MARK'S JESUS

Mark's Gospel is the shortest and tersest of all four. The discourses of Jesus tend to be terser as well. Mark's portrayal of Jesus has none of the poetry of the Sermon on the Mount or the Sermon on the Plain as in Matthew or Luke, nor the extensive, reflective "I Am" discourses as in John. Mark's Jesus "cuts to the chase," we would say today. This is reflected quite well in today's passage.

It is no accident that the dialogue of Jesus at this point in the Gospel according to Mark—the concluding words about the end of the world—immediately before his passion, is riddled with exclamation points and an overall sense of urgency.

We would do well to re-tool our own way of living this Advent, for we live in a world urgently in need of hearing the message of Jesus proclaimed. It's time for us to "wake up!" and get out into the world to do it. copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

This column is curated by Mary Jo Kunzmann, Judy Reilly, and Nancy Jarvis with the hope that it will help you on your journey to grow as disciples of Jesus.

At the opening of the 1907 dystopic, apocalyptic novel, LORD OF THE WORLD, a priest faithfully begins his mornings sitting in a straight-back chair, arms dropped to his side, palms open in prayer, surrendering his day to God. Pope Francis told reporters to read this book to understand his papacy. In the story, other priests abandon their vocation. They have not given themselves over to prayer. They only perform the externals. Prayer is a Christian's foundation, sustenance and grace. Early in your day give God 5 minutes. Show up every day.

Washington, D.C. | October 3, 1863 | By the President of the United States of America.

A Proclamation.

The year that is drawing towards its close, has been filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies. To these bounties, which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they come, others have been added, which are of so extraordinary a nature, that they cannot fail to penetrate and soften even the heart which is habitually insensible to the ever watchful providence of Almighty God. In the midst of a civil war of unequalled magnitude and severity, which has sometimes seemed to foreign States to invite and to provoke their aggression, peace has been preserved with all nations, order has been maintained, the laws have been respected and obeyed, and harmony has prevailed everywhere except in the theatre of military conflict; while that theatre has been greatly contracted by the advancing armies and navies of the Union. Needful diversions of wealth and of strength from the fields of peaceful industry to the national defence, have not arrested the plough, the shuttle or the ship; the axe has enlarged the borders of our settlements, and the mines, as well of iron and coal as of the precious metals, have yielded even more abundantly than heretofore. Population has steadily increased, notwithstanding the waste that has been made in the camp, the siege and the battle-field; and the country, rejoicing in the consciousness of augmented strength and vigor, is permitted to expect continuance of years with large increase of freedom. No human counsel hath devised nor hath any mortal hand worked out these great things. They are the gracious gifts of the Most High God, who, while dealing with us in anger for our sins, hath nevertheless remembered mercy. It has seemed to me fit and proper that they should be solemnly, reverently and gratefully acknowledged as with one heart and one voice by the whole American People. I do therefore invite my fellow citizens in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to set apart and observe the last Thursday of November next, as a day of Thanksgiving and Praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the Heavens. And I recommend to them that while offering up the ascriptions justly due to Him for such singular deliverances and blessings, they do also, with humble penitence for our national perverseness and disobedience, commend to His tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, mourners or sufferers in the lamentable civil strife in which we are unavoidably engaged, and fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty Hand to heal the wounds of the nation and to restore it as soon as may be consistent with the Divine purposes to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquillity and Union.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the City of Washington, this Third day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the Independence of the United States the Eighty-eighth.

Dear Father Ryan,

Although the 2020 Annual Catholic Appeal does not end until January 31, 2021, it has already been a great success in advancing the mission of the Archdiocese of Chicago at both the Archdiocesan and parish levels. Even during this difficult time, nearly $13.2 million has been paid to date. Your strong endorsement of and participation in conducting the Appeal has been directly responsible for this year's success. You have helped make it possible for the people of St. Francis de Sales to be generous stewards of God's gifts in ways that strengthen our unity in the Church, as you have helped them to see themselves as disciples of Jesus bringing healing to the world. Thank you.

The funds generated by the Appeal support the healing work of the many archdiocesan ministries, services, parishes and schools in need. On a global scale, those funds support Catholic Relief Services. The first installment on your rebate is enclosed. Please refer to the attached recap for specific details.

Father Ryan, on behalf of the many beneficiaries of the Annual Catholic Appeal, please extend my appreciation to your parishioners for their extraordinary support of this important annual campaign. As I thank God for many gifts, I offer you and the people of St. Francis de Sales my pledge of prayers and a remembrance at the Lord's table.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20008-3610

Prot. N. 12384/20

Your Excellency,

The Secretariat of State of the Holy Father has asked me to share with you, and through you with the members of the Episcopal Conference, the following observations in reference to certain remarks contained in the documentary film "Francesco", by director Evgeny Afineevsky, that have caused various reactions and interpretations in the last few days. The Holy Father has directed that these observations be offered in order to permit an adequate understanding of his words.

