in this video which can be viewed on YouTube at <https://youtu.be/nfJQ9XiuwDQ>

Keep the African Girls at School

When Elizabeth missed school for an extended time due to illness, she realized how hard it was to get caught up. Through conversation with a mentor, she learned about cultural obstacles girls her age face in Africa and how those struggles increase once girls reach puberty. Elizabeth learned an underlying issue was how girls in underdeveloped countries often don't have access to female sanitary products. She located Bookfriends, an organization looking to launch an initiative to encourage girls to remain in class simply by having monthly hygiene supplies available. Hygiene packs would be added to their shipments of books to schools in developing countries. Elizabeth worked with Bookfriends to produce a portion of the kits needed. She developed a volunteer team that included a church sewing group and a videographer. She then began to educate others about her project through speaking at church events and to local youth groups. She also created awareness for her project through social media and a YouTube video. During the time of her Gold Award project, 1,550 kits were sent to Kenya, and 3,078 kits were sent to Tanzania!

A PRIVATE CHOICE. A SECRET BURDEN.

DO YOU FEEL LIKE I DO?

A while ago, I made the decision to have an abortion. It was, after all, my right to choose. But now, as I look back on it, I realize that something else besides my baby died inside of me that day.

I made a private choice. But it became a secret burden.

If you feel this way, there's hope. Please call our confidential helpline to speak with people who will not condemn you for your decision. Take the first step toward healing by calling:

Formation and Training for New Eucharistic Ministers

The workshop will include:

- The ministry of Eucharist: our baptismal call to ministry
- A theology of Eucharist as celebrated in the Roman Catholic tradition
- The roots of our ministry in Scripture, the early Church, and on through the Second Vatican Council
- Historical aspects of our celebration of Eucharist in practice and devotion
- A review of the Liturgy of the Eucharist and how our ministry as EMs 'fits' in the larger picture
- Questions and Answers

This training meets the Archdiocesan requirements for mandation and remandation.

Proclaiming the Word: Lector Training Workshop

Lectors have a critical role in the celebration of the Mass. Since lectors proclaim not just any word, but the Word of God, it is essential that they develop the skills required to communicate God's message competently.

Through the use of voice, eye contact and personal presence, lectors help God's Word come alive for the assembly.

This training will provide the skills and self-confidence needed for those who wish to become lectors in their own parish or for any lector who would like a "refresher" course.

A resurrection choir is a group of parishioners/choir members/cantors who are looking for a way to show their support to parish families who are mourning a loss. If you enjoy singing, have a nice voice, and are looking for a way to help others, this group might be for you. There are no rehearsals and no commitment to be at every funeral. We arrive a half-hour before the funeral; we sing refrains and hymns with the congregation. There is always a cantor to sing the psalm and any solo that is needed. If you have a flexible work schedule, are a stay-at-home parent, or retired, maybe this is the ministry you are looking for. We are called to be disciples of Christ, and this is a wonderful way to serve. For more information, contact Pat Stewart by email, phone, or talk to me on the weekends at mass. musicfds@stfrancislz.org 847-726-4720

Every time the handbell group plays at masses, we always receive so many compliments and comments from the people in the pews. Everyone seems to love listening to those bells. Have you ever thought maybe you would like to try ringing handbells? Do you know someone who has experience ringing and might like to join us? Being a member of our parish is not a requirement; we are open to high school age and older. In the past year, we have lost 3 members due to moving out of the area and/or retiring. They each have played in the group for many years. Our group is seeking new members. If you can read music and can count rhythms, maybe you would like to try bells. We would be glad to teach you the skills and techniques of ringing. If you are interested, contact Pat Stewart either by email or phone, or talk with me at mass on weekends. We look forward to meeting you. musicfds@stfrancislz.org // 847-726-4720

THE IMPORTANCE OF EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Pope Francis leads Benediction outside the Basilica of St. Mary Major at the conclusion of the Corpus Christi procession in Rome May 30. (CNS photo/Paul Haring)The importance of Eucharistic Adoration is shown in the fact that the Church has a ritual that regulates it: the Rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction. This is an extension of the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which occurs in every Mass: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament flows from the sacrifice of the Mass and serves to deepen our hunger for Communion with Christ and the rest of the Church. The Rite concludes with the ordained minister blessing the faithful with the Blessed Sacrament. - taken from the USCCB website

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prawl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call Fr. Ryan (847 726-4723) or Ministry of Care (847 438-6622) when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.
