FAMILIAR INSIGHTS

Spiritual teachers tend to repeat themselves, and to repeat other teachers. Maybe there really aren't that many different truths to tell. Just a lot of slow, sleepy human beings—like us—who need to hear the basics over and over. Consider today's readings.

People complain God isn't "fair," and Ezekiel answers that God is more than fair. People choose their own fates, and people can change. Even evildoers can turn, do right, and live. "Actions speak louder than words." A fresh new insight? Hardly.

Paul tells the Philippians that he would truly be encouraged if those who claimed to be believers would, in fact, look to others' interests and not their own. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." A novel idea? I don't think so.

In Jesus' story of the farmer and his sons, everyone knows that the one who said he wouldn't work—but did—is way ahead of the one who said he would work—but didn't. "Talk is cheap." Heard that before?

In Deacon George's homily on 8/30/20, he shared, "Order goes to disorder but then there is reorder. We are in the midst of that disorder...as individuals, and as a community. Just look around at the situations we are in...in our cities and in our world. We see so much disorder but Jesus tells us today to seek life. This disorder will be moved to re-order."

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

What prompts you to make the decisions you make? When confronted with a decision, whether one that is more trivial and mundane or one that is more significant and profound, we rely on guidance. That guidance can be the result of impulse and passion or the fruit of the interior voice of conscience. Decisions made on impulse and passion can be misguided and erroneous. Decisions based on conscience, or the moral voice within, will reflect the depth and maturity of our soul work. A more contemplative soul will make more contemplative decisions. A less developed conscience will make decisions based on the individual's level of development.

Conversion and a change of heart are at the core of Jesus' message precisely because of this reality: We are works in progress. For the person on fire with the Holy Spirit and centered on God, life reflects an ever-deepening awareness and heightened sense of God's presence and a greater willingness to do God's will. What is happening internally is validated by what is witnessed externally. The hypocrite is the one who says yes when they really mean no. From the start, they had no desire to do the virtuous act but wanted to outwardly appear as if they did.

Where are you on the road of integrity? Honesty is all that is required. God is good with that. It is okay to struggle with our decisions and wrestle with ourselves. Consciences on the path to maturity and greater depth are not always going to know what action is immediately best. We may, at first, say no to what we know is right and, after prayerful reflection and thought, come around to doing it. Conversion happens when our no changes to yes, regardless of how sinful or out of sync we may be at the time. God is anxious to welcome us to Himself. But we cannot embrace Him unless we want to. Learning to orient our gift of free will to what is of divine origin, right, and best is a discipline we must always tweak and perfect.

"When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him." - Mt 21:32

IS IT THE THOUGHT THAT COUNTS?

I can remember times when I received a gift that I would not have chosen for myself. At those times I certainly thought to myself that "it was the thought that counts." I was happy that the gift-giver thought of me at all. Then there have been times when my children have not given me a gift and then chose to tell me all about what they were going to give me. They would then follow it up by saying, "it was the thought that really counts." Really?! I don't think so. I could think of sending my wife on a cruise, but that is not in any way the same as going on the cruise. I think there are times when all of us think we are more generous than we are, simply because we were thinking about being generous.

This way of thinking can be dangerous. Jesus teaches us to say what we mean and mean what we say. The intentionality of our actions is important, but intentionality without action is meaningless. How we act and what we give serves as evidence of our intentions and indicates where our heart truly lies. If we fool ourselves into thinking we are someone we are not, it can become difficult to see the truth. We need to look for the fruit in our lives. We need to make sure our desires and thoughts are moving us to act. You know that other saying about intentions, don't you? Don't pave the road to a place no one wants to end up with your intentions. Instead, let your intentions and actions lead others to another place where Jesus can be found.

WHY DO CATHOLICS GENUFLECT?

Genuflection is an act of devotion that literally means "to bend the knee." For many Catholics, it's an almost automatic gesture that we perform before entering our pew or row of seats at Mass. But, like many of the symbols and gestures of our faith tradition, genuflecting can also be an invitation for deeper reflection.

The practice of "bending the knee" is an ancient way of recognizing the presence of someone greater than we are. It has been said that the practice dates back to the time of Alexander the Great, but it became a common part of etiquette in the royal courts of the Middle Ages.

From throne rooms and palaces, it was a small step to genuflecting becoming part of the devotional lives of Christians, who used this secular gesture as a way of recognizing the presence of the One who is King of Kings, especially in the Eucharist.

