PERSISTENCE

Today's readings are about persistence, passionate persistence. Exodus tells of a battle won despite weariness because Moses, with help from Aaron and Hur, held his hands raised. Timothy asks that same persistence of his community and us. Luke tells of a court case won by a widow, despite the dishonesty of the judge, because she will not leave him alone. The psalm reminds us that God is everywhere, guarding us from harm day and night, coming and going, now and forever. The readings are about persistence, the relentless, unwavering pursuit of what must not be lost. The readings are about God's passionate persistence in pursuing us, seeking to win our hearts.

Lie # 4: The Devil is as Powerful as God

We can't deny the devil has power. He's an "equal opportunity troublemaker." He likes you to think that either he's a powerless symbol or that he's real and has the same power as God. Today's violence, terrorism and evil may provoke us to maximize Satan's power. God is all powerful. Call on Him. Pray daily with Scripture, the Rosary, Chaplet. Worship often at Holy Mass. Frequent Reconciliation. Stay close to Jesus. Satan has already lost to Christ's victory. "Resist the devil & he will flee from you." (James 4:7)

Project Rachel ... A Source for Hope and Healing

Fr. Robert Schultz, Pastor, St. Beatrice and St. Maria Goretti Parishes

"The Church, through its sacramental life, offers those who have been traumatized by abortion a powerful way to encounter the healing and reconciling love of God through the Sacrament of Reconciliation and especially the Eucharist. Forgiveness in the Catholic tradition is not forgetting what happened, or simply relief from guilt or punishment. Forgiveness means being restored by the God who knows and cares and being transformed in the heart and created anew."

These words refer to Project Rachel – a healing ministry for those who have experienced the trauma of abortion. Project Rachel aims to show people that we are always able to find forgiveness and healing in God.

When I was ordained and learned about Project Rachel, I signed up for the one-day training, which helps us priests:

1. Understand the guilt that post-abortive women and men suffer
2. Learn how to talk to them – what to say and what not to say – and how to listen to them
3. Get practical suggestions for how to celebrate the sacrament of Reconciliation, and possibly a memorial Mass, with them.

I became a Project Rachel priest to help women and men who suffer from the pain of abortion but feel like they are not allowed to talk about it – and that is certainly the case in our current culture. How many times do we see TV show characters get an abortion, and in the next episode they have moved on as if nothing ever happened? How often do we hear that abortion is simply a safe and legal surgical procedure, or that it is reproductive health care?

Among the women I have ministered to through Project Rachel, all of them have told me that they have experienced at least one (and usually several) of the following: depression, anxiety, suicidal thoughts and/or suicidal attempts, alcohol and/or drug abuse, marital problems and/or divorce, and a variety of physical illnesses. They all wonder if God can forgive them. And even if they believe that He does, they have an enormously difficult time forgiving themselves.

Because abortion is so prevalent, I guarantee that someone you know has had an abortion, whether you are aware of it or not.

There are so many women and men who are suffering from this, but many of them suffer in silence because they are told that they should just move on.

Project Rachel reminds us that we cannot just move on without the gifts of God's grace and mercy.

As we prepare for Respect Life month in October and because there is such a need for post-abortion healing, I offer some suggestions:

1. Spread the word about Project Rachel wherever you can. Visit pvm.archchicago.org/human-dignity-solidarity/respect-life-chastity-education/post-abortion-healing to access materials that you can download and share in your parishes today, or call 312.534.5355 to discuss what might be best to share in your parish.
2. Become trained as a Project Rachel priest by calling the number listed above. People call in from all over to find healing through Project Rachel, so it is helpful to have priests stationed around the Archdiocese who are trained in this ministry.
3. Direct anyone suffering from the effects of abortion to contact the caring people at Project Rachel through the confidential hotline at 312.337.1962 or 888.456.HOPE.

We can always have hope because God's mercy is always stronger than our weaknesses. And we see that in the Scripture passage from which the Project Rachel ministry gets its name: "Rachel mourns her children; she refuses to be consoled because her children are no more. Thus says the Lord; Cease your cries of mourning. Wipe the tears from your eyes. The sorrow you have shown shall have its reward. There is hope for your future." (Jeremiah 31:15–17)

How Catholics see the scandal

by Russell Shaw

During the listening session I attended, the sentiment was frequently expressed that the bishops ought to be "doing more"

What do serious, practicing Catholics think about the sex abuse crisis? To find out, you can commission a public opinion survey or you can attend a parish listening session. I chose the latter approach, and the results were at least as illuminating as any opinion poll and possibly more so.

What I found out was that serious, practicing Catholics — those people in the pews who are the backbone of the Church — are definitely angry, but they haven't lost their faith in the Church or their affection and respect for their priests. They want answers to how all this happened and they don't want airy reassurances that all is well. But they're willing to listen if the leaders of the Church will just give them straight talk.

