DIRECTION

Isaiah tells us something that we already know, and yet seem to forget every now and then. He tells us, essentially, that God is God and we are not. When we're confused and troubled and can't figure everything out, it might be wise to recall Isaiah speaking on the Lord's behalf and explaining that God—who is on a much more, well, Godly wavelength than we are—moves in ways we can't even imagine.

Saint Paul, by comparison, has everything figured out. Kind of. At least he understands his calling in life—to magnify Christ in everything he does. That should give all of us the direction we need. Jesus gives us direction, too, explaining to us once again in the parable of the workers in the vineyard that the last will be first, and the first, last. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Songs are powerful and can be so beautiful! St. Augustine said, "To sing is to pray twice."

Music is readily available and is good for the soul! Here are some favorites:

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

If I work for five hours, I expect to get paid for five hours. If I work for two, I expect to get paid for two. What if we worked for a company that paid everyone the same amount regardless of how long they worked? How would we feel going home with the same pay for working eight hours as my co-worker did for working only two hours? Secular wisdom would have a huge problem with this and a visit to the Labor Board would quickly pursue. But this is God's wisdom and God's ways.

We sometimes think that if we pray more, better, or more fervently and go over and above with the practice of our faith, God will somehow reward us and present us with some kind of merit badge. We are so wrong. Spiritual practices have only one true purpose: to deepen our love for God. In deepening our love for God, we also increase our ability to see God's presence around us, living life more purposefully and contemplatively. What if God chooses to treat someone who has come on the scene of faith later in life the same as someone who has devoted their whole lives to it? Does it really matter? If we have the merit badge notion of faith, we can find ourselves feeling a little arrogant and even jealous of folks who have not followed the same path that we have. We can even see ourselves as the privileged few who have a corner on the faith and fully possess it.

That thinking doesn't square with God. God is all about mercy in abundance and is ready to take anyone to himself regardless of when they come. He is only happy that they have come home and delights in their return. After all, if you really and truly love someone, does it matter what they will give you in return or what you receive as a benefit? If relationships were assessed based upon productivity, they would lack authentic love. We invest too much self interest in our prayer and neglect to see it as an opportunity to pursue our Lover and deepen the intimate bond we have with God.

When we breathe our last, all that is of consequence is union with God. If my love for God is real, I am going to want to live the Gospel, abide by the commandments, practice my faith, forgive and love my neighbor, and care for the environment, regardless of how much time it takes or benefits me. We want God to think and behave as we do, and in doing so, we set ourselves up for disappointment. God has a totally different agenda and that's okay.

"The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard...When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Summon the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and ending with the first.'" - Mt 20:1, 8

BE SURE TO LOOK THE PART

I used to coach my oldest son in soccer when he was younger. As he got older, he would go to tryouts for select and high school teams. I was no longer the coach, but I always shared with him one piece of advice before any tryout: Be sure to look the part. I told him that if he showed up looking like a soccer player, there was an increased chance of him being seen as a soccer player. If he showed up looking like a kid that plays soccer in video games as opposed to the real thing, he might not be taken seriously. As he grew older, that same advice was then applied to getting a job. It's advice I have heeded myself all my life. You can even say it is like another common phrase: "Fake it till you make it."

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we certainly do not want to fake it, but we do need to look the part. The world looks at those of us who proclaim to be Christians to see if there is anything to this way of life. If they see us looking and acting like people transformed by Jesus Christ, they will be more likely to take Christianity seriously. If they look at us and see nothing different, then they can easily conclude that there is nothing different about Jesus Christ. He just becomes simply another religious figure of history. Can the world see the power of Christ in you? How will do you look the part?

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

IF GOD IS GOOD, WHY IS THERE EVIL IN THE WORLD?

The problem of evil is perplexing. If God is all-powerful and all-good, why doesn't He stop bad things for happening? He must either not be all-powerful, or perhaps He's not very good after all. Human beings have faced the possibility of evil since the very beginning of our existence. In granting us free will, God gives us the ability to make free choices. God does not force us into moral perfection. We are not forced to love Him or to love our neighbor. We must make the decision ourselves. This means, of course, that we have the ability to choose against love.