Today, Catholics are asked to genuflect in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament (whether in the tabernacle or exposed on the altar during eucharistic adoration). So, while it has become second nature to genuflect before entering your seat in church, we should pay attention to where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. In each church or chapel that we visit, and genuflect in the direction of the tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. In churches or chapels in which the tabernacle is in a separate space, we are invited to simply bow toward the altar.

In addition to genuflecting before the Blessed Sacrament, we are also instructed to genuflect before the cross used for veneration on Good Friday (during the solemn celebrations of the Lord's Passion) and any time a relic of the True Cross is displayed for veneration. This long-standing tradition is a way of honoring the cross as the great sign of our salvation and of showing devotion to the passion of Jesus.

Congratulations Confirmandi

Our Parish was blessed to have 121 teens Celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation during eight different ceremonies. Special thanks to Nic Soto and Claire Jones for enhancing the presentation by displaying slides and by showing a Thor movie clip and also to Isabelle Jordan and Adam Monnette who managed the camera, all so the Confirmation celebrations could be streamed to Facebook and Youtube for family and friends. There are a few teens who have chosen to wait to be Confirmed until a later date and we were happy to accommodate them.

Thanks to Josh Goodman for leading us in Music for our ceremonies and to Emily Groeller, Madeline Ray and Spencer Steeves.

Our Confirmation ceremonies this year were new and different and included the final Confirmation preparation session content. The presentation reminded the teens, sponsors, parents and others that:

God created you and loves you and each and every one of us is made for Good.

Sometimes we make mistakes, sometimes we don't recognize God's love and sometimes we let greed, vanity and pride get in the way of making good decisions and in the way of a good relationship with God.

Jesus came to earth on a divine rescue mission where He reconciled all of mankind to the Father and also teaches us how to love each other and love God.

Then, through breaking open a scene from the movie Thor we saw a glimpse of:

- Jesus' self sacrificing love
- Jesus conquering death and
- The power of the Holy Spirit

You can watch the presentation at www.stfrancislzparish.org/faith-witness/confirmation-teaching-2020

We are proud of all our teens who prepared to be Confirmed and were honored to celebrate this important sacrament with them.

ST. FRANCIS DE SALES PARISH ANNOUNCES THE ORDINATION OF TOM PURTELL TO THE DIACONATE

- and a reflection from Deacon Tom on his Big Day -

On August 30, 2020, I was ordained to the Order of the Diaconate by the Most Reverend John Manz at the Chapel of the Immaculate Conception, University of Saint Mary of the Lake, Mundelein Seminary. Fr. Ryan concelebrated the Mass with Bishop Manz and also helped me vest in my stole and dalmatic for the first time.

When I first felt the nudge of the Holy Spirit, I had only a vague understanding of the diaconate, but, as with all vocations, God called me through desire. He went to work in me and has given me answers to many questions. Through much prayer and discernment, it became clear that God was taking a very ordinary person, me, and called him to a special vocation as a deacon.

This unlikely journey towards the diaconate for me would not have been possible if it were not for my wife Jocelyn, family members and friends, my classmates, Fr. Ryan and the deacons at St. Francis de Sales, and my fellow parishioners. A simple thank you seems so inadequate for what everyone has done for me over the past four years, but I do thank you and am ever grateful for the gifts of your support, prayers, guidance, and love.

It is with great humility that I look forward to serving the St. Francis de Sales Parish community as a permanent deacon. Please keep me in your prayers as you are always in mine.

FISH FRY THANK YOU & FRIED CHICKEN NIGHT

Thank you everyone who took part in our 2020 Fish Fry and Bake whether it was through volunteering, sponsoring, or as a guest. Although we had to switch to the drive-thru service mid stream because of COVID concerns, the year was still an overall success. Our profits allowed us to make donations totaling $10,247.09; $6,148.25 to Mt. St. Joseph, $3,074.13 Center for Independence, and $1,024.71 SPRED.

Based on current COVID conditions we will not be on the streets and in front of stores this year for our annual ID Drive "Tootsie Rolls". In lieu of not having the ID Drive we will be holding a Fried Chicken & Bake Dinner that will work much like the Fish Fry & Bake on the first 2 Fridays in October 2nd & 9th. Please try to think of us for dinner those nights. We appreciate all the support we get from the parish. More info to come...

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen
