THE GIFT OF THE REIGN OF GOD

Matthew's Gospel today expands on Isaiah's ballad considerably. A comparison with the same story in Mark's Gospel clearly shows us that here the author is busy teaching this community of Jewish Christians: "This is a story about Israel a long time ago; this is also a story about Jesus and the skeptical leaders."

Jesus as much as told these Jewish leaders that they were the tenants who first stoned their own prophets. And he told the leaders they were the tenants who would soon even dispose of him—Jesus—and, in doing so, would forfeit their privileged place of presenting to the world the promised Messiah.

"And this," says Matthew's Gospel, "is a story about you, the inheritors of what was first offered to Israel." The reign of God was first opened to Israel and is now given to the whole world, but it must be received as a gift. The first Christians are the new tenants in the vineyard. The deeper reality of the reign or kingdom of God is that it is available to everyone on the face of the earth—Israel included.

GROWING DISCIPLES

As Kevin Pease taught this summer in the Holy Spirit class, "Without Jesus' humanness, we cannot know God's divinity." We are given a wonderful and personal invitation from Jesus into a relationship with His Father.

Will you accept this most gracious invitation?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Do you ever wonder why things never seem to come together? We see glimpses of consistency, equity, justice, peace, harmony, and wellbeing, but it always falls short. Human life is still expendable and manipulated, people are used for personal advancement, countries are at war, the economy continues to face turbulence, anger and frustration are widespread, and happiness is the possession of just a few and not the many. Could it be that we are serving the wrong kingdom? We keep trying to make our kingdom work and find ourselves still scratching our heads after repeatedly failed attempts to do so. It is almost as if people are saying, "we'll get it right this time if we do ...," as if some new and secret innovation has yet to be tried.

We serve God's kingdom. We may not like hearing that, but it is true. God did not make only a few of us. God made all of humanity and all of humanity is called into service. How often do we defer any of our decision making to God? Secular leaders enjoy winking at the Sacred Scriptures and using them when they advance a cause, but are they really listened to? Even those who consider themselves believers tend to sift through God's Word, taking what seems to fit and apply and discarding the rest. After all, if we were really serving God's kingdom, we would see an abundance of fruit testifying to this fact. But what's growing on the vine is anything other than good Gospel-centered fruit.

Nothing in this world or the next belongs to us. We have such a hard time believing this and live our lives as if everything belongs to us. And, the fruit does not lie. Trees that are neglected and not properly fertilized reveal that fact. They cannot keep these deep secrets from being discovered. If God's kingdom was really being served, then life would have looked much differently after the crucifixion. By now, there would be plenty of fantastic fruit to harvest in abundance: faith, hope, love, prudence, temperance, justice, and fortitude. Do we see these in abundance around us? Why not?

Still we grapple with ownership, privilege, status, and the protection of our rights. It's all about us and what we want, think we need, and expect to acquire. When did this change of focus occur? We may be struggling with this since humanity's day in the garden and have never understood that the focus cannot be on us and the apple but on God and God's justice. Maybe the only answer is that the Kingdom be taken from us and given to someone who is willing to do a better job. Is that the fate we really want?

"But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?" - Mt 21:38-40

GIFTS GIVEN TO SHARE

My oldest two children took piano lessons when they were younger. In fact, it was because my oldest wanted to learn to play so badly that we purchased a piano. He would use it for practice during his few years of lessons, and then my daughter took up the instrument. After a few years of lessons for each, restlessness set in and a type of indifference took over. The lessons and the practicing came to an end. My youngest had not expressed much interest in piano when he was younger. Then when he was a teenager, he asked for lessons. He began to play and now he plays even for fun and to relax. When his siblings try to play, they are stuck with the truth that those days are gone and since they gave it up years ago, they can no longer really play. In many ways, they were given a gift, but since they did not use and cultivate it, they lost it.

