September 29, 2019: Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"You are capable of realizing a longing after God, why should you trifle with anything lower? You can live for eternity, why should you stop short in time?" - St Francis de Sales

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Woe to the complacent, stretched comfortably on their couches! (Amos 6:1a, 4-7).

Psalms — Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146)

Second Reading — Pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness (1 Timothy 6:11-16).

Gospel — There was a rich man who dined sumptuously each day. Lying at his door was a poor man named Lazarus (Luke 16:19-31).

HOW GOD INTENDS US TO LIVE

Today's readings are again directed to believers, communities of faith. As in last week's reading, Amos confronts us with a condemnation of those whose lives are focused on pleasure and self-absorption. The psalm contrasts that focus with the Lord's—justice for the oppressed; food the hungry; freedom for captives; sight to the blind; raising of those who are bowed down; loving the just; protecting strangers, orphans, and the widow; and by doing so, thwarting the way of the wicked. Timothy urges the pursuit of righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Luke tells the familiar tale of the wealthy man and the poor beggar at his doorstep, who experience life very differently in this world and in the next. We are once again being given clear indications about how God intends for us to live our lives.

Lie #2: I Can Only Count on Myself

When someone disappoints us, the Enemy whispers "you can't count on other people." We don't like being vulnerable. We are fearful and anxious. We try to control situations focusing mainly on ourself, refusing to let others in. This is the Enemy's aim. We need each other. God's kingdom is not about individual salvation. His unity with the baptized community brings salvation. Like charcoal briquettes which ignite only when they touch, those not connected die out. Phillipians 2:1-4 encourages us to love in unity, in humility.

Parish Mission last week was a hit!

St. Francis de Sales was blessed to have Richard Lane with us this past week for an excellent presentation of: Knowing God's Purpose and Plan for Your Life. Thank you to all who were able to join us, to all who invited family and friends to be with us, and to all our wonderful volunteers who provided warm hospitality and a welcoming smile to all who entered our church doors.

Besides his passionate presentations on all four days, Richard devoted many hours to be with our school students and with the teens in our Confirmation and Lifeteen programs. Please send up a prayer of thanksgiving for Richard, for donating his time, travel expenses and talent to bring others closer to Jesus.

Hopefully our mission left you with a sense of God's Plan for your life - a plan to give you new life and HOPE through a deeper relationship with Him. We would like to help you continue your journey through our upcoming Alpha Series. Please consider joining us on Tuesday evenings or Thursday mornings starting the week of October 1.

- A theology of Eucharist as celebrated in the Roman Catholic tradition
- The roots of our ministry in Scripture, the early Church, and on through the Second Vatican Council
- Historical aspects of our celebration of Eucharist in practice and devotion
- A review of the Liturgy of the Eucharist and how our ministry as EMs 'fits' in the larger picture
- Questions and Answers

This training meets the Archdiocesan requirements for mandation and remandation.

Proclaiming the Word: Lector Training Workshop
Training Location: in Church

Lectors have a critical role in the celebration of the Mass. Since lectors proclaim not just any word, but the Word of God, it is essential that they develop the skills required to communicate God's message competently.

Through the use of voice, eye contact and personal presence, lectors help God's Word come alive for the assembly.

This training will provide the skills and self-confidence needed for those who wish to become lectors in their own parish or for any lector who would like a "refresher" course.

Friar Johnpaul Cafiero, OFM, is a Franciscan Priest of the Sacred Heart Province of Chicago/St. Louis. Born and raised in the New York Metro area, Friar Johnpaul is the oldest child of an Italian/Polish Catholic Family. He is a former police officer who has worked as counselor and chaplain at the Cook County Juvenile Detention Center in Chicago. His work has included counseling with gang members and their families and with adult children of alcoholics both in private therapy and in the 12Step Programs. This work has brought him to minister to survivors of physical and sexual abuse. As a follower of St. Francis of Assisi, Friar Johnpaul's love of the poor and outcasts is only surpassed by his love of the scripture. This comes through his many speaking and preaching engagements. Friar Johnpaul has lectured and preached throughout The United States and internationally. He formerly held the position of Vice President of Spiritual Life and Pastoral Counseling at Hales Franciscan High School on the south side of Chicago. Friar Johnpaul is a pastoral associate and preacher at Holy Family Parish in Inverness.  and all the evil spirits, who prawl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
