GOD IS ON THE SIDE OF THE POOR

Two of today's readings make it quite clear that God is on the side of the poor. Amos describes in detail the exploitation of the poor and needy. The psalm repeats that God acts to benefit the poor and lowly. But Luke turns things upside down, telling a tale of a conflicted steward, about to be fired, who demonstrates his cleverness and is rewarded. Like the community to whom Paul writes in Timothy, these readings are personal, directed to believers, members of the Jewish and Christian communities, who struggle to deal with personal choices about how to conduct their lives. They offer an outline for how God wishes us to live in a world as complicated and as confusing as our own.

THE DEVIL LIES

Lie #1: I Am Alone

Satan wants us to think we're alone, to withdraw from others when we've been hurt, abandoned or isolated in our failed relationships. We focus our energy and anxiety on these wounds. Today's technology heightens this feeling; but we are never alone. "The human heart is made for relationship." Our God is a relationship. You're God's act of Love. Through Jesus, God says he won't allow anything to separate us from Him. Our Father is waiting for you to give Him your burdens. Let Him help. For coping with loneliness, pray Ps. 139: 1-16.

SEPTEMBER 3, 2019
Deacon's Corner

This week I want to talk about hope. Webster defines hope as 1. to expect with confidence, 2. to desire with expectation of obtainment. When I think about hope, I usually think of it in a secular way, such as I hope to see you soon, I hope I get this new job, or I hope my kids are OK. Perhaps you do also. But now let's look at hope as it pertains to our own spiritual journey by asking God, our Father, to help us renew our hope in Him. For He has given us the greatest hope of all with the death and resurrection of His Son, Jesus Christ, who gives us the "hope for eternal salvation".

Have you ever wondered why it is so important to hope in God? Many of us place our hope in our parents when we are young, our peers when we are teenagers and in our careers as we mature. Unfortunately, many of us learn too late it is a waste of time to place our hope in anyone other than Jesus Christ. There is nothing sadder than to see a person whose best hopes have been dashed to pieces. And that is exactly what will happen to us if we do not learn to place our hope in God.

If we look around us, it is easy to see we live in a world that struggles in hopelessness. If you talk to people on a daily basis, you are probably going to get in a conversation with someone who is going to tell you they are discouraged about something. Listen to radio talk shows, read the newspaper, watch the news on TV and you are going to hear people who are cynical about life. They think the world is going to pieces. On a world scale, it seems we go from crisis to crisis. In our lifetime, we have seen hostages taken around the world, wars everywhere and terrorist attacks abound. All struggles are not on a national or worldly scale.

In our personal lives, we feel pain. Many of us have physical challenges that afflict our human bodies. We endure emotional turmoil that comes with losing a loved one or comes when we are disappointed by someone we love. If we are honest, we admit we have spiritual struggles as we find ourselves disappointed in God when we are presented with these challenges. But remember, hope is not the end, it is the beginning. And for us to achieve our hopes, we must surround hope with faith and love, as in the prayers of Acts of Faith, hope and love. We must realize for hope to be realized, we must surround it with faith and love in order for us to have any real expectation of God answering us.

Hopeful people have an eager expectation of God's continuous direction, protection and blessing of our lives. Spiritual hope helps us transfer our trust away from fallible people and look to the unfailing promises of God. You see the Good News is if we live in Jesus Christ, we live in a constant state of hope and the pains of this world will give way to the painless and joyful reality of Heaven. The promise is in time, Jesus Christ will dry all of our tears. The good news for those who are in Jesus Christ is that you always have hope.

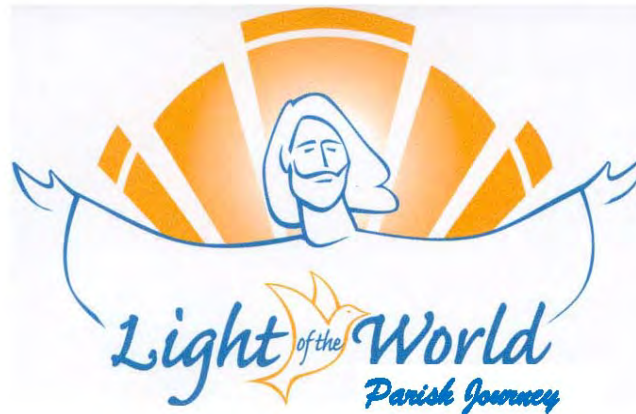

My blessings to all,

Deacon John

Heavenly Father, I am Your humble servant, I come before You today in need of hope. There are times when I feel helpless, There are times when I feel weak. I pray for hope. I need hope for a better future. I need hope for a better life. I need hope for love and kindness. Some say that the sky is at it's darkest just before the light. I pray that this is true, for all seems dark. I need Your light, Lord, in every way. I pray to be filled with Your light from head to toe. To bask in Your glory. To know that all is right in the world, as You have planned, and as You want it to be. Help me to walk in Your light, and live my life in faith and glory. In Your name I pray, Amen.

Proclaiming the Word: Lector Training Workshop

Lectors have a critical role in the celebration of the Mass. Since lectors proclaim not just any word, but the Word of God, it is essential that they develop the skills required to communicate God's message competently.

Through the use of voice, eye contact and personal presence, lectors help God's Word come alive for the assembly.

This training will provide the skills and self-confidence needed for those who wish to become lectors in their own parish or for any lector who would like a "refresher" course.

A PRIVATE CHOICE. A SECRET BURDEN.

A while ago, I made the decision to have an abortion. It was, after all, my right to choose. But now, as I look back on it, I realize that something else besides my baby died inside of me that day.

I made a private choice. But it became a secret burden.

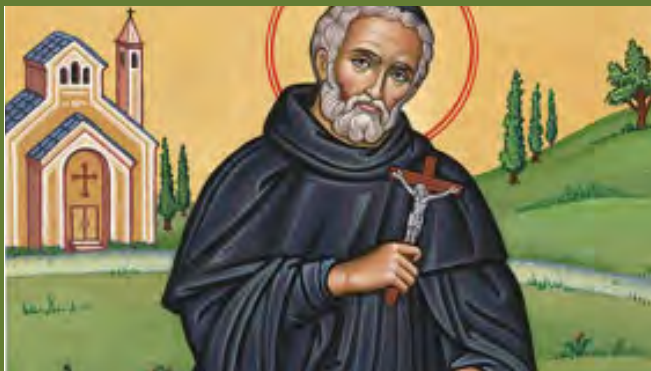

If you feel this way, there's hope. Please call our confidential helpline to speak with people who will not condemn you for your decision. Take the first step toward healing by calling:

Friar Johnpaul Caffero, OFM, is a Franciscan Priest of the Sacred Heart Province of Chicago/St. Louis. Born and raised in the New York Metro area, Friar Johnpaul is the oldest child of an Italian/Polish Catholic Family. He is a former police officer who has worked as counselor and chaplain at the Cook County Juvenile Detention Center in Chicago. His work has included counseling with gang members and their families and with adult children of alcoholics both in private therapy and in the 12Step Programs. This work has brought him to minister to survivors of physical and sexual abuse. As a follower of St. Francis of Assisi, Friar Johnpaul's love of the poor and outcasts is only surpassed by his love of the scripture. This comes through his many speaking and preaching engagements. Friar Johnpaul has lectured and preached throughout The United States and internationally. He formerly held the position of Vice President of Spiritual Life and Pastoral Counseling at Hales Franciscan High School on the south side of Chicago. Friar Johnpaul is a pastoral associate and preacher at Holy Family Parish in Inverness. Formerly the assistant vocation director for his Franciscan order, he now serves as chaplain for the Illinois State Police.