God gives us gifts every day and we too often act like those gifts will simply always be there. The truth is, unlike God Himself, many of those gifts are not eternal. If we fail to acknowledge them and put them to use, we risk losing them in the end. What a shame. What gifts might be slowly slipping away from each of us due to our lack of interest and indifference? They might not be there if and when we change our minds.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHY DO PARISHES OFFER SPECIAL MASSES LIKE THANKSGIVING AND MEMORIAL DAY, EVEN THOUGH THEY'RE NOT HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION? AM I OBLIGATED TO ATTEND?

Out of respect for the various civil celebrations that take place during the year, many dioceses and parishes will host special Masses. However, while it is always worthwhile to come together to worship as a community, Catholics are not obligated to attend these celebrations. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church notes, the only times that we are obligated to participate in celebrations of the Eucharist are on Sundays and holy days of obligation:

The first precept ("You shall attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor") requires the faithful to sanctify the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord as well as the principal liturgical feasts honoring the mysteries of the Lord, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the saints; in the first place, by participating in the Eucharistic celebration, in which the Christian community is gathered, and by resting from those works and activities which could impede such a sanctification of these days.

Congratulations Confirmandi

Our Parish was blessed to have 121 teens Celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation during eight different ceremonies. Special thanks to Nic Soto and Claire Jones for enhancing the presentation by displaying slides and by showing a Thor movie clip and also to Isabelle Jordan and Adam Monnette who managed the camera, all so the Confirmation celebrations could be streamed to Facebook and Youtube for family and friends. There are a few teens who have chosen to wait to be Confirmed until a later date and we were happy to accommodate them.

Thanks to Josh Goodman for leading us in Music for our ceremonies and to Emily Groeller, Madeline Ray and Spencer Steeves.

Our Confirmation ceremonies this year were new and different and included the final Confirmation preparation session content. The presentation reminded the teens, sponsors, parents and others that:

God created you and loves you and each and every one of us is made for Good.

Sometimes we make mistakes, sometimes we don't recognize God's love and sometimes we let greed, vanity and pride get in the way of making good decisions and in the way of a good relationship with God.

Jesus came to earth on a divine rescue mission where He reconciled all of mankind to the Father and also teaches us how to love each other and love God.

Then, through breaking open a scene from the movie Thor we saw a glimpse of:

- Jesus' self sacrificing love
- Jesus conquering death and
- The power of the Holy Spirit

You can watch the presentation at

We are proud of all our teens who prepared to be Confirmed and were honored to celebrate this important sacrament with them.

ST. FRANCIS DE SALES PARISH ANNOUNCES THE ORDINATION OF TOM PURTELL TO THE DIACONATE

- and a reflection from Deacon Tom on his Big Day -

On August 30, 2020, I was ordained to the Order of the Diaconate by the Most Reverend John Manz at the Chapel of the Immaculate Conception, University of Saint Mary of the Lake, Mundelein Seminary. Fr. Ryan concelebrated the Mass with Bishop Manz and also helped me vest in my stole and dalmatic for the first time.

When I first felt the nudge of the Holy Spirit, I had only a vague understanding of the diaconate, but, as with all vocations, God called me through desire. He went to work in me and has given me answers to many questions. Through much prayer and discernment, it became clear that God was taking a very ordinary person, me, and called him to a special vocation as a deacon.

This unlikely journey towards the diaconate for me would not have been possible if it were not for my wife Jocelyn, family members and friends, my classmates, Fr. Ryan and the deacons at St. Francis de Sales, and my fellow parishioners. A simple thank you seems so inadequate for what everyone has done for me over the past four years, but I do thank you and am ever grateful for the gifts of your support, prayers, guidance, and love.

It is with great humility that I look forward to serving the St. Francis de Sales Parish community as a permanent deacon. Please keep me in your prayers as you are always in mine.

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call Fr. Ryan, (847)726-4723, or Ministry of Care, (847)438-6622, when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.
