CONFIDENCE IN THE LORD

We are nearing the end of the liturgical year. Today's readings remind us that our own lives will draw to a close one day, and we can be certain that the Lord will encourage, strengthen, and save us—both now and at the last. The astonishing story of the Maccabees invigorates our faith as we behold an entire family willing to die rather than deny the Law of Moses. The psalm response echoes the faithful cries of the Maccabees: "I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God." That same confidence appears in Saint Paul's letter to the Thessalonians. "The Lord is faithful," he testifies; "he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one." In the Gospel, Jesus explains just how long God's protection will endure. The children of God whom God guards, Jesus says, will live forever like angels

There is no sin, no pattern of thinking, no addiction, no vice that is beyond God's power to redeem – if we are willing to give our brokenness to the Lord, open our hearts to him and cooperate with the power that is already ours in him.

Deacon's Corner

In a recent parable I read last Wednesday from Ezekiel, chapter 34, was written of the sheep being forsaken by their shepherd and left for the wolves to prey upon. And as I gave this more thought, it struck a cord in my mind about wolves and sheep that I thought I would share with all of you in this week's Deacon's Corner.

I am sure we all recall many stories as we were growing up that related to the devouring nature of wolves, such as the three pigs, Little Red Riding Hood, and many more. But did we ever stop and think about the wolves as being the "left shoulder evil one" that I write about and use in homilies often? The evil one who works tirelessly to divert our attention away from our "Shepherd" who is Jesus Christ. Perhaps if you are like me, you never really considered that concept. So today let's look again at the "evil one" who is continually in our lives no matter how hard we work to keep him out.

Many of the stories from years gone by relating to wolves always had a reasonably happy ending. But in the scripture of Ezekiel, Our Lord was not happy with the self-involved shepherds that He had designated to tend to His flock, for they only seemed to care about taking care of themselves. And at the end of the day, Jesus Christ, our eternal Shepherd, comes to "gather up His flock and care for them". The great thing about this parable is that Jesus Christ makes this same caring and protection available to all of us each and every day. So the big question of the day is; "do we call upon our Shepherd to watch over and protect us?" Do we ask Our Lord and Savior to "keep the evil one out of our lives"?