Herewith a few verbatim notes on what I heard:

"...angry, sad, confused..." "We feel lost. We looked to the priests and religious to tell us what our religion was all about. How do we stay faithful to our faith?" "Our major concern is our children and grandchildren... How would you evangelize now?" "Our own good priests have been betrayed." "This happens outside the Church in society....We're not alone." "The devil is in our world at work." "...a need for much greater transparency." "...a feeling of joy that this is all out in the open....There must be dramatic changes in the Church." "It's time for the laity to wake up and speak out." "...more lay involvement in the decision making process all the way up to the Vatican." "We must learn to forgive."

There were no big surprises here nor were any magic solutions offered. People suggested what you'd them to suggest: more accountability, a bigger role for the laity in general and women in particular, maybe married priests.

Most striking perhaps in what I heard was the absence of bitterness. People are indeed deeply distressed about what has happened, but they aren't in a rush to blame anybody for it — not yet at least.

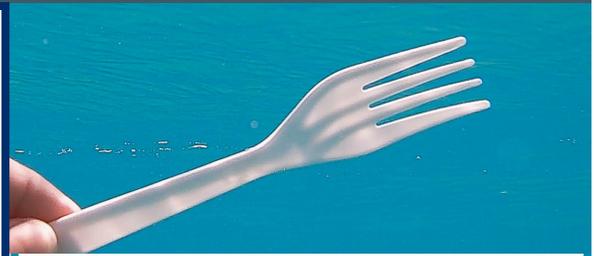

Commendable as it is, however, this patience is not inexhaustible, and I would not advise anyone occupying a leadership position in the Church to count on things staying that way without early and effective action to address the roots of the present crisis.

I was also struck by the fact that so many people appear to suffer from dismaying gaps in what they know about the sex abuse scandal. During the listening session I attended, the sentiment was frequently expressed that the bishops ought to be "doing more."

Very likely the bishops should be doing more, and perhaps they soon will be (their November general meeting will be crucial). But the people making this point often seemed unaware that the American bishops have been doing quite a lot about the sex abuse problem for the last 35 years, and apparently with good results as measured by the notable decline in new cases of abuse of minors reported in this time.

Here I mainly fault the media — especially the secular media — for feeding audiences a diet of sensational news while downplaying or ignoring the fact that sex abuse in Catholic institutions in the United States is way, way down. Is it possible that this partly reflects a certain deep-seated dislike of the Church arising from prejudices that have little or nothing to do with its record on sex abuse?

All in all there is cause for much encouragement in hearing serious, practicing Catholics speak out about this scandal. But note that I said encouragement, not complacency.

PARISH ALL SOULS' MASS

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 5 PM

In our Catholic tradition, during the entire month of November, we pray for our loved ones who have died. Most especially, we remember them on November 2, the Commemoration of All Souls. All who grieve the loss of someone special, whether recently or years ago, are invited to attend the 5 pm. All Souls' Mass on Saturday, November 2, to pray and light a candle for loved ones who have died.

To remember those whom we mourn in a tangible way and make their presence a part of this special liturgy, you are invited to bring a memento to place on a memory table prior to Mass. The memento might be a picture of your loved one or some other small article that means a great deal to you as you remember them. If you have questions, please contact the parish office.

a Holiday Tradition a Gift of Love

This year we have many individuals and families who need our assistance during the upcoming holidays. By remembering them with a Christmas gift and food for their dinner, we act as a reminder of Christ's presence in the world today. Residents at Mt. St. Joseph and Lexington Health Care Center, as well as families from St. Francis de Sales and area parishes, need our help this Advent season. We ask that you purchase a new article of clothing and a gift for each child in the family. Gifts for the parents are optional. We also ask that you purchase $10 Jewel or Walmart gift cards per person for the family so that they may make their own food selection. There is no need for gift cards for residents at Mt. St. Joseph or Lexington. Look for the Gift of Love sign-up tables in the Gathering Space before and after Masses beginning the weekend of October 26. On behalf of everyone who has been assisted through the Gift of Love, thank you for your generosity in past years. We hope you find it possible to continue to make this a holiday tradition.

Friar Johnpaul Cafiero, OFM, is a Franciscan Priest of the Sacred Heart Province of Chicago/St. Louis. Born and raised in the New York Metro area, Friar Johnpaul is the oldest child of an Italian/Polish Catholic Family. He is a former police officer who has worked as counselor and chaplain at the Cook County Juvenile Detention Center in Chicago. His work has included counseling with gang members and their families and with adult children of alcoholics both in private therapy and in the 12Step Programs. This work has brought him to minister to survivors of physical and sexual abuse. As a follower of St. Francis of Assisi, Friar Johnpaul's love of the poor and outcasts is only surpassed by his love of the scripture. This comes through his many speaking and preaching engagements. Friar Johnpaul has lectured and preached throughout The United States and internationally. He formerly held the position of Vice President of Spiritual Life and Pastoral Counseling at Hales Franciscan High School on the south side of Chicago. Friar Johnpaul is a pastoral associate and preacher at Holy Family Parish in Inverness. Formerly the assistant vocation director for his Franciscan order, he now serves as chaplain for the Illinois State Police.

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prawl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call Fr. Ryan (847 726-4723) or Ministry of Care (847 438-6622) when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.