One small decision of selfishness, jealousy, or pride may not seem so bad. But every decision — good or bad — is like a stone dropped into a still pond. The ripples extend much farther than the original stone. When decisions against love begin to compound, they affect families, neighborhoods, and nations. This is all the more reason for Christians to be faithful to our baptismal call to love one another as Christ has loved us!

THANK YOU TO OUR AMAZING COLLEGE & HIGH SCHOOL SUMMER MASS TEAM

*Kelly Bush
Emily Groeller*

*Allison Kavanaugh
Claire Jones
Isabelle Jordan*

*Nic Soto
Adam Virgilio*

These teens volunteered to come to St Francis de Sales Church almost every day this summer. We live streamed our daily noon Masses and our Sunday 9am Masses through Facebook and YouTube.

Allison welcomed people each day with a smile as they came back to our in-person Masses. She warmly greeted those arriving for Mass while following the safety guidelines set in place by our archdiocese.

The tech team expertly handled all aspects of live streaming including the video camera, video streaming controls, software and trouble shooting any sound issues.

They worked as a team and took full responsibility for ensuring that people not only from the Lake Zurich community, but from all across the country, were able to participate in our Masses, Rosaries, Children's Bible Study and Adoration.

And then, if that was not enough, they showed up again and again to enable many to experience the joy of the sacraments through multiple services of 1st Communion, Children's Catechumenate, Adult Confirmation and Teen Confirmation both by checking people into the events as well as enabling live streaming for all those who could not attend in person. Some Sundays they helped at three different events throughout the day.

They worked to ensure everyone had an excellent experience by troubleshooting issues when they arose, constantly looking for ways to improve technique and even adding Mass responses and comments for audience participation.

They all went above and beyond

These teens have been a very important part of a team which has helped spread the Good News of Jesus both in person and through technology. Since March 15th, we have been streaming weekday noon Masses as well as the Sunday 9:00am Mass.

As of August 28th there have been over 150,000 Facebook and Youtube views.

FISH FRY THANK YOU & FRIED CHICKEN NIGHT

Thank you everyone who took part in our 2020 Fish Fry and Bake whether it was through volunteering, sponsoring, or as a guest. Although we had to switch to the drive-thru service mid stream because of COVID concerns, the year was still an overall success. Our profits allowed us to make donations totaling $10,247.09; $6,148.25 to Mt. St. Joseph, $3,074.13 Center for Independence, and $1,024.71 SPRED.

Based on current COVID conditions we will not be on the streets and in front of stores this year for our annual ID Drive "Tootsie Rolls". In lieu of not having the ID Drive we will be holding a Fried Chicken & Bake Dinner that will work much like the Fish Fry & Bake on the first 2 Fridays in October 2nd & 9th. Please try to think of us for dinner those nights. We appreciate all the support we get from the parish. More info to come...

Respect Life Prayer and Witness

Fr David F Ryan conveys gratitude to the parishioners and brother Knights of Columbus Council Queen of Peace #3534, for their witness to life on Saturday, 15 August, the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Mother, in Waukegan at noon. The following parishioners joined Father Ryan, plus a few other area parishes, the Lake County right to life partners, and a few other brother Knights of Columbus from other councils, to pray the rosary and give sidewalk witness to life across Lewis Avenue from the newly-opened, during the governor's shelter in mandate, Planned Parenthood facility.

Back-to-School*Thank You!

Dear Fr. Ryan,

Thank you for participating in the Back to School program and joining us in providing educational resources to students in need. The program was a great success and allowed us to distribute 247 backpack kits to disadvantaged students. This surpassed our expectations and it is all thanks to you and the parishioners for making it happen.

With so many students in our community affected by the current climate, our help was needed more than ever. Because of your participation, under-resourced children will have the school supplies needed to practice their lessons and complete their assignments, giving them a meaningful educational experience that brings knowledge, creativity and hope into their lives.

Your care and concern means the world to children in difficult circumstances who struggle to find sufficient resources. Your help is invaluable as they grow and learn and work their way out of their low income status through the education they receive now. Thank you for supporting the educational needs of the children in our community and giving them the gift of education!

Sincerely,

Diane Larrabee

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call Fr. Ryan, (847)726-4723, or Ministry of Care, (847)438-6622, when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.