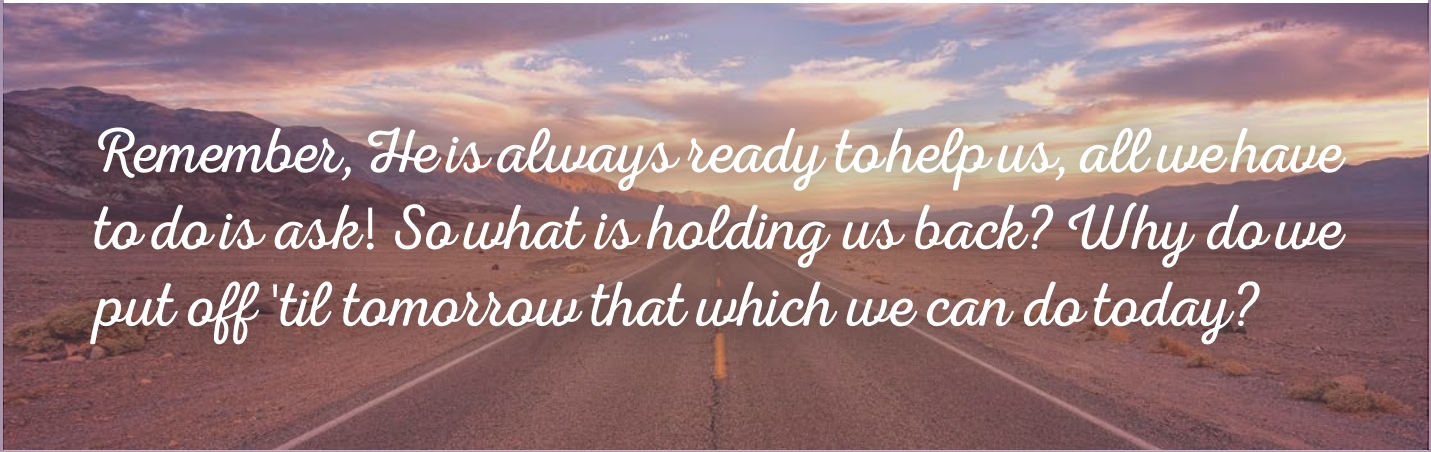

Speaking for myself, as I do in my Deacon's Corner, I find that I do not ask for my Shepherd to watch over me as much as I could or should. I am not really sure why that is, except to say that perhaps my faith in God isn't as strong as it should be. That being the case, I am striving every day to become more "in tune with the ways of my Shepherd". You see, the interesting part about this concept is that God, our Father, has made us all shepherds and also sheep. We are shepherds to each other, members of our families, co-workers in the workplace, even to strangers on the street. For I believe that we all have a responsibility to each other to live and preach the Word of God to each other. And as long as we live the best we can and work hard to maintain a relationship with Our Lord, I am convinced that God, our Father, will always be there as our Shepherd to protect us from the wolves of the world.

So as we go on in our lives, let us always make a concerted effort to be a shepherd and a sheep. A shepherd to those around us by helping to guide them in the Way of the Lord and protect them as best we can by helping them (and ourselves) to overcome the wolves as we see them every day. Also, as a sheep, always keep asking God, our Father, to protect us and keep us, now and all the days of our lives. Remember, He is always ready to help us, all we have to do is ask! So what is holding us back? Why do we put off 'til tomorrow that which we can do today?

One of the thoughts I had as to why we might put off 'til tomorrow that which we can do today is that if we are prepared to meet Our Lord and Savior, we might meet Him, meaning our journey on earth is completed. I know for myself that I sometimes feel that if I am not completely organized and prepared to meet Our Lord, if I am not ready for my journey to be complete, maybe I will be here to complete those tasks. That was the "old" me. Recent events in my life that have been life threatening in the past few years have given me a good reason to always be prepared, to be organized and ready to meet Our Lord. So the advice I can give to all of you is "do not put off 'til tomorrow that which you can do today".

My blessings to all,
Deacon John

Remember, He is always ready to help us, all we have to do is ask! So what is holding us back? Why do we put off 'til tomorrow that which we can do today?

Catholic Charities Needs Help in Lake County for Christmas

Ours is an adopt-a-family program. Last year it served more than 13,000 of the county's neediest by providing them with Christmas Gifts.

Donors come from a variety of sources. Many are businesses from around the county; others are clubs, schools, fraternal organizations and individuals and their families. Our largest source of donors, however, are churches and individuals who hear of the need at church. It is there that Christ's message is most audibly heard and most clearly put into action. It is there that the call to us to be servants best translates into the building of the kingdom.

Donors are provided first name, age, gender, sizes and a gift preference for each member of a sponsored family. They are then asked to shop for their designated person(s) and return the gifts to Catholic Charities for distribution.

The economic situation, though improved, hasn't reached a lot of folks, so the need continues and finds many with substantially less discretionary income. If you would like to be involved in this work of heart, contact Jim Wogan or Barbara Campbell, 847-782-4210 or at cglc@catholiccharities.net. Consider involving your work group at your place of business or others in your social circle.

Also, if you know of a group interested in a one shot volunteer opportunity, they might want to consider working a shift at the distribution center. In that case, contact Sue Fowler at 847-782-4126.

"O COME ALL YE FAITHFUL" COLLEGE/YOUNG ADULTS!

St. Francis de Sales welcomes you to sing at the 9:30am Mass on Christmas Day. Join your fellow alums from Lake Zurich, Stevenson, Wauconda, Mundelein, St. Viator, Carmel, and Barrington High Schools as they raise their voices in song in the all-college choir. No need to have been involved in a choir in the past! All are welcome! There will be ONE rehearsal a couple days prior to the Mass (when all will be home). Music will be available well in advance. For further information, please contact Pat Stewart at (847) 726-4720 or Chris Misik at (847) 732-3106.

Hand-Carved Olive Wood Gifts from the Holy Land

Proceeds benefit Catholic schools in the Holy Land.

Did you know that 600 Christian families living in Bethlehem and are completely dependent on carving olive wood figurines for their livelihood? The recent clashes in the Middle East have stopped the tourism industry in Bethlehem, causing most of those families serious harm in earning their living and forcing many of them to leave their homeland. Emptying the land of Christ from Christians can have tragic consequences on the Holy sites. Issam from "Star of Bethlehem Group" came to the United States with a mission to help those families by selling their beautiful religious hand crafts. The cost of goods goes to benefit the Christian carvers to keep them working in the spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, the profit from sales goes directly to the needy Catholic schools and clinics in the Holy Land. Star of Bethlehem has been approved by many bishops, and diocese of Jerusalem. Please take a look at those beautiful artifacts November 23rd & 24th.

"Dining in the Kingdom of God"

January 10-12, 2020

Retreat Master Fr. Rick McGurn, SJ
An Ignatian, Silent Weekend Retreat for Men

Following Luke's gospel, we will follow Jesus' ministry while at meals with the rich and poor. Jesus' ministry of welcome, call and reconciliation is evident in the various meals Luke has recorded - all leading up to His Last Passover and the Lord's Supper which we continue to celebrate in the Eucharist.

Meet Fr. Rick McGurn, SJ

Fr. Richard McGurn, SJ, M.A. Psych., M.Div, was ordained in 1975. He directed the internship for spiritual directors at the Jesuit retreat house in Cincinnati. He has served the major superior of the Chicago Jesuits as his executive assistant and as director of formation for young Jesuits preparing for ordination and ministry. Just prior to coming to Bellarmine, he was superior of the Jesuit community at Loyola Academy in Wilmette, IL. He runs Bellarmine's Spiritual Direction Internship and serves as the Superior of the Bellarmine Jesuit Community.

a Holiday Tradition a Gift of Love

This year we have many individuals and families who need our assistance during the upcoming holidays. By remembering them with a Christmas gift and food for their dinner, we act as a reminder of Christ's presence in the world today. Residents at Mt. St. Joseph and Lexington Health Care Center, as well as families from St. Francis de Sales and area parishes, need our help this Advent season. We ask that you purchase a new article of clothing and a gift for each child in the family. Gifts for the parents are optional. We also ask that you purchase $10 Jewel or Walmart gift cards per person for the family so that they may make their own food selection. There is no need for gift cards for residents at Mt. St. Joseph or Lexington. Look for the Gift of Love sign-up tables in the Gathering Space before and after Masses beginning the weekend of November 9-10. On behalf of everyone who has been assisted through the Gift of Love, thank you for your generosity in past years. We hope you find it possible to continue to make this a holiday tradition.

Our Lady of Tepeyac Sharing Tree

The Christmas Tree/Sharing Tree for Our Lady of Tepeyac will "bloom" in the Church Gathering Space on the weekend of November 9-10 and will remain there throughout the month of November. All ideas are in the paper mittens.

The Christmas Gifts for our Sister Parish, Our Lady of Tepeyac, will be collected on the weekend of December 7-8. The gifts will be distributed in the grade school, high school, parish, and food pantry. May God bless you! For questions, contact Patricia Linares at pjimenezlinares04@yahoo.com or (847)550-1053.

a Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prawl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

† Please Pray for the Sick †

As members of our parish faith community, we remember those who are ill, who are homebound, and all nursing home residents and ask for your prayers. Please call Fr. Ryan (847 726-4723) or Ministry of Care (847 438-6622) when a parishioner is in the hospital for visitation or to request the Sacrament of Anointing and/or Holy Communion. Please call the parish office when someone on this list has recovered, wants to remain on the list longer than 3 weeks or has gone to their eternal rest.

SACRAMENTS

Sacrament of Baptism: Baptism is celebrated after parental participation in a preparation meeting. Please call the Parish Office for a date to attend. Do not finalize your plans until this formation meeting.

Sacrament of Confirmation: Preparation for Confirmation takes place during the high school years with the celebration of the Sacrament taking place no sooner than the end of sophomore year in high school. For more info and registration please contact the Youth Ministry Office at 847-726-4842.

Sacrament of Reconciliation: Saturdays between 11am and Noon.

Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick: This Sacrament offers the Lord's healing strength and peace to anyone who is seriously or chronically ill, hospitalized, or about to undergo surgery. Please contact the Ministry Center 847-438-6622, or Fr. Ryan at 847-726-4723 if you wish to have someone anointed, or the Last Rites near death.

Sacrament of Marriage: Arrangements should be made at least six months in advance and no other plans should be finalized until the Parish Priest or Deacon has been consulted.

Sacraments for Adults: Adults interested in the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation) should contact the Ministry Center at 847-438-6622.