More than a year ago, in the course of an interview, Pope Francis responded to two distinct questions at different moments that, in the said documentary, were edited and published as a single response without the necessary context, which has resulted in confusion. The Holy Father, first and foremost, referred in a pastoral manner to the need, within the family, for a son or daughter with a homosexual orientation to never be discriminated against. The following words are intended in this sense: "Las personas homosexuales tienen derecho a estar en familia; son hijos de Dios, tienen derecho a una familia. No se puede echar de la familia a nadie ni hacerle la vida imposible por eso".

The following paragraph from the Post-Synodal Apostolic Exhortation concerning love in the family, Amoris laetitia (2016), can shed light on those responses: "During the Synod, we discussed the situation of families whose members include persons who experience same-sex attraction, a situation not easy either for parents or for children. We would like before all else to reaffirm that every person, regardless of sexual orientation, ought to be respected in his or her dignity and treated

J.

Most Reverend José H. Gomez
President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops
3211 Fourth St N.E.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20017

with consideration, while 'every sign of unjust discrimination' is to be carefully avoided, particularly any form of aggression and violence. Such families should be given respectful pastoral guidance, so that those who manifest a homosexual orientation can receive the assistance they need to understand and fully carry out God's will in their lives."

A subsequent question during that interview pertained rather to a local law of ten years ago in Argentina, regarding "matrimonios igualitarios de parejas del mismo sexo" and to the opposition of the then Archbishop of Buenos Aires towards it. In this respect, Pope Francis affirmed that "es una incongruencia hablar de matrimonio homosexual", adding that, in such a precise context, he had spoken of the right of these persons to legal cover: "lo que tenemos que hacer es una ley de convivencia civil: tienen derecho a estar cubiertas legalmente. Yo defendí eso."

During a 2014 interview, the Holy Father expressed himself as follows: "Marriage is between a man and a woman. Secular States want to justify civil unions in order to regularize the various situations of cohabitation, driven by the necessity to regularize economic matters between persons, such as ensuring health care, for example. This relates to various forms of cohabitation agreement, which I would not be able to list. The different situations must be examined and evaluated, according to their circumstances."

It is therefore clear that Pope Francis was referring to particular State provisions, and not certainly to the doctrine of the Church, which has been reiterated on numerous occasions over the years.

Grateful for your cooperation in this matter, I assure you of my good wishes and remain

Yours faithfully,

✠ Christophe Pierre
Apostolic Nuncio

WHEN WE SAY THE PENITENTIAL ACT AT MASS, WHY DO WE STRIKE OUR CHEST THREE TIMES?

Our rituals and liturgical celebrations are filled with a variety of symbols, some of which also relate to our gestures and physical postures (e.g. kneeling, sitting, processing, making the Sign of the Cross). The custom of striking our breast three times during the "I Confess" of the Penitential Act of the Mass is one of those gestures that is loaded with symbolism.

The tradition of Christian's striking the breast (above the heart) is rooted in the image of Sacred Scripture, especially texts like Psalm 51 which speak of a "humbled contrite heart" or how God heals broken hearts, binding up our wounds (see Psalm 147:3). Early Christian writers like Saint Augustine of Hippo and Saint Jerome also refer to this custom in their writings.

Ultimately, this practice is an expression of our sorrow for those times when we have been guilty of faults and a sign that we are willing to take responsibility for our sins and failings. That we all perform this gesture together is also an act of solidarity, recognizing that none of us, regardless of where we are on our journey of faith, is without fault and the need for grace and forgiveness.

Gift of Love and Our Lady of Tepeyac

GIVING GUIDELINES - 2020

Due to the ongoing pandemic we will need to modify our Christmas giving programs for this year. With the Ministry Center closed for the foreseeable future we will not be able to collect and distribute gifts to our recipient families in the traditional manner.

As you can imagine, our programs have even greater need this year due to many of our families having their employment and wages compromised as a result of Covid-19. Our alternate plan is to provide only gift cards to our families and organizations that we support.

Beginning the week of October 25, 2020 through December 1, 2020 we will be collecting gift cards or money earmarked for the Gift of Love program. Donations can be:

- Mailed to St. Francis, 135 S. Buesching Road, Lake Zurich 60047
- Dropped off at church during the hours of 11:30am - 3:00pm, daily

- Dropped off in a dedicated box in church during the weekend masses
- Through the online giving program:
<https://giving.parishsoft.com/app/giving/stfrancislz>

If you donate gift cards please make the cards in increments of $25 or $50 and only for Walmart, Target or Jewel.

We have an incredibly generous parish and the families and organizations that we serve are so appreciative of all the help that we are able to provide them. I hope that you will continue to support these programs as you have so generously in the past.

In these challenging times counting our blessings has never been more necessary and helping our fellow neighbors has never been more important.

Please call either Jane Clery, 847 370-8933 or Patricia Linares, 847 323-7485 with any questions.

This is where you can drop the gift cards off at in the church
